"On one occasion being at Fort Defiance, and having his chain of appointments, extending off into Michigan, to meet, he determined" that he must go in spite of the fact that the Auglaze River was high and the ice very unsafe to cross on. He started to cross the river on horseback, "but before he reached the opposite shore, the ice gave way, and let them both into the deep water, where they remained for two hours or more, struggling for life, until both nearly perished with cold. When he finally reached the shore, there was no human habitation near, where he could find shelter. Wet and cold, as he was, he had to set out on an Indian trail. After some time he came to a Pottawatamie wigwam, where the squaw afforded him such help and comfort as she could. He and his horse must have perished had it not been for this kind of relief." This story illustrated well the heroism of the early Methodist circuit riders here.

Ship Construction At New Peak

The latest quarterly report, released by Lloyd's Register of Shipping, shows that world ship construction is now estimated at more than 6,000,000 tons—a post-war record construction total!

Great Britian led all of the countries in total construction. Including all types of ships, orders in Great Britian and Northern Ireland amounted to 2,146,402 tons, or over one-third of the world total. The United States was in second-place, with 679,815 tons under construction.

The U. S. position represented a gain from third to second place in world construction totals, Japan having dropped from second to third place between the third and fourth quarter reports covering 1952.

It is interesting to note that Germany ranks fourth in shipbuilding. Thus Japan and Germany, only recently disastrously defeated by the democracies, each rank within the top four in shipbuilding construction today.

Significantly, over half the world's construction today involves tankers, which reflect the world's growing use of oil for transportation and the growing appetite of the world's multiplying vehicular traffic.

The man who attempts something unusual is generally laughed at, if he fails, and hailed as a great guy, if he succeeds.

One trouble with this country is the number of armchair strategists.

First Economy Spending Slash

The House Appropriations Committe recently made the first 500,000,000. It was the first money bill when it reduced a supplemental appropriation bill by $1,500,000,000. It was th first money bill of the Eighty-Third Congress to pass the committee.

The House committee took its biggest bite out of a Department of Defense supplemental appropriations request, when it refused to appropriate any money at all for the Department, which had asked $1,200,000,000. Instead, the Department was directed to shift money from unspent accounts to those that were facing deficits.

Seven other departments, in which various units wanted more money to carry on operations until July 1st, were given stiff instructions by the House committee to scrape up the funds from units with surpluses. Of course, the House committee action is not final, since the first money bill still has some distance to travel through the law-making mill. It does indicate, however, that the House Appropriations Committee is in no mood to appropriate extra funds to departments which have not used up all surplus or carry-over funds.

The committee action comes close to a course suggested by Senator Harry F. Byrd, of Virginia, which would require all government departments and agencies spend carried-over funds and unspent annual appropriation. Senator Byrd estimates that the government departments and agencies, with unspent balances and carry-over funds, have almost $100,000,000,000 tied up, many billions of which being recoverable, for use in the 1953-54 budget.

One of the main faults with some "good" people is their tendency to tell everybody else what they should do.

The Best Capital Is Character

In Independence Hall, Philadelphia, hangs the famous Liberty Bell, which pealed forth the tidings of liberty when the Declaration of Independence was signed. In 1835, the Liberty Bell was cracked as it was tolling for Chief Justice Marshall. For over 100 years it has been silent. Its tones will not be heard again.

A writer has suggested that this bell tells us "something about human character." Here the flaw is equally damaging. A character that is sound, that rings as the perfect bell does, is the character you must have if you would rank well among men and make the most of life. You cannot conceal the flaws. You are going to have heavy blows struck upon you when you get out into life, and a cracked character is a very poor possession to have on hand.

There is nothing which will take the place of high character—a character that embodies the ideals of man's conscience, the Christian ideals of honesty and justice, fairmindedness and integrity; faith in God and trust of of our fellowmen. Education does not take the place of character; we have more education in our country today than ever before and also more crime, divorce, and apparent unhappiness. Wealth does not take the place of character. Nothing can take the place of Christian character — not wealth, not education, not scheming trickery, not a smooth extrovert personality with a smart line or great powers of persuasion — there is no substitute for character, though our modern world has tried hard to find it.

It is Christian character that makes a nation strong. Many of us have admired the little country of Finland and its heroic struggle to reconstruct its economy and pay an exorbitant indemnity to Russia. Some of Finland's leaders a few years ago had a religious awakening; they built bridges of Christian reconciliation with the result that leaders and people began to pull together. Christian character has made Finland strong. Our nation was founded and made great by men and women of Christian character. Today we are in danger of forgetting the source of national greatness. Martin Luther over 400 years ago said: "The prosperity of a country depends, not on the abundance of its revenues, nor on the strength of its fortifications, nor on the beauty of its public buildings; but it consists . . . in its men of character." The Bible teaches this plainly: "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

It is character that is finally the basis of a person's reputation and standing. Napoleon won the mob and the historians for a century, but not those who knew him. Two of his marshals at the end openly insulted him. On the island of Helena where the people saw the vain and morose Napoleon at close hand, there were no monuments erected to him. Today he is little thought of. The kings of Israel were judged on the basis of their character. I imagine that some of the evil kings, could they have foreseen that their names would become infamous in the holy history of the Bible, would have repented. Let each one of us remember that though our name will not appear on the pages of history in all probability, they will appear on the judgment books of heaven.

For fatal flaws in character, many a man has muffed the high opportunities which life had thrown to him. King Saul and many of his successors, muffed their opportunity. Judas Iscariot threw his away. An English statesman, Edmund Burke, had great gifts but a fatal weakness, a bad temper. And so he did not rise to the heights which should have been his.

In our home living, so vital to our happiness, character is fundamental. Many parents foolishly frown on their daughter going with a poor boy of upright character and fine Christian personality. What a poor criteria they have. The young man (or woman) of character, whether poor or rich, is the best bet. The best capital in marriage is Christian character.

Young Robert Burns was given excellent advice from his father, as he tells us "He bade me act a manly part, though I had ne'er a farthing, For without an honest manly heart, no man was worth regarding." Yes, as the Bible teaches "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold."

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

A public record of news and advertising printed in Tecumseh since 1850.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER 24 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, MARCH, 19, 1953 | FIVE CENTS A COPY

Beardsley Reports 3-Year Service As Village Attorney

No sooner had J. C. "Jim" Beardsley submitted a three-year summary of activities performed as village attorney for the People's Party, than newcoming President E. M. Campbell informally announced, "Jim will stay on as attorney for the new council."

It was at Monday night's council meeting, the last under President Ed Heilman, with Campbell, Beach and Manwaring all on hand to preview the council in action, that Beardsley listed these and other pertinent village matters, either accomplished or coming up.

". . . I have worked with several police chiefs and several engineers since taking office. I have found the present incumbents to be on the ball all the time.

"As previously mentioned, the old village records should be micro-filmed before they become further indecipherable. The cost should not greatly exceed $50. I personally will contribute $20 if desired.

"The village owns a great deal more land than is generally realized. I don't think anyone knows al lthe pieces and I will wager we own land which other people have been using for years. This should be more fully investigated.

"We have had about 40 not guilty pleas during my term of office. Of these, all were convicted—either by change of plea or trial—except three. One was for building code violation and the other two for drunken driving . . . drunken driving convictions are hard to obtain and we often found it advisable to reduce the charge to reckless driving in order to induce a guilty plea and a substantial fine.

"I believe it would be well to give the Uniform Michigan Vehicle Code early attention. We have enacted into our present ordinances the state code itself, by reference, in order to save expense. But such does not give us a ready copy.

"We now have a codified system of village ordinances which is up to the minute and is better than any other which I have seen — and I did examine some while working these up. Any councilman should be able to find any ordinance in not over 20 seconds under this new system. I say this not because I did the bulk of the work, but because I am happy the Council gave me the go-ahead on it. It has cost the village in excess of $400 to accomplish this, but it would have cost more than that to do them the old way, and they would have become obsolescent as soon as printed. However, the system must be kept going or the money has not been well spent. I will gladly lend by Ditto machine to the village at any time for this purpose without cost. Further, the distinction between ordinances, resolutions and operating instructions for village employees must be always kept in mind if the system is not to get fouled up again."

Following the report, President Heilman praised Beardsley for untiring efforts in serving the village as attorney and for "his very reasonable rates." The council members added to this praise.

Campbell then informally said he was satisfied with Beardsley as village attorney and if the other council members thought as he did, "Jim" would be re-appointed in the future.

GOODWILL PICK-UP TUESDAY, MRS. BURCH NEW LOCAL AGENT

The familiar red Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks will be in Tecumseh on Tuesday to collect usable household materials to provide jobs and training for the 330 physically handicapped men and women employed in the Goodwill Workshops in Detroit. Contributions of materials to the rehabilitation program may be made by phoning Mrs. Carl Burch at 288-W or by addressing a post-card to Goodwill Industries, 6522 Brush Street, Detroit 2, Michigan.

Last year's party dress, an outgrown snowsuit, a broken doll or an unused table when sent to Goodwill Industries will help provide a job with wages and training for disabled adults. Clothing, shoes, toys, hats, small appliances, furniture and other household items are the raw materials which were used to provide jobs paying over a half-million dollars to handicapped men and women during 1952.

Goodwill has employed Mrs. Burch, a widow, as the local representative to accept calls from contributors.

The Goodwill truck will also be in Deerfield on Monday, Macon, Britton and Clinton on Wednesday. Representatives in those communities are Mrs. Melvin Travis, Macon; Rev. Robert Bryce, Deerfield; William Kuster, Britton and Mrs. Richard Ward, Clinton.

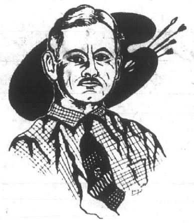
Bryan



The Herald is grateful to versatile Earl Bryan, local artist renown, who again turned cartoonist to express his views on the current danger America faces from Communism with the above drawing. Previously Bryan, shown in self portrait left, gave Herald readers a timely pre-village election cartoon. The drawing above shows Stalin (it was completed before the Russian ruler died) proposing peace to Uncle Sam while shooting the bewiskered man in the back. Draining America's lifeblood are UN subversives, spies, Reds, etc. A very fitting portrayal of a vital, current threat to our nation's strength. Bryan needs little introduction locally for his skilled artistry, church decorations, painting and sign lettering have made him a well known part of the community for the past 18 years. Bryan came here from Toledo in 1935. Previously he had studied at the Chicago Art Institute and had done a variety of painting and sign work starting at the early age of 13. Today his second love is cartooning and keeping up with the local, national and world wide news. His hobby — painting around the house.

53 More Parking Meters Installed

Village workmen are busy this week completing the installation of 53 new parking meters on three side streets.

The meters, which cost around $40 apiece, were paid for last year and have been in storage until Engineer Ed Nelson could set the steel poles in the ground this spring. The poles are five feet long and are anchored in a concrete base. They are now being painted an aluminum color with meter heads going on as soon as the paint is dry.

Location of the new parking meters are on three streets:

● North Pearl, between Chicago and Logan, both sides.

● Logan, between Pearl and Ottawa, both sides.

● North Ottawa, between Chicago and Logan, both sides.

The new village budget allows the purchase and installation of additional meters sometime later this year on East Chicago, after the first boulevard is removed.

President E. C. Heilman pointed out the prime purpose of parking meters is not to raise revenue as much as it is to offer Tecumseh's increasing number of shoppers, parking space on the downtown business streets.

He had lived in Detroit since 1936, previously residing in Toledo. Services were conducted by the Rev. E. H. DuBois of Britton.

Sports Banquet Wednesday Night

A University of Michigan coach, Matt Patanelli of the basketball staff, will be principal speaker Wednesday night when Tecumseh high athletes and their parents join in the annual sports banquet in the school cafeteria.

Principal Neville Hart said that no public tickets will be sold to make the affair strictly a get-together for the school's athletes and their parents. Sponsoring the banquet is the Parent's Club headed by Ned Baldwin.

Patanelli will talk on the importance of a sports program and show movies of both U of M football and basketball games. Varsity and Junior Varsity basketball awards will be presented and the Southeastern Michigan Conference cage trophy will be formally presented.

Hart said the program starts at 7 p.m.

CHAMBER WARNS OF OUTSIDE SALESMEN

Knights of the road bringing culture of the outside world to our "backward" village are here again and with them seem to be the usual number of complaints about false claims.

Warning in particular goes out in regard to roofing and siding salesmen operating from non-existing offices. These are offering extra-sales certificates, model home claims, and contracting at higher prices offered by local firms.

Two rules of safety suggested by members of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce are:

1. Find out if the salesman represents a Tecumseh business place before you buy.
2. If he does not, compare price, quality and all features fairly with the same items on sale in Tecumseh. Get in touch with a local dealer and compare before you sign.

You can buy it in Tecumseh — cheaper!

School Has Less Money To Educate More Pupils

BY JAMES McDOWELL

Who can provide for 14% more pupils for 8% less in operating funds? Yet that is what is expected of the Tecumseh Board of Education for 1953-1954. There will be approximately 14% more children and we will receive approximately 8% less from State funds than this year.

This year the public schools have enrolled 1,180,000 children. Next year the enrollment is expected to reach 1,250,000 children. During the six year period 1945-51 the annual increase in school enrollments averaged 22,000. Prior to that time the average increase in enrollment each year had been approximately 10,000. Last year school enrollments increased by 39,000. This year the increase is estimated at 70,000 and the same estimate is made for next year.

Recently Michigan schools have needed 6,200 teachers each year. The figure this year is probably nearer 7,000 new teachers. Our teacher education institutions are certificating 4,800 teachers. Not all of these 4,800 teachers, however, enter the teaching profession. Some are inducted into the armed service, some get married, some enter industry or business, and others fail to teach because of ill health or for some other reason.

In spite of the fact that we estimate getting about 1,300 teachers from other states there is still a great shortage of teachers in Michigan. Last year the state issued approximately 7,300 special certificates. The figure for this year may be higher. If we could influence more of the teachers who have been certificated to enter teaching and if we could influence more who have taught for a few years to remain in teaching, we could solve our teacher shortage problem.

The Future Teacher Clubs and the efforts of individual teachers have been very helpful in interesting outstanding high school graduates to consider teaching as a professional career.

The following table gives a comparison of school property taxes, state grants and federal grants for 1945-46, which was the year preceding the adoption of the sales tax diversion amendment and the estimate for this year, 1952-53.

Property Taxes	$56,000,000.00	$ 90,000,000.00
State Grants	60,000,000.00	184,000,000.00
Federal Grants	4,000,000.00	6,000,000.00
	$120,000,000.00	$280,000,000.00

From 1932 to 1946 state aid increased from $22,000,000 to $60,000,000. Since 1946 due to the sales tax diversion amendment, state aid has increased from $60,000,000 to $184,000,000. This is more than 3 times the state aid for 1945-46.

You will note also that for the present school year state grants will be twice that of local school property taxes so that on the average the state grants-in-aid are paying two-thirds of the cost of our public schools.

State aid from the general fund of the state next year will be $106,333,876.20. This is one million dollars less than for this year. State equalized valuations will be up 900 million dollars. This could affect the state aid deductions by $1,800,000. Not all schools however get general fund

No "Lame Duck" Session For Old Village Council

FINAL MEETING WAS BUSY ONE, GARBAGE CONTRACT GRANTED

Village business which could wait was tabled Monday night for future action by retiring president E. C. "Ed" Heilman who made every effort to have things in order for the new council which takes over April 1.

Monday was the last meeting of the old governing body as President Heilman, Charles Mensing, Paul Clauda and Carl Fosbender stepped out of public office.

E. M. Campbell takes over as Citizen's Party President at the next meeting April 6 when Clarence Beach, Glenn Driscoll and Vern Manwaring join with trustees Joe Rohweder, Howard Truesdale and George McCombs. Mrs. Naomi Sallows continues as village clerk.

First item which was tabled for future reference Monday night was nearly a $2,000 village expense to participate with the state in buying new stop lights and flashers at various intersections in the village. Reference was made to possible future action to make South Evans street a one-way lane going south and South Ottawa one-way going north.

This is to relieve the problem of handling Products traffic. However it was mentioned that Russell road may be blacktopped soon and a new road constructed from the Products parking lot to Russell road routing south and west bound traffic away from town.

One item which was passed upon was the appointment of Engineer Ed Nelson as street administrator. Heilman asked Campbell if this met with his approval and the new President agreed, "He is the logical man."

Then a six month's contract for garbage hauling was granted to the Jones Hauling Service of Jackson at $1.25 per customer per month to be done the year around on a twice weekly basis. The Jones firm also has similar contracts in Adrian, Clinton, Manchester and Brooklyn. They operate with enclosed water-tight trucks which have hydraulic baling equipment in the back that presses all the garbage together. The village ordinance provides the Jones firm will empty up a 10 gallon drum of refuse from the premises. They will accept other rubbish aside from garbage but not such items as bricks or stones.

BACK AT IT — Michigan's political merry-go-round is back on the whirl with the state's biennial election coming up April 6. Schools, highways, finances and public welfare are the main topics of controversy between the state's Republican and Democratic forces. One politician, who should know what he's talking about, isn't afraid to speak up.

He is Eugene I. Van Antwerp, Democratic candidate for State Highway commissioner, who opposes Charles M. Zeigler. Van Antwerp clearly states "Michigan's highway mess is causing enormous economic waste. The lack of any program is of serious consequence and the incumbent Republican commissioner openly admits that he has no plan for road building and he openly admits that highway programs cannot be planned more than three months in advance.

Whether Van Antwerp or Zeigler has the best plan or which is best qualified personally for the job, is only for the state's voters to decide, but the issues of the campaign are worthy of editorial praise from The Herald for they all add up to bring the people closer to their government. Everyone is affected by our highways, from the casual motorist out for a Sunday drive to the industrialist, but few give the important highway program (or lack of program as the Demos claim) a second thought.

EASTER SEALS — Again the beautiful Easter season approaches and that means time to buy our share of the Seals, all symbols of hope and resurrection to untold numbers of crippled persons who must be helped to help themselves.

Easter Seals are not new. Since 1934 they have been accepted by the public as a dignified means of financing work for crippled children and afford everyone an opportunity to contribute to a cause in which they believe and in whatever amount they can afford, from dollars to dimes.

REPORT OF PROGRESS — We have just received the annual report of progress from Michigan State college upon its completion of ninety-seven years educational service to the state. Signed by John A. Hannah, president, the report clearly reveals MSC has taken its proper place among the great educational institutions of the world. Yes, of the world, for the once small agricultural college now ranks first in many fields. Looking over the vast report, we can see what great strides of advancement have been made in recent years to now rank State as high academically as athletically.

MODEL SALESMEN — One hundred years ago, the Grand Haven Times suggested the following rules for their local tradesmen to make good business friends for the community:

> "Trust nothing to speculation and avoid all paper money schemes to deceive the public and uphold false credit; acquire neatness and dispatch in everything you do but yet avoid the affected bustle, cringing smile and vulgarity of some tradesmen; talk to your customer like a man of sense and business, not like a mountebank; never trade beyond your stock or give or take too large credit; for the first five or six years, a tradesman ought to consider himself worth nothing, or as having no money which can be taken out of the business and spent on the luxuries of life."

FAVORITE PRAYER — "Let the words of my mouth, and the meditations of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer." — Psalm XIX:14.

Why Do We Bring These Messages To You . . . ?

We feel that you are entitled to know as much as possible about funeral needs before the necessity in your own family. We have found that folks like to be informed in this manner. They like to be closer to our business as well as any other that they will at some time use. Your comments are welcome.

DEALER ANNOUNCES NEW MACHINE

Partridge Implement Co., local Allis-Chalmers dealer, announces the receipt of their first new model "66" six-foot Allis-Chalmers all-crop Harvester. The first showing and display of this new machine at their store is set for March 21.

The family-sized farm combine was introduced to the American farm in 1935 when Allis-Chalmers marketed the first all-crop harvester. Since that time more than a quarter million of these machines have been placed on American farms. Cutting a million acres of grain a day, during the years of World War II, they assured this nation and its allies with a plentiful harvest—something that would not have been possible with older methods.

When seed imports were cut off during this same war period, this machine made it possible for the American farmer to save domestic seed in greater quantities, thereby eliminating this nation's dependence on the Old World. Partridge says that the all-crop harvester has successfully threshed 106 different types of grain, seed and beans, raised throughout the world.

Partridge says that the new "66" has a new six-foot header, a new straw-rack that assures greater capacity and smooth flow of the straw over the rack, and many other refinements, and they invite all local farmers to see this new six-foot all-crop harvespast two years, has been in both

BOOK SHELVES

Library

If there were something that you wished to know, and if the person who knew more about that subject than anyone else in the world lived a few blocks away, you would probably try very hard to reach him. Well, that person is just up the street from you, in the reference pages of your library.

It is difficult to imagine a subject in the field of general information that is not covered in one or more of the seven sets of encyclopedia on the shelves. They span a period from the "Century Dictionary and Encyclopedia," published in 1890 to the latest volume of the latest edition of the "Americana," and include the new "Britannica," twenty volumes of "The World Book," a set of "The International" and of "Compton's Pictorial Encyclopedia." Two or three are not the latest editions, but while information may have a date line, knowledge does not, and the coverage in some of the earlier sets is more comprehensive than in the newer ones.

Those dealing with somewhat more specialized topics are, "The Catholic Encyclopedia" including "The Constitution, Doctrine, Discipline and History of the Church" and the "Encyclopedia of American Agriculture" by Liberty Hyde Bailey, the Bible of the student of agriculture.

Wider views on many subjects may be obtained from the bound and indexed volumes of the "National Geographic" magazine which covers many years, and still more convenient and complete are the classified articles on various topics from the Geographic bound in pamphlet form and filed in individual cases labeled according to country or subject matter.

For additional questions regarding animal life there are "Wonders of Animal Life" by famous writers on natural history, "Animate Creation" by the Rev. J. G. Wood (beautifully illustrated) and five volumes of the "Standard Library of Natural History."

For quick reference in other lines there are "Famous First Facts" and "The Modern Wonder Book of Knowledge" dealing with modern science. For one who "runs to read" there is a sturdy volume, "Lincoln's Library of Essential Information," a book of condensed facts, edited with Abraham Lincoln's ideal of self education in mind.

This list contains only the reference works of a general nature. Others will be given in later "Book Shelves," but meanwhile if you would write a paper, settle an argument or merely know the satisfaction that comes from learning something more of the world around you, "ask the man who knows" at your library.

Grade School News

Brownville Kindergarten
Miss Hammack

We are hoping that spring is here to stay. We had fun in the snow but it is lots of fun to come to school without our snowsuits.

We are learning all the names of the letters in the alphabet and to write them. We are also learning our numbers and how to write them.

Some days we work on pages in our workbook so we are really busy with all of our schoolwork.

We have a new boy in our morning class. His name is Gary Klingensmith and he used to go to school in Pennsylvania.

We have had quite a few birthday treats from our recent six year olds. They are Marie Kohler, Joel Rutherford and Sherrie Springer.

We are all looking forward to Easter. We are planning to make our own spring bonnets and are going to wait until then to wear them. We hope everyone has a very happy Easter.

West Branch Kindergarten
Mrs. Updike

We are very busy getting ready for our annual spring program. All of our mothers will meet in our room on March 20, at 3:30 to make some plans.

We are slowly getting back to school after chicken pox and colds. We will be glad when everyone is here again as we have so many important things to do.

We have four stories that we have made up and we like to read them. Many of us can read them alone. We know that this is helping us to be ready to be first grade children. We heard on the radio about a little six year old boy who lives far away in Fargo, North Dakota. He has been in bed for a year and he gets very lonesome. We have been sending him pretty cards and letters to cheer him up a little. We find it makes us happy ourselves when we do something for someone else.

First Grade
Mrs. VanValkenburg

The boys and girls in the Busy Bees class are very proud to have read seven books this year. The Busy Beavers class have read five books. We have studied nearly half of the book, "Fun with Dick and Jane."

In writing and language we have finished the first book, "We Talk, Spell, and Write" and are ready now for book two.

We have a new game called Phonetic Quizmo. It is played like Bingo except that we have letters instead of numbers on the cards. If we cannot recognize the letter spoken by the leader, then we can't possibly "Bingo." Later there are more complicated games to play with Quizmo. The children have a great deal of fun playing, and incidentally learning the names of the letters, their sounds, and the initial letters of many words.

We have written a letter and sent cards to a boy named Covey Henderson who has been in a hospital in Fargo, North Dakota, for a year.

Second Grade
Miss LaPointe

In a contest in telling time the boys have won. The girls had a much lower score than the boys.

We are hearing the story of "The Dutch Twins" and incidentally learning many interesting facts about the Netherlands.

Michael Rice gave us a good report on his recent trip to Florida. He brought many pictures that illustrated what he saw. He visited a reptile farm where he saw different types of snakes and alligators.

Sixth Grade
Mrs. Runk

Gary Abner and Greg Mason who were away on winter vacations are back in school again. Gary showed us colored slides his family took of their trip to California. Greg came back from Florida with a nice tan and many stories of his interesting experiences.

Our class officers for this six weeks period are: President, Sharron Muhn; vice-president, Marilyn Mack; secretary, Bettie Kiser; and treasurer, Donna Nixon .

Gerald Kruse's uncle, Ralph Peotter, showed us colored slides he made in Paris one day last week. This was especially interesting to us as we had just finished studying France. He told us many things which, along with the pictures, made Paris very real.

MRS. WELLINGTON WOTRING NAMED P. T. A. PRESIDENT

"The Intelligence of Children and Adults" was the subject on which Dr. Richard Hammel addressed the March meeting of the Parent-Teachers Assocoiation in the Central school building last Thursday evening. Dr. Hammel traced the mental development of humans and the ages of his peak capacity for learning.

During the business meeting William Wright reported the latest developments in the matter of playground improvement. The committee has conferred with both the Council and the Board of Education and at this meeting Aden Mead was added to the committee to represent the Board of Education and they will meet with the new council in the near future. It is estimated that the project will cost $2,000 and the P.T.A. voted to give $100 to start the needed subscriptions.

The nominating committee reported the following officers for the coming year who were duly elected: President, Mrs. Wellington Wotring; vice president, Mrs. Murray Day; teacher vice president, Miles Runk; secretary, Mrs. George Anderson; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Beland; historian, Mrs. Lawrence Price; parliamentarian, the Rev. B. O. Bashore.

Britton

Pozarzycki—Maschino

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maschino of Rt. 2 Britton announce the marriage of their daughter, Karen Lee to Henry J. Pozarzycki, jr., son of Henry J. Pozarzycki, sr. of Petersburg and Mrs. Helen Ruchi of Toledo which took place Saturday at 10 a.m. in the home of Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Clifford in the presence of their immediate families. The Rev. Clifford performed the double ring ceremony.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Maschino, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. Floral arrangements of snapdragons, gladioli and daisies enhanced the beauty of the wedding scene.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, chose a grey suit with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage. Her attendant wore a navy suit with pink and white accessories and a white orchid.

Mrs. Maschino, the bride's mother wore a navy dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses for the occasion.

A dinner was served in the Maschino home following the ceremony to 29 guests. Lighted tapers and a lovely three tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom and yellow and white daisies around the base decorated the table.

The bride will graduate with the 1953 class of Britton high school. Mr. Pozarzycki is with the Medical Group stationed at Chanute Airforce Base at Rantoul, Ill. They are on a week's trip south.

Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, Red Cross chairman of Ridgeway township, reports that the Red Cross drive is well under way. Mrs. Lester Edelbrock is chairman of Ridgeway village; Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, Britton village; Robert Welker, Ridgeway rural with Mrs. Minnie Gittus, co-chairman.

The musical, "Say It With Music," presented Wednesday evening in the high school gym under the direction of Richard Lower, opened with the high school band playing "The Star Spangled Banner," "America, The Beautiful" and "Patriotic Overture" followed by a clarinet solo, "Lady of Spain" by Karen Maschino. The junior chorus sang "I Passed by Your Window," "Whistle A Happy Tune" and "Skip To My Lou" and "Bells of St. Mary's;" trombone solo, "Lords Prayer" by Fred Cross; cornet duet, "Nature's Praise of God" by Lowell Bush and Ronald Croll; band, "Irish Overture" and "Fantasy;" high school chours, "Road to Mandalay," "Water Boy," "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" and 'Swanee;" saxaphone solo, "Andante and Finale" by Judy Kniffen; cornet solo, "Desert Song" by Lowell Bush; junior band, "Rosebud Waltz" and "Magdelin Waltz;" saxaphone solo, "Abide With Me" by Larry Ivan and the combined bands played a hymn.

At the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday evening Paul Roland of the Britton Implement Co. was given his Kiwanis pin and accepted as a new member. John Olds and Virgil Bortel were visitors. Mr. Bortel gave a talk on his 15 years of leadership for the 4-H Club boys and girls. Archie Spohr was voted as a delegate to attend the National Convention at New York City in June. The ways and means committee reported a show and dance at the high school gym, April 8, the proceeds to go for the new community building.

School Has Less

state aid so not all of this valuation will be used.

The $70,000 increase in membership this year will necessitate $10,500,000 more for the formula next year.

Non-Resident tuition costs are $5,900,000 this year. Probably will be $6,200,000 next year.

Transportation costs are $8,200,000 this year. Probably will be $9,000,000 next year.

Primary School Interest Fund was 37 million this year. Probably 35 million next year.

If these tentative estimates are fairly accurate, gross allowances will be reduced next year to $140 per elementary member and $160 per high school member. (This would be the same gross allowance as for 1951-52, but $13 less per child than for 1952-53.)

The problems are further complicated by (1) decreases in tax allocations to schools made by many County tax allocation boards, (2) declining purchasing power of the dollar, (3) children, other than kindergarten, on one-half and some on one-third day sessions, (4) competition with other governmental units for the tax dollar, and (5) competition for manpower.

In the face of these facts, Tecumseh schools will have approximately 200 more children to educate for which we will receive no state aid as explained in last week's article. This coupled with a general reduction of approximately $13.00 per child already in our system will make it impossible to maintain the present standard of educational facilities let alone improve as planned.

We are now living in a civilization which is the most complex in history. Our children are constantly faced with problems of which you as parents were never aware and undoubtedly would have been unable to solve. A greater number of our children are attending colleges and universities but a still greater number are capable individuals who have insufficient funds to carry out college plans. We spent as much in one week of all-out war in World War II as we spend nationally for education in a year. If we would take the amount spent for two weeks of war and spend it on education the security of democracies would be enhanced and your childrens lives made happier.

Consider then an ambitious program of education for your children. See to it that funds are provided and that adequately trained teachers available. Make your school facilities at least as modern as the barns in which you keep your prize stock. Provide adequate salaries for your teachers that they may live normal lives free from monetary woes, maintain home ties, and raise families without need for their wives or husbands working too. Then, COUNT THE COST AND BALANCE WITH YOUR CHILD'S MANIFOLD EXHIBITED GROWTH EDUCATIONALLY.

Wayne Davis was taken into the pack in a candlelight ceremony conducted by Cubmaster Gilbert Nightwander. He was assisted in the induction by J. W. Naugle, chairman of the pack committee, pack committeemen Rolland Reister, LeRoy Titley, R. C. Osburn, and George Meads.

The following boys received awards: under the Wolf rank, Wolf badge, gold and one silver arrow to Robert Richards, gold arrows to Gary Hicks, Charles Osburn, and Michael Rohrer, gold and one silver arrow to Kent Naugle and Richard Meads, one silver arrow to Robert Bonner, and two silver arrows to Joe Anderson; under the Bear rank, gold arrow to Jerome Kemp.

The next pack meeting will be held in Fellowship Center April 20, when the theme of the month will be "Life in the Hawaiian Islands." At this time boys who are interested in becoming Cub Scouts next year are invited to attend with their parents.

"Cubby," the attendance award, was won by Den No. 11, with 87 percent attendance. The den is led by Mrs. R. C. Osburn, assisted by Mrs. Robert Bonner and den chief Larry Anderson. In closing the group sang "America the Beautiful," with Mrs. Gilbert Nighswander accompanying at the piano.

Aden Mead appeared before the council in request of curb and gutter on the south side of West Brown street. Plans have been announced to put in curb and gutter on the north side of that street this summer and Mead said he thought the village did both sides of a street. After a brief discussion, the matter was referred to Engineer Nelson for study. Mead agreed to bring the matter of paying for curb and gutter on the Brownville school property up at the next meeting of the school board.

The ordinance covering charges for the sewage disposal plant operating fund was changed to allow payment of 50% of the normal water bill for commercial users. Residential cost remains at 12c per 1,000 gallons of water consumed.

A petition from Albert Seitz to rezone the east side of Maumee street between Chicago and Logan to business "A" was accepted and scheduled for public hearing on April 20.

In closing President Heilman said he was proud of the curb and gutter which has been put in during recent years and was glad to hear that Campbell favors the program and plans to continue with it. He said that curb and gutters are necessary to maintain good streets.

MONDAY CLUB

Forty members of the Monday Club met at the Methodist church at 2 p.m. this week for a trip to Macon to visit Boysville, the school conducted by a Catholic Brotherhood on the site of the former cooperative project of the late Henry Ford.

The members of the Brotherhood met the club caravan and conducted the members on a tour of the grounds and buildings after they had been greeted by a short concert given by the school band. The buildings visited included the woodworking and machine shops, library, gymnasium dormitories, recreation rooms, dining hall and chapel. They were shown articles made by the boys in the wood shop which is one of the more popular activities as was indicated by the shelves and furniture in the library, most of which had been made by the boys themselves.

In one of the two dormitories is a pleasant reception room where boys may entertain visitors on Sunday. The boys are housed in the dormitories according to age groups. The gymnasium is large and well equipped and has a stage so it may be converted into a theatre, while the recreation rooms have games, TV sets, and pool tables for leisure hours.

When the group reached the dining room they were shown a film displaying the buildings and personel at another "Boysville" of the Order located at Filboult, Ind. This has been in operation for thirty-one years and is more developed than the local school. Following the film, Brother Hilarion, head of the school, explained the life and activities of the one hundred and twenty-five boys under his care and answered questions of the group. The members were then served ice cream, cake and coffee by their hosts.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual spring luncheon April 13.

CUB SCOUT PACK 4

The regular monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack No. 4 was held Monday evening in the Baptist church, with 105 parents and Cubs in attendance.

The opening Flag Ceremony was conducted by Den 9, whose den mother is Mrs. Harold Morey and assistant Mrs. Anna Grigg. The boys of Den 9 led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Five new Cub Scouts were inducted into the pack and presented Bobcat pins in a ceremony conducted by cubmaster Samuel A. Whitney and pack secretary Donald Cobb. The new Cub Scouts are Earl McKenzie, Bradley McCombs, Robert Tooman, Kent Lucas, and Ellery Ferguson.

Pack No. 4 chose Indians as the theme of his meeting and all the Cubs were colorfully dressed in Indian headdresses, war paint, Indian blankets and beads. Den No. 4, under Mrs. Hugh Andrews and Mrs. Donald Beevers presented an Indian dance with tom-tom accompaniment. This was followed by an Indian rain dance by Den No. 7 whose den mother is Mrs. Max Smith assisted by Mrs. Al Williams. Smoking the peace pipe was portrayed by the Cub Scouts of Den No. 6 under den mother Mrs. Dan Betzoldt and assistant Mrs. Bigelow.

It was announced that Pack No. 4 will meet with Pack No. 73 for the May meeting which is the closing meeting of the Cub Scout year. Plans for this meeting have yet to be completed and will be announced at a later date.

The future financial policy of the pack will be that each Cub Scout will pay the dues for each den meeting whether in attendance at the meeting or not. The dues will be turned in to Reginald Dixon, pack treasurer each month by the den mothers.

Awards earned during the past month were presented to the following boys: Wolf badge, Ronald Dixon, Eugene Verrier, Gordon Williams; silver arrow under Wolf badge, Richard Moore; Bear badge, Jay Andrews; silver arrow under Bear badge, Kenneth Beevers and Daniel Morey; Lion badge, John LeBaron and Daniel Morey. Two Year Service Stars were awarded to Jay Andrews, Jim Creger, and Billy LaPrad.

Each den had arranged interesting exhibits of Indian lore handcraft.

"Cubby" was awarded to Den 7 for the next month for having the highest percentage present at the pack meeting.

The meeting was brought to a close with an Indian lullaby sung by Den 2 accompanied by Mrs. Crosby. Mrs. Rutherford is den mother of Den 2 assisted by Mrs. Ned Rosacrans.

MUSIC CLUB

Mrs. Ralph Westgate entertained the Music Club at her home on E. Kilbuck street Tuesday evening. There was an early chorus practice at seven o'clock followed by a business meeting presided over by Mrs. Westgate. The theme of the program, which was under the supervision of Mrs. Joe Rice, was "The Easter Story" and was carried out by the reading of the Bible narration of the sequence of events interspersed with hymns appropriate to each. Mrs. Rice was reader and the entire club took part in the singing. As some of the most moving of our sacred music has been written of the Easter season, the program was very impressive.

The hostess, with the assistance of Mrs. Thomas Gallant and Miss Edith Ingersoll then served refreshments.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. P. B. Hardy with Mrs. Wilbur Boyce in charge of the topic, "The History of Hymns."

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the ninth in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

The Methodists in 1831 held three Camp Meetings in Michigan; one was in Oakland County. A new young preacher, Elijah Pilcher, one day noted a group of young men around a fire on the edge of the encampment who seemed disposed to make a disturbance. He disguised himself in a farmer's clothes, and dropped in among them as if he were one of them to hear their plans. To his surprise he noted another young minister in the group, our own James Finley.

Some people some distance away were holding a meeting in a tent, with much shouting. Pilcher suggested that they have a meeting too, as the folks in the tent seemed ot be enjoying themselves so well. "If you will hear I'll preach." The others agreed. "Well, now," said he, "you must all agree to stand by me and hear all I've got to say." They agreed. He took off his hat and took for his text, "Prepare to meet thy God," and preached for an hour or more.

Soon after he began two of them suspected they had got into a trap. Other people quickly gathered around and they could not very well leave. He preached, setting forth the necessity of a preparation, and the aweful consequences if they did not prepare. Then came a prayer, another exhortation on the necessity and excellency of religion. James W. Finley struck up a then familiar song, "Ye simple souls that stray far from the paths of peace," etc.

After the meeting was dismissed, the young men retired by a group again, our own James W. Finley still among them. "Well," said one, "this is a new thing. I have heard of a wolf in sheep's clothing, but I never before heard of a sheep in wolf's clothing." "Well," said another, "we must be very careful what we say; for, just as likely as not, before we are aware of it, one of these preachers will be right here among us."

In 1831 there was an extensive revival in Tecumseh, in which Rev. Alanson Darwin, first Presbyterian pastor here, and Rev. Joseph Bangs, labored together. "Over thirty joined the Presbyterian Church in one day. The Methodists also share largely in the fruits of the revival." Rev. Darwin died Dec. 15, 1831, at the age of 48.

Rev. James Finley was among the pioneer Methodist circuit-riders, who paid a heavy price for his faithfulness and zeal. The historian relates: "These exposures and labors were too much for his physical condition, and towards the close of his second year, his health failed. He went into Ohio ad then into Kentucky, but never fully recovered from the shock of these years." After a period of intense suffering, he died at an early age in June 1838, in the presence of his weeping mother and family, expressing his confident faith: "Oh! how precious the Lord is to my soul! Glory! Glory!" Finley was in truth, one of the martyre of the Church. His untimely death was part of the price paid for the establishment of this Church, and its sister Churches in this area.

With housecleaning and yard work already under way, you and your family need an attractive, light dessert to give the finishing sweet touch to an evening meal. Try this refrigerator pie, made bright with flavor with silver dollar size vanilla wafers. You'll find them in the yellow striped cellophane bag at your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department.

Vanilla Wafer Pie

- ¼ lb. vanilla wafers, crushed
- ⅓ cup melted margarine or butter
- ½ cup melted margarine or butter
- 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
- 1 egg, beaten
- 12 marshmallows, cut fine
- 1 small can crushed pineapple, drained
- 2 tablespoons chopped maraschino cherries
- ½ pint whipping cream

Crush wafers between waxed paper with rolling pin. Combine crushed wafers and the ⅓ cup butter, reserve ¼ cup, and press remainder firmly into a 9-inch buttered pie pan. Cream the ½ cup butter and blend with sugar. Add beaten egg and beat well. Add marshmallows, drained pineapple and cherries. Fold in cream, whipped stiff, and pour into pie shell. Sprinkle the ½ cup crumbs on top and chill overnight in refrigerator. Pipe each serving with whipped cream, if desired.

On Wonder Cures

From time to time, the average citizen is confronted with reports that some herb doctor, or wizzard of the arts, has cured cancer, polio or some serious heart diseases with a new or simple method. It is surprising how many Americans fall for these reports and seek out the so-called wizzard and pay large sums of money for miralce treatments.

The worst part of this susceptibility is that it sometimes prevents those taken in from being cured at all. Hope for some mysterious, simple cure has often led to postponement in seeking a specialist, who could have cured the disease if he had caught it in time. Not caught in time, the disease often proves fatal.

Those seriously sick should seek a thoroughly accredited doctor, or a specialist in the field concerned. There are no miracle cures, and no miracle-makers. The ignorant patient who lets himself believe in such is ruining his health or his pocketbook, or both.

The Doors Of Religion

Doors of varied description and proportion confront the entire world in these momentous days. Every major experience has a door which opens into new and divergent conditions. The interpreted meaning of doors hinges upon their opening and closing—. We find some doors in life forever closed to us and others eternally open. Some doors swing shut at certain stages during a lifetime, while still others open and close periodically.

The type of door we push against most frequently pretty much reveals the story of our lives. Some doors, encountered in the mansion called life, are hung so that they swing in. Accessibility and convenience dictate regarding these facts. When double doors are a necessity for insulation, etc., one door swings out while the other swings in. The revolving door is considered a must for buildings with a tremendous amount of traffic, yet this type of door has captured more of our modern generation than we realize.

The old familiar "swinging doors" have been identified with certain lubricating emporiums which possess a name all their own—. These doors have a hypnotic power which encourages, even demands that the participant get on and ride!

However, the material composition of the door also has its effect on us. The glass door enables us to see what is ahead, the steel door embodies strength, and the wooden door displays the beauty of design.

Now the doors of religion express the believer's reaction to the above principles and Christ's familiar plea — "Behold, I stand at the door and knock—." It is too easy to forget that the latch and lock are on the inside of the door to our heart. As Christ stands without, the only way He can come in is for us to open the door! We need to be reminded that doors should swing into our Christian experience of friendship and worship. Then the doors will naturally swing open to enlarged service and opportunity.

The demand of secular details can easily make us victims of a revolving or swinging door. Therefore, the doors of our lives need glass for visibility, steel for courage, and wood for warmth. Then, with thoughtful consideration we should invite Almighty God to direct us to the doors of opportunity and help us lock on the outside the doors of temptation and failure! Make sure the doors of our lives are open to Christ and that we hear Him as He knocks!

Aye,
George E. Walworth

Locals and Personals

Among those from Tecumseh who attended the Fred Waring concert in Ann Arbor Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Naser and sons Tom and John, Mrs. R. K. Anderson and Miss Patricia Purcell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keeney returned last week from a month's vacation in Florida. They spent some time in Fort Lauderdale and visited friends and relatives in Fort Myers.

Mrs. Barbara Pfalz of Detroit spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Earl Lindsley. Mrs. Pfalz had just returned from a five weeks Caribbean tour. She left New York January 30, on the Mauritannia and visited several South American ports and the Virgin Islands. On her return she spent a week in New York with relatives before coming to Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bowen came home last weekend from a three weeks tour of Florida. Going south they were accompanied by Mr. Bowen's brother, Ralph Bowen of Detroit, who had left his car in Florida on the occasion of the sudden death of his wife while they were in that state.

Mrs. Ella Aten is recovering from an illness of several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. McConnell.

Friends of Mrs. Elwood Comfort, who was called to Tampa, Florida, the last of January because of the illness from polio of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ned Comfort, have received the good news of her almost complete recovery. A Tampa paper carried a full page account of her illness showing the transition from an iron lung to active work in a few weeks and attributed much of her speedy improvement to the constant prayer services of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice and son Michael, who spent two weeks in the northern part of Florida, returned home last week.

Elwyn Green of Green Road in Raisin township received severe burns from live steam while working at the Tecumseh Products Friday. He was taken to Herrick Memorial hospital where his injuries proved to be painful but not critical.

Glenn Large of W. Pottawatamie st., who has been confined to his home with illness for the past six months, was able to return to his work at the Products Company last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Aebersold returned Saturday from a trip of seven weeks which took them from Florida to California. They spent some time at Orlando, Florida, with their son, Capt. Gregg Aebersold, a Jet-Gunnery instructor with the Army Air Force, and his family, and later visited Mr. Aebersold's sister, Mrs. Eli Bush at Hollywood, California, enjoying many points of interest along the way.

Mrs. W. Hugh Browne and Mrs. Lawrence Blum attended the Southwest Convocation meeting in Ann Arbor at St. Andrew's Episcopal church last Tuesday.

Mrs. Neville Hart, who underwent surgery in Ann Arbor two weeks ago, returned to her home Thursday and is convalescing satisfactorily.

SK/3 David Lott visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Lott and his grandmother, Mrs. David Beck Friday and Saturday last week. He drove from Boston where he is stationed with the Coast Guard accompanied by a shipmate, Radio Technician Elmer Schumacker of St. Helen, Michigan. Their ship had just returned from a six weeks cruise in the north Atlantic and will leave soon for Bermuda.

Tom Naser and Jerry Barron, seniors at Tecumseh high school, have completed ararngements for their entry into the University of Michigan in September. They plan to be roommates in one of the dormitories.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meads and family were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Meads' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Abner of Britton. John Abner of Blissfield was also a guest.

FRIENDS SUNDAY SCHOOL HAS RECORD ATTENDANCE

With a record attendance of 240 the Friends Sunday school observed the first of six successive Sundays during which time this Sunday school will be participating in a contest with sixteen other class B Sunday schools. The previous record was 232. It is hoped and expected that the new record will be broken this coming Sunday.

The breaking of the old record was symbolized in a dramatic feature Sunday morning as a record bearing in large figures the number 232 was held by Amos Wilson, the Sunday school superintendent and broken by Charles Sinkey whose family had brought the largest number of new folk to Sunday school. If you live in Tecumseh and vicinity and do not attend any other Sunday school, you are invited by the pastor, Rev. Edward Escolme to attend the Friends Sunday school during this contest.

Prep Cage Program Gives Tecumseh Promising Future

A well rounded prep basketball program that gives Tecumseh boys a chance to participate in competitive hardcourt activity at an early age, assures the Indian's varsity squad of an abundant supply of good material in future years.

Under the present program nearly every interested boy is introduced to basketball in Junior High and has a chance to play on prep squads each year until he is ready for the varsity. These teams play between themselves and with similar teams from other schools.

High school principal Neville Hart has been athletic director in the past and personally guided the program. Victor Lawson will assume this position next year. George Tatar and Douglas Murdoch have coached the prep teams which are pictured below.

SERVICES HELD FOR FORMER RESIDENT

Graveside services at Brookside Cemetery were conducted by the Rev. Edward Escolme at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday for Frank Breen, who died Sunday in Detroit. Mr. Breen, who was 80 years of age, was a former resident of Tecumseh although he had lived in Detroit for several years, being a patient in a Detroit hospital the last few months. The funeral was in Detroit at one p.m.

He is survived by his wife, Nettie, who has made her home in Tecumseh with her brother-in-law Thomas Breen, now a patient in Herrick Memorial hospital. Also surviving are a son, Russell and two grandchildren, all of Detroit.

EXTINGUISH SCRAP PAPER BLAZE MONDAY

Firemen answered a call at the LeVine Waste Paper Co. Monday, 8:45 a.m., and extinguished a blaze which consumed a large pile of waste paper. The LeVine Co., is located just southeast of the Products.

Police Chief George Kilbourn has warned motorists of parking in the fire lane on Patterson street in front of the Products. Either parking or temporary stoppings is prohibited. Several summonses have been issued lately to violators.

Drive Short As Deadline Nears

TECUMSEH NEVER HAS LET RED CROSS DOWN

Only one-third of Tecumseh's Red Cross quota has been raised. Records show that the village has never yet failed to meet its goal in this cause but Mrs. L. W. Larsen, local chairman, reminds Tecumseh's citizens that only one week remains to reach the mark of $1,500 set for 1953.

There seems to be confusion on the part of some who are waiting to be asked for their contribution in a door-to-door drive, but Mrs. Larsen emphasizes that no such drive will be made and that all gifts should be left at the United Savings Bank. However, if it is not possible for a contributor to go to the bank a call to Mrs. Larsen will bring some one to take the gift.

As was stated at the time of the United Foundation Drive, merchants will not be solicited again for Red Cross but it has been discovered that some industries were not reached at that time. If your factory or business has not already given, Mrs. Larsen would much appreciate your check left at the bank or mailed to her address. If you have not given or can increase your contribution, remember that Red Cross is still needed to link the men in service with those for whom they fight.

Basketball Letters Given At Banquet

PATTANELLI SPEAKS HERE WEDNESDAY

Seven major basketball awards were presented to Tecumseh high school varsity cagers Wednesday night at a colorful sports banquet held in the cafeteria.

After reviewing the past season which brought the Southeastern conference crown to the Indians, coach Victor Lawson presented major letters to Bill Benham, Bob Binns, Melvin Boltz, Jack Greenwald, Albert Hart, Wayne Patton and Jim Wilson.

Junior varsity awards went to Tom Baldwin, Jerry Barron, Jack Betzoldt, Doug Hooten and Alroy Vanderpool.

Minor letter winners were Jerry Barton, Jim Bowser, Ritchie Davis, Bob Manley, Dick Mohr, Tom Neitling, Marvin Yoakum and Jim Young.

Sponsored by the Parent's Athletic Club and the Exchange Club, the banquet featured football and basketball movies of University of Michigan games shown by assistant coach Matt Pattanelli. He also spoke on the importance of maintaining a competitive sports program.

Supt. James McDowell introduced Pattanelli after presenting the conference trophy to the school. He said that this is the first year of the new conference and the Indians finished the season undefeated against Hillsdale, Monroe Catholic and Bedford.

The Rev. George Walworth gave the invocation and Ned Baldwin expressed the welcome. Mr. McDowell was toastmaster.

Lester Runk was introduced as the new football coach as Lawson will become athletic director and basketball coach. He told of gridiron plans for next fall.

MUST LICENSE ALL DOGS PROPERLY

Tecumseh dog owners were issued a warning this week by county dog warden Rellie Baughey Jr., to keep all canine pets properly licensed or confined to their property.

New licenses can be obtained from the county treasurer. They could have been purchased from the township treasurer earlier at a cost of $1 male and $2 female but now the registration fee is $2 and $4.

Dogs must wear a collar and license at all times or subject to impounding.

R. S. MOORE SENDS REGARDS FROM ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.

Editor, The Herald:

Just a few lines to tell you folks what we think of your paper. It came (March 12 issue) late Saturday night and after going to church Sunday morning we had plenty of time to read the news from home.

You had so many good things printed that we want to mention only the high spots, viz, the churches, schools, civic affairs, etc., etc.

Parents of pupils are interested in what their boys and girls are doing while at school. You did a good job covering that. Now for school athletics, that speaks for itself as its echo is far flung.

The TIME magazine article alone (it has such a large subscription list) will spread the news broadcast among millions of readers.

Your civic interest in Tecumseh also helps. A word in favor of making our village a city form of government, which it should be, is also a step forward for our citizens. Villages our size and smaller are in favor of city form. The adage, "Be not the first by which the new is tried, nor yet the last to lay the old aside" is pertinent for all our citizens to consider.

Finally, with the above few remarks, we hope you will continue to serve Tecumseh and community with your fine work and you will meet with the success you deserve.

Sincerely,
R. S. Moore

PROGRAM TO DEPICT WOMEN OF THE BIBLE

Character portrayals of women in Bible Scriptures will be presented by Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Toledo in the sanctuary of the Methodist church Monday evening, 7:30 p. m. Sponsored by the Monday Club, the program is suitable for the Lenten season, especially for Holy Week, portrayals being given of Mary, the Mother; Mary, the Wicked Woman; Martha, the Housekeeper, and Claudia, wife of Pontius.

Mrs. Taylor received her inspiration from Cornelia Otis Skinner several years ago and as a result, writes her own script and plans her own costumes which are authentic, many being gifts of friends who have traveled around the world. Mrs. Taylor teaches children's dramatics in the Toledo Y.W.C.A. and does much work among the underprivileged youth with the freewill offerings she receives from her presentations. She will be assisted by Mrs. Mills Swick, reader; Mrs. Herbert Dillon, pianist, and a soloist.

Members of organizations and churches and students of the speech department of the high school have been invited, as well as the general public, men and women interested in dramatics.

Ministers' wives will be official hostesses of the evening and coffee will be served in the social room immediately following the program by members of the Drama Department of the Club with Mrs. Truman Rentschler as chairman assisted by Mrs. Burtsel Claus, Mrs. Henry Ehlinger, Mrs. Clarence Fisher, Mrs. Jack Morehouse, Mrs. Herbert Murphy, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, Mrs. Lynn Hubbard, Mrs. John Quigley, Mrs. Fred Sheldon and Mrs. Mills Swick.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTEST IN FOURTH WEEK

Holy Week finds the Friends church approaching the second half of a Sunday school contest of six week's duration. On each of the two opening Sundays of this contest all previous attendance records were broken with 240 in attendance on the opening Sunday of the contest and 266 on the second Sunday. It is hoped that on Palm Sunday and again on Easter Sunday new all-time high records will be set.

From top to bottom, Tecumseh's two-story hospital addition is structurally the strongest type of modern architecture.

That assuring statement to mothers of tomorrow who will use the modern maternity addition after July, came from husky construction foreman Paul Collins.

And Collins should know after 45 years of similar building projects which are too numerous to recall.

He is the man who calls the shots on the $300,000 hospital job by directing some 20 construction workers plus a number of subcontractors.

"Take 70 tons of reinforcing steel and hide it on some 800 cubic yards of rich concrete," Collins said to prove his point of the addition's immeasurable strength, "and you'll have the strongest type of building there is. It'll be here forever."

In describing some of the detailed steps which were followed to add strength wherever possible, the "boss" of the job explained that first the building was anchored to deep piers which are called concrete "mats" or footings. From them, strong cross-reinforced pillar columns soar two stories high.

But the secret behind the whole job as Collins tells it, lies in the numerous spandrel beams which extend from column to column and literally tie the building together. Now they are unnoticed as the spandrels are sunk in cement flooring.

The big addition started last August and is expected to be done early in July. It will extend the hospital 122 feet to the east and is 42 feet wide. A boiler house (42 by 28) is also being built toward the south. The addition is complete with a two-tone effect by some 150,000 Greystone and Iron-spot bricks. The interior partitions are formed from hollow clay tile.

A two-story hydraulic elevator and a number of other up-to-date installations will make the maternity addition one of most modern in the country. Indoor temperature will be controlled by a circulating air-conditioning system with exterior windows of permanent thermopane.

"And it's all absolutely fireproof," Collins added, "the only things which could burn are the mattresses."

Some of the sub-contracters who have worked with the Walter-Butler Building Co., St. Paul, Minn., in erecting the maternity addition are Porter Sand & Gravel, Young and Yost Heating & Plumbing, Milan and Industrial Electric, Adrian.

A large share of those who have been employed on the job are local men.

Local IGHATTER Speaks On Taxes

DON NIXON ANNOUNCES POSTER CONTEST AWARDS

Speaking for the Quaker Oats employees, Robert Hyde recently told Senator Homer Ferguson during a telephone conversation, "We want something done about the high taxes which we pay each year.

"Do you realize, Senator, that the average worker in the Quaker Oats plant here in Tecumseh pays $1,100 or more each year in hidden and direct taxes?"

Hyde, a macaroni machine operator, went on to explain to Michigan's senior senator some of the objectives and accomplishments of the local IGHAT program. It is part of a nation wide program to holler about taxes and excessive government spending. Hyde was one of the top local IGHATTERS.

Quaker Oats plant manager Don Nixon announced this week that six prizes have been awarded to the following pupils for contest winning posters which depict the tax awareness campaign.

"BUDGIE" POPULAR PARAKEET MEMBER OF SELDERS FAMILY

Smallest members of the parrot line of tropical birds is the talented parakeet which is invading dozens of homes in the Tecumseh area as a popular pet.

Mrs. John Selders, Rt. 1 Tecumseh, wrote the following article about her experience with "Budgie," a sky blue parakeet which sits in her kitchen and talks a blue streak all day long.

"Budgie is now two years old and he has become one of our family. For Budgie is a real pet and companion. He does so many tricks and loves to perch on my finger or head. In the morning Budgie always greets me with a 'Hello, how are you this morning, pretty good? Can I come out.'

"To be sure Budgie comes out of his cage when breakfast is over and loves to sit on my shoulder while we do dishes. Budgie nips at my ear screaming 'Ouch, don't bite me that hurts.' Budgie's vocabulary is extremely large. He repeats many sentences, nursery rhymes, counts, spells and calls each of the family by name.

"Also he clearly states, 'Don't like Arthur Godfrey, don't like television.' And on Sunday mornings he says, 'Going to church? Better call Vernon,' over and over again.

"Yes, I taught my Budgie to talk, and you can too. Lots of patience and love and all adds up to a million dollars worth of happiness and fun."

The Selders are well known in the Tecumseh vicinity. They have been living on M-52 a mile south of Billington's Corner for the past 25 years. Mrs. Selders has nearly 100 parakeets of many different colors. Her hobby is, of course, finger taming these and teaching them to talk.

She has placed a number in homes as far distant as Detroit and rates them a perfect Easter gift for children — or even Mom or Dad.

President's Gavel Changes Hands At Council Monday

After the village council completes its old business at Monday night's meeting and retiring president Ed Heilman calls for new business, he will turn the coveted gavel that goes along with Tecumseh's top office over to E. M. "Ernie" Campbell.

Clarence Beach, Glenn Driscoll and Vern Manwaring will also move to the council table as representatives of the Citizen's Party take over their share of the reins of village government.

A number of "old" business items are expected as the changeover requires a closing out of all village matters and an annual starting over again.

Though a veteran of such affairs, Campbell must wait until Heilman has closed the old books before he actually takes over. There is no formal inauguration or oath of office as each candidate is pledged to perform the duties of his office when he files the original petition.

Two matters which are expected to come up for discussion Monday night are a Chamber of Commerce plea for more parking facilities and another the need for a license plate branch office here.

Council meetings are always open to the public. They begin at 7:30 p. m. in the chambers above the fire hall and are held the first and third Mondays of each month.

NEW ZEALAND BEEF — New Zealand beef has been receiving a lot of publicity in this country recently. Low priced, a lot of it passed over America's meat counters, though many firms stuck to their pledge to support the nation's farmer and never handled the imported beef.

How did this all get started? Back in 1952 an outbreak of Foot-and-Mouth disease was reported in Canada. Immediately the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture banned further shipment of livestock or fresh meat into this country. Prior to that we were eating tons of Canadian beef, around 200 million pounds annually. When our border closed down, the Canadian rancher worked out a four way trade agreement with the governments of England, New Zealand and the U. S. Of course Canada's meat had to go to England (which had no Foot-and-Mouth disease objection) while New Zealand got the American market.

Shipments of New Zealand beef started to arrive here last fall. It was frozen and mostly government graded "Utility" and "Commercial," both below the preferred "Prime" and "Choice" grades. Actually only 59 million tons have been received and distributed by the six big packing houses, which may sound like a lot of beef but is only one average day's consumption by the entire nation.

Nobody really suffered in the deal and those who were on hand to buy the cheap grass-fed beef report they'll stick by America's own grain-feed beef anyday.

FLYING START — Have you been out in the Patterson school vicinity lately and seen the tremendous strides of progress the contractors have made? Busy superintendent of the big job, Herb Clapp may not have time to point out all the odds and ends going on, but you will easily see the makings of a new school are laid out there. The big job for the Miller-Davis firm is to coordinate a dozen-odd little projects and have one new school completed by next fall. The two high school additions are also zooming ahead. If you haven't been around that way recently, you wouldn't believe the advancement.

MONDAY HOLIDAYS — We have to go along with the World Calendar Association which is endeavoring a plan to have all holidays fall on Monday, giving the worker a longer weekend and the citizen, in general, a better chance to sit down wth his family and celebrate the great days that are a part of our history.

From the business standpoint, the proposal is especially attractive. It will eliminate some midweek holidays, which are admittedly a major expense involving shutting down and reopening again in midweek. It has been estimated that the annual production loss amounts to several billion dollars. One proposal which we like, would establish four stable Monday holidays, "President's Day" which would fall on the third Monday in February, Memorial Day which would be the last Monday in May, Independence Day on the first Monday in July and Thanksgiving Day on the final Monday in November.

BEST SELLERS — We wonder sometimes what the average reader of best-seller novels gains by reading the trash so highly publicized year after year. It seems like the book printing business is getting out of balance with an emphasis rapidly shifting to the sensational. Anyone's intelligence can be pretty accurately measured by what he reads, for every book we read — like every person we meet — has some effect, large or small, good or bad, upon our lives.

Reading is probably man's best habit. Every individual should realize that when he becomes satisfied with his knowledge and stops educating himself, he fails to continue personal progress. We should also keep in mind that only the intelligent are wise enough to continue to seek knowledge and education. With this in mind, we suggest that those who gobble up all kinds of modern "best sellers" look twice to find a mentally-uplifting or factual book which will improve the mind and continue a course of personal education. Technical or non-fiction books will never be best sellers, but they will always be man's guidepost to better living.

SAFETY PROGRAM — The Secretary of State has launched a spring safety program to make Michigan motorists more aware of the responsibility that goes along with a driver's license. Over 100,000 leaflets and display posters will carry the message "Obey Traffic Laws, Your Driver's License Is A Privilege, Don't Lose It."

National authorities have pointed out that the most effective way to prevent accidents is to make drivers' licenses harder to get and harder to keep. According to the National Safety Council there are 29 other states now doing a better job of driver licensing than is Michigan. The Secretary of State said that his department and the State Police, with the support of all groups, are making a determined effort to build up Michigan's driver license control to be the best in the country. "We must try harder," he said, "to be more certain that we give licenses only to those persons we believe know how to drive safely and are willing to obey traffic laws."

Michigan must be firmer in suspending the licenses of those who repeatedly violate the traffic laws and thus demonstrate that they are not entitled to the privilege of retaining a driver's license.

TRY, TRY AGAIN — "Keep on going — and the chances are that you will stumble on something worthwhile, perhaps when you are least expecting it. I have never heard of anyone stumbling on anything sitting down."

Room to Spare —inside and out

YOU'RE looking at the car that offers you more room and power for the money than any other six-passenger sedan made in these United States.

You're looking at the 188-hp Buick ROADMASTER Riviera Sedan, where headroom, hiproom, legroom and kneeroom are so spacious—you can seat six full-size adults in supreme and day-long comfort.

But lest you think this premium roominess comes with a penalty in handling ease—we have good news for you.

This 1953 ROADMASTER is powered by the world's newest and most advanced V8 Engine —an engine so compact, it has permitted the building of an entirely new and far more maneuverable chassis around it.

So every inch of roominess in America's big-room sedan is retained—but now with over three inches less bumper-to-bumper length.

Beyond that, you have easier handling from this Buick's short turning radius—shortest of any other car of equal size and weight.

Yours in every '53 Roadmaster at NO extra cost

You have Buick's POWER STEERING to give you full advantage of this short turning radius without strain or struggle—and Power Brakes,* if you wish, for practically effortless braking control.

Wouldn't you like to see and drive this superbly fine car—try it for power, for room, for ride, for handling ease—and for the smooth, flash-fast getaway of its new Twin-Turbine Dynaflow Drive?

Visit us this week—we'll be glad to seat you at the wheel of the greatest Buick in fifty great years.

*Optional at extra cost.

Letters To The Editor

Like other newspapers, The Herald follows the generally accepted policy of printing only letters which bear the signature of the writer. But because these two recent messages to the editor are not of a controversial nature, and to encourage others to follow with future letters which must be signed, we are taking an exception to the regular rule and offering the following for what an unsigned letter is worth.

Editor, The Herald:

Beautiful and picturesque! That is how our county of Lenawee has been described in the past. But now we can no longer pride ourselves in this description. Our buildings are running down, our land eroding, and our trees disappearing. All types of rubbish is lying along our highways. Streets are being torn up by careless drivers.

These factors are quickly turning this beautiful and picturesque county into a barren, muddy looking land with no appeal to the people.

We must start building up that description by fixing our own towns and houses. To start, we must first plant grass and trees to keep our land from washing away. Also, of prime importance is being courteous to those around us, whether neighbor or stranger. By this, I refer to the depositing of rubbish along our highways. We must refrain from this rude act. Also, we can keep our roads from going to pieces by obeying traffic laws. After all, traffic laws were made to protect the roads and streets as well as our lives. By keeping our sidewalks free of debris, we can, again, add to the beauty of our streets.

Many things can be done to improve this beauty of our county, the beauty that is now diminishing.

Our streets and buildings now look little better than those where our servicemen are fighting. Unless we get busy and start cleaning up, we will definitely lose the description of "Michigan's Beautiful and Picturesque Lenawee County."

(Unsigned)

Editor, The Herald:

The criticisms I am about to make will not prove popular (indeed may not be popular enough to be printed) but I think that one must admit, after proper thought, that they are true. I am referring to the window displays throughout the town and the movement that is sweeping the country to cut taxes.

In effect it reminds me of the farmer that closes the barn door after the horse has been let out. Let us assume for example that we had a son on an allowance and we found that we could not afford to continue putting out that much money. If we were going to cut his allowance we should first discuss with him the economies he must make in order to get along on that much less. Assuming the spending wasn't cut the parents would find a large amount of debts, bills, deficits or whatever you care to call them. The old man would have to pay these in the end and at greater cost and with more embarassment.

Let's be more realistic. Cutting taxes won't help one iota in itself. If taxes are cut and expenditures remain the same deficit spending can easily be continued with the resultant debts that we or our children will have to pay. After all one must remember that we are the government and with the prior deficit accumulated by the past administrations I am sure that we can use any surplus this year to help retire some of that.

I am a strong advocate of the reforms advocated by the Hoover Commission and any other economies that might enable us (the government) to cut down on our expenditures. However, let us have first things first and trust that our leaders that we have elected will reduce taxes when longer needed to keep us solvent and strong. I am cognizant of the fairly popular belief that the politicians will spend all they can get but I for one have more faith in our present leaders.

To me the following signs would be more appropriate:

Your share of the national debt amounts to this much in merchandise. How much are you willing to forego this year to get our economy back on an even keel.

Waste and inefficiency in our government costs you $........ Write your congressman to clamp down on these wastes and you will save this much merchandise for your government.

"Biff" Falls for His Own Story

Biff Morgan's four-year-old daughter Rusty is something of a night owl. Stays awake way past her bedtime.

Every night Mrs. Morgan complained about how hard it was to get Rusty to go to sleep. Finally Biff decided to handle the situation. "Anyone can get a kid to sleep — takes a little patience! Here, hand me her storybook."

He grabs the book and goes into Rusty's room. About an hour later Rusty comes padding out in pajamas and hands her mother the book. "Read it quietly," she whispers, "so we don't wake Daddy."

From where I sit, Biff won't be so quick to be a "child-care specialist" the next time. If we could just resist being such "know it alls," our neighbors would be better off. Take those who would deny me a glass of beer with my supper — well, I might not care for the buttermilk they like. We all ought to realize that we all have different abilities and different preferences, too.

Grade School News

First Grade
Mrs. Garlick

We had a fire alarm and the bell does not surprise us as much as it did the first of the year.

Michael and Tommy Wilson visited in Cleveland. While there, they saw the movie "Peter Pan." We are all anxiously waiting for it to come to Tecumseh.

We had birthday treats at school when Lynn Rice and Cherryl Maynard had birthdays.

We are learning about things which make us pretty. Some of those things are a toothbrush, soap, towels, clean clothes, comb and brush, handkerchiefs, and clean shoes.

Almost everyone who was ill with a cold is back in school.

We colored some pretty pictures for St. Patrick's Day and Easter. We think our crayon work looks much nicer than it did in September.

We are going to help the Easter Bunny by dyeing some Easter eggs this week.

Some of the things which tell us spring is here are: robins, pussy willows, moths, plants coming up, a few flies, mud, bluebirds, cardinals, some birds which we couldn't name, and some bees.

We are learning to recognize the numbers to 100 and also to count out 100 objects in groups of 10.

Third Grade
Mrs. Buttolph

We were very happy today because we received a letter from Barry Kroner. He moved the first of the month to New Jersey. We surely miss him and he told us he missed us, too. He now lives along the ocean and is eating all kinds of sea foods.

A new pupil in our room is Ronald O'Neil. He has moved here from Minneapolis, Minnesota.

We are now working on a Holland unit. If you would come and and visit us you would see many Dutch people dressed in odd clothes and many windmills. We like to blow on the sails and watch them go around. Kites with fancy tails are flying high and low on our windows.

Everyone in our room is thinking about Easter. We have made a large frieze showing Peter Rabbit pulled by many little chickens coming with his wagon of Easter eggs to our school. We hope he takes time to stop and leave us a few eggs. We have one long border of Mrs. Duck in one of her three new bonnets.

We are real proud now that we can multiply with two numbers.

Sixth Grade
Mrs. Uckele

In social studies we are studying the central countries of Europe. We are also making scrapbooks of Europe.

In language we have been dramatizing how to introduce people and how to carry on a telephone conversation.

At various times during the year we have taken samples of each pupil's penmanship. These have been mounted and displayed on the bulletin boards so that we may study and compare our own improvement.

Fifth Grade
Mrs. Boltz

New class officers have been elected. They are: President, Peggy Robinette; vice president, Alice Titley; secretary, Janet Harris; treasurer, Johney Green.

The citizenship group for this six-week period is composed of: Doris Oliphant, James Curth, Fred Jeschke, and Sharon Ann Mitzner.

A turtle naming contest has been carried on in our room. The first prize went to Ralph Helzerman who chose "Prince" for the little turtle's name. Honorable mention went to Jane Dillon, Doris Oliphant, Alice Titley, and John LeBaron.

Our class is visiting Canada this week. We plan to enjoy some of that country's sights and beautiful scenery.

ST. ANDREW BROTHERHOOD

The organizational meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of St. Peter's Episcopal church held at the home of Wm. Hugh Browne was attended by eight boys and four men last Monday evening. The Rev. Allan Ramsey of St. Thomas Episcopal church in Trenton was present to explain the purpose of the Brotherhood.

At a follow-up meeting last Wednesday, Harold Morey, Leo Lohrman, Neil O'Hara, and Bill Browne attended a supper and an interesting meeting sponsored by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of St. Thomas in Trenton. Paul Rusch, executive director of the Kiyosato Educational Experiment Project, a branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Japan, was guest speaker.

OVER FIFTY CLUB

About thirty met for the potluck supper of the Over Fifty Club at the Methodist church parlors Thursday evening. Irish songs and jokes were part of the program and the decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. Dr. H. H. Loveland gave a short but amusing talk on the subject "What's In a Name" and Leon Rosacrans then showed two reels of "Main Street" pictures. These date back to the 1920's and brought memories of people and events that were part of an older Tecumseh. The hostesses were as usual the Temple Dependable class of the Methodist church and they were assisted by a committee consisting of Mrs. George Wittrup, Miss Gertrude VanVleet and Miss Edyth Shull.

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morey accompanied by Mrs. George Ward attended the Electrical Appliance convention of the Western Auto Association at Fort Wayne, Indiana, Sunday. This was an all day meeting with dinner in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kenrick of Clinton, were in Detroit Sunday for the Flower Show at the State Fair Grounds. In the evening they visited Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Baker of Northville, formerly of Tecumseh.

The Rev. Edward E. Escolme was in Cleveland last week attending a meeting of the board of trustees of Cleveland Bible College on Thursday, and Friday and Saturday meetings of the board of the Friends Foreign Missionary Society, at which it was decided to open a new mission station in central Formosa. Ralph Comfort, treasurer of the Misionary Society, was also in attendance.

Charles Cubberly of Springville, an employee at Tecumseh Products Co., was stricken with a heart attack in Allison's Clothing store Saturday afternoon. Dr. R. E. Dustin was called and Mr. Cubberly was taken to Herrick Memorial hospital where his condition is reported as satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson of Detroit were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson.

If the man of the house did the COOKING...

you can bet... there would be a new automatic Gas Range in the kitchen!

Every once in a while the man of the house brews a pot of coffee and fries a couple of eggs for breakfast, but if he wrestled with the old range and cooked the family meals for a week, he'd learn something about being tied down to a kitchen.

We'll bet that after one week he'd be telling you all about the wonderful advantages of automatic cooking He'd spout off about those extra-large ovens that automatically cook delicious roasts just right without drying out, tasty cakes and pies that bake to a golden brown, and the smokeless broiling for juicy steaks and chops.

Now's the time you would smile and say to him, "not only is it a pleasure to cook with a modern Gas Range, but it means less work and more time for relaxation."

We don't suggest that you have the man of the house cook for a week, but it's a good idea to tell him all about the advantages and conveniences of a modern Gas Range. Then he'll say, "what're we waiting for?"

Your Gas Appliance Dealer... will be glad to show you these new automatic ranges. They cost less to buy, less to use, and less to install than any other automatic range on the market today.

INTRODUCING

DANIEL DALE DERMYER

Daniel Dermyer, "Danny" as he is known to us, was born here in Tecumseh and has attended Tecumseh schools. He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dermyer at 510 E. Chicago Boulevard. Brown haired, he is 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds.

Danny is majoring in history and English and is an active member of the school's Co-operative Training Program. If you shared the same hobby as Danny, you would probably see him at the roller skating rink in most of his spare time.

"See the World" might be Danny's motto since he plans to join the Navy after he graduates.

BARBARA JEAN CORNELL

Barbara Cornell, better known as Barb, has light brown hair, blue eyes, and stands five feet high.

She has taken a commercial course throughout high school and is now taking the Co-operative Training Course. In addition to this course, she is now working at the telephone office. After graduation her plans are to continue working in the commercial field.

Barb attends most school activities and is ardent in her support of the various school teams this year. She has taken part in the senior play, playing the role of Harriet Stanley in "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

She has been a member of G.A.A. for two years, which she enjoys very much because of her interest in sports, her favorite being swimming and tennis. A hobby of hers is cooking, which she likes to do very much.

Barbara resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Verrier, 121 N. Ottawa street, Tecumseh.

HELEN MARIE FURGASON

Helen is a 5 foot, 3 inch, 17 year old senior with blue eyes and auburn hair. Where do you see her mostly? "They" say you could hardly miss her at the Grange.

She has taken a commercial course throughout high school, including minors in history and English. This year Helen is also in the Cooperative Training Program, working at Brandt's dime store. After graduation she plans to continue studying on the business basis, although she is uncertain of what it will be.

Helen attends most school activities. She has been a member of the school chorus for three years. An unusual collection of horse miniatures is one of Helen's possessions but her big pastime is the Grange dances. She has been a member of the Grange for three-and-one-half years.

A member of Theta Rho for four years, she is now president of the local lodge, vice president of the Theta Rho District, and warden of Theta Rho State Assembly of Michigan. These organization activities take up much of her time.

The summer of '52, Helen wrote an essay on Americanism and won a two weeks trip (June 25th to July 8th) to Washington, D. C., and New York City, a trip sponsored by the Sovereign Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly of Michigan.

Like so many seniors, Helen is looking forward to the senior trip. She resides with her mother, Mrs. Mary Furgason, 212 S. Democrat St.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

When you are inclined to feel sorry for yourself, think of Helen Keller, who at nineteen months was stricken with total blindness and total deafness. When you are in a mood to complain about your lot in life, reflect upon the handicaps of Helen Keller, whose knowledge of the exterior world came from the sense of touch and smell and taste.

She was born in Alabama in 1880 and thus has lived more than her allotted three score and ten years. At the age of seven she was blessed with the coming of Anne Sulivan to be her teacher and lifelong companion.

The sense of touch became her gateway into an ever expanding life. Miss Sullivan began spelling into her hand simple words. With infinite patience, hour after hour, day in and day out, this process of teaching went on. A new world opened when she was able to read Braille. She reads with her fingers instead of her eyes, and she listens with her fingers instead of her ears.

At the age of ten, Helen was taught to speak simple words and then short sentences. She tells of the method used: "She passed my hand lightly over her face, and let me feel the position of her tongue and lips when she made a sound. I was eager to imitate every motion and in an hour had learned the six elements of speech." Practice and correction continued until Helen was able to make herself understood in speech. Years of practice, practice, enabled her to address public meetings.

Miss Keller spent four years at Radcliffe College and was graduated cum laude. Anne Sullivan attended classes with her, and spelled into her hand the lectures as they were given. Helen learned to read lips by placing her fingers lightly on the mouth of the one speaking. She reads French and German and English in Braille, and has devoured the literature of the ages.

HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. C. O. Butler was hostess at a potluck luncheon for the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church Thursday, following the 11 o'clock Communion Service. The chaplain of the group, Mrs. Percy Hand, opened the meeting which was then conducted by the president Mrs. Hugh Browne. Plans were discussed for the joint meeting April 16 with the Daughters of St. Peter's and the Lyster League. This will be held at the Parish house with a potluck supper at 7 p.m. and will be devoted to making preparations for the fall bazaar. Coffee and rolls will be furnished and members are asked to bring their own table service.

LECTURE APRIL 9

There will be a lecture on the "Needs and Possibilities of the Blind" at the Baptist church April 9 at 8 p.m. The speaker will be Willard Perrine, who is head of the State Department of Welfare for the Blind.

The misery of miseries is to seek a place in the social whirl out of relation to one's income.

ARE YOU PROTECTED?

This is a report on how hospitals and doctors have conducted a public trust of vital importance for the people of Michigan:

Non-profit Blue Cross - Blue Shield plans for protection against hospital and medical bills were started by Michigan hospitals, doctors and business men as a public service. How well these plans have served the public is shown in the year-end report for 1952.

A total of 73 million dollars was paid out in hospital and medical benefits during 1952. A total of 302 million dollars has been paid out in hospital and medical benefits in 14 years. All this for Michigan members only.

Big protection for many people!

1,017,957 people in Michigan received Blue Cross - Blue Shield benefits last year. Over 3,000 of these received benefits of $1,000 or more for hospital care alone. The average hospital bill covered by Blue Cross has gone up from $51 to $150 in ten years.

Sharp increases in the money-value of Blue Cross - Blue Shield benefits from year to year . . . and increases in the number of people who get these benefits, demonstrate that protection against hospital and medical bills is now more important than ever before.

Your whole family is protected!

Supplying The Lord's Needs

Next Sunday, which is Palm Sunday, the Christian world will be thinking of the triumphal entry of our Lord Jesus Christ into the city of Jerusalem. As a basis for this brief message let us lift from the record a statement found in Matthew 21:3 which reads "The Lord hath need of them."

In connection with his triumphal entry into Jerusalem our Lord had need of an ass and a colt the foal of an ass. But as we read the Gospels we discover that our Lord had other needs. One of His earliest needs was for a little bed of clean straw in a manger cradle. Another need was for a godly home in which to grow to maturity. After having begun His public ministry He needed one day a little fishing boat from which to speak to a crowd of people assembled on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. On still another day as Jesus faced a hungry multitude His need was met by a lad who gave Him five barley loaves and two small fishes. As He neared the end of His public ministry it became evident that He needed the rest and quietness afforded Him by a home in the village of Bethany. The night before His crucifixion He needed an upper room in which to partake of The Last Supper with His disciples. Following His crucifixion He needed, for a few fleeting hours, a tomb in which His body might be laid.

The things of which our Lord had need were in the most part very simple indeed. Furthermore the people of whom our Lord had need were in the main just ordinary folk. Humble fishermen such as Andrew and Peter, and James and John were called to become fishers of men. Later on when our Lord needed some one skilled in needlcraft He found that need met in the person of Dorcas. Still later when He needed both a voice and a pen He found those needs supplied by Saul of Tarsus whom we honor as the apostle St. Paul.

The Lord still has need of many things, but today as in the long ago His needs are usually very simple and generally it lies quite within our power to meet those needs. Sometimes the Lord needs a phone. Sometimes He needs a car. There are times when the Lord needs a pen. Then too there are times when He needs a voice. Can He have your phone, your car, your pen, your voice?

The Lord still has need of so many different kinds of Christian folk. He has need of friendly folk, for there are many who feel that they are living in an unfriendly world. He has need of folk who are sympathetic and understanding, for there are many who feel that no one understands them. The Lord Jesus has need of those who can and will write good Christian letters. Of twenty-seven books in the New Testament, twenty-one are letters. The Lord has need of people with a fine sense of Christian humor, of folk who not laugh at the problems and failures of others, but who know how to laugh with others and in fine wholesome way to make others laugh. Then, too, the Lord has need of followers who will take an insignificant and inconspicuous place and who are prepared to serve in humble ways. Some one has pointed out that it is amazing the amount of good one person can do if he does not care who gets the credit, just so God gets the glory. Are you ready to supply the Lord's needs? As you supply His needs, He will supply your needs.

Local Churches Symbolize Easter With Spiritual Rebirth Sunday

"Christ Is Alive" - - -

Symbolizing the glorious promise of eternal life, Easter will be celebrated in Tecumseh Sunday as Christians everywhere proclaim the spiritual rebirth of Christ.

In churches of all denominations men and women will pause to find renewed faith and hope and courage in the miracle of His Resurrection.

Easter has probably meant more to the world than any other Christian holiday for it marks the end of Lent, the end of Holy Week, the happy answer to the sorrow of Good Friday and the beginning of a new spiritual life for "Christ is alive!"

Church services on Easter morn will again be filled to maximum capacity — just as they were last Easter. The day is also marked by a rivalous display of feminine fashions though Tecumseh's Easter Parade is limited to a promenade within each church.

It also marks a host of family gatherings as numerous local groups reunite for the occasion.

The day begins early, especially for the young people who will be out at 6:30 for an outdoor sunrise service at Brookside Park, on north Union street at the southeast corner of Brookside cemetery. This service has been moved from the athletic field. Rev. Alvin Brazee will deliver the sermon. Young people of the Presbyterian church are in charge of arrangements.

On Friday, churches of the Ministerial association will join in a Union Good Friday service from 1:30 to 3:00 at the Methodist church. The Rev. George Walworth and the Rev. B. O. Bashore will share the sermon. The Rev. Ronald Brunger and the Rev. Edward Escolme will also participate.

Maundy Thursday services will also be held at a number of local churches.

In accordance with a Chamber of Commerce suggestion, stores and business places will be closed from 12:00 noon to 3:00 Friday afternoon.

School will be dismissed also at noon Friday for spring recess. Classes resume April 13.

SERVICES HELD MONDAY FOR WALTER E. MEADE

Funeral services for Walter Eugene Meade were held at the Green Funeral Home, 2 p.m. Monday afternoon. Mr. Meade, who was 65 years of age, died at 1:30 Friday at the Veterans hospital in Dearborn. He had been in failing health for several years and a patient in the hospital since January 18.

Born in Netawaka, Kansas, in 1887, the son of John Edward and Mary Gibbons Meade, Mr. Meade came to Michigan in 1917 and in 1920 married Minnie Aebersold, then a teacher in the Detroit schools. For more than thirty years they lived on a farm at the corner of Ives and Occidental roads. During World War I, he served with the 329th Field Artillery in the Argonne.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, James Edward and Harold Richard; two grandsons, Michael and Richard Meade, all of whom live in the Tecumseh area; two sisters, Miss Faustina Meade and Mrs. Sidney Woodward both of Topeka, Kansas. His parents and one brother, Harry preceded him in death.

The Rev. Edward Escolme conducted the services and the bearers were Carl Gruber, Clarence Wagner, Robert McKee, George McKendry, Frank Gruber and Arthur Dinse. Burial was in Brookside cemetery where Robert Lowe, commander and Donald Woods, chaplain of the Underwood-Orr Post of the American Legion presented the flag at the grave.

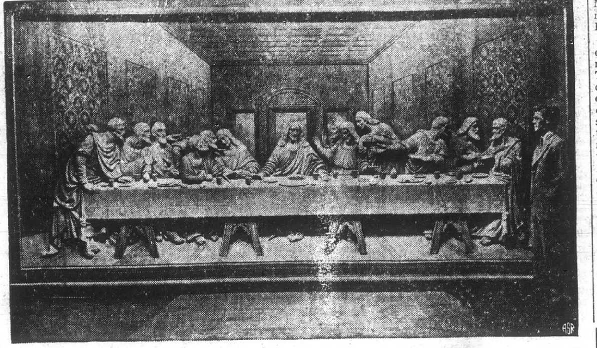
Friends and relatives attended the services from Coldwater, Wyandotte, Detroit, Ridgeway, Springville, Topeka, Kansas, and Stryker and Elmore, Ohio.

LECTURE ON BLIND

A large attendance is hoped for at the lecture to be given, Thursday, April 9, at the Baptist church by Willard Perrine of the Michigan Dept. of Welfare in charge of the blind. Mr. Perrine, who has been sightless himself for many years, has charge of the training and rehabilitation of those citizens of Michigan who have lost their sight and his story is a very interesting one. The lecture will begin at 8 p.m.

EXTINGUISH DUMP FIRE

Firemen extinguished a grass fire Tuesday morning at the city dump. No damage was reported.



Generally considered the masterpiece of Leonardo da Vinci, one of the greatest artists of the Italian Renaissance or any other period, is THE LAST SUPPER, remarkable both for external beauty and strength, and for inward and hidden significance, the most perfect reproduction of that subject in existence. The psychological moment depicted above is that immediately following the announcement of Christ that one of the Twelve will betray him. (Picture courtesy Christian Science Monitor.)

HEALTH DIRECTOR SUGGESTS PRE-SCHOOL VACCINATION PROGRAM

County superintendent of schools Milton Porter, school superintendents, and the County Health Department are requesting that all children entering school for the first time this fall be protected against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and smallpox.

"These immunizations should be completed before the end of June, before the beginning of the polio season," said Dr. R. Hofstra, director of the health department. "By getting shots in the spring, the child will have time to build up maximum protection before going to school, since it takes time for the body to react to vaccines in building up antibodies to fight disease. Those children who have had immunizations earlier in life may need booster shots."

The Lenawee County Medical Society and the Health Department recommend the following immunization schedule:

1. Protection against diphtheria, whooping cough and lockjaw should be completed before the child is one year old.
2. Vaccination against smallpox before the baby's first birthday.
3. Booster shots against diphtheria, whooping cough and lockjaw at two to three years of age.
4. Boosters against diphtheria and lockjaw and revaccination against smallpox just before entering school for the first time.
5. Boosters against diphtheria and lockjaw and revaccination against smallpox at the age of 10.
6. Boosters against lockjaw and revaccination against smallpox every five years after this.

Before coming to school next fall each child should also have a physical examination by his private physician, according to the health department. If on examination any physical defects are found they should be corrected whenever possible. The child's teeth should be examined by a dentist to see if they need repair. All corrections and repairs should be made so that the child need not lose time from school next year.

Parents will be given forms which should be filled out by the doctor when he makes the examination and gives the immunizing shots. These forms after being completed should be taken to the teacher or superintendent of the school when the child enters next fall.

"If, for any reason the immunization or boosters were not done then the form should be returned to the teacher with a note explaining why they could not be done," Dr. Hofstra concluded.

KNOTTY PINES WIN BASKETBALL CROWN

Moore's Knotty Pines walked off with the class B independent basketball crown for the second straight year in Adrian's City League.

The Tecumseh cagers, who graduated from varsity ranks, won the championship tilt Sunday. Squad members are Jack and Jim Osburn, Bob Laidlaw, Bob Moore, Clayton Schmid, Elven Duvall, Quent Geffner, Victor Lawson, Doug Murdock, Don Brazee and John Hamilton.

GOLF CLUB OPENS SEASON SATURDAY

"A successful golf club is only as good as its least active member," pro Leo Bishop reminded members of Tecumseh Country Club in announcing Saturday as the opening day on the local links.

The greens committee headed by Hal Kelso complimented Bishop for the fine condition of the course and added that a number of improvements have been made during the winter.

The local Pro said that everything will be in readiness for Saturday's official opening.

"During the year your various committees and professional, schedule many events to help you enjoy your country club and the game of golf. If you do not enter these events, you miss a wonderful opportunity to become better acquainted with your fellow club members, and also miss much enjoyment, which you can derive from golf," Bishop said.

"No member should feel hesitant about entering any event which is scheduled. This is your club. The bulletin boards in the locker room, pro shop and outside, list all coming events, and it would be very helpful to your club management if you take an active interest by entering week-end class, or special events which are scheduled.

"It's really fun playing this game of golf! When next at the club, step into the pro shop and let's discuss it. We'll be pleased to answer any questions about coming events, and if you have any suggestions, those too may be added to our plans," Bishop told members in a recent letter to encourage a good turnout this season.

All caddies are to report at the pro shop at 8:30 Saturday morning for additional instructions and assignments for the day.

DENNIS J. BAUGH BURIED MONDAY

Dennis John Baugh, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Baugh of 302 S. Maumee Street, born Sunday at Herrick Memorial hospital, died at 11 a. m. Monday.

The child is survived by his parents, a sister, Katherine Ann, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Starkey and Mrs. Ruth Baugh of Holloway and his great-grandparents, Mrs. Roscoe Farris and LaVern Dove of Tecumseh.

Funeral services were held Monday at 1:30 p. m. at the grave in Brookside cemetery. The Rev. E. H. DuBois of Britton officiated.

CIVIL AIR PATROL

"Airplane Structures" was the subject of discussion by Capt. George Mattis of Adrian at the weekly meeting of the Civil Air Patrol Tuesday evening. Announcements were made of plans for an air maneuver to be held the second Sunday in April and of the promotion of A. L. (Speed) Roe and Richard E. Jacobs to the rank of second lieutenants. Twenty-two members and two nonmembers assisted in the sorting of scrap March 29, and the patrol wishes to thank all those who contributed to the success of the recent drive. The next meeting April 7 will take up the subject "Instruments" and a film will be shown.

RADIO STARS ON BENEFIT SHOW FOR BILLY STILL FUND

April 14 is the date — at 8 p.m. — and the Clinton high school auditorium is the place. Pie Plant Pete and Bashful Joe are coming to put on a jamboree show for the benefit of the Billy Still family fund. It will be much more than just a show. It will be an out-pouring of the hearts of the hundreds of good neighbors who have joined hands to build the home for the family of Billy Still, who was stricken last August with polio.

The Billy Still home has been just about completed by his many friends and neighbors, but there are a number of material bills and costs yet to be paid. The public is asked to help these neighbors who have done so much—to give them the little extra boost needed to finish the job. Pie Plant Pete and Bashful Joe are going to give their best performance ever. An amateur show has been arranged. The public is invited to come and help with this excellent project.

CLINTON SPORTS BANQUET

The annual Athletic Banquet of the Clinton high school will be held Wednesday evening, April 8, at the high school building at 6:30. The Clinton Rotary Club is sponsoring the event and there will be an out of town speaker.

New State Maps Free At Herald

In cooperation with the Michigan State Highway department, The Herald is offering free to anyone who calls at the office a beautiful new 1953 official highway map. A shipment of maps has just been received from Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, and marked "For Free Distribution Only."

The maps are complete in every detail with a number of new features added this year. These include airline routes, 16 city guide maps, a complete legend, mileage table, reproduction of tourist pocket map of 1839, state parks, recreation areas, historic sites, fish hatcheries, trout rearing stations, county, city and village index and population table, golf and country clubs, yacht clubs, lakes, amusement parks and other points of interest plus a year round state ferry schedule and other information of interest to both Michiganders and outsiders.

A detailed map of the Detroit metropolitan area is on the back and the Upper Peninsula Bond Falls are pictured on the cover. Bond Falls is one of many inspiring natural attractions in the historic Ontonagon area. Lake O' the Clouds, Agate Falls, the Porcupine Mountains, the blue and dominant waters of the mighty Lake Superior are all found in this northwest section of the state which is accessible through Michigan's vast network of highways.

The free maps are available only as long as the present supply remains at The Herald office.

HOSPITAL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED HERE IN MAY

Preliminary plans are taking shape for the observance of Hospital Week in Tecumseh, May 10 - 16. Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, president of the Herrick Memorial hospital auxiliary and its members, together with the hospital staff, expect this to be a memorable time in the history of the institution.

May 12, Florence Nightingale's birthday, has been observed for several years as Hospital Day, but this year, Gov. Williams, acting on the recommendation of the Michigan Hospital Association, proclaimed the whole week in which this date occurs as Hospital Week.

This action has been taken because community hospitals face a number of serious problems. These problems stem from the fact that the public at large does not understand the role of the modern community hospital or appreciate what it takes to make it possible for hospitals to operate.

In a practical way, most people really appreciate hospitals. The facts prove this. Between 1940 and 1950 the population of the U. S. increased a little less than 15 percent but the number of admissions to hospitals increased 70 percent. However, people do not seem to appreciate what it is that makes our own community hospital tick. To remedy that situation is the reason for Hospital Week.

CHEST BOARD APPROVES PLAYGROUND PROJECT

A meeting of the board of the Community Chest fund was held Friday evening at the United Savings Bank, with Mrs. Frank K. Smith, John Thompson, Owen Partridge, the Rev. Edward Escolme and George Green present. Mrs. Smith presided at the business meeting during which it was decided to re-affiliate with the National Council of Community Chests whose headquarters are in New York.

Mr. Partridge reported on local Boy Scout activities and the Rev. Escolme reported that all 1952 and 1953 checks had been sent to the proper organizations.

Gordon Garlick and James Hartzell, representing the committee on the school playground question of the local Parent Teacher Assn., explained the proposed project and the board went on record as approving it. There will be another meeting of the board in May.

JOHN A. COLLINS, 74 BURIED IN RIDGEWAY

John A. (Cap) Collins, 74, a resident of Tecumseh for 40 years, died at Herrick Memorial hospital Friday morning, where he had been a patient for twelve hours.

Born in Dundee, Jan. 1, 1879, the son of the late William and Mary Coleman Collins, Mr. Collins moved here from Jackson and was employed at the Heesen Foundry and later at the H. Brewer Co. He was assistant village waterworks engineer and employed 13 years at the Products Co., retiring four years ago.

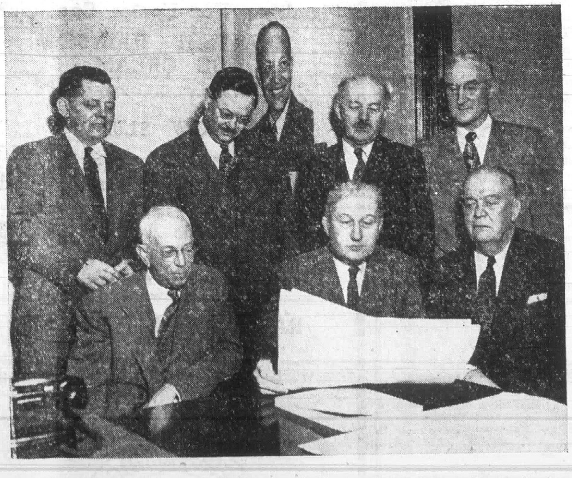
Mr. Collins was active in politics and was appointed to the Democratic State Central Committee in 1933. He was a past noble grand of the I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 14, of which he was a life member; chief patriarch of the I.O.O.F. encampment; regent of the Royal Arcanum; past council commander of the Woodmen of America, and a member of the Rebekah Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Collins had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Feb. 27.

Surviving are his widow, Jennie; a daughter, Mrs. Alice G. Johnston; a grandson, Cap W. Orr, all of Tecumseh; four sisters, Mrs. Marie Pocklington of Britton, Mrs. Mable Lawson of Detroit, Mrs. Maude Bates of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Anna Clark of Union City. His parents and one sister, Mrs. Clara Sweet, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held at the Collins Funeral Home Monday at 2:30 p.m., the Rev. B. O. Bashore officiating. Burial was in Ridgeway cemetery with services conducted by the I.O.O.F. at the grave. Bearers were Perry Satterthwaite, Robert J. McCoy, Percy Heidenreich, Russell Carey Glenn Bowen and William Custer.

Friends and relatives attended the services from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Wayne, Jackson, Dundee, Battle Creek, Ypsilanti, Ridgeway, Britton, Macon, Rae and Tecumseh.

State GOP Leaders Eye April 6 Election



Republican candidates in the April 6 spring election are shown above as they made plans to cover the State in a series of regional and local campaign rallies.

The Republican nominees emphasized the importance of the spring election to keep Michigan schools, courts and roads in sound hands for the benefit of all the people and away from the influence of "special interest" groups.

Looking over a proposed campaign itinerary are: Seated (left to right)—Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, Lansing, candidate for reelection; Chief Justice of the Supreme Court John R. Dethmers, Lansing, candidate for reelection; former Gov. Harry F. Kelly, Detroit, candidate for Supreme Court Justice. Standing (left to right)—Arthur K. Rouse, Boyne City, candidate for State Board of Agriculture; Dr. Charles S. Kennedy, Detroit, and Otto E. Eckert, Lansing, both candidates for reelection to the University of Michigan Board of Regents; and Clair Taylor, Lansing, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Adamson Urges Business Methods For State Finance

TIME LAB. OWNER SENDS REP. CONLIN ECONOMY MEASURES

(Local businessman George Adamson, owner of TIME LABORATORY, suggests the following measures of economizing on State expenditures in a recent letter to Rep. Rollo Conlin, Tipton.)

March 24, 1953

Hon. Rollo Conlin,
State Legislature,
Lansing, Mich.
Dear Mr. Conlin:

You probably do not remember me, but I met you at one of our Rotary meetings where you made us a very able speech, so I feel that I know you and probably you do not know me.

Now as to the matter of taxes, of which we are all concerned. I am going to speak my mind freely and am also, owing to the fact that I am speaking freely, making a suggestion.

I have noticed that all the politicians, you included, always seek to raise taxes, offering some kind of panacea for the reason that you will have to have more taxes. Of course, this is good politics, I will freely admit, but is poor business. As you should know, when a business is running in the red, and no more sales are in prospect, then efforts are made to reduce costs, and if need be to save the business, all salaries and wages are reduced. If a business did not do this, they would have to liquidate.

Not knowing very much about the State business, and I am using the business term as it applies to the State in regard to a private business, it seems to me the first thing to be done is for you to look around and see where expenses can be reduced.

Here is a suggestion. It may not be sound, but I think would bear investigation. There are several million automobiles in the State of Michigan. You supply one license plate for each car, which I am guessing weighs about one pound. This means at least one million pounds of steel for these cars. (You may correct the arithmetic in actual registration figures.) I do not know, but I have the impression that some States issue one large license plate and then for the following years issue a small tag to be attached. This tag probably would weigh one ounce. Here is a saving of a good many pounds of steel which would accrue to your profit, and would not raise automobile taxes.

Here is another suggestion: Our friends, Montgomery, Ward & Company, Sears, Roebuck & Company, etc., have done quite well in the mail order business. I do not know how many branch offices you have for the sale of automobile plates, but if they were handled by mail direct from Lansing, or some other point, quite a substantial saving would be made in personnel and possibly rental, and it can be done as witness the foregoing concerns.

Of course, I know this is not good politics, but it appears to me that we are in a position where we must forego politics. The above may be "Bosh," but the thought I am trying to convey is that let us look around and reduce expenditures and I know from past experience that all businesses can do this if they so desire. Taxes, as you know, are too high, so let us try to see where savings can be made before our democratic system is liquidated.

The above suggestion probably will not reduce enough saving to be of much importance moneywise, but it is my opinion that there are many more circumstances such as this in the State business where savings can be made, if they are ferreted out and without hurting public service and possibly improving it.

Vanderbilt said years ago, "The Public Be Damned." Now this statement hurt the railroads and the thought behind it helped put the railroads in the position they now occupy, but let us paraphrase this and say "Politics Be Damned," and let us go ahead and make constructive savings. It can be done.

One of your Many Bosses,
Geo. H. Adamson

CLEAN UP WEEK NEEDED — Sometime later on this spring or early in the summer, one of Tecumseh's many clubs or civic organizations should seriously shoulder a genuine old-fashioned "Clean Up, Fix Up, Paint Up" campaign for Tecumseh. A program with some teeth in it, one that will DO things to and for the village, one that will get the people out and aroused and get some action. Not just a partial "let the other fellow do it" kind of clean up, but a down to earth plan with a lot of elbow grease behind it, and that elbow grease must come from each and every person on each and every piece of property.

When the new street comes through, the new light poles go up and the downtown stores finish their front window improvements, this is going to be the best dressed shopping community in all these parts. But our back alley-ways, Tecumseh's downtown backyards, and a lot of spots in and around the residential district, vacant lots, out of the way locations, etc., etc., will never get cleaned-up if a united village-wide program isn't inaugurated. That's what it's going to take to do the job up right this year, elbow grease, properly directed in a united program and toward a really cleaner, neater, better-appearing Tecumseh from top to bottom.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK — Another week has come and gone with little notice locally, in fact no remarkable splash nationally, although the United Nations took time out to observe 4-H week and made it a vital part of its world-wide work. Why did the UN decide to encourage the development of this youth program in countries that want to remain free? It is because 4-H club members learn by doing and the principal part of their program is work. Four-H club work becomes a part of the lives of rural young people while their minds are still plastic; gives them guidance when they need it and teaches them some of the inspiring things in agriculture and farm home life. It gives them a vision of its possibilities as a life work, "To make the best, Better.

A CHILD'S WORLD — A child's world contains many small things. A favorite toy, a playmate, a pet. A child's world contains many important things too, his ability to be independent to find a world of his own in which he is free to discover the satisfaction of competitive play and the joy of exchanging ideas with his parents and friends.

This is surely every child's right, but what about the thousands of crippled youngsters whose handicap makes these simple things impossible. What can and what is being done for these children?

Because Americans voluntarily assume responsibility for their neighbor's welfare, there is an answer to that question. A good answer. All of us help to answer when we contribute our dollars to the annual Easter Seal campaign now being conducted by the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. Our dollars help provide expert examinations; medical treatment; convalescent care; physical therapy; occupational therapy; speech therapy; special education recreation; wheelchairs; braces and many other important services crippled children need.

HAPPY DAZE — If, as the Federal Reserve Board appears to suspect, "you are as rich as you feel," Americans are pretty well-heeled. To measure this mental attitude, or financial confidence of the nation, the board has had the University of Michigan interview 2,400 people in 66 different test areas during January and February.

This is the eighth such survey the Board has made and if their sampling technique is correct:

More people are planning to buy new cars, new homes, new furniture, T-V sets and washing machines this year than in 1952. The same number, approximately plan to buy refrigerators. And, naturally, more people think this a good time for major purchases than did a year ago. Eighty percent are unworried about prices, believing they will remain at present levels or go down this year. In early 1951 and 1952, more than half expected them to go up.

And even though experts are pointing with alarm to the $23,700,000,000 the American public owes the installment man, those who have to "dig it up" are feeling no pain.

We still wonder who these people are who get surveyed. Did you ever get the treatment? We never did.

Atomic Artillery Trial

The United States Army has announced that its huge new 280-millimeter gun, which was first shown last October, is being used to fire a projectile armed with an atomic warhead.

The possibilities which are opened up by atomic artillery are numerous, since artillery is an all-weather weapon, which can fire very accurately. The disadvantage, of course, is that artillery is of limited range. In tactical land battles, atomic artillery could well be decisive and it is to find out how decisive it might be that the test firings of an atomic shell are being staged.

Though there has been speculation that atomic artillery would be used in Korea, if necessary, to end the war, the latest report indicates that such artillery is not yet ready for use. The development seems ot be coming along rather slowly, although it is difficult for an outsider to judge the possibilities in such a program, which is both new and complex.

The world's first atomic cannon was being talked many years ago. soon after the 1945 blasts in Japan.

The atomic tests, which are held periodically in the United States, are necessary to keep defense officials informed on all the possibilities of atomic power. Despite its hints that a hydrogen experiment had been conducted last November, there has been no official word on further hydrogen bomb experiments in the latest series of tests.

Cash prizes totalling $1,000 will be offered in a contest to select new college marches and songs about Michigan State College. Winning compositions will be featured during M.S.C.'s centennial observance in 1955.

The contest will continue until Jan. 1, 1954, with winners to be announced before June 1, 1954. Each entry should consist of a melody line or a simple piano score together with lyrics, written legibly in ink. Judges will be nationally-famous musicians and entertainers.

Purpose of the contest, Davidson said, is to bring out adidtional music and to improve the quality and quantity of music about Michigan State College.

Berlin, 1953

During the first week in February a record number of refugees (from the Russian sector) were processed in the refugee reception center in West Berlin. On one day alone, 2,600 refugees crowded into the reception center, hoping to escape Communist domination.

For every refugee who manages to register in the West Berlin reception center, ten, who would like to flee, must remain behind. Unless a refugee can show that he was driven out of Communist Germany under a threat of punitive action by the Communists, he is not given a ticket to West Germany.

The steady flow of refugees into West Berlin is the most conclusive proof of the failure of the Communist system. It is undeniable proof to all the world that, given a choice ,the average citizen will take democracy in favor of communism, even at the price of having to leave home.

Because of the deadly propaganda effect of this wholesale exodus from the communist sector, the Russians are believed to be contemplating new measures to isolate West Berlin. Some observers expect another blockade, similar to the one which the U. S. Air Force defeated with the now-famous air-lift. The last blockade and air-lift proved that the United States was ready to fight to protect its rights in Berlin.

It is highly doubtful, after this example, that the Soviet Union will now move for a showdown in the German capital. It seems clear that the situation in Berlin is highly irritating to the Russians and that they would do anything short of war to end Allied occupation there. Until the Reds are ready to precipitate war, however, it seems there is little they can do about it.

New Ambassador To Russia

Charles E. Bohlen, who is expected to leave soon as the U. S. Ambassador to Russia, is well qualified by experience and training to handle the Moscow post efficiently. Though the loss of a man as well versed in Soviet affairs as George F. Kennan is to be regretted, President Eisenhower has picked the one man who probably knows as much about Russia as did Kennan.

It is generally agreed that Kennan and Bohlen are among the best qualified Americans available to handle the Moscow post.

It will be recalled that the Russians kicked out Mr. Kennan on the grounds that he uttered insulting words about Russia while visiting Berlin. It was widely believed that Kennan's ability to accurately sense conditions in Moscow and Russia made him a thorn in Rusia's diplomatic side. If this appraisal was accurate, the Russians will face the same problem in dealing with Mr. Bohlen.

It will be interesting to see if the Russians trump up some sort of charge against the new Ambassador also, in an effort to get him out of Moscow, as they succeeded in doing with Kennan.

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the tenth in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

The year 1831 brought a momentous change to Tecumseh Methodism: Tecumseh became the head of a new Circuit, after having been for 5 years on the Monroe Circuit. By this time, settlers were pouring into Michigan, and the interior counties of southern Michigan were beginning to resound to the sound of the settler's axe. The Ohio Conference in Sept. 1831 provided for a new far flung Circuit to be known as the Tecumseh Circuit, and appointed Elijah Pilcher and Ezekiel S. Gavit circuit riders.

This new circuit included Lenawee, Hillsdale, Branch, Calhoun, and Jackson Counties, and the greater part of Washtenaw. The circuit ran from Tecumseh north thru Clinton, Manchester and Saline to Ann Arbor, thence west through Dexter, Lima, Grass Lake, and Jackson to Marshall, thence south to Coldwater and back including Adrian.

Elijah Pilcher was a true circuit-rider, intrepid and zealous for the cause. He was a youth of 21, a daring troubadour for God, who had preached one year in West Virginia and one year on the Michigan frontier. Long afterwards he wrote a book, "History of Protestantism in Michigan," in which he drew from his experiences and his wide acquaintanceship with the early ministers of all the denominations. In his book he gives a few extracts from his journal, painting a graphic picture of his early experiences on the Tecumseh Circuit:

"Sept. 1st, 1831. I was appointed to Tecumseh Circuit with Ezekiel S. Gavit. Arrived at Ann Arbor on September 21st, and commenced my labors on this Circuit, and had to fix its bounds. I reached Jackson without any special difficulty, but this was as far west as any itinerant had ever gone. Spent Sabbath, October 2d, in Jackson, Monday, October 3, rode nine miles to Brother Fassett's, and preached a night. The Sandstone Creek was very high and without bridge, so I got into the water pretty badly.

"October 4th. Rode twenty-three miles to Marshall—a new place. Today in crossing marshes, my horse got mired down twice, so that I had to get off into the mud and water to help him out. I had to cross one creek . . . when I rode into it my horse sank into the mire and water, so that the water come over the top of my saddle. Reached Marshall late in the afternoon, wet, cold and tired.

"Sunday, October 9th. Preached twice in the private residence of Sidney Ketchum (in Marshall). This was the first visit they had had from an itinerant.

"Monday, 10th. Having hired a man to go with me to find the way to Coldwater, we set out, left my clothes and books at Marshall, and filled my saddle-bags with oats for the horses and bread and raw pork for ourselves. We supplied ourselves with an axe, a gun, a pocket compass and a map, and so started to find our way to Coldwater. We wallowed through marshes and creeks as we came to them; we marked the trees on the south side, so that we could follow the same way back. When we came to the St. Joseph River we found it very high and did not like to venture in; so we cut a tree, which reached nearly across, and one went over on that and the other drove the horses through and then followed on the tree. Thus we continued until night overtook us. Wet and tired, we kindled a fire, made a hut of brush, roasted our meat, and ate supper and went to bed, after family prayer. My great-coat made my bed, my saddle and saddle-bags my pillow. Slept some. The wolves howled most hideously most of the night.

"Tuesday, October 11th. Resumed our journey, but made no progress in the right direction. Becoming satisfied that I could not find my way through from this direction and reach my appointment at Clinton and Tecumseh on the Sabbath, we returned to Marshall so as to go back by way of Ann Arbor.

"Thursday, 13th. Rode to Ann Arbor, forty miles, over the worst road I ever met with. The Grand River at Jackson was very high, so that the log-way on each side of the bridge was all afloat. My horse soon went down across the logs. Had to dismount, help him off, and lead him across by the end of the bridge. All the bridges across the marshes and little streams were either afloat or were carried away. Occasionally I would make my horse leap across the creek, but sometimes I had to strip him and drive him through, and get myself and my baggage over the best I could.

Near sundown I reached Mill Creek, at Lima Center, where I found the bridge entirely gone, except the stringers. There was no time to parley. I stripped my horse and drove him into the creek. He went to the opposite bank, but would not leap up, and he came back. This time I put the saddle on and mounted, having left my saddle bags, overcoat and undercoat on the bank. The water came over the top of the saddle—made him leap up the bank, and we pressed on, but when we had got about half way over the wide marsh, he mired down and could not help himself. Dismounting, I rolled up my sleeves, plunged my hands down into the mud, pulled out his feet, and got them onto fresh turf, and assisted him up. Went back after my things, mounted, and rode eleven miles to Ann Arbor. Reached there about nine o'clock P.M., wet, cold, tired and hungry."

From Ann Arbor, Pilcher went "southwest, and spent the Sabbath at Clinton and Tecumseh." We are very sorry that we have no details of this. The date of Pilcher's first sermon in Tecumseh was Oct. 16.

MONDAY CLUB

A large and enthusiastic audience nearly filled the sanctuary of the Methodist church Monday evening when the Monday Club entertained the other clubs and organizations of the village. Mrs. R. J. McCoy graciously welcomed the guests and made a few announcements to the hostess club in lieu of the usual business meeting.

Mrs. Ronald Brunger then introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Mrs. W. G. Taylor of Toledo, who with background music by Mrs. Herbert Dillon and appropriate scripture readings by Mrs. Mills Swick presented a series of dramatic sketches portraying women of the Bible who are associated with the Lenten season. In costumes designed by herself and using her own script, Mrs. Taylor became, in turn, Mary, Mother of Jesus; Mary Magdela, the wicked woman: Martha, the busy housewife, and Claudia, wife of Pontius. The last presentation was in three scenes representing time lapses. Two solos by Mrs. Thomas Gallant, jr. were also part of the program.

Refreshments were served in the social room with the wives of the local pastors and the club's drama department as hostesses. Mrs. Edward Escolme and Mrs. Ralph Westgate presided at the table which was decorated with a figure representing Mother Mary.

The next Monday Club meeting will be the spring luncheon, April 13 in the social room of the Methodist church.

'Long about this time every year—when we're a little tired of winter and impatient for spring to start—we're apt to need a "pick-up" in our everyday living. There are many things to do along various different lines. However, I am just going to mention one of the simple things we can do to give a quick lift to breakfast, luncheon or dinner—try making Golden Apple Juice Jelly.

Fortunately, nowadays we don't have to depend upon fresh fruits to make our favorite jellies and jams. Frozen, bottled, and canned fruits and juices are always available and are just as good as the fresh fruit in jellymaking. Our recipe for today will be good at every meal you prepare. And, if you want to start the day right, treat your family to some breakfast pancakes topped with Apple Juice Jelly. They'll love it.

Making this jelly is very simple and inside of fifteen minutes you'll be all finished. There are three ingredients—fruit acid, sugar, and the magic-product, pectin—that are necessary in successful jellymaking. So buy your bottle of apple juice and box of powdered fruit pectin and make this delicious jelly now.

APPLE JUICE JELLY

(Using bottled apple juice)

Yield: about 6 medium glasses

3½ cups sugar
3 cups bottled apple juice
1 box Sure-Jell powdered fruit pectin

Measure sugar and set aside. Measure juice into large saucepan; add powdered fruit pectin and mix well. Place saucepan over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim off foam with metal spoon and pour quickly into glasses. Cover jelly at once with ⅛ inch hot paraffin.

Locals and Personals

Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw were in Detroit Tuesday to attend the regular and annual meeting of the Michigan chapter of the Society of the Daughters of Colonial Wars. A luncheon was held at the Ingleside Club followed by election of officers during which Mrs. Laidlaw was chosen chapter historian for the ensuing year.

MANY JOIN CHURCHES ON PALM SUNDAY

Palm Sunday services at the Baptist church were marked by special music of both the Junior and Senior choirs and by the dedication of five infants from the congregation, Lawrence T. Dermyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dermyer; Daniel Handy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Handy; Douglas Downard whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Downard; Douglas Joseph Rader son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rader and Linda Ann Conklin, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Conklin. The attendance at Sunday school, 207, was the largest record for at least the last ten years.

The Junior choir will soon be appearing in their new robes. They have been conducting a cookie sale which has netted them $85.00 to date and the young people are most grateful to those who have assisted. The senior choir will have practice Thursday evening after the service.

Impressive Confirmation services at the Lutheran church on Palm Sunday brought six white-robed young people to the altar. They were Donald Oswald, John Arft, Janice and Carl Wagner, Gerald Watson and Gay Ann Teske.

Received into membership at the Presbyterian church, also on Palm Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kreps, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Illeck, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spencer, Mrs. Jens Touborg, Mrs. Dale Bowen, Mrs. George Finnegan, Mrs. Vevia Connor, L. E. Brown Sr., George McCombs, David VanWinkle and David Finnegan.

BISHOP TO DEMONSTRATE LAWN BUILDING METHODS

Something new in home lawn building will be demonstrated Friday, April 10, 4 p.m. by Leo Bishop, pro and greenskeeper of the Tecumseh Country Club, on the property of the Hayden Flour Mill office, south Pearl street.

A member of a Red Cross home nursing class in mother and baby care practices dressing an infant. Home nursing and other health and safety services of the Red Cross cost the organization $6,398,995 in the fiscal year 1951-52.

Mr. Bishop will show operations used in beautifying a lawn under every possible condition. He will demonstrate the preparation and fitting of the ground, the actual fertilizing and seeding, and attempt to answer any questions of those who come to see the operation.

This showing is presented as a public service by the Hayden Flour Mills without charge, to create interest in improving the lawns of the community and farms of the area.

FRIENDS CHURCH HOLDS COMMUNION TONIGHT

Annual Holy Week communion services will be held at the Friends church tonight. On Friday evening the congregation will join in a Visitation Night beginning at 7 p.m.

In addition to regular Easter Sunday services, a special evening program will be held at 7:30 p.m. with a visiting missionary from the Orient here as guest speaker.

Future Farmers Attend Convention

Attending the Future Farmer's state convention March 26 and 27 were Paul Burns, FFA advisor, Merlyn Wagner, Eugene Withrow, Allen Rupert, Fred Long, and Charles Bishop.

During the convention 210 State Farmer Degrees were given out by the state FFA officers. This degree is given out to only 2% of the state's total FFA membership. It is thus a high award in the FFA. From the 210 degrees given out 20 students received a special "gold" award rating because of their excellent supervised farming program. None of the boys were from Lenawee county. There were also 19 silver awards given out because of outstanding supervised farming programs. Charles Bishop and Fred Long, both from Tecumseh high school received this award. These were the only silver awards given out to students in Lenawee county.

Fred Long's farming program for last year consisted of four dairy cattle, six acres oats, 14 of corn, 2.5 of tomatoes, and 2.75 acres of pop corn. Fred's project income was $2,702.09 and he has $4,110.00 invested in farming at the present time. He is a past vice-president and president of our local FFA chapter.

Charles Bishop's program consisted of soybeans, and corn nine acres, dairy cattle four, hogs 15, steers two. Chuck's income was $2,365.75 and he has $2,007.00 invested in farming. He is a past secretary, and chairman of our community service activities. Both boys are 18 years old and have graduated last year. They are also farming at home with their fathers Herbert Long, and Nelwin Bishop.

Merlyn Wagner represented our chapter in the state FFA speech contest. He spoke on "The Future Farmer and His Farmer Cooperative" and received a "gold award." Merlyn has represented our chapter in the same contest for the past four years and has won on the local, district, and regional levels three times and has participated in the state contest twice, coming in with a silver and gold award respectively. Merlyn has won a trip and about $50 in cash from the Michigan Cooperative Association for receiving the gold award this year.

Allen Rupert and Eugene Withrow were delegates from our chapter at the business sessions of the convention. The constitution was revised and the standards for the state farmer degree were raised. Eugene Withrow also served on the nomianting committee while at the convention.

Each of the boys gave a report to the chapter at our meeting last Tuesday night. Fred and Chuck told about their experiences in the FFA and how it helped them to get ahead in the business of farming.

Junior Play To Be April 23-24

Judy Sisson will be playing the role of the frumpish over-serious Jenny, whom a parish priest transforms into a glamour girl, in the Junior's presentation of the Broadway comedy success, "Jenny Kissed Me." The sprightly laugh hit, which the N. Y. Times critic called "good-natured family entertainment shining with humor" will open a two performance engagement at the Central auditorium on Thursday evening, April 23.

In the role of the crotchety but kindly Father Moynihan who, against his will, takes his housekeeper's niece Jenny into his rectory as a temporary ward, Alroy Valderpool will be playing the part created in New York by Leo G. Carroll. Marilou Burleson will be seen as the imperturable and iron-minded housekeeper of the Moynihan rectory while Louis Vargo has been cast as Owen, the 20-year-old youth with whom the priest tries to arrange a marriage with his ward, only to have his plans misfire when Jenny demonstrates that she has been following her own heart all along.

Bill Benham will be seen as Michael, the other man in Jenny's young life, and other roles in the Junior's presentation of "Jenny Kissed Me," which will continue at the Central auditorium through April 24th, will be played by Janet Bashore, Bill Dean, Grace Moore, Mary Nixon, Patsy Purcell and Janis Boltz. The production is being staged by Mrs. William Macbeth.

Baseball Season Opens April 17

The 1953 baseball team is off to a good start this year. The team, with Lester Runk coaching, has signed up thirty-two boys for this season. There will be cuts once or twice to make about 15 or 16 fellows on the team. The first game of the season is April 17.

There are a few boys back from last year, Jack Betzoldt, catcher; Jack Greenwald, first base; Jerry Barron, third; Albert Hart, second; Russell Hyatt, shortstop; Bill Benham, pitcher; Jim Bowser, catcher; Lowell Kelly, outfield, and Earl Kruger, pitcher.

TRACK TEAM TO MEET PITTSFORD APRIL 15

The Tecumseh high school track season officially opened Tuesday, the 17th of March, with a 47 man potential—the largest number in the history of the school. Therefore this year the team will be building more for future years than for immediate glory. This latter goal is naturally one much hoped-for and worked-for.

Lee Norcross and J. J. Walper are the managers.

Under the direction of the coach, D. K. Furbush, the Indian thin-clads will meet Pittsford on the 15th of April at 3:30 on our field. Let's all come and attend the track meets. Remember, track teams appreciate school and public attendance as much as teams in other sports do.

PATTANELLI SPEAKS AT BASKETBALL BANQUET

Last Wednesday the annual Football-Basketball Banquet was held in the school cafeteria with 46 boys, their parents, and guests attending.

After the invocation by Rev. George Walworth a delicious ham dinner was served by the domestic science class. With James McDowell acting as toastmaster the evening was very entertaining. Mr. Lawson and Mr. Murdock awarded the basketball letters and Lester Runk gave his plans for the 1953 football season. Matt Pattanelli of the U. of M. was the guest speaker. Mr. Pattanelli, along with his speech, showed movies of the U. of M. football and basketball seasons. A very entertaining evening was had by all.

By KIRBY PAGE

Take time to live! Put first things first and leave lesser things undone. Budget your time and constantly examine your use of it. An emphatic No is essential to a resolute Yes in using time. What you leave undone determines what you can accomplish. Remember that while man requires bread for survival, he does not live by bread alone, but by the things of the spirit.

Do not exhaust yourself in surviving, take time to live. It does not profit a man to gain wealth and fame and then find himself a physical wreck, a mental hulk, a spiritual derelict. Work with moderation.

Choose recreation which really re-creates. Many forms of entertainment and amusement are benumbing. Take plenty of nourishment from Mother Nature. Expose your soul to the glories of night, dawn, sunset. Go often to beautiful and hallowed places. Listen with rapture to exalted music. Let imagination take flight with the poets. Discipline your mind by absorbing the wisdom of great books. Keep saturated with the stories of noble lives. Know your Bible, especially the teachings of Jesus.

Be at home in the invisible world of the spirit. Learn to see the unseen and hear the inaudible. Be alert to the presence of the living Christ. Watch God at work in nature, in creatures, in persons. Recognize every individual as a sacred shrine of the Eternal. See to it that your friendships are kept in good repair. Participate in the fellowship of an intimate group. Take the church seriously and give yourself to it. Absorb its beauty and harmony, its truth and holiness. Spend much time in silent solitude, thinking and praying. In fervent intercession, hold up individuals before God.

Do not exhaust yourself in fruitless activities. Take plenty of time to live!

Bathtub Exits

Recent statistics show that accidents in the home remain one of the major causes of premature death and injury in the United States. The number of persons killed and injured in this way is always surprising and quite often exceeds casualties on the battlefront.

One of the culprits in the home is the ordinary bathtub, which, too often, is not level where occupants must stand to take a shower. Because more and more people are turning to showers, used with a bathtub and a curtain, this danger is on the increase.

A wise policy to follow, if your house contains such an arrangement, is insistence on a perfectly-level bottom in the tub, or a standing mat if the floor of the tub is not level. Elderly pople, who often lose their footing in a tub-shower, are sometimes killed by the resulting fall. Though younger people are less often killed, they sometimes receive life-time injuries which could be avoided if the proper-type of tubs were used, or a standing mat placed in the more dangerous type.

A word to the wise should be acted upon.

Grade School News

Grade Four
Miss Baker

We are ready for the Easter rabbit. Our room has Easter decorations up.

In social studies we have been visiting Phoenix, Arizona. We would like to see the desert when it is in bloom. It must be beautiful.

Our geography is taking us to China. We are anxious to learn about the silkworm.

March 20 we all made an "A" in spelling. We are very proud and are trying to keep our "A's".

Carol Lowe had a birthday treat for us. We enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Baily's room and our room fixed the case in the hall. We have a display of our work.

Dianne Fuller returned from Florida and told us about her trip. She has a very nice collection of shells which are also in the case. We enjoyed hearing about her trip.

Happy Easter to all of you.

Grade Three
Mrs. Ward

We have just about finished our wall painting of pioneer days.

We have a new set of library books from the school library. Everybody is very busy reading them.

Sharon Buku has just gotten back to school after having the chickenpox.

The boys and some of the girls in the room are having a baseball team at recess.

Robert Jedele has been back in school for some time after being severely burned. The burns are almost healed.

Sandra Bishop and Gail Elliott brought pussy willows to school.

Gail Elliott and Carol Greene have entertained us two or three times with tap dancing.

Maxine Fouts is still out of school. We will be glad to see her back as soon as she is able to attend.

Grade Four
Mrs. Baily

We are having a contest in spelling this six weeks period. Patty Squires and Evelyn Beland are the captains. We are all working hard at our words. The contest will end April 24.

Patty Squires expects to have her tonsils out next Tuesday. We all hope she will not be out of school very long.

We are all looking forward to Easter vacation and hope to have a good rest and lots of fun.

The girls and boys in Miss Baker's room and we have some of our work in science, social studies, reading, and language displayed in the case on the first floor this week.

Grade Five
Mrs. Whiting

We have two new girls in our room. D'Anna Rochelean came here from Royal Oak. Loxie Summers is from Flint.

The boys are working on a historical pageant for our social studies class.

Gary Hall has been very active in archery for the last two and one-half years and we have been very proud of him. Last month he attended an archery exhibition in Ann Arbor. In shooting balloons he shot three arrows at 15 yards and hit three balloons, a perfect score.

The teacher is reading "Custer's Last Stand" to us and we all enjoy it very much.

We are all studying hard on our multiplication tables because after Easter vacation we are having a contest with Mrs. Boltz's fifth grade.

Robert Dick has been chosen our citizen of the month of March.

Kay Schultz has five rabbits to sell. She is asking $1.50 each for the two large ones and $1.00 each for the three small ones. Anyone interested in an Easter Bunny?

Tecumseh
BOOK SHELVES
Library

Probably the most "browsed over" stack in the Library is the one that holds the 250 or more books of mystery stories. There are never enough new volumes to satisfy the avid appetites of the dyed in the wool "Who-dun-it?" fans, but they are always hoping to find another exploit of their favorite sleuth.

Among the recent additions to those shelves are two by Lockridge with the intriguing titles of "Dead As a Dinosaur" and "Death by Association;" two with the even more weird names of "The Case of the Moth-eaten Mink" and the "Case of the Grinning Gorilla" by that perennial favorite, Earl Stanley Gardner; "Murder at Arroway" by Helen Reilly and "Murder with Mirrors" by the veteran Agatha Christie. A gift of two volumes of the Detective Book Club series has been added to the collection lately and there is a complete set of the new edition of Conan Doyle's "Sherlock Holmes," towering in almost classic dignity over his modern imitators.

In marked contrast to such lurid titles are four recently acquired works of biography and current history. "The United States in World Affairs, 1951," by Richard Stebbins, deals as the title implies, with our diplomatic and economic relations with the rest of the world of today.

"Sam Clemens of Hannibal" by Dixon Wecter is the latest biography of "Mark Twain," his boyhood and background.

The "Lives of Benjamin Franklin and Jonathan Edwards" is a one volume, double feature from the pen of that incomparable biographer, Carl VanDoren.

For any American who wishes to review and re-live the political and diplomatic events of our country since Pearl Harbor there is the book, "The Private Papers of Senator Vandenberg," edited and arranged by his son.

All four of these are rewarding reading.

"The Immortal Hope"

By B. O. Bashore
Baptist Church

That there is a life beyond death is one of the most universal convictions of the human race. Sociologists report that it is more widespread even than belief in God or in gods. The intellect, the heart, and the conscience demand it.

> "Thou wilt not leave us in the dust.
> Thou madest man, he knows not why.
> He thinks he was not made to die.
> And Thou hast made him: Thou art just."

That conviction, common to many religions, is at the heart and center of the Christian religion and is sustained and supported there by four beliefs: the first, the imperishableness of love; the second, the nature of man; the third, the character of God; the fourth, the resurrection of Christ. Let us glance at each of them in turn.

The imperishableness of love. Love is stronger than death. Time and space are powerless to destroy it. In its nature it is, like God himself, immortal. William Penn once said—"They that love beyond the world cannot be separated by it. Death cannot kill what never dies, nor can spirits be divided that love and live in the same Divine Principle." The early Christians were certain that they were bound indissolubly to their risen Lord by the bonds of a love that was stronger than death. Listen—"Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? . . . Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

The nature of man. Christianity affirms that man is made in the image and likeness of God and that he has in him the breath of divine life. It stresses the incalculable worth of human personality. "What," asks Jesus, "shall it profit a man" — not a rich man, not a wise man, not a good man, but a man — "if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? God will never consent to the extinction of one of His children.

The Character of God. Everything you see is grounded on the character of God, on his goodness, his faithfulness, his fatherliness. It would be a denial of God's own nature if his children could be overcome by death.

And now to the foremost ground of the Christian hope — the resurrection of Christ. The first disciples realized all these things we have been saying — but the rising again of their Master from the grave was the event that first begot in them a lively hope of resurrection from the dead. He had overcome death; He was living in the power of an endless life; and by His rising again He had abolished death and brought life and immortality to light. "God both raised the Lord and will raise us through His power." That is the Christian faith. And what a FAITH it is!

RE-ZONING NOTICE

At the Village Council Meeting held March 16, 1953 it was moved and supported, that a petition from Albert J. Seitz for the rezoning of the East side of Maumee Street between Chicago Boulevard and Logan Street to Business A be accepted. That the Clerk cause this petition be published for two successive weeks in the Tecumseh Herald, designating Monday, April 20, 1953 at 8:30 p.m. at the Council Chambers as a time and place for hearing any objections hereto on the part of any person or persons considering himself or themselves aggrieved by the proposed new zoning.

Naomi Sallows,
(Apr 2) Village Clerk

Religion And Science

Recently the life of a thirteen-year-old boy was saved, in the opinion of doctors, by a court order which overruled the religious objections of his parents and allowed blood transfusions to be given. When doctors expressed an opinion that the boy would die without transfusions, the local organization of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children went into action and sent agents to the hospital.

The agents succeeded in taking the parents to Children's Court, and obtaining an immediate hearing. The judge listened to testimony of both the parents and the representatives of the Society and ordered the blood transfusions to be given. Shortly afterwards the boy was reported to be in fair condition and no longer in danger of losing his life.

We call attention to this incident to stress the fact that science is continually revealing new truth and new information to be used for the benefit of all humanity. Religious doctrines, as set up by human beings, are not infallible and must be interpreted in the light of modern science and common sense. In fact, a blind allegiance to narrow and impractical doctrinal interpretations often proves the greatest barrier to progress of the human race.

It is always surprising how tolerant people become completely intolerant in religion. Tolerance is praised as a virtue in every field but when it comes to religion, many of us mistakenly assume that we know all the answers, that we are sure to be right and the other fellow wrong, and therefore assume an attitude which makes enlightment, or progress (in case we do not know all the answers) impossible.

The great principle of democracy can be applied to the religious field as well. Respect for one's neighbor, whether or not he agrees with your strict beliefs, is an American principle too often abused. Our ancestors, many of them following the teachings of Jesus, as do most of us today, seacrificed animals and followed many pagan customs which are today discarded as backward and impractical. It is always possible that some of our practices today might be discontinued in the view of new knowledge in the coming years. Certainly this has been the case in every cycle of advancement by the human race since Jesus's time.

The world today is witnessing a battle which the Communists and other ideological groups term the battle between religion and science. The Christian world need not worry about the outcome of that battle if religion is interpreted intelligently and applied practically. Narrow, impractical interpretations aid the cause of those who argue science against religion and often are translated into untold sufferings and death among ignorant peoples who follow religious doctrines blindly.

NORTHEAST EXTENSION CLUB

The Northeast Extension Club held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Wayne Blanchard with Mrs. Robert Stone and Mrs. Ellsworth as co-hostesses. A "carry in" supper was served which was part of the project lesson on meal planning. The remainder of the program consisted of a discussion of the subject "Dooryard Flowers." Roll call was answered by seventeen members and two guests with "What we have done to improve our health." The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elmer Wilt.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

It is a rare occasion when a paper can carry the same item about the same people twice in the same issue but with a span of thirty years between the dates involved. In the Early Files under the date line of 1923 is the news that Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Exelby on March 24 celebrated their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary and the anniversary of Mrs. Exelby's birthday. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Exelby observed the fifty-sixth anniversary of their marriage and also honored the birthday of Mrs. Exelby. It was a quiet occasion, with their son Donald and family of Ann Arbor as the only guests.

Winter is about to get in its last licks, and thy are usually good ones around this time of year.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

A public record of news
and advertising printed in
Tecumseh since 1850.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER 27 — TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, APRIL 9, 1953 — FIVE CENTS A COPY

Some kind of an unofficial record was probably set by John Powell, right, when he recently landed an 11½-pound Northern Pike on the south shore of Globe Pond near the Button factory. Shown with fellow-angler George Ruhl, left, the lucky fisherman got the whopper on a spring rod, minnow bait and four-pound test line. After playing the big fellow for awhile, Powell brought in 37-inches of fish, one of the longest reported locally in recent years. No "fish story," this photo shows the big Northern on a stringer just after the catch.

Eastside Parking Lot Back In Chamber Hands

Tecumseh's hopes for a parking lot in the east section of the business district were virtually killed for at least a year Monday night by the village council — unless a voluntary merchant's group or a private individual can come up with $10,000 before April 15.

The Retail Merchant's Division of the Chamber of Commerce asked the council to offer Tecumseh shoppers additional free parking lot facilities by purchasing the Irving Shaw property, 117 So. Ottawa. The Chamber had taken a $500 option on the property which was offered for sale a short time ago, with hopes that the council could forsee a way to purchase the land with rentable house and barn.

However Monday night, Village President E. M. Campbell said the village finances do not allow for any added expenditures now and probably nothing can be done until the 1953 budget is drafted. He referred the group back to the Chamber of Commerce in hopes that a temporary stop-gap measure could be taken to save the option and hold the land for future village purchase.

The retailers, represented by Leo Lohrman, presented this letter to the Chamber:

"The Chamber of Commerce and its Retail Merchant's Division wish to present for your consideration, the proposition that the Village acquire through purchase a parcel of land, faced on Ottawa St., and directly behind the Village office and fire house, for the price of $10,000. It is felt that the property should be village owned and be used as a public free parking lot. The merchants are interested in developing that lot and two others with the thought of making Tecumseh more important as a trading center, by extending a greater convenience to the shopping public of Tecumseh and surrounding areas than do neighboring towns.

"We suggest that if arrangements, other than direct and outright purchase from present available funds are made, repayment be made from receipts from parking meters, income derived from rental of space to Butler Motor Sales and rental from the house site rented on the property during whatever time the house remains on the site.

"Whatever favorable action you may be inclined to take, should of necessity, be taken promptly, in as much as the property in point is being held on option until April 15th, and may be lost if the option is allowed to expire.

The council had a general discussion of costs and advantages of building a parking lot on the Shaw property and of possible alternate steps to take in leasing or renting the land temporarily. However, Jim Beardsley, village attorney, legally advised either an outright village purchase or a reference of the matter back to the Chamber with hopes that a temporary holding could be made until later village action.

BURT D. HAMMOND DIES IN SALINE

Burt D. Hammond, a prominent livestock dealer of southern Michigan, who was well known in Tecumseh and Macon, died Saturday at the Saline General hospital. Seventy-seven years old, he was born and lived most of his life in this area although his business interests covered a wide territory. In 1905, he married Mary Emma Cotton of Macon, who survives with a son, Dean of Ann Arbor, two grandchildren, and a brother, Ralph of Saline township. Mrs. Hammond is a sister of Mrs. Edith Cotton Smith of Tecumseh, who has spent much of her time in their home, assisting her sister during the long period of Mr. Hammond's failing health.

MAPS ALL GONE!

While the supply lasted, The Herald did a land office business distributing Michigan's beautiful new official 1953 state highway maps.

But the weekend demand was too great and Commissioner Charlie Ziegler's masterful maps are all gone. Sorry! If another shipment is received you will be notified later.

Those 500 who received the maps will find a week's reading along with a summer's adventure of discovering new trails and byways into all corners of the glorious Wolverine state.

1st Sewage Bills Issued; Garbage Service Improved

NEW COUNCIL TAKES OVER WITH APPOINTMENTS MONDAY NIGHT

Retiring village president Ed Heilman and the old council cleaned-up a smattering of back business Monday night and turned Tecumseh's reins of government over to President E. M. Campbell and the new council.

Heilman said his greatest pleasure Monday night was the cooperative spirit between the incoming and the outgoing groups. There was no ill feeling and Heilman expressed his personal best wishes to the new officials.

"More power to you boys," he concluded.

The new council first announced a number of appointments which appear on page five under the legal proceedings.

It was noted that the first sewage disposal plant operating bills have been sent out and payable with the quarterly spring water bills. This is the householder's first chance to participate in the cost of operating the new sewage disposal plant. Such charges will be made twice yearly, the next in November.

Many homes received another bill this past week for the first time. That was a $7.50 fee payable to the Jones Garbage Hauling Service in Jackson which started collections in Tecumseh April 1. The $7.50 charge is for six months in advance. The new service was complimented by the council. It is conducted twice a week throughout the village in an orderly manner. Garbage and other refuse is put into a white truck with enclosed box which presses the garbage together by means of a hydraulic press.

Also Monday night a petition by Hilda Will R. N. to allow her professional use of a home she plans to build at 201 N. Democrat, was favorably considered and referred to engineer Ed Nelson for final approval.

Three liquor licenses were issued and petition for paper pickup granted to Alfred Reeves.

George McCombs proposed an ordinance to stop the sale of obscene literature on magazine stands within the village. Attorney J. C. Beardsley said that there are state laws covering the matter but they have not been strictly enforced. A resolution was then passed to instruct the chief of police to check on such laws and see that they are rigidly enforced in the future to end the sale of all pornographic literature in Tecumseh.

LEGION MEMBERSHIP PASSES 300 MARK

A new membership mark has been established by Tecumseh's Underwood-Orr American Legion post No. 34, commander Robert Lowe announced at the April meeting Thursday, as over 300 members have turned in dues and registration cards for the current year.

This is a higher total membership than the post has enjoyed during any past year. New members will be initiated at the next meeting May 7 which will also include a fish fry.

Grenval Spangler was named local delegate to the Lenawee county Legion council with James Rohrer, Dwight Drake and Don Woods alternates.

Harold Easton presented the quarterly financial report of the American Legion Memorial Home Asn., which showed total assets in excess of $90,000.

MEETING POSTPONED

Because of spring vacation the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association has been postponed one week until Thursday evening, April 15. It will be held in the high school study hall at 8 p.m. and new officers will be installed. Refreshments will be served.

Just as all living creatures had once entered Noah's ark two by two, the followers of Christ turned out in pairs, seven sets of them, Sunday at Tecumseh's Friends church for Easter services. Pictured above are the twins as they gathered in one of the church's Sunday School rooms. Left to right, front row, Mrs. Lowell Maynard with Marvin and Merlin; Mrs. Wilbur Mead (herself a twin) with Brenda and Linda; Mrs. Richard Roost with Rebecca and Robert; Mrs. Herbert Maynard with Patricia and Pamela. Back row, left to right; Teddy and Teresa Cornell, Ann and Sandra Copeland, Phyllis and Lois Lawson. The Easter Sunday School offering of $120 was given to Priscilla and Patricia DeVol, twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Ezra DeVol, missionaries in India. Mrs. DeVol worked in Dr. R. F. Helzerman's office while her husband was in a concentartion camp and is known locally by many.

WHAT'S TEXAS GOT TECUMSEH HASN'T?

Tecumseh merchants banded together this week and asked themselves, "What's Texas got that we haven't?" as they tackled the long unconquered problem of uniting all local businessmen for constructive, progressive action.

In Texas they do things, big things, in a big way. Why? How? What method does Texas have that Tecumseh hasn't? Why is it that Texans can join hands and accomplish the things that stop people in other places before they get started?

Retailer's committee found the answer in "spirit". They are out now to inject the spirit of Texas in Tecumseh businessmen to do a big job. For they have on option on a proposed free parking lot ideally located on South Ottawa street right around the corner from Chicago blvd.

The village council turned down the proposition because of finances, but that failed to stop the Retail Boosters. With the spirit of Texas behind them, they are out now for financial aid, for backing, for dollars and cents support — $10,000 of it and within 10 days, when their option expires!

o

PLEASING OTHERS PLEASES CHIEF!

With an abundance of free time on their hands during the Easter recess, Tecumseh's school age boys and girls have herded out-of-doors in droves to enjoy spring games.

One of such games is neighborhood softball which often finds youngsters at play in the street and often finds them running across lots in quest of a batted ball.

In response to complaints that unthinking feet trample over soft lawns, flower beds and shrubs, Chief George Kilbourn asked the playful younger set to "respect the property of others."

He asked parents to cooperate in seeing that their children play in proper recreation areas or vacant lots in preference to busy streets and to guide their young ones away from the yards of neighbors.

"Just a little common courtesy will keep everybody happy," the chief surmized.

Village Clean-Up Week April 20th

Engineer Ed Nelson announced at Monday night's council meeting that the week of April 20th will be Tecumseh's annual spring clean-up week with his crew of workmen concentrating their efforts on collecting trash and rubbish.

"The success of our spring clean-up depends on the people," Nelson said in asking everyone to put containers holding trash out on the curb for collection.

Also Monday night Nelson reviewed a busy month's activity for his department with the following progress and work done during March:

We completed building walkway over Maumee bridge.

We laid 415 feet of 10-inch concrete pipe on Pottawatamie street. This is to take care of roof drain for hospital and a bad condition on East Pottawatamie street. One manhole and one catch basin was put in on this job.

Completed building VanBuren street to the new school building. The 400 feet was covered with 6" of coarse stone, and also put 25 loads of gravel on top. The street is holding up good under heavy loads.

Had installed 300 feet of 8 inch sanitary sewer on North Wyandotte street.

Had installed 300 feet of 8 inch sanitary sewer on South Maiden Lane. We have a manhole to build to complete this job.

We have a fair start cleaning the gutters and streets. Also Adams and Elliott Parks.

The foundation or footing is poured for 40 feet addition to village garage building.

We have received all necessary equipment for the fluoridation and have ordered chemical. Hope to have this in operation very soon.

Painting and other necessary work is coming along fine at the disposal plant. The State Board of Health called last week and said they were very much pleased with the condition at the plant.

Scene of Meadowridge dairy farm's 1953 registered Merit Sale of purebred Jersey milking stock is the glistening white barn pictured above at the corner of Ridge road and M-50 at Ridgeway. Some 250 cattlemen from far-reaching states are expected to bid Saturday, April 18 on 67 offerings of the world's finest bred Jersey cattle. The annual sale starts at noon and will actually be held in a spacious tent alongside the Meadowridge barn. Most of the cattle are Meadowridge owned though a number of other Jersey breeders have added offerings to the sale. Last year Curtis M. Brown and Dale Dean saw a dream come true, for after toying with the desire to promote an auction sale of cattle selected from the herds of small breeders who had followed the Meadowridge breeding program, they saw 70 head sold by 27 different farms to 34 buyers at an average price of $737.50. Mr. Dean is Meadowridge herdsman and is again directing this year's auction. This sale is widely publicized and this year has an increased prominence.

TECUMSEH CASTS GOP VOTE IN ELECTION

Along with the majority of other Lenawee county townships, both Tecumseh precincts hopped on the GOP bandwagon Monday and cast a strong Republican vote. It was that way generally throughout the state.

Township officiers were unopposed and scored as follows:

Supervisor—
LeRoy Titley	406
Clerk—
H. H. Hanna	403
Treasurer—
Lawrence Mohr	413
Constables—
Charles Manley	1
Maynard Mulvaney	1
Justices of Peace—
Robert French	22
Charles Manley	6
Glen Driscoll	1
Highway Comm.—
Robert French	1
Fent Thatcher	1
Ernest Harris	1
Board of Review—
Fred C. Dickinson	415
Trustees—
W. G Waldron	406
Florence Howe	405

Rex B. Martin, Adrian, defeated Maurice Tripp, Hudson, for the county circuit judge post 4,740 to 4,014. Tecumseh favored Martin 150 to 128.

On all state partisan offices the township followed the Republican trend.

EASTER TURNOUTS TOTAL OVER 3,000

Over 3,000 Christian worshippers turned out in Tecumseh's ten churches Sunday to observe the resurrection of Christ on Easter morn.

The total is estimated at the village's maximum church capacity and is nearly twice the average weekly Sunday turnout.

This unofficial trend indicates the world-wide movement, or Christian trend, called "Back to Christ" as a renewal of faith has been noted this decade.

Tecumseh's Community Good Friday service also had an overflowing turnout at the Methodist church.

A. L. ROE HEADS CAP BUILDING COMMITTEE

A. L. Roe was named chairman of the newly formed building committee to make plans for a squadron headquarters for Tecumseh's Civil Air Patrol. Earl Roe, Jim Sloan, William Powell and Lewis Greenman will assist the chairman.

At Tuesday night's CAP meeting Leslie Calhoun lectured on "Aircraft Instruments."

Announcement was made of a group maneuver Sunday with squadrons from Flat Rock, Adrian, Monroe and Tecumseh participating.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN NEW YORK

Mrs. Bert Creger has received word that her brother-in-law, Leon Manley died March 23, in Medina, New York. The son of Frank and Harriet Smith Manley, he was born in Tecumseh sixty-nine years ago and lived here until the family moved to Medina in 1925.

Mr. Manley is survived by a son Dale Manley, a grandson James, both of Battle Creek, and a nephew, Charles Manley of Tecumseh. His parents, a daughter, Dorothy, and three brothers, Howard, Judd and Fred Manley all preceded him in death. The funeral and burial were in Medina.

Death Ends Long Community Life Of J. L. Coller

Lester Coller was buried Tuesday afternoon in Brookside cemetery after a life of professional service to his community, which was Tecumseh.

By the record he was J. Lester Coller, 63, died Friday evening, Herrick Memorial hospital after short illness. He had entered the hospital that day and undergone surgery the same afternoon.

Born in Macon, April 20, 1889, the son of the late Jesse B. and Ida Easterly Coller, young Lester moved to Tecumseh with his parents around the turn of the century and lived here continuously until his saddening death.

Off the record he was "Rastus" to the 50 years of friends who knew the master photographer as a good-hearted, everyday, dependable fellow who would take time from his own worries to comfort and encourage others. His nickname "Rastus" came from the days when he played minstrel parts in the old Tecumseh opera house. It stuck, for its informal note typified his genial personality.

The Coller family moved to Tecumseh when Lester was in school. They operated the old Coller house, a boarding and rooming hostelry where the Ford building now stands. After high school he took up an apprenticeship in photography under Lester Abram in the age when a photographer mixed his own chemicals, sensitized his own plates and did his camera work from under a light-tight hood.

He still carried an old style portable bellows-type camera and the black cover. His lens is said to be one of the finest ever made from critical hand polished elements.

After serving out an apprenticeship in the early 1900's, he purchased Abrams Photo Gallery then located on the third floor of what is now Baldwin's Hardware. Soon after he moved across the street into the present Rosacrans building. There he operated a combination music store and photographic studio before moving to the present quarters.

His passing marks the end of one of Tecumseh's longest continual business operations by one man.

It also marks the end of 41 uninterrupted years as a volunteer member of Tecumseh's fire department, longest on the force.

His friends were numerous and from every walk of life. He had taken more pictures for Tecumseh high senior year books than anyone else. He was widely proclaimed as an artist in his profession, an old master, a craftsman of which the world has so few today. He dedicated his life to a photographer's labor and often relinquished personal gain to please others with creative endeavors that can only be measured in appreciation and cannot be repaid in monetary value.

Some thought he was too good to others, but though Rastus plied a course which led far from luxury, he leaves behind a memory of a man who gave the world a full measure of everyday goodness. His host of friends were his earthly reward.

His funeral at the Collin's Home Tuesday afternoon verifies this. Rev. Ronald Brunger's remarks and the graveside rites are all a tribute to his past service to Tecumseh. Pallbearers were from the Fire Department, Chief Cecil Alderdyce, Burnell Moon, Harold Easton, Irving Shaw, Robert Purkey and Charles Manley.

Symbolically the fire whistle blew just at funeral time. And just as Rastus would have wanted it, the force turned out to extinguished the blaze in short order.

Surviving are two brothers, Leon B. of Oklahoma City and Earl W. of Lansing; one uncle, Lewis W. Coller of Tecumseh; several neices and nephews; and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Bilby and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Kerr and family and Mrs. Tillie Tuckey and family all of Tecumseh. His parents and a brother, William preceded him in death.

TRACK'S OUR FAVORITE — With pleasure we read in THE BLANKET, Tecumseh High School's weekly column in The Herald, of the oncoming track season for there never has, or never will be, a sport that surpasses track. It's so basic, so full of thrills, so much fun for the fan as well as the athlete. Foot races were in style two centuries ago in Greece at probably the same time the Indians hereabouts were broad jumping in competitive fun.

What has happened to other sports through commercialized streamlining will never touch track. A mile is still a mile and man is still a man and though many have trained by the most rigid standards none have been able to cover the distance in less than four minutes. Time has always been a challenge to runners, so whether a meet is held here or in Argentina, the hundred yard dash is the same distance with runners facing the same fast-ticking second hand.

Watch those Indian thinclads this spring. Take in their home meets. If you are not already a cinder follower you'll enjoy the races, the competitive, clean, body building sport. You'll especially enjoy the relays, the medleys, the 440-yard (or quarter mile) run and of course the mile. There's nothing like the finish line on a close race for a thrill.

ANOTHER FAVORITE — Another story which we read in last week's issue with a great deal of pleasure was the report of Moore's Knotty Pines winning their independent basketball tournament. You can have your high school and college basketball, we'll take the game the independents play. It's routine for the kids to run up and down the hard boards, but when the sales clerks, the doctors, mechanics, office workers, etc., trot around the big floor for 45 minutes — that's sheer courage.

Most of these men are so out of condition they have to rest up after putting on their uniforms, some even call for substitutes during pre-game warm-ups. But we admire them for huffing and puffing their way through in spite of their ages. They are keeping the game of independent basketball alive, for some day it will be as popular as golf or bowlng.

HOPE HE REMEMBERS — Now that Clair L. Taylor has been elected the Republican's Superintendent of Public Instruction, we hope he remembers some of the pre-election promises he made, in particular the three-point program he sent The Herald to insure each school of the correct remuneration for its entitled number of students. His program provided for:

1. An appropriation to maintain a small field auditing staff in the Department of Public Instruction for continuous checking of records.
2. Require a financial audit in every graded school district at least every two years; the audit to be made by competent auditing firms or by an egency created by the Legislature with the authority to make official audits.
3. Empower county boards of education in the populous counties to employ an auditor to work for and with the county superintendent and cooperatively with the Finance Division of the Department of Public Instruction.

GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL — Beginning the second week following Easter, America will observe the ninth annual recognition of National Sunday School Week (April 13 through 19). Lasting the entire week, this all-faiths drive is planned with an idea of stimulating the attendance of every adult and child at the Sunday School of his own choice on Sunday, April 19th.

Sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee, a non-profit, non-sectarian organization consisting of men and women from civic as well as business fields, this worthy project is yearly highlighted throughout the entire country.

Laying foundations of faith through the training in religion for our little ones is all important if we as a nation are to survive in today's world of paganism and constant conflict. Our Sunday Schools are more than mere religious training institutions — they are a combination of the ministry and lay workers, a happy team, united in their selfless dedication to an ideal of an ever closer relation between man and God.

We Offer

Definite Assurance . . .

. . . assurance that each detail of the funeral will be beautiful and dignified; assurance of the very lowest cost and highest quality.

This assurance is backed by many years of honorable services — one of the finer chapters in the history of our profession in Tecumseh.

First Apples Grew At "Oak Opening" New School Site

The land on which the new Patterson grade school is being built was once part of an "Oak Opening," one of those clear spots in the forest which, because they were so ready for the plow were eagerly sought by the first settlers of this region.

Thus it was possible for that tract of land to produce quickly and to yield Lenawee county's first apples, first flour and first mortgage.

When Jesse Osborn settled there in the late summer of 1824 he brought with him from Thompkins county, New York, trees and cuttings of the apples for which that area was famous, and he set out an orchard that extended beyond what is now Union street. An early writer says there was an abundance of wild plums and grapes along Evans creek and on the banks of the river which the French had named "La Riviere aux Raisins." There were also strawberries in the openings, and in the forests that had been burned over by the Indians there were blackberries, but there were no apples. The nearest ones were grown by the French farmers at Monroe, two long days distant by ox travel. So this first orchard was very welcome.

Mr. Osburn was not the first or the only one to plant wheat that year, but when the first grist mill was completed in 1826, his field was the only one ripe enough to cut and thresh (with sickle and flail) in time for the Fourth of July ceremony of "turning on the water." So it was wheat from that land which was ground into flour for the biscuits and cakes of the picnic that followed the celebration.

The sale of a part of his land in 1825 resulted in the recording of the first mortgage in the county. The consideration was $600 and the buyer was Turner Stetson, a blacksmith, which explains the very odd items in its provisions. It reads in part—

"Pay or cause to be paid . . . the sum of $140.00 in meat stock, one hog weighing 100 lbs., four hogs weighing 80 lbs. each, twelve pigs each weighing 18 lbs.; one set of plough irons weighing 36 lbs.; fourteen drag teeth weighing 83 lbs., and one chain weighing 21 lbs." The mortgage was to run for five years and the paper was witnessed by Caleb N. Ormsby, the county's first doctor and recorded by George Spafford, first register of deeds and "Cousin George" to all the town.

It is doubtful whether this land will ever again produce apples or wheat, but with a school building there it may yield some "first" citizens; and no taxpayer will question that it is still capable of producing a mortgage.

STIFFER TESTS PLANNED TO GET DRIVER PERMIT

A five-point program to strengthen driver license examining procedures to eliminate incompetents at the wheel was approved at a conference on revision of Michigan rules and regulations for operator and chauffeur licenses held at State Police headquarters in East Lansing.

Although administration of the driver license law is shared by the State Police Commissioner and the Secretary of State, representatives of more than 23 state departments and associations having an interest in the problem were called in to offer comments and suggestions on the proposed program.

Their recommendations follow:

1. A new and more comprehensive written examination for beginner drivers.
2. More rigid vision tests for all drivers.
3. A two-day training program for the 1,500 licensed examiners in the state and close supervision thereafter. Those who did not attend the school would be disqualified.
4. No teporary driving permits to be issued to beginners until a check has been made of the file in the secretary of state's office containing the names of persons who have previously been adjudged by probate courts as insane or idiots, imbeciles, epileptics or feebleminded and who have not been restored to competency by judicial decree.
5. A program to obtain more complete reporting of the foregoing mental cases to the department of state.

Implied approval was given to the proposal that there be no written examination for license renewal applicants unless an examiner believes it advisable in an individual case. This is the present procedure.

On Recognizing China

It has been suggested that, in any truce sessions on Korea, the prospect of American recognition of Comunist China be held out as one of the bargaining points. This has not been suggested so much by Americans as by foreign nations, some of whom have already recognized Communist China.

While desirous of a truce in Korea, the United States Government cannot afford to recognize the Communists. Despite the questionable wisdom of former Nationlist governments, the United States must stick by Chiang Kai-shek until the government of China is more than a Russian stooge government.

It may be a question of the lesser of two evils, but, in international politics, the choice is often narrowed to such. The Chinese Nationalists are by far the more preferable. They should be supported, if necessary, for 20 to 30 years, until the desired goals of justice and order are restored in the Far East.

On Movie Oscars

Though we do not mean to be movie critics, we hasten to point out to the reader that the award of movie Oscars does not necessarily mean too much. Unfortunately, what impresses the majority of movie critics and theatregoers, in this country, is not necessarily championship performance. Indeed one can prove beyond any doubt that pictures produced on a high intellectual level do not appeal to the masses, nor the masses of critics.

Thus, in commenting on the Oscar awards from time to time, we do not attempt to take away from any one actor's or actress's laurels. The latest Oscar for the best actor of the year went to Gary Cooper, for his performance in a Western. Without attempting to depreciate the achievement of Mr. Cooper, we hasten to point out that a fellow named Marlon Brando turned in several superb acting jobs during the year. In "Viva Zapata," Brando took high honors in our book.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Great literature often brings a sense of perspective, a point of vantage from which to view human experience. History makes it easier to have faith in the law of the harvest; to realize that good harvests come from good seed, and evil harvests come from evil seed. The six-volume Study of History by Arnold Toynbee increases awareness of the suicidal nature of violence and deepens confidence in the spiritual power of meekness. Reflect on his words of summary:

"In truth, the problem of the breakdown of civilization stares us in the face . . . while only four civilizations, to our knowledge, have miscarried, as against twenty-six that have been born alive, no less than sixteen out of those twenty-six are by now dead and buried . . . Among the civilizations which are alive at the present day, every one, apparently, has already broken down and is now in the process of disintegration, with the possible exception of our own . . .

"Indeed, in no less than fourteen out of the sixteen cases in which we can pronounce with assurance that a brokendown civilization has brought the breakdown upon itself, we have found that a reckless indulgence in the crime of interstate warfare has been the main line of suicidal activity . . .

"The dead civilizations strew the deck of the ship of human fortunes; and we, and we only, are left . . . Though sixteen civilizatiions may have perished already to our knowledge, and nine others may be now at the point of death . . . we are not compelled to submit our fate to the blind arbitrament of statistics. The divine spark of creative power is instinct in ourself; and if we have the grace to kindle it into flame, then the stars in their courses cannot defeat our efforts to attain the goal of human endeavors."

Consider the wisdom of Jesus: "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth."

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Chip Pulls a "Pin"

Chip Hanson is a clever commercial artist. Beside doing cartoons on our paper, he picks up "free lance" drawing jobs.

Right now he's whipping up posters for the Safety Campaign. They all have headlines like "PLAY IT SAFE!". . . or, "A LIVE WIRE CAN START A FIRE!"

Chip looked a bit sheepish yesterday. Didn't want to tell me why. Finally he blurted out, "I feel like a dope. Here I am on this safety program and the fire inspectors tell me my own studio's a fire trap. I've been storing paint there for years . . ."

From where I sit, what happened to Chip could happen to anyone. He was just too busy informing everyone else about safety — not realizing his safety was threatened. Like those who fret about their neighbors — whether they can afford a new house, whether they should have coffee or a glass of beer with lunch — Chip simply forgot to "draw" some obvious conclusions about himself!

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB

Forty members and guests of the Wit and Wisdom Club were pleasantly entertained Monday evening by two book reviews given by Mrs. William Berkhof of Mt. Clemens, a former member of the club. Mrs. Berkhof, who has charmed many Tecumseh gatherings, discussed two books, "The Shape of Sunday" by Lloyd C. Douglas, a story of the life of the author of "The Robe" and other popular writings, begun by him and finished by his daughters after his death; and "Always the Young Strangers," the latest from the pen of Carl Sandburg.

During the business meeting, conducted by Delmar Crisp, Mrs. C. D. Branigin reported that a banquet will be held May 4, 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church. M. G. Partridge announced that the program committee had obtained as speaker the Rev. Alvin Brazee, whose topic will be "Wintering in Florida." Following the report of the nominating committee the following officers were chosen for the next club year: President, Mrs. John Lott; vice president, Charles Branigin; secretary, Mrs. Delmar Crisp and treasurer, W. G. Waldron.

Refreshments served by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. James McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Crisp, from a table beautifully decorated with spring flowers and presided over by Mrs. Fred Dickinson, closed a pleasant evening.

The nursing staff at Herrick Memorial hospital was augmented last week by the arrival of five student nurses from the University of Michigan School of Nursing. They are Miss Patricia Kula and Miss Laura Sandal of Bay City, Miss Darylene Garthe of Clare, Miss Nancy Bly of Fenton and Miss Kathleen Little of Shepard.

All are seniors and will graduate from the University in June. These students are on what is called "affiliation experience" in Tecumseh and their work here is for the purpose of rounding out their training by experience in a smaller hospital in a rural community. In fact, one of the reasons for this student program is the hope that more nurses will be attracted to hospitals the size of Tecumseh's where the need of nursing service is great.

During their stay at Herrick Memorial much hospital effort is made to give them an opportunity to observe and, where possible, to participate in community activities. A tour of the town and some social events are included and this group is to attend a county wide rally April 14, of all the high school girls in this area who are interested in a nursing career. They will also be included in a work shop for commercial food handlers to be conducted by Charles Niggeman, county sanitary engineer.

Visiting nurse groups have been part of the hospital program since 1944, when cadet nurses were sent here at part of their military training. They have come from Ford hospital, Wayne University training school and from the U. of M. Some graduates have returned here to work as a result of their visit, and nearly all have been pleased with the town and have expressed appreciation for their reception by the people of the community.

A recent issue of the MICHIGAN FARMER carried a picture of the group who were in Tecumseh last summer being entertained at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young. Those particular students were from Detroit and were unacquainted with farm life, so this visit had been arranged for them by Paul Burns of the high school agricultural department.

While in Tecumseh these University students are living in private homes.

Eastside Parking

In view of the narrow margin of financial operation, President Campbell said the village could not act this year and the Chamber would therefore have to raise the cash.

Trustee Beach said that he "hated to tell the merchants in that end of town for they deserve the parking lot, but the Council just has not the money."

Trustee Rohweder pointed to a number of added curb and gutter obligations facing the village this year.

PLAYING PIRATE? NO! YOUTH FINDS MESSAGE

Shades of Captain Kidd and the Rover Boys! It was a real message afloat in a bottle that Allen Rupert, about twelve years old, fished out of the Raisin river south of the Newburg bridge last week. At least it was a message and it read, "Captured by kidnappers, please notify police." Signed "H".

It had evidently been brought down the river by the high flood water and the paper was stained and crumpled in the approved exciting fashion, but who was the victim and where the nefarious deed was done is still a mystery. At the present writing the F.B.I has not been called in on the case.

WESTMINSTER LEAGUE

Mrs. Ben Gillis assisted by Mrs. Mahlon Sebring, Mrs. Forest Abner and Mrs. Carlyl Mason entertained the Westminster League Tuesday evening. The twenty-three members and one guest opened the meeting by repeating the Lord's Prayer and the group received two new members, Mrs. William Frownfelder and Mrs. Lester Fogelsong.

It was announced that the League will put on a bake sale Saturday, April 25, plans for which will be completed later. At the May meeting an auction will be held for which each member is asked to bring candy.

The entertainment of the evening was a one cent auction after which Mrs. Wellington Wotring conducted devotions to close the meeting. The League will hold its May meeting at the home of Mrs. Roger Linger.

ROTARY CLUB

In the absence of both Hal Kelso and B. O. Bashore, Mel Partridge presided at the dinner meeting of the Rotary Club at the Country Club Tuesday evening. Visiting Rotarians were Kenneth Glazer and Kenneth Schaedler, both of Blissfield. The junior Rotarian of the month, Jerry Barron was present and H. H. Hanna had as his guest Dewey Rhinehart, a prospective new resident of Tecumseh, who will be connected with Tresco Corp.

The program was in charge of Dr. R. J. Bowers, who introduced Dr. Robert Murray as the evening's speaker. Dr. Murray, a resident of Hawaii for two years and a-half, told of the colorful life in the Islands and showed some superb pictures of their scenery and vegetation. The pictures of the native flowers were especially beautiful and included some very unusual specimens. About fifty-five members were present for this meeting.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY FRIDAY EVENING

The Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital will hold their annual benefit card party Friday evening, 8 p.m., at the Legion Memorial Home. Refreshments will be served before the play by Mrs. R. F. Helzerman, Mrs. Mae Dillon, Mrs. Robert Hanna, Miss Geraldine French, Miss Lucille Hawley, Miss Ardis Drewyor and Mrs. Stephen Illeck. Tables will be arranged by Mrs. Al Merz, Mrs. Ted Pial, Mrs. C. W. Hanna and Mrs. Allan Russell. Everyone is cordially invited and players are free to arrange their own table groups although the hostesses will do so for those not so provided.

Players are requested to bring their own cards, score cards, tallies, etc., and all desired games will be played. The auxiliary will award several door prizes which will be provided by Mrs. Ronald Harris and Mrs. Dale Bowen, who is also the general chairman of the affair.

Contributions will be welcomed by a committee made up of Mrs. Gale Fisher and Mrs. Karl Schneider Sr. while Mrs. Charles Butler and Mrs. Frank Purcell are in charge of the sale of tickets. Letters have been sent to all auxiliary members, of record, enclosing tickets but if some have been inadvertently missed, tickets will be available at the door that evening. This event is one of the important sources of revenue for the activities of this group, who serve the needs of our hospital and it is hoped a large crowd will respond.

There are mentalities that would not care to read the daily newspapers if the sports or comic pages were left out.

Why some people take themselves so seriously is a puzzle that probably escapes their own solution.

Senior Profiles

INTRODUCING—GRETTA PORTER

Gretta Porter is that active seventeen-year-old lass with brown hair and eyes. She is very much interested in debating—being in the reserve two years and the varsity two years. During her freshman and sophomore years she played in the band and in the tenth grade was chosen for All County Band. Her role of Sarah in "The Man Who Came To Dinner" was a delight in the senior play. She also took part in the junior play. This year she is assistant editor for the "Senior Echoes." Her outside-of-school activities are swimming, hiking and the Order of Rainbow for Girls.

After graduation Gretta plans to attend the University of Michigan where she will major in speech work. These courses she plans and hopes to put to use in some form of radio work.

INTRODUCING—PETER FRANK BROCK

Pete, as he is known to everybody, was born on July 25, 1935, in Leamington, Ontario. He attended school in Canada until 1948 when he and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brock, moved to 415 West Logan street here in Tecumseh. Peter has brown hair and eyes, is five feet seven inches tall and weighs 135 pounds.

Peter has a large school curriculum. He is majoring in English, mathematics, and science. When he graduates, he plans to further his education at one of our fine colleges.

Among his hobbies are making model airplanes and tinkering with automobiles.

JUANITA DOWNARD

Brown-haired and blue-eyed Juanita Nora Downard, a sixteen year-old senior girl, stands five feet five inches tall. She hails from Tipton, Michigan, where she lives with her mother, Mrs. Nora Downard.

In-so-far as school is concerned, our Juantia is a Tecumsehite, having begun her high school here — and now bringing swiftly toward its end, coming the 11th of June! She has majored in English and history.

Following this June's "cap 'n gown and diploma days," Juanita looks forward to taking up stenography in a commercial school. At the present time she has a part time job clerking at Cameron's drug store.

Her only hobby — at the moment anyway — is roller skating. Her main hobby used to be stamp collecting.

VOLLEYBALL GAME

A volleyball game was played on Friday night, March 27 after school in the high school gymnasium. The game was played between the ninth grade boys and the ninth grade girls. Three games were played, and the boys won all three games.

The game really showed school spirit and aroused a lot of interest among the students and proved that boys and girls alike can both take part in athletics. The scores for the three games were 21-11, 15-7, and 15-5.

START REHEARSALS FOR "JENNY KISSED ME" AT CENTRAL AUDITORIUM

What happens when an 18-year-old girl is permitted to live in the rectory of a crotchety parish priest, at the insistence of her housekeeper aunt, provides the comic complications in the laugh hit called "Jenny Kissed Me," which the Junior class is rehearsing nightly at the Central Auditorium in preparation for an opening at that playhouse on April 23 and 24. This is the Broadway comedy success which critics have described as "full of charm and warmth of spirit" and "good entertainment from start to finish."

Judy Sisson has been assigned the title role of the young lady who is converted from trumpery to glamour by the priest who decides that the easiest way to get Jenny out of the rectory is to get her married. As Father Moynihan, who becomes a combination Max Factor and Emily Post in order to carry out his plan, Alroy Vanderpool will be playing the role created in the New York run of "Jenny Kissed Me."

Louis Vargo will be seen here as Owen, the 20-year-old lad picked out for Jenny by the matchmaking priest, and Bill Benham will play the other major role of Michael, the young educator at a girls' school which is an important part of the priest's parish.

Other important roles have been assigned to Marilou Burleson, Bill Dean, Janis Boltz, Grace Moore, Patsy Purcell and Mary Nixon.

Tickets for "Jenny Kissed Me" will be sold by members of the Junior class when school resumes following the spring vacation.

GIRLS GYM CLASS NEWS

To arouse interest in the girls gym classes the girls from each gym class voted by secret ballot and picked a group of nine girls to play basketball with the group of nine girls from the other class. The two gym classes for girls are second and sixth hour. The sixth hour class won the game by the very slim margin. the score was 21-19.

Grade School News

Kindergarten — Central
Mrs. Heimerdinger

Our class has made many Easter decorations, bunnies, eggs, and egg people. We dyed Easter eggs and had lots of fun! We made and decorated Easter baskets and Bunny Rabbit filled and hid them around the room. Our daddies received an Easter card from us.

We have learned several Easter and spring songs and many singing games.

We have observed many signs of spring on our walks around town. We are so happy when the sun shines and it is warm.

First Grade
Miss Warner

We finished making our weather chart this week. In March we had six sunny days and five rainy days. It snowed five days and was cloudy fifteen days.

We have had fun making Easter decorations for our room. We made Easter baskets and Easter lilies.

We learned a song for Easter, too. It is about Easter eggs.

We have missed Fawn and Judy who are sick. We hope they can come back to school soon.

Third Grade
Mrs. Colson

Our room shows many signs of spring now. Our garden is growing very fast, especially the lima beans, peas, and corn.

Other signs of spring are the birds that we have colored for our bird booklets in science class. We have learned many new things about these friends of ours.

David Brock had a birthday on March 17. We helped him celebrate, and enjoyed the pretty cakes and ice cream that his mother brought for us.

Most of the children are back at school now after much absence because of illness. We have thirty-seven children in our room now, as Edith Bozeman from Alabama joined us last week.

Fourth Grade
Mrs. Osburn

Terry Reister had his tonsils out recently.

Glen Klingensmith is a new pupil in our grade. He came here from Vandergrift, Penn.

Don Morey, Dean Eddy, and Bradley Bruce brought a woodchuck to school Monday afternoon.

Our tobacco seeds started to grow but the mice ate our plants. We set traps and caught the mice.

We are learning to write business letters in language.

Multiplying by two numbers has really stumped us.

Fifth Grade
Miss Hopkins

Ann Cameron donated to our room a map of Canada, Harriett Blanden brought a map of the Pacific ocean and one of Mexico, and Shirley Head brought a map of Michigan. These maps have been a great help to us. Roger Mead brought a chart of the presidents of the United States of America. Lee Britton brought his view master with his views of Niagara Falls. Jim Kotts brought us 32 pictures of birds.

The substitutes in the service squad took the job for the regulars for a few weeks. They are Harriett Blanden, Georgia Dinse, Carole Kilburn, and Jane Harsh.

A few days ago Mr. Greene came in to find out how many of us are going to attend Patterson school. Last week Mr. Greene let us use his projector to see films about lumbering, forest conservation, and the timber line.

We are writing paragraphs about accidents that were due to carelessness. We are beginning to use ink. We all need to be very careful to avoid spilling it.

Before school in the morning and afternoon some of the children play a map game.

Our pussy willows are going to seed.

Since James Kotts got his glasses he has begun to read story books for pleasure.

We are finishing Canada and are beginning work on Mexico.

We just finished our poppy posters in our class. We don't know who won yet but we all hope it will be one of us.

Sixth Grade
Mr. Kaiser

The sixth grades are planning to visit Greenfield Village on the twenty-second of May. Three chartered buses will pick the children up at eight in the morning and bring them back to the Central school about four-fifteen in the afternoon. The bus fare and admisison will be about $2.15.

Our tulips have not blossomed yet, but they have buds on them.

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR YOU CAN'T BEAT A

Pontiac

A GENERAL MOTORS MASTERPIECE

Its Great Name Makes Its Price Remarkable!

Consider the respect in which the name Pontiac is held—then consider that this great car is priced only a few dollars above the lowest—and you can come to only one conclusion: that here, indeed, is the biggest value your automobile dollar can buy.

The reason is very simple: Pontiac is the one car deliberately engineered to give you features of the costliest cars at a price right next to the lowest. This has been true for years—but never more evident than in the wonderful new 1953 Pontiac.

You see proof of this in its distinctive Dual-Streak styling, in its luxurious color-keyed interiors, and in its longer wheelbase and road-hugging weight. You see it even more when you get behind the wheel and realize that under the hood there's more power than you'll ever likely need. And as the years and the miles roll by, you get the most positive evidence of all in its amazingly low maintenance cost.

Why not take your first step toward enjoying the pride and pleasure of Pontiac ownership by investigating Pontiac's modest cost? You'll quickly see that so low a price on so great a car represents a truly remarkable value. Come in at your first opportunity. You'll be very glad you did.

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the eleventh in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

On Monday the 17th, Pilcher started for Coldwater. He stopped for the night at what is now Moscow and found a Frenchman who claimed to have been an Indian trader and to know the country well. Pilcher employed him as his guide the next day but he "proved to be a drunken, worthless fellow" and he was discharged at Coldwater. On Friday, Pilcher started early for Marshall, blazing the trees with an axe. "A few miles after crossing the St. Joseph River I came to my old blazes. Thus I blazed my way for twenty miles through the woods alone. Reached Marshall about sundown, tired, wet and hungry. Found my colleague, Brother Gavit, here, quite despondent because I had been delayed by a funeral.

"Saturday, October 22d. Returned to Coldwater. Brother Gavit came half way with me. We labored hard and made the way plain, and parted after prayer here, in the wild woods. Thus I have spent four days, carrying an axe and blazing the trees to make a way to get around our Circuit. My right shoulder is so sore and lame that I can scarcely lift my hand to my head. But I am resolved to presevere."

These graphic paragraphs describe quite well the hardships of the Tecumseh Circuit that first year, and show us the intrepid spirit of the circuit riders. It took each minister four weeks to go around the circuit as they finally set it up, and each man preached 27 times each 28 days. Thus there was a preacher preaching at each place once every two weeks. Tecumseh and Clinton rated preaching on Sunday, every other Sunday. The other Sunday appointments were Ann Arbor, Marshall, and apparently Jackson.

Elijah Pilcher was a man of tireless industry and zeal. During his long ministry he occupied prominent places, and was seven times a presiding elder. At Ann Arbor he studied law and was admitted to the bar; he studied medicine and was admitted to practice. Five times he was a member of General Conference. He was one of the three founders of Albion College. He gave great aid to the University from 1845 to 1850, while on the Board of Regents. He was a leader in the establishment of Michigan Agricultural College at East Lansing. Ohio University gave him an M.A. and D.D. He wrote his book which is our main source for early Church history in this state.

Pilcher was a strong preacher, good administrator, a faithful pastor, a man popular with children. Like John Wesley he was an earnest student; perhaps he also did some of his reading on horseback. His son tells us that in 1832-33, he read the whole Bible and the Christian Advocate, Wesley's Work in seven volumes, Bang's History of Missions, Bang's (this was the brother of Rev. Joseph of Tecumseh) Methodist Episcopal Church. Heckwaeler's Narrative, Watson's Conversations, Maury on Eloquence (three times), and a part of Watson's Dictionary. He read Latin and Greek fluently, and later studied Hebrew and German. Pilcher established many Methodist Churches; during his year on this circuit he organized the Churches in Marshall, Coldwater, Manchester, Dexter, Chelsea, and Saline! Surely a record achievement.

The hardships of winter travel for the circuit riders, are hard for us to imagine today. Pilcher tells us that on Nov. 29, 1831 he came to a creek, where he must pass up the channel about ten rods to reach a place where the marshy bank could be passed. The creek was frozen on the sides. He found an old handspike and broke the ice, and got into the middle of the stream with his horse. The icy water was up to the skirts of the saddle. Now he found the depth of water "brought the ice so high that the horse could not be induced to mount it.

"After beating on the ice for a while he managed to get his horse by the side of it, so as to dismount when he broke it down to better advantage, which having done, he brought the horse up by the side again and remounted and now by much coaxing and some threatening, he induced the animal to lift his forefeet onto the ice, which settled down under them. After repeated trials in this way a passage was made to the shore. It required nearly, or quite, three hours to work this passage. The work was done, and now a mile more had to be traveled, over a rough hubby road, before finding shelter. Man and beast were pretty well covered with ice, and thoroughly chilled."

Worth more... and why

There's an old saying that a thing is worth what someone is willing to pay for it. Well, if you could tour the wholesale and retail used car auctions around the country, if you could survey hundreds of used car lots you would discover that used Fords bring higher prices than any competitive make—and by substantial amounts.

THAT'S WHY we feel our '53 cars should not be compared with cars in the same price range. Not because our competitors don't do a good job—obviously they do—but because we feel Ford Cars have more in common with the highest priced automobiles. The similarities are far greater than the differences.

For example. Today, the most expensive cars in this country have V-type, 8-cylinder engines. Ford Cars have had this exact same type of engine for over 20 years.

What's more astounding, the current Strato-Star V-8 sells for hundreds of dollars less than several other makers charge for a six-cylinder car. Now there's nothing wrong with a Six but they do cost less to make. Ford makes a Six—the most modern overhead valve Six in the industry. And if it's a six-cylinder car you want, Ford has it and for less money than the V-8, which is as it should be.

What about ride? Here's another Ford similarity with high-priced cars . . . Riding Comfort. One of the misconceptions for many years has been that weight—sheer weight—is what it takes to make a car ride well. Ford has found that you can make a 3000-pound car ride softer and hold the road better by far than many cars that weigh a full 1000 pounds more. In the '53 Ford, for example, front end road shock has been reduced up to 80%. We say it compares most favorably with the heaviest cars sold today.

What about automatic transmissions? It would take the fingers of both hands to count the various kinds of automatic and semi-automatic transmissions on the market today. The one we offer is called Fordomatic. It is the most versatile on the market, it represents the most profound consideration of engine-to-wheel power transfer—and that it does the best job for our engines isn't even open to question. It "shifts" better than you could shift by hand.

What you can see is also important. Here again Ford Cars lead not only in their price field but in the medium and upper brackets as well. Ford visibility is Full-Circle Visibility. This means huge, curved unobstructed glass area, front and rear, plus side windows that allow all passengers what the hotels call "room with a view."

Appearance? A higher price, of course, does not make a car more beautiful. Conversely, beauty in a Ford comes "for free." Ford has found that it costs no more to develop a beautiful car than one that is less pleasing in appearance. You can drive up to the most exclusive doorways in the world and feel perfectly at home in your Ford. Fords "belong" . . . in exactly the same social category as the finest, one-of-kind creations. After all, a Ford is a custom creation multiplied.

What about running costs? Here's one place that Ford's advantages are obvious. For oil and gas economy Ford has the big cars whipped. Ford parts cost less. Ford service charges are less. Ford tire mileage is thousands of miles greater. And, Ford depreciation is the lowest of any car on the market—bar none.

What are Fords made of? Some people have the idea that the costliest cars are made of "better stuff." It's true that some high-priced cars have costlier upholstery and fittings. What Ford has is so good, both in durability and appearance, that you probably could not tell the difference. You might even prefer it, because of its better design and more pleasing appearance.

Then there's the question of sheet metal. If you were to measure and analyze the sheet metal structure in the most expensive car, you most likely would find it identical in thickness to the corresponding panels in Ford.

After all, then, what is the difference between a Ford and the costliest cars?

In our opinion, the difference is largely a matter of dimensions, weight (and the power required to move it) plus the distinction of owning a car that not so many other people own. The desire for these things is understandable . . . and probably justified for people who are willing to pay the price to satisfy it.

As to comparing Ford with other cars in its price range, by all means do so if you wish. But, as we said before, you'll get a better picture of Ford value by comparing with cars that are most like Fords—those that are priced up to twice as much. In fact, we think you'll quickly begin comparing the other cars with Ford—because the 1953 Ford has really established the New Standard of the American Road.

Easter Echoes

Easter is over. Or is it? Easter was marked this year, as every year, by filled churches and great triumphant services. It is not a great fundamental spiritual hunger in the human heart, which instills the desire in people to go to church on this great holy day. The sweet music of children's choirs, the stirring music of adult choirs, the Easter sermon theme, the Easter hymns — do they not still ring in our hearts this week after Easter?

To the early Christians, the great fact of the faith was the Resurrection of Christ. It was the capstone of His sacrificial death, the climax of His ministry, the manifestation of His Messiahship and Divinity. The earliest Christians, led as we believe by the Holy Spirt, just naturally worshipped Christ on the first day of the week, "The Lord's Day," for that was the day when Christ rose. Easter was so climactic that it changed the Jewish Sabbath into the Christian Sunday. Actually every Sunday is an Easter, a memorial of the Resurrection. The Lord is risen, but multitudes today do not believe it, except on Easter.

The Easter message is almost unbelievable tidings of great joy. Through the ages, the human heart has longed for the assurance of immortality. "If a man die, will he live again?" But until Jesus rose from the dead, there never was a certain answer to the question. Jesus had taught the reality of eternal life for God's people. "In my Father's house are many mansions." "He that believeth in me hath everlasting life." When Jesus rose from the dead on that first Easter, and thenceforth appeared to the disciples several times over a period of 40 days, all doubt was dissipated as to whether Jesus knew whereof He spoke. He was demonstrated as the Lord of life and death. The apostles knew then that He is "Our Saviour, Jesus Christ, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to life."

Easter brings us the assurance of victory. When Jesus hung upon the cross, it seemed that the hosts of evil and darkness were triumphant. When He rose victor over sin and death, His followers were filled with the joyous assurance that God is on the throne, and His Cause shall be triumphant.

Easter means also that Jesus is the evernear and available friend who may walk by our side, though unseen. As He walked by the side of the two disciples on the Emmaus road that first Easter afternoon and then was suddenly manifested to them, so Jesus may walk with us, and we may know the Transforming Friendship. Easter is a call to newness of life, in fellowship with the Risen Saviour.

Easter records the most dramatic and thrilling story in the world. The resurrection of Jesus — this dramatic proof of life beyond the grave for God's people — gives meaning and unity to all God's universe. Man is created to be a child of God. Man is given an eternal destiny in Christ. "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be."

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the few faithful friends I've made since moving to Tecumseh two years ago. The loss of my kid brother —Ronnie Rounds—has at least been easier to bear by knowing that someone does care. I am especially appreciative to the devotion by the Rev. and Mrs. Bashore, the loyalty of my immediate neighbors—the Meads, Bob and Myrtle Gillespie and particularly the Harold Eastons. Also my husband's business acquaintances and the fellows who offered their cars. Mrs. Jerry Dolis.

Presbyterians To Review Heritage During 125th Anniversary Services

Presbyterians will pause this weekend to mark a century and a-quarter of Christian service to Tecumseh.

"Our Heritage — A Challenge For Tomorrow" is the theme for three services, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, which will parallel the historical background of the church with the past religious life of the community.

The three services will climax detailed preparations by many of the 462 local Presbyterian church members. Many friends of the church are invited to unite in the anniversary, which is a testimony to local church men and women who followed in the steps of the Man from Galilee by dedicating their efforts to Presbyterianism in Tecumseh.

The significant commemoration of 125 years of worship will be highlighted by synod executive Dr. Kenneth G. Neigh, Detroit, who will conduct opening services Friday night. A and is available for those who wish a record of this illustrious son. She has compiled the memoirs of the church — oldest in the Presbytery and eighth oldest in the Michigan synod.

The history has been printed and bound in book form and is available for those who wish a record of this llustrious past.

Saturday night will find the junior choir and St. Andrew's choir joining to describe through music some of the and have been pictured by Rev. George Walworth as "an memorable anthems which are a part of the church's past inspiration of the rich protestant interpretation of choral worship."

Also Saturday evening Miss Carson will touch upon the more recent 25 year's past history of the church.

Climaxing the anniversary services will be the regular order of worship Sunday morning with emphasis upon rededication of the refurbished sanctuary. Dr. George M. Gibson, McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, will be guest pastor. His subject is entitled, "Christ of the Onward Way."

Young people of the church will act as ushers on Friday and Saturday nights. Old church records and other historical documents will be on display. Some of these ancient archives have been returned here from the Michigan historical collection in Ann Arbor.

Many of the older members of the church will be on hand Friday night when special recognition will be made of the Presbyterian pioneers in Tecumseh. Former pastors will also be honored.

Former pastors of the church who are still living include:

1914-1920—Rev. W. A. Rex, 13 Circular St., Tiffin, Ohio.

1920-1924—Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon, Mineral Ridge, Ohio.

1924-1936—Rev. Bertram L. Davies, Polo, Ill.

1937-1941—Rev. Eldridge McGehee, Cottonwood Falls, Kansas.

1947-1951—Rev. D. C. Wilson, Wilmington, Delaware.

WILLIAM H. JACKSON BURIED IN BROOKSIDE

William Henry Jackson, who for the past five years had lived in the home of Mrs. Louis Putnam, 504 W. Logan street, died at 12:30 Monday morning in Herrick Memorial hospital, where he had been a patient for only a few days.

Sixty-four years old, Mr. Jackson was born May 6, 1888, in Toledo, Ohio, and had been employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. for ten years.

He is survived by a brother, Austin E. Jackson of Toledo.

The Rev. Edward Escolme had charge of the services at the Collins Funeral Home at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday afternoon and burial was in Brookside cemetery.

POLICE BUSY ISSUING SPEEDING SUMMONSES

Spring weather was the only reason Chief George Kilbourn could find for the large number of traffic violations the village force has issued this week for speeding. With the advent of nice weather, motorists have simply stepped on the gas to the point where law enforcement officers issued almost record summonses to the following: Grady Scott, Adrian, speeding; LeRoy Biddix, Tipton, speeding; John Powell, speeding: Max Gilpin, Camden, noisey muffler; Robert Koogan, Toledo, speeding and Emil Denkel, Detroit, speeding.

Hershel Martin, Mt. Clemens, was arrested Saturday for reckless driving and paid a fine of $50 and $8.60 costs after pleading guilty to Justice Robert French. Orville England, Monroe, was also arrested Saturday for being drunk and was fined $10 plus costs.

Plans For Road Work Announced

CONSTRUCTION ON NEW EAST BRIDGE STARTED

Final plans for paving 3.588 miles from Billington's Corners to Democrat street on West Chicago blvd., have been completed by state highway officials and announcement was made this week that actual work by the Knapp Construction Co., Monroe, will start April 20-27.

Without weather delay this project should advance rapidly from the west toward Tecumseh and be completed early in the summer. Primary grading and engineering work have already been completed.

Meanwhile a companion projetc, indexed 469C9 by state engineers, which includes widening and resurfacing Chicago blvd., within the village limits, is expected to get underway about the same time. However the latter job involves more primary work and will probably take all summer.

This work includes taking out the island between Ottawa and Oneida streets on east Chicago and narrowing all the other islands from 18 feet to four feet wide. The railway tracks will be raised three and one-half inches, which will close off Tecumseh's main street for over a week later this summer. Finally the entire boulevard, from one end of town to the other will be resurfaced with three inches of ashphalt paving. The present concrete will remain with the black-topping going right over the top.

William J. MacCreery is state highway engineer directing the job.

Also of interest to motorists is the work started this week by Ruckman-Hansen bridge contractors, Ft. Wayne, on the $600,000 Raisin river span at East village limits.

The new concrete bridge will straighten out a bad curve in the old road. New approaches will connect the bridge to M-52 which was resurfaced last summer.

After the new bridge is completed, which is expected without delay as materials have been received, the old bridge will be entirely removed and the Raisin river channel straightened.

History dating back to 1828 will be reviewed this weekend during three religious services which mark the 125th Anniversary of Tecumseh's Presbyterian church. The spacious present Gothic type building, pictured above, serves 462 members, who will unite with friends and guests under the anniversary theme, "Our Heritage — A Challenge for Tomorrow." Cornerstone of the present church was placed in 1866 under the guidance of Rev. S. E. Wishard. The sanctuary has been recently refurbished.

McLaury Is New A&P Manager

SHENEFIELD MOVES TO TOLEDO SUPERMARKET

Carl McLaury assumed managership of Tecumseh's A & P food store Tuesday following the transfer of Yale Shenefield to Toledo.

McLaury has lived in Tecumseh since he managed the local store during World War II while Mr. Shenefield was in the Armed Forces. Since then he has maintained a residence here while managing the Blissfield store.

The move to Toledo puts Shenefield in line for a promotion to a supermarket. He will first be assistant manager of such a store for six weeks at the corner of Detroit and Dorr. After that a permanent transfer is expected. Mrs. Shenefield and two children will remain in Tecumseh until that time.

The Shenefields came here from Coldwater in 1942. He served in the Air Corps for three years. In community activities he has been a member of the P.T.A., Rotary and Commerce Club. He was an active Friday night supporter.

Mr. McLaury is married, has a son in school and a daughter who graduated last year.

AID TO THE BLIND IS LECTURE TOPIC

"Rehabilitation for the Blind" was the topic of a lecture given at the Baptist church last Thursday evening by Willard Perrine, specialist, Division for the Blind, State Department of Social Welfare for Michigan. A short organ prelude was played by Mrs. Kenton Hunt, who accompanied the Arnold sisters in a vocal duet, "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Perrine, who has only 5% vision himself, but who is able to travel anywhere without help, told how he and his two assistants contact employers and visit their plants to see what jobs are available that are suitable for the blind. They then train the blind person to travel from home to work, how to locate his job and how to put out production as well as a normal sighted person. They train men and women for work that varies from typing to punch presses. Just recently Mr. Perrine trained the seventeenth employee in the Oldsmobile plant in Lansing.

He stated that while not every blind person is capable of holding down a responsible job, perhaps because of other physical handicaps, those who can may earn an excellent salary instead of the $50 monthly pension allowed by the State.

C. O. BUTLER AT GAME WITH FORD DEALERS

C. O. "Chuck" Butler is in Detroit today attending the opening Tiger baseball game with a number of other Ford dealers who qualified for the "Big Wheel" club by outstanding sales and management.

His qualification for the club gives Mr. Butler an invitation to a dealer's luncheon before the game and reception afterwards.

THOMAS P. BREEN BURIED MONDAY

Funeral services for Thomas Patrick Breen were held Monday, 2:30 p.m. at the Collins Funeral Home. Mr. Breen, 80, died Friday morning at Herrick Memorial hospital. His home was at 505 N. Union street and he had been a patient at the hospital for the past six weeks.

Born in Tecumseh, Nov. 26, 1872, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Breen, he had lived here all his life with the exception of a few years spent in Detroit. Mr. Breen attended St. Peter's Episcopal church and was a member of Tecumseh Lodge of the Knights of Pythias. He retired two years ago from the Tecumseh Products Co. where he had worked for several years.

Survivors are his sister-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Breen, four nephews and three nieces. His brother, Frank Breen, preceded him in death March 21, 1953.

The Rev. Edward Escolme conducted the services and burial was in Brookside cemetery the bearers being fellow members of the K. of P. Lodge, Luther Wood, Robert Wood. Henry Kempf, Carl Kempf, Carl Thompson and Arthur Harding. Friends and relatives attended from Detroit, River Rouge and Tecumseh.

CALM DOWN WHEN REPORTING FIRES

There's nothing tougher for Tecumseh's volunteer fire department than chasing after a blaze of doubtful location.

When calling in an alarm, simply tell the operator, "I want to report a fire." Do not call 674. Just tell the operator and she will connect you at once with the fire station attendant on duty 24 hours a day.

When the fireman first answers tell him your name. Take your time to speak clearly and distinctly, report the exact location of the blaze. The attendant knows that you are in a hurry and that an emergency situation exists, and the force is as anxious to be on the scene as you are.

So do not confuse matters with any more excitement. Speak clearly, give your name first and the exact location of the blaze and then be on hand to help direct the trucks if the blaze is not obvious.

Monday evening firemen answered a call on Occidental road that was difficult to locate from the description and by the time they arrived the blaze had almost gone out by itself.

It is part of the department's job to answer all calls, which they gladly do, but Monday's call cost the township $22 and had the force out when a major fire could have caught the village almost unprotected, at least momentarily.

Legion Auxiliary Plans For Annual Poppy Day In May

As Tecumseh's American Legion Auxiliary completes final plans for the annual Poppy Day Sale May 22-23, Mrs. Leland Cheever, 1953 chairman, explains the following meaning behind Poppy Day and its important part in the veteran's aid program. Mrs. Cheever is assisted in making arrangements by co-chairman Mrs. Alta Thompson, with the entire Auxiliary participating.

"The American Legion Auxiliary Poppy is a crepe paper replica of the famous poppies which took root and blossomed on the battle graves of Flanders Field in World War I. It is now worn annually on Poppy Day as a remembrance — and to raise funds for aid to disabled veterans and their families," Mrs. Cheever reports.

"During the winter months in government hospitals and work shops, poppies are being made by our disabled veterans. It is not an easy job for a disabled veteran to make a poppy, since many work in wheel chairs or in hospital beds. Many of them are not able to make a complete poppy because of crippled hands, but they do what they can, then pass the flower on to other verterans to be completed. All are grateful for the opportunity to make our poppies bloom.

"Because of this employment, families are held together and provided for while the father is in the hospital. It comforts and cheers the disabled veteran to be able to contribute to the support of his loved ones. In March, the American Legion Auxiliary units start ordering their poppies from the disabled veterans so that they may bloom over the hearts of all Americans on 'Poppy Day.'

"May 22 and 23 will be 'Poppy Day' this year and Post 34 has ordered 5,500 poppies due to the increasing amount of veterans in the hospitals. Money received from sale of poppies is kept in a separate fund and used for many things such as gifts and wrapping paper which are sent at Christmas time to the gift shops at the Veteran's hospital. Some of the members of the Auxiliary go to the hospital before Christmas and help the boys select gifts and wrap them for them.

"Yuletide packages are sent to all men in the service who are overseas. Money and cards are sent to boys who are in the states. Money is sent to veterans hospitals for the cigarette, candy and wheel chair fund. All funds raised are used to make life more pleasant for the disabled veteran and his family," Mrs. Cheever concluded.

Construction Of Motel Started

A new motel of four units is being built on Mill street south of Brown street by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hamaker. It is expected to be completed about the first of June.

The rooms are for overnight sleeping facilities only, each room having individual tub and shower bath. The building will be of frame construction with aluminum window frames, storm windows and screens.

It will be known as the Tecumseh Motor Court Motel.

Other features will be automatic gas heat, full insulation and sound proofing, softened hot water and indirect lighting.

This motel will accommodate up to twelve persons. Provision is made for adding more rooms if justified. Mrs. Verna Hamaker will personally manage the motel.

RED CROSS DRIVE STILL SHORT $500

Mrs. L. W. Larsen, local Red Cross chairman, announces that although the annual fund drive closed officially April 1 — unofficially, donations will be welcome indefinitely, especially until May 1 when the local collection will be turned over to the county organization.

Tecumseh is lagging behind its $2,300 quota by nearly $500. As this is the first time the village has ever failed to meet its obligation to this service organization, it is earnestly hoped by Red Cross supporters that further liberal donations will be sent to Mrs. Larsen.

NO DECISION ON NEW PARKING LOT

Hope for development of a new free parking lot on South Ottawa street to serve the east section of Tecumseh's business district were dim this week as a $500 option on the Shaw property runs out today. However, the Retail Booster's committee of the Chamber of Commedce has asked for an extension until April 30 in hopes of working out a new plan to purchase the property.

Leo Lohrman, committee chairman, said that $2,000 has been pledged by merchants as a loan toward the $10,000 total purchasing price.

7TH DAY ADVENTISTS BEGIN WELFARE DRIVE

Pastor C. B. Church announced that the annual ingathering and welfare work of the Seventh Day Adventist will be launched in Tecumseh and vicinity by the Tecumseh members in the next two weeks beginning April 20.

Rev. Church favorably commented on the community's fine support of the drive last year.

"We will be calling on the business firms and residential homes in the next few days," he said.

Rev. Green Heads European Tour

FORMER LOCAL PASTOR DIRECTS YMCA TRIP

When the YMCA of Dearborn heard that the Rev. Edward R. A. Green, rector of Christ Episcopal Church in Dearborn and formerly rector of St. Peter's Church in Tecumseh was going to Europe this summer to meet his son, David, an exchange student in Germany, he was asked to be the escort for the Second Annual European Tour sponsored by the Dearborn "Y."

REV. GREEN

This is a 42 day tour, leaving July 1 by ship, and returning August 11 by plane. The trip through Europe will be made on a chartered bus, and will include all the important places in the following countries, allowing several days in each: England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Italy, France, and Switzerland. The tour has been planned for young people of high school and college age and for adults. The total cost, covering all expenses, is $1195.00.

While this tour is sponsored by the Dearborn "Y," it is open to people living elsewhere. Students and teachers will find this tour particularly attractive because it offers so much with excellent accommodations at moderate cost. Reservations are still available.

Mr. Green became the rector of St. Peter's church here in 1934 following his graduation from the seminary. In 1935 he was married to Fannie Nadler of Milan. While in Tecumseh, he belonged to the Rotary club, and was the District Governor's representative when the Tecumseh club sponsored the Clinton Rotary club. He was on the original Board of Directors of Herrick Memorial hospital. His activities included many other community affairs, especially those related to youth work. Mr. Green left Tecumseh in 1941 to become rector of St. James' church in Sault Ste. Marie. Prior to going to Dearborn a year and a half ago, he was Canon Pastor of St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit.

David Green was born while his parents lived in Tecumseh. He is presently registered at Phillips Academy in Andover, Mass., and through school arrangements, is now studying in Germany.

LAST CALL FOR CLEAN-UP WEEK

Next week village residents will join in a wide-spread spring house cleaning program to haul the refuse which is always left in the wake of winter.

Village workmen are set to make it a thorough clean-up campaign by adding their services and equipment in a free pickup of rubbish in every corner of Tecumseh.

Each householder is asked to cooperate in the campaign and "police his area" as the Army slogan aptly orders.

Next week's pick-up schedule includes the following stops: Monday, southwest; Tuesday, southeast; Wednesday, northwest; Thursday, northeast; Friday, Herrick park and general. Call the village office before Friday if a pick-up has not been made at your residence.

Conlin Replies To Adamson Letter

CHALLENGES CHARGE OF RAISING TAXES

(Following is the copy of a letter which Rollo Conlin sent to George Adamson as an answer to an earlier letter which The Herald printed after Mr. Adamson had written to Rep. Conlin)

April 13, 1953

Dear Mr. Adamson:

This will acknowledge your letter of March 24 relative to the tax problem that is currently confronting the State of Michigan and the suggestions and charges you make therein.'

First let us examine the statement you make "that all politicians, myself included, are always seeking to raise taxes." For my part, I sharply challenge that accusation. It is a matter of record that as a member of the appropriations committee of the House of Representatives, I have not only diligently sought to hold down appropriations, but have also consistently sought to make adjustments that would repair to some extent the damage inflicted when the people voted by initiative action to divert the major portion of the sales tax to local government and the school districts. I said at the time and have often repeated since, that the manner in which sales tax diversion was written into the Constitution would eventually bankrupt the state. I have further consistently sought to limit further expansion of state service that was not absolutely necessary.

It would be ridiculous for me to attempt to outline all of the complex details of the present fiscal situation, with all of their ramifications, in this letter. I shall have to be content to point out that the people placed the control of the salaries and classifications of state personnel under a Civil Service Commission, diverted the major portion of the state sales tax for the schools and local government, and restricted the gasoline and motor vehicle taxes for highway uses only, all by Constitutional amendments.

Even our universities and colleges are controlled by boards which have constitutional authority beyond legislative control. We still have to provide for the prisons, which are presently a pressing problem, the State's tubercular hospitals, and the huge mental institutions which must be operated.

Now, for your suggestion that the State should not furnish a new plate every year, but only a small metal tag to be affixed each year to the original license. This was done through the war years in an effort to save steel, but it is frowned upon by most enforcement officers as being too easy to duplicate and too difficult to distinguish. As a matter of fact, law enforcement officers are practically unanimous in their demand that Michigan go back to using two plates, one for front and one on the rear, as most other states are doing. This, they claim, is a great aid in apprehending stolen cars and identifying cars involved in accidents or other violations. As for the suggestion that all license plates be mailed from Lansing, I am sure that just the postage involved would cause an increase in costs. We would still have to have the employees at Lansing to process the applications and mail the licenses which now go from the prison where they are made, by truck lots to the branch office, all with prison help. Then of course the public would be seriously inconvenienced by the delay involved, particularly on sales of new cars. A purchases of a new automobile would undoubtedly have to wait a week or ten days or possibly longer before he could receive the license plates permitting the use of the car on the highway.

I naturally would favor any saving that could be made in this area, as any saving on these costs would provide that much more money for highway construction, however, as these funds are not general fund money but are restricted for highway use, such savings would not provide one nickel toward solving our present financial difficulty.

I regret the delay in replying to your letter, but the work here has been so pressing that I have had to delay answering all correspondence that did not necessitate an immediate reply.

In conformity with your purpose, I am sending a copy of this reply to the Tecumseh Herald.

With best regards, I am

Cordially yours,
Rollo G. Conlin

TB GERM NOT FUSSY—The tuberculosis germ isn't fussy when it picks its victims in Michigan, says the Tuberculosis Association. A pile up of reports on adults who fal to get annual chest X-rays because "TB doesn't hit people in my kind of work," brought a caution that anyone can catch the disease—from blacksmith to housewife. Dug up was a list of occupations of TB patients admitted to the Howell state sanitorium in November and December last year. It included: housewives, students, teachers, maid, sweeper, shoemaker, tree expert, bartender, short order cook, clerk, interior decorator, mason, lathe operator and blacksmith. The number of new TB cases reported in Michigan stands at more than 6,000 in 1951, the association said.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CREED . . .

"I believe that the public schools are essential to our democratic way of life.

"I believe that good schools are the right of every American boy and girl.

"I believe therefore, that every adult has the obligation and the privilege to share in providing the best public schools.

"I believe that while education is the legal responsibility of each of the 48 states, in the long run they discharge their responsibility best by delegating the major share of the control of operations to the local communities.

"I believe, however, that the state must retain the legal responsibility and, therefore, is obligated to see that the communities provide good schools.

"I believe that the programs and procedures of the schools of any American community, no matter how good they may be, must never remain static and must be constantly reappraised to meet changing needs."

PREVENTING HOME FIRES—Attic and basement accumulations of rubbish, old clothing and just plain junk are major home fire hazards. For years, fire safety experts have been urging families to dispose of this trash. Now, a simple and inexpensive way has been found to do this — without even leaving the house. The answer might be a home incinerator, located either in your kitchen or basement. This year, about 350,000 homes either will be destroyed or damaged by fire, with rubbish to account for some 40,000. Junk and trash piled near the heating unit, chimney or radiator, or underneath stairways and in corners is simply an invitation to a disastrous fire.

Television treat—
the BUICK CIRCUS HOUR
—every fourth Tuesday.
The TAKE-OFF'S
TERRIFIC!

It's only fair to warn you.

When you try a new Buick with the sensational Twin-Turbine Dynaflow Drive,* you'll tingle all over with thrill.

You'll sweep your speedometer needle from zero to 30 mph so quickly, you won't have time to breathe but twice. You'll move from a standing start to legal speed so quietly, you'll practically hear your heart beat. You'll experience such complete and utter smoothness every step of the way, you'll be wholly relaxed, refreshed, and ready for more.

This is not dream stuff. This is real.

This is what actually happens when you're at the wheel of a new 1953 Buick with TT Dynaflow.

Twin Turbines in the Dynaflow unit, instead of just a single one—in addition to other engineering advances — make the tremendous difference.

So you feel a firmer and more immediate "take hold" — get far faster getaway, new quiet and efficiency, plus infinite smoothness to and through every speed range.

There's a lot more to be had, of course, in these great new Buicks. Higher horsepowers and compression ratios. A still finer ride. Easier handling. Improved visibility. More comfort and richer interiors.

But start with take-off — the greatest in Buick's fifty great years—and learn the rest of the story from there. Can you drop in on us this week?

Area Farm Crops Need More Rain

HERALD SURVEY SHOWS FIELD WORK ADVANCED

Back files of the Herald indicate that in years gone by "ye editor" made a practice of driving through the surrounding country in his horse and buggy, interviewing his farm friends, gathering news (and subscriptions) and reporting on the condition of the crops at that particular season. Following his example, but substituting the telephone for the "surrey with the fringe on top" a limited sampling of opinion this week resulted in an outlook of cautious optimism.

The question of how the wheat "came through" brought varied answers reflecting the sharp contrast in soil within a few miles. On the "light soil," notably in Raisin, reports were very good. Wallace Bryan and his son, Robert, who farm land that has been in the family more than one hundred years report theirs in good shape, as do John Calhoun and son Leslie on the Rogers highway.

Northeast of town however, on heavy clay, Charles Allen has a complete failure due to lack of rain last fall and his neighbor Wilbur Boyce's fields are very "spotty." On the five hundred or so acres of Meadowridge Dairy farm, "Bill" Brown reports both wheat and seedings suffered from lack of snow cover this winter though both would improve given adequate rainfall.

Any rain at all might have saved an experiment carried on by Leslie Calhoun last fall. He used his airplane to sow clover seed and grain in standing corn, only to have the sprouted seed burn up from lack of moisture. He is not discouraged with the method, however, and will try again when conditions are more favorable. Established seedings wintered fairly well nearly everywhere.

Progress of spring plowing varies also with the type of soil. On gravel and sandy loam, farmers have oats drilled and other land plowed. Only on the clay has plowing been delayed until this week. Of all the reports received perhaps the most optimistic was that of David Gibson, who though retired from active farming, keeps an informed eye on the thousand acres of "prairie land" managed by his son-in-law, Stanley Woods. Driving often through the Holloway area, he reports spring work well advanced for the time of year and sees much improvement in wheat that looked hopeless last fall.

One crop at least was favored by the open winter. Ed Aebersold says his apple orchard is in splendid shape, as are other varieties of fruit trees. Only a late hard frost, a bad hail storm or a prolonged drought can prevent a bumper crop this season.

On the whole it was a cheering outlook for the 1953 season, with the same underlying theme of the horse and buggy days, "it will be a good year if only we have rain."

Comic Red Skelton, encouraged by his son Tim Considine, starts a comeback in this scene from the comedy-drama "The Clown." Sun., Mon., April 19, 20 at the Strand Theatre.

P. T. A. MEETING

The April meeting of the Parent Teachers Association which was postponed from the regular meeting time last week will be held at the high school building this evening at 8 p.m. New officers will be installed and refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

The Effects Of Decontrol

The first days of business without price controls have varied little, generally speaking, from the days of control. President Eisenhower removed price controls early in February and there were differing predictions on the outcome of the step.

There have been cases of almost immediate price hikes. Standard Oil of California announced, in mid-February, that it was raising the retail cost of gasoline 2.1 cents a gallon at Standard service stations in five Pacific Coast states, Hawaii and Alaska. Standard had requested permission to invoke such an increase as far back as last August, when the Office of Price Stabilization was operative.

Other companies have moved to increase prices since the death of price controls. However, on the whole, the general price level has not begun any steep rise as a result of the decontrol move. Many prices, on the other hand, have continued to go down.

While it is too early to appraise the result of the decontrol move, it may be said at this stage that the immediate effects have not been severe, in either direction.

---o---

The Vitamin Craze

Dr. Maxwell M. Wintrobe, a specialist in the treatment of anemia, says many people would do better to buy meat and vegetables in the grocery store rather than spend money on vitamins. He terms "shot-gun" doses of such food supplements as iron, and other minerals, a waste of money in many cases.

Dr. Wintrobe believes a person has to be "pretty hard up" or a fadist to develop a nutritional defiency these days. "Persons of normal appetite or even slightly subnormal appetite will get all these substances they need in foods they eat," he says.

Further, Dr. Wintrobe asserts "There is no justification for the general use of such substances as Vitamin B-12, ascobic acid and copper." In the treatment for anemia, each treatment is designed for a different type. In at least one case, one remedy for anemia is dangerous if used in treating another type. The best advice is therefore to eat a balanced diet, or see a specialist.

CHARLENE JOSEPH BRIDE OF ROGER C. WILLIAMS

An impressive ceremony Friday evening in the Tipton Community church united in marriage Charlene Marie Joseph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Joseph, and Roger Carl Williams, son of Mrs. Bernice Williams and the late Carl Williams, both of Route 1, Tecumseh. The double ring ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Dr. A. E. Jervis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in Chantilly lace and tulle, with fitted bodice and illusion yoke outlined in appliques of the lace pattern. A waltz-length skirt of gathered tulle over satin was scattered with tiny lace flowers. Satin leaves on a shirred tulle brim with a fingertip veil of illusion formed her headdress. Her arm bouquet was of miniature calla lillies, and she wore a rhinestone necklace, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. Earl Case of Blissfield sister of the bride, assisted as matron of honor; Mrs. Joseph Studnick, Britton and Miss Verlaine Sanford, Sand Creek were bridesmaids; Mary Ellen Williams was junior bridesmaid: June Marie Case, flower girl; and Jimmy Case, nephew of the bride, ring bearer. Serving Mr. Williams as best man was William Furgason and Jerry Murphy and Donald Aebersold were ushers.

Floor-length taffeta gowns styled identically with boat-shaped necklines and full skirts were worn by the bride's attendants. The matron of honor in pink, Mrs. Studnick in blue and Miss Sanford in green, wore braided taffeta tiarras with flower clusters matching their bouquet of spring flowers, carried in arm baskets. The junior bridesmaid and flower girl, gowned in yellow and white respectively, carried baskets of daises and sweetpeas.

Both mothers wore navy blue gowns with navy and white accessories and corsages of Pinnocchio roses.

Nuptial music was played by the organist, Mrs. Lester Munger, preceding and during the ceremony and Mrs. Charles Driffil sang "Because" and "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held in the church basement. Refreshments were served from a linen covered table centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Warren Finkbeiner, sister of the groom, cut the cake and in charge of coffee and tea services were the Misses Joan and Marilyn Whelan. Assisting were Mrs. Frederick Mattis, Mrs. Harold Anderson and Mrs. Faye Luce. Mrs. Lewis Blaisdell was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left later on a week's trip through the southern states and will make their home in an apartment on Russell Road upon their return. The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh high school, Lenawee-Monroe County Normal and is teaching in the Franklin Center school at Tipton. Mr. Williams also graduated from Tecumseh high school and served two years in the army. He is now engaged in farming.

Monday Club Has Spring Luncheon

Eighty members and guests of the Monday Club attended the annual spring luncheon held in the social rooms of the Methodist church at 1 p. m. Monday. Tables were beautifully decorated in spring colors, each centered by a bouquet of vari-colored sweet peas, snapdragons, daffodils and iris. Each place setting was marked with pastel colored nut cups and napkins. Luncheon was served by the W.S.C.S.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Ronald Brunger after which Mrs. Murray Day presented the religious thought in song, her selection being from Psalm 139, entitled, "Whither Shall I Go From Thy Spirit." She was accompanied by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

Mrs. McCoy, club president conducted the regular business meeting introducing the nine past presidents who attended. The president announced the 48th annual convention of the Lenawee County Federation of Women's clubs to be held in the First Baptist church, Adrian, April 16. The afternoon speaker will be Dr. Tennyson Guyer from Findlay, Ohio, who is known as Ohio's "Ambassador of Goodwill." She also announced that the annual convention conference of the Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs will be held April 15, 16 and 17 at Michigan State College, Kellogg Center, East Lansing, and that the Adult Education Day will be held in Ann Arbor May 13 and 14.

Club officers then gave their respective annual reports, after which the president turned the meeting over to Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, chairman of the music department, who in turn introduced the leader of the day, Mrs. Ralph Westgate. Mrs. Westgate presented a chorus from the Music Club who sang the following numbers: "Springtime Music," "May Day Carol," an old English folk song, and "Rustle of Spring" by Sinding. A group of solos by Miss Joyce Whitmore, accompanied by Douglas Clapper, both of Adrian College was greatly enjoyed.

The drama department then presented a comedy entitled "Her Kingdom", written by Ruth Sayre Bitter which portrayed everyday life in a home with teen-agers. Directed by Mrs. Truman Rentschler, the parts were portrayed by Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, Mrs. John Quigley and Mrs. Lynn Hubbard.

The closing number on the program was a musical selection, "Homage of Verdi" played on two pianos by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, Mrs. John Hamilton, Miss Diane Wodward and Miss Brenda Porter.

Mrs. McCoy introduced the officers for the ensuing year: president, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara; first vice president, Mrs. Joe Rice; second vice president, Mrs. Herbert Murphy; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Bonner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Nina Heath and treasurer, Mrs. Ted La-Bounty. New executive board members are Mrs. Joe Rice and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

Two Boys Saved From Train

Two four-year-old boys wandered down the railroad tracks near their homes recently and, finally, sat down exhausted between the rails. As they played happily, a passenger train bore down on them from the North.

Luckily, Engineer James Pattera saw the tots in time and managed to stop his train before overrunning them. Not knowing to whom they belonged, he took them on board the train and proceeded to the next station. At the station, he turned them over to police.

The fathers of the two boys were finally located. They picked up the two tots that evening. We call attention to this unusual incident as a way to point out that, in most cases, trains do not stop for young children on the railroad tracks, mainly because they are not seen in time. Yet, each year, the parents of many tots allow them to wander off onto the railroad tracks uncared for.

The parents of the two boys mentioned above are luckier than most and fathers and mothers are reminded that the train usually isn't able to stop, even for junior.

We do not care to go back to the good old horse and buggy days, nor does anyone else, on second thought.

SIGHTING A SNORKEL . . . This Sheaffer pen company inspector is sighting a snorkel, but she isn't looking for a submarine. That's a magnifying glass, and she is making a final inspection of the filling tube on a new fountain pen called the Snorkel. Tube extends and retracts.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PRIVATE MEMOIRS

Former President Harry Truman has reportedly sold his memoirs for about $600,000 to a prominet weekly magazine. The memoirs will cover Mr. Truman's entire service in Washington, including his stay in the Senate and as Vice-President.

The edge has been taken off the Truman memoirs, to some extent, by recent books which quoted many of his official papers and correspondence. These publications came out in 1952, as the President was winding up his tenure in the White House and causd a mild sensation in many quarters.

However, the tendency of the former President to speak out frankly will still be a great attraction to the average American, who likes to read blunt words, whether or not he agrees with thm. Mr. Truman estimates it will be at least two years before his memoirs can be published and feels that by that time he will be able to speak more fully on subjects pertaining to his role in relation to world affairs.

After the memoirs appear in the magazine, they will be published in book form. We look forward to the Truman memoirs with no little interest, since the former President's utterances are always spiced with sharp assertions and, quite often, surprising statements. No doubt, his memoirs will make surprising, and often controversial, reading and we suspect they will be very widely read.

Locals and Personals

Miss Nita Spangler who attends Cottey College at Nevada, Missouri, returned to school Sunday after spending Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grenval Spangler. Mr. and Mrs. Spangler accompanied her as far as Toledo and spent part of the day with Mr. Spangler's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Spangler and family.

Miss Vevia Hendershot left by plane last Thursday for a week's visit with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendershot in Augusta, Georgia.

You often see grown people act like children but it is rare to see a child act like an adult.

General James A. Van Fleet

General James A. Van Fleet, who recently retired as Commander of the Eighth Army in Korea, has performed a creditable job for his country. The big, smiling American general told a crowd of some 25,000 people, gathered in Seoul, Korea, to see him off, that he left his heart with them and would someday return. His main regret, he said, was that he could not stay and finish the job.

Van Fleet has served his country, both in Greece and in Korea. He was one of the Americans responsible for the successful defense of Greece against the Communists, and came to Korea when the Communists were preparing to hurl massive attacks against the U. N. line. In every such attack, the enemy was hurled back, with severe losses, by the forces under his command.

We especially like one part of the General's remarks, as he addressed the crowd in Seoul, just before departing for the United States: "We live for our children. I wish for them greater peace and freedom than we older people have had or been able to provide for them."

These words are to the point and, when one recalls that the General's only son is missing in action in Korea ,the force of his words is brought home.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES
Library

The younger set is favored in the latest consignment of new books received last week. There are forty-seven children's books in all that range from such titles as "Fun at School" and Play With "Us" for the first graders, who are just being introduced to the printed page, to a "Biography of Dr. Ralph Bunch" by J. Alvin Kugelmass intended for the high school senior, but which should appeal to many of the older readers as well.

Two that are enshrined in the memories of generations who have enjoyed them have been simplified and condensed for young readers, "Black Beauty" for the first graders and "Anderson Fairy Tales" for the second now appear in new form. Two nature stories for the second graders are, "Broken Bridge" and "Little White-Foot,' the latter the story of a field mouse.

It is unusual to find books dealing with foreign lands that are within the reading capacity of pupils of the third and fourth grades, but a set of eight entitled "Children of Other Lands" and describing the life of children in England, France, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Norway, China and Japan is such a series. They are illustrated by photographs.

"Broom Tail," a horse story and "Mojave Joe," whose title is self descriptive, are planned for the fourth and fifth graders while those in the sixth and seventh have "Step-Sister Sally" and "We Live in the South," the latter part of a series "Around America."

"The Rocket Jockey," science fiction by Philip St. John, will be in demand by the junior high set as will "High Trail to Danger," a dog story by Joseph Gage, and "Cargo on the Great Lakes," by Marie McPhedran. Any high school boy will want the baseball story, "The Money Pitcher" by R. A. Thurman while the girls will be interested in "Sunny, the New Camp Councillor" a "career" book by Lucille Rosenheim. A biography, "Geronimo, the Last Apache War Chief" by Edgar Wyatt is last on the list but not the least in thrills.

For adult readers there is a new best seller, "The Intruder" by Helen Fowler; "High Iron," fiction with an historical background of railroad building across the continent by Todhunter Ballard; "The Second Happiest Day" by John Philips, whose title leads the reader to wonder what the first one could have been; and Norman Katkov's "Fabulous Fanny," the biography of Fanny Brice, the comedienne.

Both young and old will find "The Silent World" full of fascination. It is by J. Y. Cousteau and is a tale of undersea adventure with a camera. There are pictures of marine life, vegetation and coral formations, some in color, plus descriptions of hand to hand conflict with sea monsters of all species, full of information and thrills for adventure fans of all ages.

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the twelfth in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

Long afterward Pilcher wrote: "The people of this day can form no idea of the labor, inconvenience and suffering incident to traveling a cicuit here in 1831-32. We had to share with the people in the coarseness and scantiness of their fare, and sleep in cabins. It is difficult even for myself to realize the change which has come over the face of the country." Of the hardships he philosophizes aagin: "This was all for the sake of preaching the blessed Gospel to the scattered people, and there was an intense satisfaction in this work."

The year 1832 saw progress in Tecumseh. That year the surveyors began work on the La Plaisance Bay Road, following the old Indian trail from Monroe through Tecumseh and westward to the Chicago Road, route 50 today. Also we are told that the house at 401 W. Chicago was finished in 1832. The interior of the house was finished in walnut, and the house is semi-cassical in design, with a cupola similar to those used on sea captain's houses in Massachusetts. Many houses with cupolas were to be finished in Tecumseh during the next 40 years.

The year 1832 was notable for an outbreak of cholera, which caused many deaths in Ann Arbor and Marshall, and further west in the Kalamazoo area. The Black Hawk War occurred during this year. A few of the Sac and Fox Indians of northern Illinois under Black Hawk rose against the whites. Far away in southeastern Michigan the people were greatly alarmed.

Benjamin VanCamp had settled on section 12, Tecumseh township in the spring of 1830. In the spring of 1832 he was warned to appear at Tecumseh, armed and equipped for the Black Hawk war. He had been disabled recently by a falling tree, and was declared unfit for military duty. He was therefore made a messenger "to warn out the settlers." His warning notice read: "By order of Captain Brown, I warn you to appear at Tecumseh, tomorrow morning, precisely at 9 o'clock, armed and equipped as the law directs, fit for military duty, with twenty-four rounds of powder and ball, nine days' provisions, and a blanket."

VanCamp had brought horses to Tecumseh, but soon found that they were unfitted for the frontier, and traded them off for two yoke of oxen. He immediately started for Detroit with his oxen and wagon for provisions, the mud being very deep the entire distance. He was gone nearly one week on the trip, and fifteen hundred pounds was all his team could possibly draw. On the road he met about 3,000 Indians on their way to Detroit to receive their annuities from the government. There were many Indians in southern Michigan until about 1838, which largely explains the fear of the people at the time of the Black Hawk War.

In 1832 a Temperance movement was beginning to make headway in the mid-west, spearheaded by the rapidly increasing Methodists with their conscience on this matter. A neighboring Quarterly Conference passed strong resolutions on this subject; in many towns Temperance Societies were being formed.

At the close of the year 1831-32, a year of prodigious labors, Elijah Pilcher and Ezekiel Gavit reported 330 members on the Tecumseh Circuit! This was the third largest membership in Michigan. Detroit reported only 101 members.

GLOBE TROTTERS

The annual dinner meeting of the Globe Trotters Club was held the evening of April 8 at Briarwood Inn near Adrian. Fourteen members gffathered around tables attractively decorated by spring flowers.

New officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Ralph Sager, Tecumseh; vice president, Mrs. William Powell, Adrian; treasurer, Mrs. Ruby Campbell, Adrian; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Hammond, Ann Arbor., and corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Carlson, Adrian.

The group made a contribution to the cancer fund and announced the next meeting, May 13, would be at the home of Mrs. John Thompson of Tecumseh.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Outcasts, victims of discrimination, they also are precious to God is the momentous teachings of Jesus, even while they remain outcasts. It is not merely the potential in them that draws the affection of God, but the actual as well.

Simply because they are created in his own image and in deepest truth are his own, the Father views them with infinite solicitude.

These outcasts with whom Jesus ate and had other dealings were the am-haaretz, the people of the land, who failed to abide by the ceremonial laws and who neglected the ritual. Before the law they were defiled, contact with them bringing contamination. They were looked upon as accursed because their disobedience delayed the coming of God's reign on earth. Thus they were ostracized and treated with contempt.

Familiarity with the attitude of Jesus should not blind us to his radical and revolutionary behavior. If, for example, the Prime Minister of South Africa should dine publicly with native black people, such an act would be less startling and alarming to white men who accept the status quo than was the conduct of Jesus as viewed by the ecclesiastical authorities of his day and place.

But Jesus was guided by even profounder insight into the character of God, for he went beyond the teaching that God loves outcasts while they are outcasts and taught that God is the good shepherd who takes the initiative and seeks for the lost sheep until he finds it. The reason is plain: love seeks because it is love, the lost outcast is precious because a child is of great value in the sight of a parent, every human being is indispensable to God, our Father craves companionship and needs help in the completion of his work.

Here is an idea that really goes to the roots of life. If men would accept it to the degree that they would live by it, God would be enabled to reign upon this earth.

D. A. R. CHAPTER

Abi Evans chapter, D.A.R. met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Floyd Elliott. Mrs. Burtsel Claus, leader, introduced Dr. Arthur E. Jervis, Tipton, who spoke on the topic, "Mexico, Our Neighbor." His talk was illustrated with colored slides taken by Dr. and Mrs. Jervis during their stay in Mexico. Of special interest were the views of the Aztec temples and the pyramids of the sun and moon. On display was a collection of handwork in glass, basketry and leather.

Plans for the May 8th luncheon at the home of Mrs. Kenneth D. Hall were announced. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Leon Rosacrans by May 6. The new regent, Mrs. Joe Rice will be leader and co-hostesses will be Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw and Mrs. Lyman Curtiss. The state regent, Mrs. Ralph Newland will be guest speaker.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served from a table attractively decorated with Japanese quince blossoms. Presiding at the tea and coffee urns were Mrs. Ernest Linger and Mrs. Helen Fisher.

Regent Mrs. Rice and vice regent Mrs. Francis Stone leave this weekend for Washington, D. C. to attend the national D.A.R. Congress held in Convention Hall. The culminating social event of the week will be Mrs. Eisenhower's tea at the White House Friday, April 20.

We must admit there is a lot of suspense involved in most evening dresses these days.

It is always a pleasure to find a really good cook, taking pride in his or her profession.

More people drive FORD V-8's than all other V-8's combined

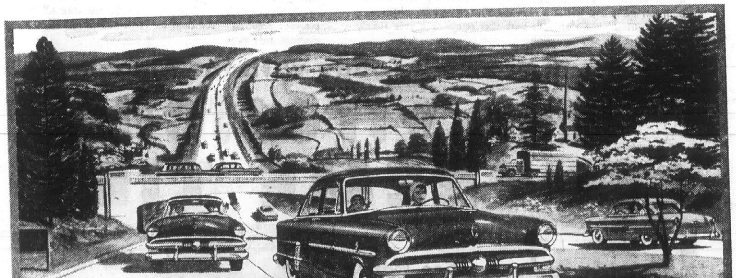
AND IT'S STILL THE ONLY V-8 IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD! No other engine in the world has enjoyed so much popularity as Ford's power-packed high-compression V-8. Today, 4 out of every 5 V-8's are Ford V-8's. And while other makers are scampering to catch up, Ford and Ford alone offers a V-8 in the low-price field . . . and for hundreds less than most sixes.



Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

FORD'S V-8 IS THE SAME TYPE OF ENGINE AMERICA'S COSTLIEST CARS ARE SWINGING TO!

Six more makers in the last five years alone have switched to V-8 power in their most expensive models. Yet Ford's been offering this same type of V-8 power for over 20 years! What's more, Ford gives you your choice of Fordomatic, Overdrive or Conventional Drive—the widest choice of drives in the low-price field!

FORD'S V-8 GIVES MORE "GO" PER GALLON!

Whether you choose Ford's 110-h.p. V-8 or the 101-h.p. Mileage Maker Six, your engine lives on a lean diet. For both offer the gas savings of Ford's exclusive Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last drop of power out of every drop of gas . . . "regular" at that! See and Value Check Ford's "Worth Mores." You'll agree Ford's worth more when you buy it, worth more when you sell it.

There Is More In Us

* * * * *

In a certain old-world castle, carved above the gate, emblazoned on the doors, woven into the tapestries, engraved upon the suits of armor is the motto of its ancient lords. It reads, in French, "Plus est en vous," which translated means, "There is more in you!"

During the perilous days of the depression after the crash in 1929, the majority of families in this country had a taste of the meaning of hidden resources beyond their understanding. To be sure, a goodly number of prominent men could not stand the thought of failure and thus took their own lives. However, for the most part, men and women sighed deeply, gave up their treasured possessions and life's earnings, and started anew.

Distance runners in the athletic world learn early in their training to depend upon what they call their "second wind." After they have reached the seeming point of exhaustion, a sudden release of extra energy gives them new life.

These same hidden resources and possibilities lay dormant within us all until a challenge of unexpected need confronts us—. What we must realize during the moments and hours of routine living is that we should keep in condition and enlarge our capacity for endurance!

We may face enormous problems in our personal lives—, serious chronic illness, the death of loved ones and friends, loss of eyesight or hearing, or the difficulty of adjustment in the family. Tragedy and heart-ache may be our lot which no one understands or knows as we do. The Church may feel it faces problems and immorality as never before—. Yet, "There is more in us" and it cannot possibly be claimed that we have ever been seriously challenged beyond our capacity to endure. We must assert and reaffirm again and again — with God's help — "there is more in us!" When we reach the end of the rope it is time to tie a knot and hold on! !

Aye,

George E. Walworth

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

A public record of news and advertising printed in Tecumseh since 1850.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER 29 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, APRIL 23, 1953 FIVE CENTS A COPY

Village Leases Parking Lot On South Ottawa St.

Tecumseh's growing number of shoppers were assured by the village council in meeting Monday night that a new free parking lot will soon be opened in the East end of the business section.

For the council granted to lease property on South Ottawa street from the Merchant's committee of the Chamber of Commerce for a year's time with the option to buy later if funds become available.

The lease was signed at $150 a month for the former Irving Shaw property, 117 So. Ottawa. The barn is to be removed and rear area surfaced for parking while the village plans to rent the house until purchase can be made.

Leo Lohrman, representing the business group, said $4,000 had been loaned by a number of businessmen for one year and one businessman offered the difference to buy the $10,000 property.

No official promise was made that the council would buy the property at the end of the year, but President E. M. Campbell granted that the parking lot was needed and would be added to village property if possible in 1954 when a new budget will be written.

Lohrman said the volunteer work would be done by businessmen if needed to prepare the parking area.

In further action Monday, the council approved a contract with Consumers Power to install 18 new, modern-type steel street lighting poles downtown and to make some 30 changes in lighting throughout the residential area.

The council also voted to advertise for a new police car and accepted the resignation of patrolman Robert Seitz. The street committee was authorized to negotiate for a new gravel pit as the old source had run out.

Engineer Ed Nelson reported that a test well drilled near the High school had failed to yield water at 157 feet and that further study would be made to find a new source of water for the village.

Former trustee A. W. "Archie" Porter attended the meeting in an unofficial capacity as he is home after an extended trip to Florida.

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club and Monday club asked the council to take steps toward establishing a public restroom downtown.

Sponge Week Is Turnabout At THS Next Week

Starting Monday, for five days, "Sponge Week" will have its annual observance at Tecumseh High School. Girls will perform all the courtesies expected of boys. The fairer sex will open doors, carry books, ask boys for dates and most important — pay the expenses on same.

Besides two dances, there are special novelties for each day which fit into the Sponge Week observance.

- Monday — All students will wear the school colors, orange and black, as at least part of their clothing. This is called "Color Day".
- Tuesday — None other Up Day," with the boys wearing only day all year when students will be allowed to chew gum during classes.
- Wednesday — Highlight of the week will be "Old Clothes Day". It will be considered in the best taste for all students to wear old clothes to school, patched, tattered or what have you.
- Thursday — The reverse is true on Thursday which is Dress Up Day", with the boys wearing white shirts and ties or slacks and sport shirts. The girls will complete the picture with their Sunday best duds.

On Thursday night the Student Council is sponsoring a "Jr. High Sponge Dance". The girls will ask the boys and pay the tariff, admission 50c a person, 75c a couple with Driscoll's orchestra playing, 7:30 to 10:30. All Junior high students are invited to the dance in Central school gym.

Tecumseh Products orchestra will furnish music for a "Senior High Sponge Dance" on Friday night also in the Central building, 9 to 12 p. m., 75c a person, $1.25 a couple. The girls will, of course, follow the annual custom of acting as hosts. The girls will also provide the boys with a home made corsage from such articles as sponges, carrots, napkins or any other household article.

The purpose of this entire affair is to encourage students to know each other better and enjoy both social and acedemic activities together.

Thomas J. Tonneberger At The Organ

Organ Recital Sunday Night Will Aid Baptist Church Building Fund

An accomplished organist, Thomas J. "Jack" Tonneberger will present a public recital Sunday night at Tecumseh's Baptist church to aid in the church's building fund. No admission will be charged, Rev. B. O. Bashore said, but a silent offering will be taken.

Mr. Tonneberger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tonneberger, Tecumseh, is a 1945 graduate of the local high school. He has a music degree from the University of Michigan and at present is organist and music director at Toledo Augsburg church. Among his many accomplishments is a recent organ presentation at the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City.

Sunday night's program, which starts at 7:30, includes eight selections and features an arrangement of familiar hymn tunes by the organist. Others are "Largo" by Dvorak; "Mountain Sketches," Clokey; "Fugue et Variations," Franck; "The Musical Clock," Haydn; suite from "Water Music," Handel; "Chinese Boy" and "Bamboo Flute," Spencer and "O Filii et Filiae," Farnam.

Rev. Bashore said the Baptist church addition is nearing completion and will be dedicated May 10.

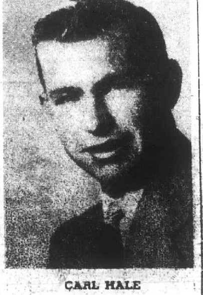
NEW ASSISTANT GRID COACH IS CARL HALE FROM STANTON HIGH

Always one academic step ahead of the present semester, Supt. James McDowell announced the opening of school next fall for Sept. 2 and the hiring of Stanton high school coach Carl Hale to assist Lester Runk in coaching Tecumseh high's Indian gridders.



CARL HALE

Mr. Hale has coached football, baseball and reserve basketball at Stanton for the past four years and guided the football squad there to two Montcalm League pigskin championships. He is 28, married with two boys, three and five years old. He is a 1942 graduate of Caledonia high school and after serving three years in the Army graduated from Michigan State college with a B.S. and then an M.A. in education.

Aside from assisting with football here, Hale will coach Junior high basketball and teach seventh and eighth grade math.

Football drills will probably start late in August prior to the Sept. 8 school opening. Teachers will assemble on Sept. 2.

Mr. McDowell said that next fall a new 48-passenger school bus will serve the local schools.

RED CROSS NEARS GOAL

Tecumseh's Red Cross goal of $2300 is almost in sight. A little more than $200 would carry it over and Mrs. Lawrence Larsen, local chairman, hopes that amount may be supplied before May 1.

The active campaign is completed and Mrs. Larsen feels that much credit is due to those who gave time and effort to make it a success. Her assistants were Mrs. Al Merz, Mrs. Charles W. Hanna, Mrs. Paul Eddy, Mrs. Paul Ammer, Mrs. Joe Rohweder, Mrs. Robert Hanna, Mrs. Mel Partridge, Mrs. Don Heesen, Mrs. R. K. Anderson, Mrs. Edna Codling, Mrs. Earl Wickwire, Mrs. Iva Marsh, Mrs. Vincent Haight and Mrs. John Ziegler, all of whom took contributions at the United Savings Bank. Further donations may be sent to Mrs. Larsen.

CHRISTMAS CACTUS BLOOMS IN SPRING

A Christmas cactus that fancies itself as an Easter lily is a new one for the Garden Club. Miss Ann Carson brought an April blossom to the Herald office as a tangible proof. For several years one-half of the thrifty plant bursts into bloom properly at the Christmas season, while the other side hoards its beauty for spring and Easter. Even cuttings from this two-faced product of the vegetable world grow up with the same dual characteristics. Miss Carson wonders, could it be a split personality?

THS Ag Student, Teacher Praised

(Following is a letter addressed to Supt. James McDowell from the Michigan Association of Farmer Cooperatives)

Dear Mr. McDowell:

Congratulations to Tecumseh High School for the very fine showing made by one of its students, Merlyn Wagner, in the general public speaking contest of Future Farmers of America, held at East Lansing, March 26.

As you know, Merlyn will receive a $25 cash award and will be eligible to enjoy the all-expense trip to attend the 1953 summer session of the American Institute of Cooperation. This will be held at the University of Missouri at Columbia.

The Institute will be August 10-13.

Your agricultural advisor, Paul Burns, has been invited to attend the 1953 Summer Session with all expenses paid by the Michigan Association of Farmer Cooperatives.

The institute affords a real opportunity for both students and teachers of vocational agriculture in learning more about the operations of agricultural cooperatives in the United States. Last year there were 600 rural youth, including members of the 4-H, Future Farmers, Future Homemakers, Junior Farm Bureau, Junior Grange and others who attended the 1952 Summer Session, held on the campus of Michigan State College. Also in attendance was a large gathering of teachers of vocational agriculture.

Sincerely,
Everett J. Young
Sec. MAFC

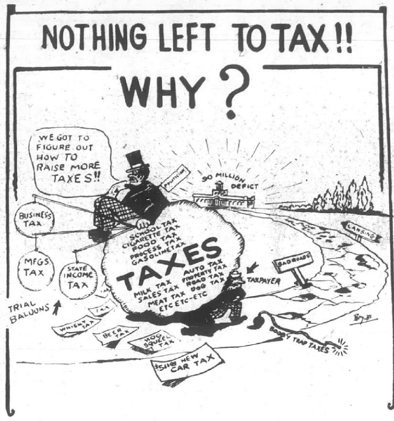
MSC'S ENROLLMENT SHOWS NEW GAIN

Spring term enrollment at Michigan State College is 12,751, a gain of 230 students over the spring term of 1952.

Enrolled this term at M.S.C. are 8,501 men and 4,250 women. Enrollment in the winter term, which ended in March, was 13,429.



"Bryan Does It Again" might be a slogan for this appropriate cartoon entitled by local artist Earl Bryan "Nothing Left To Tax". For in his homespun artistry, the Tecumseh Rembrandt shows the tremendous burden each taxpayer carries in 1953 with a politician on top of the load. Don't overlook those Booby Trap Taxes, Bryan pictures at the bottom.

BULL CALF BRINGS $3,200 TOP AT SALE

"Brampton Jester Basileus," a purebred Jersey bull calf, brought the top price of $3,200 Saturday at Meadowridge dairy farm's annual Merit Sale in Ridgeway.

Over 1,200 dairy farmers and cattle buyers crowded into the sales tent to purchase some 66 head of registered Jersey livestock at an average price of $664 per animal.

After the sale shipment was made to seven other states with the Tri State Artificial Breeders, Westby, Wis., taking the top bid. Second high went to McDonald Farms, Sale Creek, Tenn., for the bull "Jester Royal Jester," just under the $3,200 high.

Saturday's crowd was the largest to attend a Meadowridge sale.

THREE FOR THE PRICE OF TWO

Where else can you find three for the price of two?

Except at The Herald during our Subscription Special — good only during this month before the rate goes up.

Unofficial newspaper custom has it that subscribers should be told a month in advance before a subscription price is raised. But The Herald did that custom one better.

To give everyone a chance to pay up back subscriptions, or pay in advance as far as possible, we are offering three years for only $5.00. The same price it will cost you for only two years after May 9.

VFW Poppy Sale Dates May 15-16

Hall-Slater post 4187, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary will conduct their annual Buddy Poppy Sale May 15-16, co-chairmen Mrs. Harlan Boyes and Gaza Kish announced.

VFW Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans and the proceeds of this worthy fund raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans.

The inspiration for this cause came from Col. John McCrae's poem "In Flander's Field." The national VFW Buddy Poppy program started in May 1922 and has been carried on annually since. The national home for veterans, orphans and widows, located at Eaton Rapids, Mich., shares in proceeds from Buddy Poppies. It is the only home of its kind owned and operated by a veteran's organization.

Last year the local VFW post and Auxiliary spent twenty per cent more on local veteran's relief than was received from its sale of poppies. "This annual sale is to give everyone an opportunity to remember the men who can't forget," the co-chairmen pointed out, "wear a Buddy Poppy May 15 and 16."

VOLUNTEER ARTISTS RALLY OUT-OF-DOORS AFTER CLASSES END

The close of evening classes of the Adult Education program at the high school does not mean the end of art classes in Tecumseh this season. A group of about ten ladies, part of whom took night school work and some who were in a private class last summer, are to continue with brush and canvas under the direction of Mrs. Vincent Peterson, whose teaching was so popular last winter. Mrs. Charles Kempf, Mrs. Frank Rice, Mrs. Neville Hart, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Ralph Helzerman, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. J. W. Beardsley, Mrs. Z. Ross, Mrs. Donald Cobb and possibly others will make up the group. They plan to sketch and paint out-of-doors each Wednesday morning, so any local meadow or hillside may suddenly blossom with easels and artists this summer.

Several members of the group, as well as others from Tecumseh, visited the three day art exhibit at the Presbyterian church in Adrian Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, where a number of Mrs. Peterson's painting were on display. Plans are also underway for a showing of her pictures at the Tecumseh Country Club some time in May.

Another exhibit of interest to local art lovers is now in progress at Hudson's store in Detroit. Russell Steinke, New York artist, who has spent the last several summers in Tecumseh, has three rooms of his pictures on display there, from April 21 to May 2. They include portraits, still life and landscapes, all framed and hung by the artist himself. Soon after the close of this exhibition, Mr. Steinke plans to return for another season in the small guest house, owned by Mrs. Lucy Terry, on the banks of the Red Pond.

First Step To City Form Taken

ENLARGED BOUNDARIES ALSO ASKED WITH CHANGE IN CHARTER

First in a series of steps to abandon Tecumseh's obsolete village form of government in favor of the more modern "city charter" has been taken by a Chamber of Commerce planning committee.

An election date, when the matter will be put before the voters, is expected to be set later this week by the Board of County Supervisors.

Also included in the petition request filed at the current supervisor's meeting, is an enlargement of the present village limits.

The detailed legal procedure which must be followed before an election will be held, includes first a census of Tecumseh and the surrounding fringe area to determine the population and number of qualified voters. Further judiciary study must be made to finally approve the petitions and their compliance with state laws before an election date can be set.

These steps are now underway.

The area included in the incorporation plan would form a square two miles long on each side. It would extend the present village limits approximately a third of a mile to the north, east and south, and about a half-mile to the west.

Following would be the boundary: Starting in the southwest at Occidental highway and Russell road, the southern boundary would run east along Russell road and a half-mile beyond the end of Russell road to Rogers highway.

The east line would run from that point, north along Rogers highway and beyond the point where Rogers highway ends at M-50, to the intersection of Murphy highway and Macon road northeast of the village.

The line would then run west along Macon road and beyond the point where Macon road ends at M-52, back to Occidental highway northwest of the village.

The western border would run along Occidental highway. The actual boundary on the west, north and east would extend 300 feet beyond the lines mentioned. That is so they would include the properties on both sides of the roads.

On the south, the line will be directly on Russell road, because that is also the border of Raisin township. The extension will not reach into Raisin township, but will be entirely in Tecumseh township.

Tecumseh is one of the few corporations of its size in the state still operating under a village form of government.

Prior to the actual election, the Chamber of Commerce planning committee plans a vigorous program of education and information about the issues involved. This will climax nearly two years of ground work and the past six months of concentrated effort by the committee.

ABOUT $800 NEEDED TO COMPLETE BILLY STILL FAMILY HOME

With $3,366.48 already spent for materials and probably twice that amount given in free labor, the Tecumseh-Clinton Samaritans announced this week that about $800 is still needed to purchase flooring and incidentals to complete the Billy Still home on M-52 just south of Clinton.

The committee reports a present bank balance of $77.35 and needs but $800 to put a modern one-story brick home in readiness for Mr. Still's removal from the Ann Arbor hospital in June.

At present the Clinton high school Ag class is busy landscaping the yard. The Elmer Green nursery donated shrubbery. The Pie Plant Pete stage show, recently held in Clinton, netted the Billy Still fund $123. Over 600 persons turned out.

Mr. Still's condition is reported fast improving. He can now sit up in a wheel chair twice daily during two hour periods and is allowed to breathe short periods each day without his chest respirator.

Montaloo, Bert Wilcox, Orval Minney and Ira Manwaring. All are from Tecumseh but Montaloo, who is from Britton.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION — "If you're needing advice," an Englishman once said, "America is the place to find it free. The only trouble is, much of it is contrary."

If this is the country built on different, or contrary, opinions — we are glad to be a part of it, for conflicting ideas have somehow been parlayed into producing the world's greatest national wealth and the largest per capita income. Call it arguing, or whatever fits best the constant American clash of ideas on matters of all dimensions, but the U. S. way has paid off with the world's largest national family income of $1,453 while in neighboring Canada it is only $870, New Zealand $856 and so on down the line to $482 in France, $308 in Russia, $100 in Japan and $27 in China.

Of course difference of opinion, whether in politics, business, baseball or social life, is kindled by each person's individual attitude or outlook on life; two people, especially two true-blooded Americans, come naturally by conflicting ideas. You may recall the story of two shoe companies which simultaneously, though unknown to each other, suddenly decided at the same time that a certain backward foreign country afforded a tremendous market for shoes and needed exploiting. So each, separately, sent a salesman to that country to set-up a distributionship and cultivate retail outlets. The two salesmen went on the same boat and arrived at the same time, still unknown to each other. When the first found a land of poverty stricken, ill-clad, backward people, he wired his company, "Returning via tomorrow's boat, cancel plans, nobody wears shoes here." The second found the same conditions of course, but having a far-sighted view, wired this to his company, "Increase production, tremendous market offers unlimited outlet, no one wears shoes here yet."

Keep that "American way" in your mind someday when you run up against another's opinion, for ours is a rich land where opportunities were created by those who thought a little differently or contrary to the accepted of an iron-clad yesterday.

COMMUNITY FUND AT WORK — Money which was collected last fall during Tecumseh's Community Fund raising drive is busy at work the year around helping support many worthwhile causes which are often taken for granted. Such is the Cancer Society, a local organization of national affiliation.

While the rest of the nation is raising money separately this month to support the fight against cancer, Tecumseh forwards its share to the foundation through the Community Fund treasury. Volunteer canisters have been put out in several stores for volunteer contributions and a number of organizations have expressed a desire to add to the Cancer fund, all of which are welcomed by Tecumseh's Cancer Society. Mrs. Frank K. Smith is local chairman.

Here the unit offers free medical examinations upon request by anyone, they provide therapy and dressings, etc., but most of all they maintain a constant program to educate the public with the basic aim of bringing to every person sufficient knowledge about cancer so that a life will not be taken needlessly, as approximately half of the present cancer victims could have been cured if informed early enough. This is an enormous task, since ignorance of the facts, misconceptions about the disease, superstitions and fears are still widespread and stand in the way of prompt, life-saving action.

THE COMPLETE ANGLER — With the opening of the popular pan fishing season Saturday, the Michigan Conservation Dept. asks each angler to get acquainted with the characteristics, habits and regulations of Yellow Perch, Rock Bass, Bluegills, Sunfish, etc. Correct identification will prevent mistaking them for other fish which are restricted to size, limit and catch.

Fishing, a week of baseball, garden planting, a street sweeper cycloning through the village — all testimonies that our Great Provider blesses His green earth with another season for outdoor living.

No Relation Between Dignity And Expense . . .

We repeat — there is no relation between dignity and the cost of the funeral. For everyone requiring our services is accorded respect, dignity, and our sincere interest.
Whether the funeral be of the lowest cost, or have the most expensive casket and vault does not matter — we want to serve you — and to serve you well.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Trees stir the spirit of man. In the course of numerous journeys I have come to many beautiful spots on this earth. In many a land I have been nurtured on trees. Not long ago we went again to the High Sierras and worshipped at the base of giant Sequoias. Before Abraham was some of these calm and stately trees had begun life which had spanned forty centuries of time. Through the windows now I look out across orange groves and avocado groves to the ocean, while fifteen feet away is a lovely deodar tree, and next to it on the edge of the lawn an olive tree, and not far away a perfectly proportioned Cedar of Lebanon. Truly, we are devotees of trees. Share with William Cullen Bryant this experience:

But thou art here—thou fill'st
The solitude. Thou art in the soft winds
That run along the summit of these trees
In music; thou art in the cooler breath
That from the inmost darkness of the place
Come, scarcely felt; the barky trunks, the ground,
The fresh moist ground,
are all instincts with thee.
Here is continual worship:—
Nature, here,
In the tranquility that thou dost love,
Enjoys thy presence.
Noislessly, around,
From perch to perch,
the solitary bird
Passes; and yon clear spring, that, midst its herbs, wandering steeps the roots
Of half the mighty forest tells no tale
Of all the good it does.
Thou hast not left
Thyself without a witness, in the shades,
Of thy perfection.
Grandeur, strength and grace
Are here to speak of thee.

Grade School News

Brownville — Kindergarten
Miss Hammack

We all had lots of fun during Easter vacation and were happy that almost all of our friends who had chickenpox are at school again.

We are very busy now finishing our workbooks and working on our alphabet and numbers.

We had such fun making flowers for our Easter bonnets that we think we will make some more for a surprise for our mothers.

Our folks who are a year older are Jimmy Foreman, Gary Klingensmith, Bobby Smith, and Linda Sinkey.

West Branch—Kindergarten
Mrs. Updike

We had such a good time caring for our beautiful bunnies at Easter time. One was brown and one was white. One morning we came to school and found that our white bunnie had died. We held a little funeral for him and sang our songs about the rabbits. Our butterfly came out of his cocoon one day and he had beautiful green wings.

We are working hard on our spring program. Both groups met together one afternoon and we enjoyed seeing all of our friends doing their parts.

First Grade
Mrs. VanValkenburg

Two of our girls, Maxine Fuller and Jean Preston, have returned from a vacation in Florida. They had many interesting things to show and to tell about.

One day Miss LaPointe's second grade entertained us by singing many songs from their music books. Another day Joan Green, a kindergartener, and her sister Gloria entertained us with a song and dance, "Me and My Teddy Bear."

At Easter time we made Easter hats and baskets. Bonnie Kempf, Joyce Richards, Stephen Freckleton, and Carl and Danny Crawford surprised us with an Easter treat.

Barbara Colgrove, Beatrice Derr, and Jimmie Osburn had birthday parties at school recently.

In Numbers we are learning the different combinations of numbers that equal eight and nine.

We are very happy to have finished our reading book, "Fun with Dick and Jane" and begin reading in our new book, "Our New Friends."

First Grade
Mrs. Faling

Hello everybody! We are glad to be back in school. We all had a nice vacation but some of us had the chickenpox while we were home. We didn't like that a bit!

We have some sad news for you. Spotty died! We were very sorry but at least we were able to see him change into a frog. It taught us many things about Science.

The "Space Cadets" have started reading in their Primers. We think they are nice and we feel quite grown-up to have such nice books. The "Rockets" will soon be in their Primers, too. We hope all of us can begin soon to read in them.

We just finished making our number booklets. We named them "Numbers We See." That is the name of our arithmetic books. It helped us learn our numbers faster.

We have learned to spell nine words so far. We think it is fun to spell with a ball.

We have a chart called "We Do Not Stumble." We have quite a few names on it so far. When we get our name on it, we can read without stumbling. We hope everyone can have their name on it before school is out.

Jerry Hebb brought two little rabbits to school. He got them from the Easter Rabbit. We had them on the floor for awhile. Their names were "Lucky" and "Blackie."

We are sorry that Billy and Gladys moved away. We will miss them.

Bobby Morey had a birthday party. He is seven years old. We like parties.

We hope everyone will be back to school soon. There are so many of us sick.

Good-bye. We will see you again next month!

Second Grade
Miss LaPointe

We are studying birds. A number of different kinds of birds came to our feeding table so we have a chance to see them at close range.

Deborah Holden brought an interesting figure carved from a cocoanut shell. It looked like a monkey and it had teeth made of sea shells.

We have enjoyed our Weekly Readers so much that many of our group are subscribing for the summer months.

Many interesting things have been learned about Indian life in the South-West by the use of the work book, "Red Deer the Indian Boy."

We planted bean seeds to watch them grow, after reading a story about how beans grow.

Zaiga Freimanis brought some German money to show the class and Adelle DePuy brought six Australian coins.

Sixth Grade
Mrs. Runk

Mrs. Runk's room is the new home of two garter snakes and a small turtle. David Champanois found the snake during vacation, and John Conklin brought the turtle. We have settled on Pokey as the name for the turtle, but we had trouble naming the snakes. We finally decided on Dezi and Lucy. We keep the snakes in a dry aquarium lined with moss. The turtle has a special turtle bowl brought by Bill Fielder.

Anne Preston has returned from Fort Lauderdale, Florida. She made the trip by plane, and was impressed by the ride being so bumpy.

Astrida Friemanis has come to our room twice to show us Latvian costumes, and pictures, and to tell us about the experiences her family had in getting to America. We were fascinated by the Latvian language and the holiday customs they have.

Lewis Nagy came to be in our room from Eberwhite School in Ann Arbor.

Sandra Smith took our guppies home during vacation. They may be in the forthcoming Junior Play, "Jenny Kissed Me."

Britton

The Britton - Macon school spring musical will be Wednesday, April 29 at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium with the band, senior and junior choristers, mixed quartet and girls' quartet taking part.

The Britton Rebekah Lodge met Wednesday in regular session with Noble Grand Belle Cundiff presiding. It was voted to contribute $5.00 to the cancer fund, also to have a bake sale May 2. An invitation to visit Tecumseh lodge May 1 was read. Ida Miller was appointed alternate to the District No. 10 meeting in Dexter, April 24. Two visitors from Tecumseh entertained. A lunch was served after the meeting.

Mrs. E. W. Eberhardt, Ridgeway township chairman for the Red Cross reports a total of $441.66 was raised. It was $148.34 short of the quota but $136.25 more than last year.

Miss Lois Gregory of Detroit and Mrs. Melvin Zarnow of Mooreville spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zarnow.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Haystead and Mr. and Mrs. A. Schmid spent Sunday in Lansing with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Riley and family.

Seventy-five present and former members of the Macon 4-H Rangers Club with their families attended a recognition party Thursday evening at the Tecumseh Grange hall for Virgil Bortel who had been their leader for 15 years. Jack Barrett is the new leader with Fred Long and Bill Bortel as assistants. After the meeting, conducted by the president, Erwin Pennington, Mr. Bortel was presented with a gold wrist watch from the club. BAPTIST LEAGUE

The Baptist League held their April meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Eddie Kirkland with eleven members present. Because of several cases of chickenpox among the girls of Brownie Scout Troop No. 16, who were to be guests of the group, their entertainment was postponed until the next meeting, May 21, which will be held at the church social rooms if they are completed.

The report of the nominating committee was accepted and officers chosen for next year were as follows: President, Mrs. Eddie Kirkland; vice president, Mrs. Harold Davidson; secretary, Mrs. James Danforth; treasurer, Mrs. Orville Bishop. The president appointed Mrs. Charles Beland to be White Cross chairman and the League voted to adopt the circle plan with Mrs. Robert Gillespie as general chairman.

A "galloping breakfast" was planned for sometime in April, the first hostess to be Mrs. Robert Gillespie. The group voted to increase their church pledge and also voted that each member should contribute two dollars to each of four funds; that of Baptist mission, the Mexican, the Lake Louise and the Refit funds.

HOSPITAL Notes

Sixteen bassinets, usually all occupied, and three white enameled, glass enclosed boxes that are incubators, also frequently in use, are what meet the eye through the window of the hospital nursery. Sometimes the incubators have to be used as bassinets for normal babies, sometimes there is an overflow in clothes baskets, although there is little space for them. It is the most "thickly populated" spot in the hospital.

Four hundred and forty-eight little bundles from Heaven spent the first days of their life there during 1952. Of these, 33 were premature, some weighing at little as two pounds and the miracle of the incubators was for them. Thirty of the 33 went home, after perhaps a month, like any other well regulated infant.

The incubators provide measured warmth, moisture and, when needed, oxygen, for the scraps of humanity who occupy them and so allow for normal development. In addition to the regulation incubators, the nursery has also three so called "heat boxes" which can be fitted into a regular bassinet, somewhat like a domed lid, and which supply extra warmth and some moisture but no oxygen. These are intended for those babies who need just a little extra boost in adjusting themselves to a cold, hard world. A small empire in itself, that nursery where baby reigns supreme.

FARM BUREAU SEES NEED FOR REVISION IN TRESPASSING LAW

"Liabilities of Farmers to Trespassers and of Trespassers to Farmers" was the topic of a discussion at the April meeting of the Tecumseh-Raisin Farm Bureau, which held as much potential interest for the townsman as for the farmer. Host of the evening and leader of the discussion was Carl Reives of Townline road and the subject around which the talk centered was the state law, known as the Horton Act, which deals with the matter of farm trespassing, especially in reference to hunters.

Most of those taking part agreed that the law is good as far as it goes but needs revision to be really effective. It was brought out that since no officer can charge a person with trespassing, the entire burden of proof is laid on the farmer. He must detain the trespasser until he can call an officer, which is often impossible and is then frequently involved in a court action that takes more time than is justified by the damage inflicted.

After considering a number of suggestions, the majority agreed that three courses of action might be effective. The first would require the hunter to carry a card, signed by the farmer, giving him permission to hunt on that land. The second would allow the deputizing of one farmer in each section by the sheriff's department, with the power of arrest. The third, and the one generally considered the most effective, was education in town and city schools as to property rights in rural areas. As one woman, who had been born in the city said, she had married and moved to the country before she realized that the fields and woods were not just God's country, belonging to everyone.

In summing up the conclusions reached, Mr. Rieves said that better understanding and consideration on the part of urban visitors would, in turn, bring about more courtesy and hospitality from the farmer.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSN.

Mrs. Robert H. Moore installed the new officers at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association at the study hall of the high school building last Thursday evening. About sixty members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott who had headed the dance committee, reported that eight dances were held at the Central building during the last year, all of them on Friday nights following football or basketball games. The secretary reported a total paid membership of 556 in the association at present. Mrs. Frank K. Smith, representing the Community Chest fund was appointed an adground committee, which will remain active during the summer, hoping to have the playground ready for use in the fall.

Mrs. Harold Prielipp, of the Lenawee County Council of P.T.A.'s, explained to the association the advantages of belonging to the county and state councils. The new president, Mrs. Wellington Wotring then took the chair and appointed the following committee heads for the coming year: Program, Mrs. Murray Day and Miles Runk; membership, Mrs. Clyde Smith; used clothing, Mrs. Earldean Roe.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mesdames Richard Eggleston, Wayne Patton, Jens Touborg, Donald Nixon, Robert Moore, James Barton, Walter Beck, Robert Hanna and Jennie Bird.

Plans for the next and last meeting of the year were announced by Warren Pack, music director. A concert by the junior and senior bands, including over 100 students, will be held May 14 on the recreation field, weather permitting.

MUSIC CLUB

Sixteen members of the Music Club enjoyed an evening devoted to the study of hymns at the home of Mrs. P. B. Hardy, Tuesday. Group singing of "A Mighty Fortress is our God" and "America" opened and closed the program which was under the leadership of Mrs. Wilbur Boyce.

Piano arrangements of "Love Divine," "Face to Face," "Crown Him With Many Crowns" and "Rock of Ages" were played by Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Wilfred Waldron and by Mrs. Seward and Mrs. Skippers, the last being a duet. Vocal duets by Mrs. John Wintersteen and Mrs. Oscar Bryan and by Mrs. Duane Servis and Mrs. Nina Heath were, "Jesus Shall Reign" and "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" and Mrs. Thomas Gallant sang "I Love to Tell the Story." Each [illegible] preceded by a descriptive sketch by Mrs. Boyce.

Jr. Class Presents "Jenny Kissed Me"

DIRECTED BY MRS. MACBETH, DORIS TRESSLER, NANCY RANDALL

"Jenny Kissed Me" is the title of the ingratiating play which opens tonight for a two night run in the auditorium of Central. It is presented by the Junior Class. The title is taken from a poem by Leigh Hunt. Tonight's and tomorrow's performances will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

Father Moynahan, well portrayed by Alroy Vanderpool as a whimsical, old-fashioned priest, is very much against having Jenny, amiably enacted by Judy Sisson, an orphaned country girl, reside in the rectory. Marilou Burleson brilliantly plays the part of the eccentric housekeeper who insists on having Jenny stay temporarily in the rectory.

In addition to this demand, Michael Saunders, a close friend of the priest's, aids in persuading Father Moynahan to let Jenny stay. Michael is realistically portrayed by Bill Benham. When Father Moynahan decides that a few changes should be made, we find ourselves viewing an interesting plot which finally unwinds in a most fascinating manner.

Other members of the cast are Mary Nixon, Patsy Purcell, Louis Vargo, Janis Boltz, Grace Moore, Janet Bashore, Margaret LaLonde, Bill Dean, Lorene Mack and Gerry Miller.

The play was written by 26 year old Jean Kerr of Washington, D. C.

For better party line telephone service

Free the line from six to nine

After everyone finishes dinner, there's a rush for the telephone. Here's how the jam can be eased:

1. Limit calls to 5 minutes. Try timing yourself. Five minutes goes by quickly.
2. Space calls a few minutes apart. This requires a lot of will power. But it's wonderful when the other people on the line do likewise.

A four-party line usually has four families on it. An average of 12 or more persons may need to use the line. All will get better telephone service if each party-line neighbor will be brief. This is especially true from six to nine o'clock in the evening.

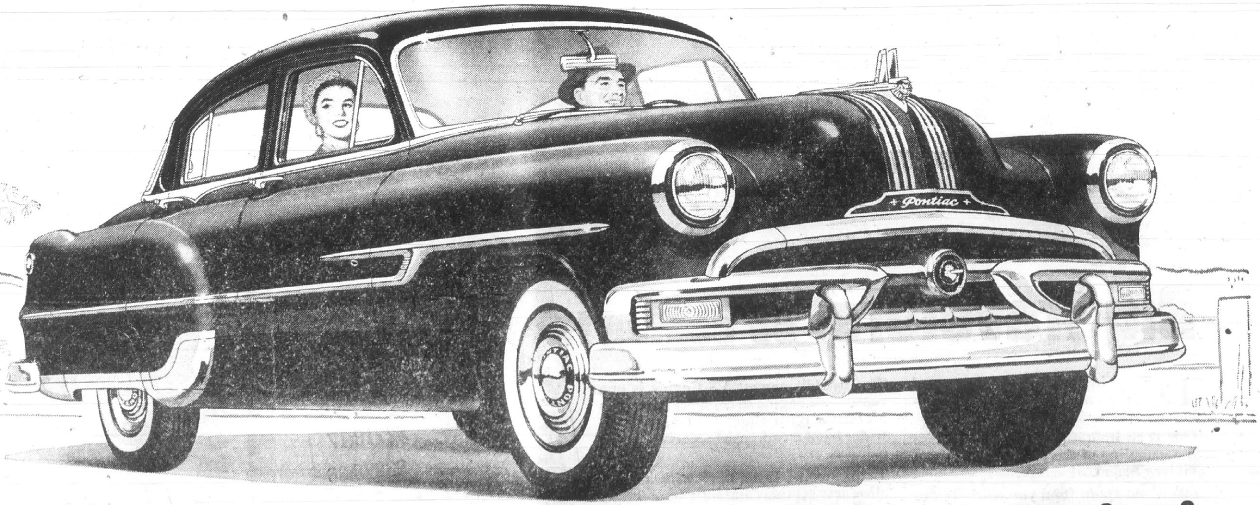
Pontiac

A GENERAL MOTORS MASTERPIECE



A Very Proud Car—At A Very Modest Price!

According to Webster, one of the important meanings of the word proud is this: "Worthy of admiration; deserving praise."

Obviously, that definition fits the 1953 Pontiac like a glove. Pontiac's distinctive Silver-Streak beauty is certainly worthy of admiration—and gets plenty of it everywhere. Pontiac's big-car roominess, its luxurious Body by Fisher, its smooth, easy-going ride—certainly these, too, are deserving of the praise they get.

And when you sit behind the wheel and feel the effortless surge from Pontiac's famous power plant you'll know that you're driving a mighty proud performer.

As a matter of fact, the only modest thing about a Pontiac is its price—for this wonderful car which gives you the engineering quality and the best features of the costliest cars is priced just above the very lowest!

And be sure to remember Pontiac's remarkable re-sale value—the true test of long-lasting quality.

Naturally, you want a new car of which you can be proud. And just as naturally, you want to get full value for every dollar you invest. It's that kind of sound thinking which leads thousands of new car buyers into our showrooms. Why not come in and see how easily you too, can become the proud owner of a new Pontiac.

THE BOOK OF BOOKS

The Bible — the Book of Books — has had a greater influence on the life and ideals of the English-speaking peoples of the world than any other book. If its influence on the present generation is not as great as it was on the generation or two immediately preceeding it, then so much the worse for this generation.

John Quincy Adams stated: "The first and almost the only book deserving of universal attention is the Bible. I speak as a man of the world . . ., and I say to you, 'Search the Scriptures.'"

Ulysses S. Grant had this to say: "Hold fast to the Bible as the sheet anchor of your liberties; write its precepts on your hearts and practice them in your lives. To the influence of this book we are indebted for the progress made, and to this we must look as our guide in the future."

Only as the principles of the Bible hold sway in human hearts and lives will true liberty be maintained. There are those who carry the idea that democracy is the chief bulwark of Christianity. That is not so, Christianity is the chief support of democracy. Christianity can live without democracy, but democracy cannot live without Christianity. Spiritual freedom is the fountain-head of religious and civil freedom.

Woodrow Wilson wrote the following penetrating words concerning the Bible: "For this is a book which reveals every man to himself as a distinct moral agent, responsible not to men, not even to those men whom he has put over him in authority, but responsible through his own conscience to his Lord and Maker. Whenever a man sees this vision, he stands up a free man, whatever may be the circumstances of his life."

If you and I want to resist the encroachments of the totalitarianism of either state or church our lives must be saturated with the principles of the Bible. Let us never forget that in the first three centuries of the Christian era the Christian church met and conquered one great totalitarian system, namely, that of pagan Rome. Let us live in the conviction that when the lives of men are governed by the spiritual principles of the Bible they can meet and overcome the claims of any other totalitarian system.

This weekend the Michigan State Convention of The Gideons, International, is being held in Adrian. Since 1908 over 21,500,000 complete Bibles and New Testaments with Psalms and Proverbs have been distributed to hotels, hospitals, servicemen, school children, nurses and others. May God bless the Gideons in the great work they are doing.

As a mother was putting a little boy to bed she said that she would read to him a few verses from her Bible, whereupon the boy asked that she read from his grandma's Bible. On being told that both Bibles were the same his mother asked why he wanted her to read from his grandma's Bible and he replied, "Grandma's Bible must be more interesting than yours. She reads it so much more."

Are your children impressed with your appreciation of the Bible — the Book of Books — the Word of the Living God?

OVER FIFTY CLUB

The Over Fifty Group met at the Methodist church Thursday for a potluck luncheon at twelve noon. Following the luncheon, Rev. Ronald A. Brunger led the assembly singing and the group took a peek into the future and sought the wonders of constructive atomic energy, particularly as it will affect flowers and vegetables.

Mrs. George Wittrup, Mrs. Emma Mault, and Mrs. Russell O'Hara were the committee for luncheon arrangements with the Temple Dependables as hostesses and Mrs. T. Rentschler conducting the program. The group will meet again on the third Thursday in May for another potluck luncheon and an old fashioned spell-down.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

A public record of news and advertising printed in Tecumseh since 1850.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER 30 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, APRIL 30, 1953 FIVE CENTS A COPY

Tecumseh's Fame Told By Fortune

AIR CONDITIONING STORY PRAISES LOCAL PRODUCTS

Another nationally circulated magazine, FORTUNE, spread the fame of Tecumseh to the far flung corners of the nation this week in a story "The Air Conditioning Boom" which tells of another great mass industry which is springing up in the U.S.

Following an explanation of the recent growth of the air conditioning industry and some statistics on consumer purchase of home air conditioners, the story carries the following about Tecumseh.

"Since all these items are in short supply, the industry will not be able to build a million room conditioners this year. But it may come closer than many sideline experts are willing to predict, simply because its resources are greater than many realize. A good example of the kind of resources at its command is the twenty-three-year-old Tecumseh Products Co. of Tecumseh, Michigan, which specializes in compressors. Although Tecumseh made 2,556,000 compressors last year, it may well turn out more than 3,500,000 in 1953. It is a splendid example of the aggressive, efficient, volume-minded supplier that makes Dr. Ridenour's prediction possible. Manifestly, one reason why people tend to buy new products faster than they did years ago is that industry can get them into production faster, and can make and sell them faster."

Later on in the story, a table lists the nation's largest companies in the air conditioning business and lists Tecumseh Products as "the world's largest manufacturer of refrigeration compressors in which it specializes. It is supplying perhaps 70% of all compressors used in room conditioners and should share in the industry's growth."

Curb Project To Start Next Week

First in a series of curb and gutter projects to be undertaken by the village this summer is expected to start Monday on West Pottawatamie between Adrian and Maple streets.

Village workmen, under the direction of engineer Ed Nelson, have been busy this week patching and repairing streets.

Also next week, Consumers Power Co., will install 18 new 25-foot steel light poles downtown in cement bases which were put in this week.

The Michigan State highway department is expected to soon install four giant 40-foot steel poles on the main intersection of Chicago and Evans. These will be sunk eight feet in the ground.

Despite occasional showers and cold weather for late April, Consumers highline workers made numerous improvements this week on the primary power line along Evans street. Although a number of new poles were put in and high voltage lines changed over, no power shut-off was made as special tools, such as "hot sticks," were used to handle the high wires. The new lines are now all above building roof tops.

BANDMASTERS TO PLAN ANNUAL FALL FESTIVAL AT MEETING MAY 19

Primary plans for Tecumseh's annual fall band festival will be made May 19 when area bandmasters meet at Clare Camburn's home in Macon.

The annual music affair is sponsored here by the Chamber of Commerce and is growing each year in popularity. Tecumseh is becoming the band capital for this entire section of the state.

Mr. Camburn said that Petersburg and Brooklyn have expressed an interest in participating in the festival which may be increased in size to as many as 20 bands which would make it an outstanding musical spectacle.

Mrs. Margaret Allen, 73, wife of Charles F. Allen, 514 S. First St., Ann Arbor, died at an Ann Arbor convalescent home Monday evening after a long illness.

Mrs. Allen was a member of the First Methodist church of Ann Arbor and of the Royal Neighbors of America.

RUNK CALLS SOFTBALL ORGANIZATION MEETING

Tecumseh's summer recreation director, Lester Runk, sent out an urgent call to all softball team managers to meet Monday night in room 23 of the High School to organize a league.

Primary plans for the softball loop will be discussed by team managers or representatives of clubs or organizations interested in entering a team.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. Players and all others interested are invited to attend.

'Bama Day Queen Is Shirley Ladd From Tecumseh

A stately Tecumseh girl, 19-year-old Shirley Ladd, daughter of Mrs. Russell Liddel, So. Maumee street, was crowned 'Bama Day Queen at recent spring festivities at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa.

SHIRLEY LADD

She is a sophomore student studying fine arts. She spent the past summer here with her mother and friends.

But one better than reigning over famed 'Bama Days, Miss Ladd represented her school at a national independent students convention at Purdue last weekend and was elected to the queen's court. Driving down to Lafayette Saturday were her mother, and brother John Ladd who is in Tecumseh on an Army furlough before going overseas to Korea. Also making the trip were Carol Harper and David Vanderpool.

Miss Ladd returned Sunday to Alabama.

HERALD SUBSCRIPTIONS NEAR 3,000 MARK, MANY PAID TO 1956

A new Herald record is in the making as total paid subscriptions near the 3,000 mark. Watch for announcement next week for if subscription gains continue at the present rate the new record high will coincide with The Herald's first issue in May.

Newspapers are measured by their circulation which is gauged in strides of one-thousand. In the past The Herald has been in the two-thousand class but is now building ahead toward the next rung in its circulation ladder and expects to reach three-thousand before next week.

Watch for announcements as the Tecumseh paper soon will become one of the state's top weekly's in paid circulation.

Thanks to our growing family of readers, many of these subscriptions are paid well in advance. Taking advantage of the special three years offer for $5.00, renewals have been pouring in at land-office-style. This offer ends May 9 when the new rate is effective.

School Structure Advances Rapidly

What happened during the past week at Patterson Elementary school, despite occasional showers, is the climax of two month's preparation.

For although the rambling one-story school building suddenly appeared from nowhere, the above ground work is more striking to the passer-by than to the busy Miller-Davis construction force under the direction of Herbert J. Clapp.

Structural steel almost went up overnight as the building took on actual form on the footings and foundations which have been the order of work since the first of March. Window frames are now in place, arch-ways can be seen in the making, cement floors are everywhere and brick walls point in all directions.

As the job foreman said, "Things are beginning to show." However the Patterson building is far behind the high school class-room addition which is beginning to look like a part of the old building, which is old only by comparison to the addition.

Police Seeking B & E Suspect

An investigation and search is underway for a breaking and entering suspect who burglarized Time Laboratory and Ottawa Machine Products Co. sometime late last Wednesday night or early Thursday morning.

Local police are working with the Clinton State troopers and police in other cities to locate a suspect who vandalized the offices in both companies and stole blank payroll checks from the Ottawa firm.

At Time Laboratory entrance was made through a small rear window in the shop. A watch and .45 calibre automatic pistol were stolen after papers were strewn around the office.

Similar entrance was gained early Thursday at Ottawa Machine after the midnight shift went home. The office was ransacked, candy machine broken and looted, Coke machine tampered with and payroll checks taken.

Chief George Kilbourn said a number of leads have been followed but no arrest made yet.

JANET BASHORE NAMED GIRLS' STATE DELEGATE

Janet Bashore has been selected as Underwood-Orr American Legion post auxiliary's delegate to the annual Girls' State to be held at University of Michigan, June 16-24.

Girls' State is a national program of the American Legion Auxiliary. In these days of stress and unrest, Girls' State brings to the girls of today a knowledge of fundamental principles of American government through actual practice, Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, president said.

Mrs. John Snyder is chairman of the committee which selected Miss Bashore as official delegate from Tecumseh.

It is the hope of the American Legion Auxiliary that Girls' State will inspire and develop an interest in the study of government, foster civic leadership and stimulate a desire to protect the privileges and responsibilities of our Democratic form of government.

Selection to attend the annual Girls' State is a high honor, the auxiliary pointed out. The girl is chosen for her high sense of duty.

DANCES HIGHLIGHT "SPONGE" WEEK

Two dances, one tonight for junior high students, and another Friday for those in high school, will climax Tecumseh high's annual "Sponge" week now in progress.

In fact Wednesday was "Old Clothes Day" and some of the ensembles would rival a hobo's masquerade party. Tuesday was "Gum Chewing Day" and Monday was "Color Day."

Tonight's Junior high dance, like Friday's, will be at Central school. A feature of the Friday night party, at which the girls will ask the boys, will be the unique corsages of vegetables, sponges or household items which the fairer set must personally arrange for their guests, in this case the boys.

The entire week's activities are sponsored by the Student Council.

Tecumseh Reclaims A Leading Citizen In Judge G. A. Rathbun Home For Golf And Retirement

Tecumseh is especially happy these days saying hello again to smiling, good-natured George Arthur Rathbun known better to his wide scattering of friends by the familiar name that symbolizes the acme of his profession, "Judge".

For Judge Rathbun is home, and home to stay he claims, after 23 long years of presiding over Michigan's 39th Judicial circuit. Through the years he has been widely acclaimed for his sound interpretation of the law and its fair application to men from all walks of life who have stood before him in legal trial.

But all those years of public service are brushed off by the agile little man who stepped aside by resignation to let a younger man learn the ways of a jurist as he looks to a chance to renew friendships in Tecumseh and concentrate on his first love, sports. Reminiscing, he continually mentions sports as the highlights of his life. Too light for football he concentrated on baseball as a lad and vividly recalls the Chelsea Junior All Stars and the year 1903 when they won the state championship at old Bennett park in Detroit.

A great competitor and a great player, he loved to play for the sport of the game and perfected his personal style and ability on whatever field of athletics he ventured. He played tennis with the best after breaking in on the old clay courts as a youngster hardly big enough to hold a racket. He was captain of his Ann Arbor high school net team and played a continual game until he was 37. Judge recalls many thrilling doubles matches played with Dale Hodges as partner.

After tennis came golf, his main competitive game now though he is a fan and follower of all sports. "Give me any game that is clean, competitive and good fun," he said watching his favorite Tigers battle it out on TV. And he knows a lot of those Tigers personally, like he knows many other athletes and has for years.

Then there's bowling. Judge is a past master of the Maples and still joins in the state Eagles tournament each year. He started knocking down pins 51 years ago and has since blasted through too many frames to recall.

In between all those wonderful years of sports, the retired lawman sandwiched in a remarkable career which he briefs over something like this. "Landed in Tecumseh on July 12, 1909, to practice with J. W. Wright who retired three years later.

"I practiced alone until 1917 when the F. B. Wood and G. A. Rathbun law firm was formed. Then in 1930 I went on the Judicial bench for 23 continuous years."

That all adds up to April 15, 1953, and a resignation in favor of Rex B. Martin.

During those years were ups and downs with too many high spots to mention. Like the time Judge Rathbun was the first man to step out of his own district to preside over a Detroit traffic court upon the request of Gov. Brucker.

Foremost through his service the Judge felt it of first importance to be good natured in all respects and jokingly insists he wanted to retire "before I catch myself getting grouchy."

Vital statistics on G. A. Rathbun read something like this. Born in Dundee, May 30, 1884. As a small boy lived in Kansas, Maryland, Washington, D. C., Illinois and back to Dundee in 1901. Went to Ann Arbor high school, University of Michigan law school. Married Leila Geddes of Chelsea on July 10, 1908.

Now he's back "in a lovely spot with lively friends." The Rathbun home at 315 W. Shawnee has little of a retirement air about it. The Judge is either hastily readying for an afternoon of golf or returning from the country club with friends.

Friends like the local Rotarians who are preparing a Judge Rathbun night May 19 for their favored charter member. For the Judge's many talents include those of a most capable toastmaster and speaker, a hobby he plans to always continue.

"Tecumseh," he concluded, "Is my first love. Its recent progress is the result of the fine work of Mr. Ray Herrick and the Tecumseh Products."

Community Fund Dollars At Work

Tecumseh's Community Fund dollars are working throughout the year, George E. Green Jr., assures the many local supporters of the campaign with a recent message of thanks from the Michigan chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

From the Community Fund collection last October, a portion has been alloted to the state and national research foundation aimed at combating Multiple Sclerosis, which Mr. Green pointed out, "hit one adult every five minutes last year — but now there is hope."

A creeping paralysis once considered rare, Multiple Scerosis cripples three times as many as polio. Multiple Sclerosis strikes young adults — 20 to 45 years of age.

For years many thought Multiple Sclerosis was hopeless. But today, the Michigan Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society is proving that something can and is being done for Multiple Scerosis patients. In Michigan's clinic — the only Multiple Sclerosis clinic between the east and west coasts — diagnostic services and research and treatment programs are provided. The Michigan Clinic is located in Detroit with a branch operating in Battle Creek.

"This is another example of the services you provided for when you gave to Tecumseh's Community Fund Drive last October," Mr. Green pointed out. "Your Community Fund dollars are working for you throughout the year."

CHILD HEALTH DAY—In his first Proclamation after taking office, President Eisenhower set May 1 as Child Health Day, and called upon the American people "to increase their understanding of the emotional, social and spiritual growth of children." President Eisenhower was following a tradition which was set 25 years ago by President Coolidge, who issued the first Child Health Day Proclamation. Previous Proclamations have usually emphasized some particular aspect of physical health. This year, however, President Eisenhower is asking us to consider the health of our children from an entirely new angle — emotional health.

Emotional ill health is the Number One child health problem of our time. It assails more children and adults than any single disease. Half the patients in all of our hospitals are in hospitals for the mentally ill. But emotional ill health is by no means confined to the people who are so seriously ill that they must be hospitalized. It strikes in many strange and devious ways which we see all around us.

To use the words of Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, "Who among us does not know the neighborhood 'bad boy', the habitual truant, or possibly the family with a member who is or has been in jail? Who does not know cases of divorce, of broken homes, of families disrupted by conflict or mental illness. Who among us has not deplored the plight of an abandoned baby, of a neglected child?

According to the experts, most of such difficulties have their roots in childhood. And by the same token, it is in childhood that we can do the most effective job of prevention—helping our children to handle their emotional problems so that they have a chance to develop happy, healthy personalities.

One way we can help them do this is for each of [illegible] learn all that we can about how children grow emotionally; to understand the many curious and often troublesome things they do; to interpret their behavior in terms of what they need.

OVER-PROBED AND UNDER-FINANCED — The administration of veterans' affairs in recent years has become a round-the-clock proving ground for investigative bodies. There is reason to believe that, at this point, the program is suffering from too much of a good thing.

Since 1947 the Veterans Administration has been studied up one side and down the other by no less than 14 separate committees, task forces and commissions. Some of these probes produced good results and the Congress enacted legislation. But others generated far more heat than light and some served only as cover for premeditated attacks on the principles and laws governing veterans' services and benefits.

The point is that no doctor ever cured a patient on the examining table. The record would indicate that continued efforts to "doctor" the VA in this fashion will create a situation far worse than they are supposed to correct.

American Legion National Commander Lewis K. Gough recently spelled out this danger when he suggested to the Congress that "the time has come for the adoption of a positive attitude in dealing with veterans' affairs."

We think the Commander has something. Certainly, a government operation as important and complex as this one needs careful scrutiny. But when investigations are piled one on the other, so fast and furious as to impair the work of the agency, then everybody loses.

Unfortunately, the heaviest loser is the fellow who already has lost too much—the disabled veteran. He's the one who is hurt by scatter-shot charges against the system of service established for his benefit. And the hardship is all his when the people responsible for running that service are too busy explaining their work to do it.

For the 22,000 disabled and sick veterans waiting to be admitted to VA hospitals around the country, the prospect of still more investigations holds no charm at all.

More to the point, in their interest and the Nation's, would be Congressional action providing funds to meet this need for medical and hospital care. They have earned it!

No Relation Between Dignity And Expense . . .

We repeat — there is no relation between dignity and the cost of the funeral. For everyone requiring our services is accorded respect, dignity, and our sincere interest.
Whether the funeral be of the lowest cost, or have the most expensive casket and vault does not matter — we want to serve you — and to serve you well.

Modern in every respect except it has only one telephone!

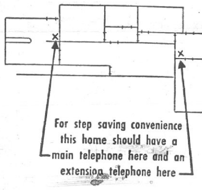
Why does a one-floor house need an extension telephone?

Because one centrally located instrument is too far from either end of the house, or the basement. There are many steps to take every time the phone rings.

With a main telephone at one end of the house and an extension telephone at the other end, perhaps in a bedroom, you have greater convenience, privacy and protection.

The extension telephone costs only 3 1/3 cents a day, or a dollar a month, plus tax. Why not try an extension telephone for a few months and see if you don't agree. Call our Business Office.



For step saving convenience this home should have a main telephone here and an extension telephone here

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES Library

Spring came indoors to the library this week through an exhibit of birds and their nest building arranged by Ann Cameron, a member of Girl Scout Poppy Troop No. 9, whose leader is Mrs. Howard Truesdale.

Ann was working for her bird badge and collected pictures of the birds who normally nest in this region, some abandoned nests, a few eggs, materials birds like to use in nest building and several of the library's books about birds that would be interesting to other Scouts. The result was something that caught the eye of children and adults alike.

Two significant books have been received this week. Both are autobiographies though neither is of the usual variety. "The Young Stranger" is the appealingly, sometimes almost the appallingly, frank story of the first twenty years of the life of Carl Sandburg. In writing about it in the "Saturday Review of Literature," Ernest Calkins says, "This is authentic Americana, as faithful a picture of a small town in the middle west, sixty years ago, as a Currier and Ives lithograph."

The other is the "The Shape of Sunday," the life story of the author of "The Robe" and other best sellers, Lloyd Douglas, written by his daughters from notes he had made before his death. Aside from its appeal to those who have been attracted to his books, it has a very special interest to Tecumseh people. One of his closest and most intimate friends was a former resident of Tecumseh, Burton Garlinghouse, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Garlinghouse and a cousin of Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse. He is a musician and it was as organist and musical director of Douglas' church in Akron, Ohio, that the two men became friends. Frequent reference is made to Mr. Garlinghouse in the book and included is a piece of music he wrote to which Douglas had written the lyrics.

Of interest to the members of the Abi Evans chapter of the D.A.R. and others who enjoy the pageantry of conventions, are copies of the "Washington Post," on file at the library. They cover the week of color, oratory and constructive work that make up the annual Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Airline Deaths

The National Safety Council recently presented Admiral Emory S. Land, President of the Air Transport Association, with a plaque, honoring the domestic scheduled airlines for completion, in early February, of 12 months of operation without a passenger fatality. This record may surprise many readers who have seen many headlines about tragic air crashes in recent months.

However, these crashes involved military aircraft and unscheduled airlines. The scheduled airline's year record ending February 11th, at which time they had carried over 25,000,000 passengers without a fatality. A total of 13,150,000,000 revenue passenger miles were flown by the airlines in this period.

During the year, an average of one landing or take-off every seven seconds, or about 13,000 a day, was maintained. Interestingly, the fatality-free period ended Saturday, February the 14th, with the crash of a plane in the Gulf of Mexico. Had this crash come several days sooner, the airlines would not have completed a year of fatality-free operation.

Nevertheless, the record of the scheduled airlines is an encouraging one, indicating that progress is being made in the air safety field. While we point out the number of air crashes, it is only fair to point out the record of the scheduled airlines when justified.

Office-holders will always play politics, but that does not mean that the voter has to be a sucker.

Why can't Hollywood directors film a picture without overdoing everything?

Business Women Mark Anniversary

The annual birthday party of the Business and Professional Women's Club held in the Fellowship Center Monday evening was attended by 49 members and 18 guests. Dinner was served by the Florence Weld Mission Guild from tables attractive with bowls of daffodils and decorated in an unusual manner by gay little dolls representing the months of the year.

President, Mabel Lockwood conducted the business meeting, during which a communication was read from the Cancer Society regarding the allowance to be given for used sheets that are turned in on new ones. The committee that has been investigating the possibility of a public rest room for Tecumseh reported that the village Council had given a definite assurance of action in the near future. A request was made for a complete file of club records and programs to be placed in the library for future reference. The names of Mrs. Fred Hadley and Mrs. John Douglas were presented as new members and Mrs. Jessie Sluyter, Miss Ruby Preston and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw were appointed as the committee for the June picnic. The nominating committee presented the following officers for the next club year who were declared duly elected: President, Mrs. Irene Hay; first vice president, Mrs. Duaine Service; second vice president, Mrs. Jessie Sluyter; recording secretary, Mrs. Cecile Smith; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Homer Colson; treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Garlick.

The program committee, with Mrs. Duaine Service presiding, presented Mrs. Wilfred Waldron who played Greig's "To Spring" and a vocal trio consisting of Mrs. Service, Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. Nina Heath whose selections were "Lullaby" and "May Day Carol." Mrs. P. B. Hardy was their accompanist. The theme of the program was the work of the club since its formation in the spring of 1930 and, as far as possible, each season's activities were related by the past presidents who were guests. A special guest was Mrs. S. L. Wyman, Ann Arbor, who with the late Mrs. John Shull, were the club sponsors, representing the Monday Club and the County Federation. Mrs. Wyman is an honorary member of the club.

Presidents of the organization since its inception have been Mrs. Duaine Service, Mrs. Nettie Bills, Miss Clara Waldron, Mrs. Franc Gillespie, Miss Winifred Finesy, Mrs. Fannie Brees, Mrs. William Wehr, Mrs. ClauDyne Swick, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Mrs. Howard Truesdale, Mrs. A. W. Porter, Mrs. Naomi Sallows, Mrs. E. M. Campbell, Mrs. Marvin Watkins, Miss Bernice Parker, Miss Marie Koernig, Mrs. Ivah VanValkenburg, Mrs. George French and Miss Mabel Lockwood. Eleven of this number were present.

Activities over the years have ranged from money raising efforts such as sponsoring dances and home talent plays, the proceeds of which were given for welfare and war causes, to unusual programs, "Little Sister" parties, entertaining senior high school girls, collecting gifts for the county infirmary and sending gift boxes abroad. Local causes have been supported such as the Boy Scout cabin and Tecumseh hospital and girls have been sent to the summer scout camps.

A vocal solo, "Rustle of Spring" by Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney accompanied by Mrs. Hardy, and two piano numbers, "Glow Worm" and "Tico-Tico" in Mrs. Edna Staulter's inimitable style closed the program.

Hostesses of the evening were Miss Margaret Lowry, Mrs. Paul Maves and Mrs. Barton Meyer while those who planned and did the necessary research for the program were Mrs. Marvin Watkins, Mrs. Duaine Service and Mrs. Ivah VanValkenburg.

The next meeting on May 24, will be installation of officers and those in charge are Mrs. Purnell Osborn, Mrs. Robert Williamson and Mrs. Louise Mikesell.

ADULTS, STUDENTS LEARN "THREE R'S"

East Lansing—Clinics in reading, writing and arithmetic at Michigan State College are gaining favor with students and adults who have discovered their knowledge of these basic skills isn't what it could be for meeting situations in school or everyday life.

Instruction in the three skills is given without credit. Personal attention is stressed and visual aids are employed in classroom work.

Deficiencies in the three R's are not the blame of secondary and high schools, says Byron H. VanRoekel, coordinator of M.S.C.'s improvement service. "In most cases, students have tried to learn by memorizing instead of understanding," he said.

Reading instruction has proved popular with busy executives and others who have found they can cut office routine by speeding up the reading of business papers, magazines and journals.

CORRECT POSTURE WEEK MAY 1 - 7

Man hours of work lost in industry each year have resulted in a tremendous monetary loss, both to industry and the individual worker, and a national consciousness of the value of correct posture is one of the most vital needs of America today. Thus spoke Dr. George A. Bauer, president of the National Chiropractic Association, in announcing that the week of May 1 to 7 will be observed as National Correct Posture Week.

"It is the belief of our profession," continued Dr. Bauer, "that they can make no greater contribution to the health of the nation than that which would come, especially to the millions of the nation's employees, through the medium of correct posture."

Dr. Bauer concluded that during Correct Posture Week all national, state and local chiropractic groups would seek the cooperation of citizens and civic and professional groups in the program stressing the relationship between good posture and good health.

HOSPITAL Notes

Only someone who has had experience in "feeding the public" could appreciate what is involved in serving each day 150 to 180 trays of food to that public when sick. It requires one part time and six full time workers to prepare the food, most of which is purchased locally by the superintendent, Miss Gertrude Spaulding.

All baking, except bread is done in the kitchen and the trays include full, soft and liquid diets as well as those that are fat or salt free or for diabetic patients. The trays are carried to the patients by the nurses or ward helpers.

The kitchen has been promoted to the first floor from the windowless basement room where it was orginally housed, and when the changes that are planned with the new addition are completed, it will have more floor space, larger storage facilities and a more adequate nurses' dining-room.

On the 7th, 8th and 9th of April, the kitchen staff had the opportunity of learning more about their line of work by attending a "food handling" clinic, conducted by Charles Niggeman, county sanitary engineer. Although held at the hospital, it was open to everyone in this area who serves food to the public, and consisted of demonstrations and movies showing sanitary methods of handling, storing, preparing and serving food and also of washing and caring for dishes. This was one of several such clinics that have been attended by the staff of the hospital, others having been in the Detroit area held at Farmington.

Adamson Agrees With Conlin On Tax Confusion

THIRD IN SERIES OF LETTERS EXCHANGED ON STATE FINANCES

April 28, 1953

Hon. Rollo Conlin,
House of Representatives,
Lansing, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Conlin:

Good! From your letter of 13 April, I gather that you concur with me in the thought that something should be done about taxes, and you seem about as confused as I in regard to how this can be accomplished.

Firstly, let me correct a misapprehension: I did not intend to accuse you personally of supporting excess revenue measures. Quite to the contrary, we in Lenawee are proud of your attempts to keep the Legislature on a business-like basis. That is why we keep re-electing you, year after year. But the fact remains that as you are our representative, it is to you that we must howl, if we do not like what is going on.

Secondly, to recapitulate our discussion: I suggested that the State could save money in its manufacture and distribution of license plates by making a small annual tag to be affixed to the permanent license and by making such available on a mail-order basis. You replied that, as to the first, the tag would not be sufficiently legible for law enforcement purposes and would be too easily counterfeited; and that, as to the second, the postage involved would cause an increase in costs.

I answer this by saying that I am sure a skilled designer could make a tag that would be both legible and difficult to duplicate. As to the mail-order idea, I can scarcely believe that you (as we do) have ever had to drive twenty or twenty-five miles and then stand in line for one-half hour in order to get a license plate. If you have, then perhaps you will agree that Michigan's method of distributing plates seems to be founded more on politics than on economy and efficiency. As to the inconvenience caused to new car owners, this could easily be overcome by the dealer supplying an interim plate until the official plate could be obtained. I do not believe that the public would be too seriously inconvenienced when the thought of spending anywhere from $1.00 to $2.00 in driving to obtain their license could be offset by a possible charge of 25c for mailing.

Have you scanned the clipping from the Detroit Free Press, 30 March, 1953, by-line Owen C. Deatrick, which shows a substantial savings could be made in the printing bill?

Be the above matters as they may, the principal feature remains clear: The State of Michigan is not reducing taxes, it is increasing them. We are faced with the anomaly of a bankrupt state during the period of the greatest prosperity which the Nation has ever known. What on earth are we going to do if times slacken off?

Your answer naturally would be: "What can we do but raise more taxes! The people are demanding more service." I reply to you that, for each member of a special group that seeks individual advantage, there are nine other persons who will say: "I don't want anything from the State, except that it reduce taxes and take its finger out of my business." But, of course, you do not hear from these other nine when a particular piece of legislation is being pressurized through the Legislature. Your duty is to the nine — not to the one.

When a business is running in the red, it cuts its expenses. The State must do the same. Various things are all very good and greatly to be desired, but they still come second to Freedom. As we well know, here and abroad. Freedom cannot be threatened so long as the political economy is solvent.

This, then is the Challenge: Can you, and will you, pare expenditures no matter how worthy, and look into those, as stated above, that are not worthy, in order that the State may become solvent and in order that taxes may be reduced to a proper level?

We are proud to have a newspaper such as The Herald which allows the Public to express its views. It is my thought that the more this tax situation is publicized, the sooner something will be done about it.

I am afraid I have discovered a very disappointing fact. It appears that the public in general do not care what their taxes are. If they did, there would be more of them writing to you folks in Lansing, and also to Washington. To you who are seriously trying to reduce taxes and expenses, this must be as discouraging to you as to me. Therefore, the more publicity we can get, the more hopeful I will become that this condition will reverse itself, and that someone will come up with some constructive thinking money-wise.

If taxes continue to go up, there will be another political upheaval and that, I am afraid, will end all that is dear to the hearts of Americans.

It would make me very happy if, at sometime when you are in Tecumseh, you would join me in lunch at our Country Club, so that we may become better acquainted. We here in Tecumseh are very proud of our Country Club and of Ray W. Herrick who made it possible.

Sincerely,
Geo. H. Adamson

P.S. I hope that you are passing my letters around to the various members of the Legislature.

CHAPTER AJ, PEO

The spacious home of Mrs. Charles Branigin was the setting for the guest tea of Chapter AJ of P.E.O. Tuesday afternoon. Forty members and guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. Charles Allen who also introduced the program leader Mrs. Walter Pfaus. Mrs. Pfaus in turn introduced the afternoon speaker, Mrs. Erma Ward of chapter H in Milan, whose collection of dolls of all nationalities held the interest of all present.

Mrs. Ward, who is a finished speaker, told of forming her collection around a nucleus of two century old dolls that were heirlooms in her husband's family. Representing a grandmother and a grandfather, the pair was a quaint contrast to the dolls from Egypt, Bethlehem, Romania, various parts of Germany and many provinces of China that had been sent to Mrs. Ward by missionary friends and those from Mexico and the states which she had collected herself. These included native dolls of the Indians of the southwest and of the Florida Seminoles and several from Mexico. Interesting comment and stories introduced each doll.

At the close of Mrs. Ward's talk, Mrs. Gale Fisher poured at the beautifully appointed tea table which was centered by a charming arrangement of yellow daisies and purple grape hyacinths in an antique silver table castor.

The May 12 meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Allen when reports will be made of the recent state convention.

DAR Delegates Tell Of Trip To Washington

(The following is a narrative by Mrs. Joe Rice, Regent of Tecumseh's Abi Evans chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Francis B. Stone attended the national DAR convention in Washington recently and wrote the following upon their return home.)

Mamie Eisenhower completely captured the hearts of the DAR when she greeted us, 4,000 strong, at a reception at the White House Friday afternoon. Her papers had been filed and accepted during this session of the 62nd Continental Congress and it was as one of us that we greeted her. A more charming lady would be hard to find.

The completion of a cherished project was witnessed at the dedication of the Memorial Bell Tower at Valley Forge, Pa., National Park. The 114 foot tower, housing 56 great chimes, is part of a Washington Memorial group, including a museum and chapel, set in historic Valley Forge's rolling hills.

The keynote of the Congress as announced by Mrs. James B. Patton, President-General, was "individual responsibility," and that the DAR had "just begun to fight" communism. While the Daughters support the United Nations, they will fight any U.N. proposals that take away America's "sovereign rights" or "restrict our independence of action" in matters of national security, she said. The resolutions proposed to support this stand were overwhelmingly adopted by the Congress.

The raising of money toward wiping out the society's building fund debt was carried on throughout the entire session. Tiny dolls called "Miss Freda Debt" appeared on many shoulders, and with the flags, ribbons, badges and orchids everywhere in evidence, contributed the gala touch that made the drive a success.

No Congress would be complete without the presence of the whiteclad pages and this year there were 350 of them from all over the nation, whose business it was to run errands and assist throughout the sessions.

More than 2,000 voting delegates voted at the polls on Thursday and elected an unopposed slate, headed by Miss Gertrude Carraway of New Bern, N. C., as president-general. A small blond with a friendly smile, Miss Carraway believes that "DARism is well rounded Americanism."

"What we do is more important than what we think," she told a group of DAR press relations chairmen recently. "You can't get 174,000 women all to think alike — not even on our wonderful resolutions — but you can get them to agree on what we do."

What we do, was voiced in the reports of the various state regents and committee chairmen, and we, the delegates of Abi Evans Chapter came away happy to have a part in the 62nd Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the thirteenth in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

In Sept. 1832, the Tecumseh Circuit was cut down to include Lenawee, Hillsdale, and Branch counties. James F. Davidson and Thomas Wiley were the new circuit riders here. James Davidson was born in 1810 on the ocean, of Irish parents who were emigrating to America. His parents settled near Cincinnati; the itinerant Methodist circuit riders always found a welcome and lodging in their home. James afterward wrote: "I was baptized when an infant, and from the moment I learned this fact I felt that in some sense I was under obligation to be good and serve the Lord. I always honored my parents for having me baptized when a child."

The Model T was born Oct. 1, 1908, and when the last of more than 15,000,000 was produced 19 years later it had become the most famous car in history. Henry Ford's specifications were simple: the T was easy to operate and repair, low priced and durable.

Rev. Davidson was converted in a campmeeting, felt himself called to the work of the ministry, and was admitted to the Ohio Conference on trial in 1831. He married Louisa Beagh and she died in 1844; they had five children, four of whom preceded their mother in death. An illustration of the terrific mortality of a century ago. After Davidson's death on Dec. 14, 1885, his 75th birthday, the Conference record described his as "a dignified Christian gentleman, of chaste and agreeable conversation; an earnest faithful pastor, and an unusually sucessful preacher of the everlasting Gospel. May our submissive prayer be: "Father, convey us safely home, To friends not lost, but gone before."

During this year the Tecumseh circuit was so arranged as to supply preaching at Adrian once in two weeks on the Sabbath. This was an important advance movement for the Adrian church. Under the influence of our zealous young preachers, a revival broke out in Adrian in the spring of 1833. Many in that village and surrounding country were converted and added to the Church.

During the year 1833 Mrs. Abi Evans died. The people of the county were saddened to lose their "first lady" who was, says one, "one of the noblest and best of wives and mothers." After the death of his wife, Musgrove Evans became restless. He sold his possessions and left for Texas, where he again engaged in surveying. It is of interest to note also, that the Clinton Congregational Church was organized this year, on Jan. 19.

At the end of the Church year, Davidson and Wiley reported 310 members on the Tecumseh Circuit. In Sept. 1833, the Ohio Conference appointed Bradford Frazer and Duncan McGregor to the Tecumseh Circuit. Duncan McGregor was the first native born son of Michigan, in the Methodist ministry.

At the Conference of 1833, the Huron Mission was introduced. This was a Mission lying along the Huron River below Ypsilanti and extending to Dearborn. The chief point of interest in this mission was a Wyandotte Indian settlement just above Flat Rock. Leading members were Old Blue Jacket and Old Honness. Honness was supposed to be over 100 years old; he was a white man of German origin who had been taken by the Indians when a boy. "He was now rejoicing in the consolations of religion." Pilcher tells of visiting our Mission school there and sleeping overnight "on the soft side of a bench" (which side was that?) in the schoolhouse. The next day at noon, being hungry and weary, they called at a cabin and had a dinner of hominy and Indian sugar. "We did not stop to think how the sugar had been made, or how much filth there might be in the hominy. It was one of the most delicious meals we ever ate, according to the principles of the German proverb, "Hunger is the best sauce."

In Tecumseh, Rev. Lyster of the Episcopal Church had organized a Church in 1832. The cornerstone of St. Peter's Church was laid Oct. 10, 1833, but it was not finished until 1835. The first service held in the church was on Aug. 2, 1835. St. Peter's Church, with its Doric portico, is not only the oldest church building in Tecumseh, but is said to be the oldest Episcopal Church building continuously in use west of the Allegheny mountains. Lyster, during its building went east to solicit funds. He raised $2,000 in this way; President Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay, and Governor Wise of Virginia were among the contributors.

Locals and Personals

Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, president of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, was accompanied to the Detroit area conference of hospital auxiliaries last week by Mrs. E. C. Mr. and Mrs. Jens Touborg were in Fremont the last of the week for the observance of the birthday of Mrs. Touborg's mother.

Mrs. R. K. Anderson and the Misses Beth and Geneva Satterthwaite entertained the Misses Wallin of Detroit, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meads and family visited Mrs. Meads' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Abner in Britton Sunday. Mr. Abner is able to be out again after a recent illness. Other guests were Dan Schultz of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. John Abner and Mrs. Ida Neblo of Blissfield.

A distinguished member of the literary world was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Seager. Arthur Miller, the New York playwright, whose play, "Death of a Salesman" had such a phenomenal run on the Broadway stage and whose new play, "The Crucible" has just opened, visited them over Sunday. "The Crucible" is a story of Salem witchcraft days and stars the veteran actor of the Shakespearian stage, Walter Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Ferris and Mr. and Mrs. Mulford Dull have returned from a three week's trip which took them into the southwestern states and Mexico. They spent soem time in Phoenix, Arizona, and visited the Carlsbad Caverns, returning through the central states.

Born, April 21, to Lt. Col. and Mrs. Leon Williamson at Cherry Point, N. C., a daughter, Ginger Lee. Lt. Col. Williamson is the son of Leon P. Williamson.

The group of service men inducted April 7, which included Charles O'Brien, Dean Pilbeam and Wilfred R. Waldron from this area, have been transferred from Camp Custer to Camp Atterbury for basic training.

Mrs. Cap Collins, who fell in her home the evening of April 20, breaking a number of ribs and puncturing a lung, is still a patient at Herrick Memorial hospital. Her condition is reported as about the same.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

Reflect on these wonderful words of life from Psalm 139, and then behave as if you know them to be true:

Thou searchest me, Eternal One, thou knowest me, thou knowest me sitting or rising,
my very thoughts thou readest from afar;
walking or resting, I am scanned by thee,
and all my life to thee lies open;
ere ever a word comes to my tongue,
O thou Eternal, 'tis well known to thee . .
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is far, far beyond me.
Where could I go from thy Spirit,
where could I flee from thy face?
I climb to heaven? — but thou art there;
I nestle in the nether-world? — and there thou art!
If I darted swift to the dawn,
to the verge of the ocean afar,
thy hand even there would fall on me,
thy right hand would reach me.
If I say, 'The dark will screen me, night will hide me in its curtains'
yet darkness is not dark to thee,
the night is clear as daylight . . .
O God, what mysteries I find in thee!
How vast the number of thy purposes!
I try to count them? — they are more than the sand.
I wake from my reveries, and I am still lost in thee . . .
Search me, O God, and know my heart, test me and try my thoughts;
see if I am taking any course of wrong,
and lead me on the lines of life eternal.

JOAN PFAUS RECEIVES MSC HONOR AWARD

Among the high school seniors of Michigan who have been listed as winners of honor awards of the Michigan State College in 1953 is Joan Ann Pfaus of Tecumseh. Offered for the first time this year, the awards are given for superior scholarship and leadership and citizenship qualities. No financial stipend is involved, for although requirements are the same as those for regular M.S.C. scholarships, these honor awards are given only to seniors who do not need financial assistance.

As only 43 of these awards are given in the entire state this is a signal honor for Joan, who had already been chosen by the Abi Evans chapter of the D.A.R. as one of Tecumseh's Good Citizens for 1953.

Grade School News

First Grade
Mrs. Garlick

We have a nice time in school. We especially like our reading classes.

Ronnie Jones and David Wilcox brought us birthday treats. Jimmy Cubberly, Karne Goller, Tommy and Michael Wilson, have had birthdays recently.

Our clock was not running properly and Gene Manwaring was able to tell us the time exactly, using his new wrist watch.

We have started singing class. We go to the music room each day. We are very happy about this because we do like to sing.

We are now able to print much better. We like this, too.

John Mensing brought us a lovely picture of Man-O-War while we were reading about horses.

Most of us are able to recognize all numbers up to 100. Most of us are able to recognize all of the letters in the adphabet whether in our manuscript print or type.

Now that spring is here, we have enjoyed some very lovely bouquets of spring flowers. We are looking forward to a call from Mrs. Helzerman saying that her Iris are in bloom. She has invited us to walk over to see them.

Timmy Lauer found a lady-bug in school one day. We know, now that lady-bugs are a useful insect because we read many things about them.

We hope that everyone remains well for the rest of the school year. We have everyone back in school after chicken-pox and four operations to remove tonsils.

Second Grade
Mrs. VanWinkle

We feel that we are too grown up to have "show and tell" every day. So, now we are having special reports four days a week. Each child is telling us about something that he or she is particularly interested in. We have had reports on the following subjects: fish, tulips, Thomas Edison, shells, water, Canada, rabbits, Arizona, planets, coal mines, painting, roses, knitting, St. Patrick, birds, and the acordion.

We have a new boy. His name is Andrew Nagy and he came from Ann Arbor. We now have 39 children, Eighteen boys and twenty-one girls.

We are learning to tell time. We had lots of fun making paper plate clocks. We decorated them all pretty with spring flowers. We have taken them home and several of us are going to try to teach our small brothers and sisters to tell time.

Third Grade
Mrs. Buttolph

This week we each have written a letter to Enid Dunscomb. She is in the University hospital in Ann Arbor recovering from spinal meningitis.

Last week we each wrote a letter to Mary Wing. She has been out of school because she had to have her appendix removed.

Richard Cobb spent Easter vacation in Florida. We brought back many things such as shells, starfish, a seahorse, and a suntan. We like to hear him tell us about them.

Brenda Hannah's mother recently brought cup cakes and ice cream for each of us to help Brenda celebrate her ninth birthday.

We are now having fun studying about birds.

We have just made a large poster showing life in Holland.

Last summer Audrey LeFevre found a green caterpillar in the garden. She took it into the house and put it into a box and fed it leaves. Soon the caterpillar spun a cocoon. When school started she brought the cocoon to school.

All winter we waited to see what kind of moth would come out of the cocoon. Last Wednesday we were very happy and surprised to see the beautiful, large popyphemus that came out of the tiny hole in the end of the cocoon. Because it had long hairs on its feelers we knew that it was a male. We have learned that most moths in the caterpillar state are very destructive so we put it in the killing box for a day. The next day we stretched it and now we have it for display.

Fifth Grade
Mrs. Boltz

The following people had perfect papers in their six week spelling test: Karen Hall, Janet Harris, Alice Titley, Judy Moynihan, and Doris Oliphant.

Our class has just completed a trip through Canada, then down south to Mexico, through Central America and the West Indies.

The following people have recently returned from trips, Doris Oliphant from Florida, Jan Kashur from New Jersey, Ralph Helzerman from Northern Michigan, and Jim Beach from Wisconsin.

An exciting ball game is going on between our boys and the boys in Mrs. Whiting's room. To date we are ahead but the game isn't over yet.

Shirlene Bogeman has joined us coming here from Detroit.

Sixth Grade
Mrs. Uckele

In physical education class we are playing baseball. There are four teams in our class. We have just enough boys in our room to make a team. We have played four games and won three of them.

To make our study of eastern Europe more interesting Astride Freimanis, who was born in Latvia, brought some native costumes to show us. She also brought a Latvian calendar that was illustrated with colored pictures of various styles of native costumes.

FRIENDS BANQUET ENJOYED BY 150

The Father-Son and Daughter banquet of the Friends church April 21, was a new project that was voted an enthusiastic success. Supper was served at six-thirty in the basement dining room to 150 children and adults at long tables gay with spring flowers.

For the program later, the gathering adjourned to the upstairs rooms, where Naomi Sallows led in assembly singing. A strikingly uniformed band leader appeared on the platform followed by sixteen musicians burdened by ponderous instrument cases. It was Mrs. Perry Hayden and her bazooka band, who accompanied by Nova Comfort at the piano "rendered sweet music" to the hilarious appreciation of their audience.

Mrs. Edward Escolme welcomed the sons and daughters and was followed by Mrs. Earl Copeland's recital of "The Trouble with the Minister" and by two dramatic skits, "A Little Lost Sheep" directed by Mrs. Ned Kotts and a Russian play in three acts, parts taken by Mrs. Charles Manley and Mrs. Melvin Muhn.

Colored stills and films of Father and Son and Mother and Daughter banquets of the past were shown by Edward Escolme and Ralph Comfort to close a most successful evening.

Surgery Is The Most Modern Science

Little was known of surgery before the 19th century. Lack of antiseptic techniques likely retarded its development. Fear also slowed progress, for most of this has been accomplished within the memory of many now living.

The science of surgery has been almost wholly a product of the profession of the Doctors of Medicine, and is a contribution toward a longer and happier life.

MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN

LOS ANGELES TO SUN VALLEY
FORD 6

MILEAGE MAKER "6" WINS SWEEPSTAKES!

Score a blazing victory for Ford's dollar-saving gas economy! Ford's high-compression Mileage Maker "6" with Overdrive beat every car entered in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, regardless of size or weight, to sweep the sweepstakes! Ford's winning average was 56.70 ton-miles per gallon.* And Ford's high-compression 110-h.p. Strato-Star V-8 with Overdrive was right up there in economy, too, with a record of 48.55 ton-miles per gallon!

The winning Ford was a regular production car, just like thousands of other '53 Fords you see on the road today. This 1,206-mile trip from Los Angeles to Sun Valley covered all types of driving conditions. The route threaded through city traffic, where stop-and-go driving tests an engine's fuel economy under the toughest conditions . . . and out along the highways of four western states.

The Ford Mileage Maker "6" took all this in stride, maintaining a speed above the required 44.25 m.p.h. minimum, to finish 1st in the sweepstakes! What better proof is there that Ford is the thriftiest car of all? What better way to show why Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!

TON-MILES PER GALLON*

Ford is the first car in its weight class . . . in the history of the Economy Run . . . to win top honors in ton-miles per gallon over all other cars regardless of size or weight.

*The AAA Contest Board determines the winner by a "ton-mile per gallon" formula to insure equal chance for all cars in each class regardless of size and weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by number of miles traveled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.

Why Is America Great?

Our question is one akin to, "What is religion?" and questions of similar ilk.

I first want to quote a passage from the Scriptures—"Thou hast set my feet in broad places." Most certainly, America's feet have been placed in the broad field of world leadership. Where she leads her sister nations in that field depends upon the same moral convictions that have made America great.

The mantle of leadership about the shoulders of America, why? Is it because she has possessed resources that put to shame those of many other nations? Her people are possessed of a skill in almost every field of endeavor.

Could it be because we have emerged from two world wars with victory and no real suffering such as took place in London, Paris or Berlin?

These are not the reasons for our greatness; but rather because America represents something that "ever suffering mankind needs" for its continued existence and growth.

We believe in diversity.
We believe in complete separation of church and state.
We believe that every man counts as a man.

When the immigrants who came here from the time of the Mayflower to the present day came, they had to tear themselves free of their ancestral roots. From many countries, each just a bit different from the others in habits and customs, came the immigrants, willing to face the rigors of a new world. Soon they learned that if they were to exist in this new world they would have to permit and recognize differences to exist between themselves and their neighbors.

These differences, when understood by us, become a powerful tool for deepening ones tolerance of the opinions of others without at the same time destroying the philosophy of religion or government of the individual.

In America the Church and the State are separate. Many first came to this country because of religious persecution. And they accepted the compromise of freedom of religion. They divorced the Church from the State and it has remained that way. It is interesting to note that religion had its low point when it was powerful in government. Conversely, it was its strongest when its participation in government affairs was the weakest. In times of freedom of religion, religion has grown in strength.

It clings tenaciously only to those who obtain it through their own voluntary adherence. It is at its highest essence when it is spoken in free air to free men and accepted by free men capable of their own decisions relative to themselves and their God.

One source of real strength to any nation is the fact the "every man counts as a man." We are more than cogs in a great wheel — we are people born in the image of the Living God, and responsible individually to God for our free actions. Here the group derives its greatness from the participation of individuals.

Next week is National Family Week. It would be well for us to stop for just a moment and take stock of the individual worth of those in our family, and of the power for good we together could exert.

B. O. Bashore.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

A public record of news
and advertising printed in
Tecumseh since 1850.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER 31 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, MAY 7, 1953 | FIVE CENTS A COPY

Herald Circulation Passes 3,000 Mark

Record Total For County's Oldest Newspaper Resulted From Community Growth

Records went out the window this week at The Herald office as circulation figures mounted at a staggering rate.

For while tabulations were being completed to see if Tecumseh's 102 year old weekly had actually hurdled the 3,000 reader mark, it was found that distribution is well on toward the next goal of 4,000 — sighted not too far off.

It all started a month or so ago when postmaster Jack Metcalf noted a constantly growing number of Heralds entered each Wednesday afternoon at the local post office. Checking back through the years it was evident that The Herald had enjoyed a constant, healthy growth which went hand in hand with the population growth of Tecumseh and surrounding area.

Figures also show that sales at Tecumseh's three drug stores have increased. In fact this week it was impossible after Monday to purchase one of last week's editions for the file copies kept on permanent record are now the only ones available.

Adding all this demand together, the Herald recently began to count noses to find just how big its reading family had become. To make sure each subscriber was well paid in advance and to announce a slight increase in subscription rates due to higher mailing costs, a premium offer of $5 for three years was made. This ends Saturday when the new rates take effect. However, this offer proved very successful and attracted both a large number of renewals and new subscribers.

To top the program off, Tecumseh Products officials conceived a plan to enter subscriptions for certain of their employees who live in the immediate area but who have not become an active part of the community yet and had not subscribed to The Herald. These were purchased for one year.

Adding all these readers together, it was noted that distribution this first week in May would exceed the 3,000 mark for the first time in the century long history of the Tecumseh Herald, oldest newspaper in Lenawee county and one of the oldest in the state.

Comparing other state figures, The Herald moves in a select class of Michigan papers now as

T.H.S. TAKES HONORS IN SPEECH CONTEST

Merlyn Wagner, T.H.S. senior copped the top state honors in extemporaneous speech at the annual Regional Forensic contests held last Friday at the Fitzgerald high school in Van Dyke. Twelve other schools had their district champions in these contests. The Regional Forensic meet is the capstone of the spring contests which begin with a local meet in March of each year.

High school students may enter only one of these five speech areas: declamation, interpretive reading, oration, humorous reading or extempore. Any school may have as many contestants as choose to enter in each of these contests at the local meet. Those winning first and second places in this meet go to the district meet which is held during April. Three to five schools usually compete in this contest. Only the first places are given recognition at the district meet, receiving a Webster Collegiate dictionary, inscribed in gold, and qualifying to represent their respective schools in the highest state contest, the regional.

Gary Hizer, sophomore, who won a district first in declamation, and Merlyn Wagner represented Tecumseh last Friday. Tecumseh high school was the only school in Lenawee county to win this University of Michigan Regional first place honor award. It is the third consecutive year of winning this recognition for the school and community and the fifth time in the last six years.

FORMER PASTOR'S WIFE DIES IN OHIO

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Edith Kiskaddon, wife of the Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon, which occured April 28, at Mineral Ridge, Ohio. Her husband was pastor of the local Presbyterian church from 1920 to 1924. Mrs. Kiskaddon, an accomplished pianist and artist, who had been an invalid for many years from arthritis, died of a cerebral hemmorrhage. Burial was in the West Glade Run cemetery in Kitanning, Pa.

High Senior Awards Told

TOP GRADUATES HOLD NEAR PERFECT GRADES

Two senior class girls were distinguished this week with the year's highest scholastic honors—Marian E. Titley, was named class of '53 valedictorian; Irma Jean Brollier, salutatorian.

Announcement was made by high school principal Neville Hart. The two girls rank first and second respectively in the class of 68 graduates.

Marian Titley
Valedictorian

Miss Titley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Titley. She ranks first in her class scholastically with a remarkable 3.9 high school average out of a possible perfect grade of 4.

She has been an active student in extra curricular affairs as well as distinguished in scholarship. Her past activities include student council, scribe and secretary, editor of annual, and operetta.

Miss Titley is listed among the outstanding graduates in the state for leadership, citizenship, scholarship and achievement by the Michigan State high school scholarship committee. She has been awarded a four year renewable scholarship to State similar to the one granted earlier to Joan Pfaus.

IN THE MERRY, MERRY MONTH OF MAY . . . !

Just when spring's array of flowers sprayed their beauty over hundreds of home gardens in every nook and corner of Tecumseh, 18 towering green light poles went up on main street as the new replaced the old. They will soon be wired and ready for use and the ancient poles removed.

Stories of May and of spring were everywhere. Gardens grow emerald green under heavy skies while farmers remain idle because of rain.

Bands To Present Program May 14

A varied program of instrumental music will be presented by the combined bands of Tecumseh schools at a public concert on Thursday, May 14 at Central school.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m. under the baton of Robert C. Peck. It will be presented by the Parent Teachers Association with the entire Instrumental Music Department participating.

The program promises to be an interesting one, because it spotlights every level of the band department from beginner to the senior band. In addition to the band classes and groups, several special numbers will be presented. Among these latter, Shirley Meads will play the well-known "Carnival of Venice." Shirley plays first chair solo cornet in the senior band. She will be accompanied by Wanita Cleveland, who also plays clarinet in the senior band.

Schubert's "Serenade" will be played as a saxophone duet by Elaine Kimerer and Ruth Ann Coates. These girls are sophomores and members of the senior band. They are accomplished soloists and recently played a duet in a benefit show for the Billy Still Fund.

Band students are participating in a worthwhile activity. In addition to learning music for spare time amusement, they must learn to cooperate, think fast and concentrate. These are habits that make good citizens. Boys and girls who show such interest and promise deserve the recognition and encouragement of their parents and friends.

Kilbourn Returns Thief From Ohio

Police Chief George Kilbourn returned Monday from Upper Sandusky, Ohio, with an Adrian man, formerly employed here, who admitted breaking into three Tecumseh firms and stealing an assortment of loot.

The man, Emerson L. Knorr Jr., 25, was traced through blank payroll checks he stole from the Ottawa Machine Works and forged to get money on a spree which started in Detroit and finished in the Ohio town. He was picked-up for a minor parking violation.

First of the seven checks he forged with the signature of "J. T. Rohweder" was cashed in Detroit. Others were passed at either banks or taverns in Flat Rock, Monroe and Toledo. They were all made out to himself and endorsed by himself. They varied in amounts from $89 to $147. The checks had all been stopped so the firms which cashed them are out the money which Knorr has spent. They could bring future charges against him, Kilbourn said.

The accused also admitted breaking into Time Laboratory where a pistol was stolen and an earlier night robbery at Osborne's Store where a small amount of cash and clothing was taken.

Knorr was arraigned for preliminary hearing Tuesday and demanded examination. A hearing was set for May 13. Bond was established at $5,000. He remained in the county jail.

PLANS ADVANCING FOR JUDGE RATHBUN NIGHT

Plans for Rotary's testimonial dinner May 19, entitled "Judge G. A. Rathbun Night" in honor of their charter member who retired after 23 years of judicial duty, were reported progressing at Tuesday night's Rotary meeting. The affair will be a stag night and open to the general public. Tickets are available at Hanna's Insurance or from the committee in charge, C. O. Butler, Herb Dillon, Virgil Tucker and Gerald Osworth.

Also Tuesday night Lowell Allen, Lansing, representing the Michigan Milk Producers, spoke on "The Fountain of Youth at Your Door."

Guests were Charles Newcomb and Rev. Van Pernis, Blissfield; Ted Neilson, Clinton; Dr. Bernard Patmos, Adrian; Max Smith and Dr. Bob Murray, Tecumseh.

Max Smith Jr., troop 4 Boy Scout whose trip to the jamboree in California is sponsored by Rotary, was also introduced.

Melvin Boltz, Junior Rotarian for April, introduced Robert Binns, Junior Rotarian for May.

Work — Study Theme Of Student Co-op Training Program

Practical education can almost be seen in the expressions of the co-op training students who spend half the day in class at T.H.S. and half the day applying what they learn to actual work on-the-job. Pictured above are, front row, left to right, James Young, Louis Vargo and Charles DesErmia. Second row, James Hartsell, Ernest Groeb and Donald Downard. Third row, Robert Harsh, Robert Schuck, Lyle DeJonghe, Edward Clark and Robert Brooks. Back row, Danny Dermyer, Elwood Sherrard, Orindale Murphy and Robert Bird.

Red Cross Drive Goes Over Top!

Just when the quota of $2,300 seemed impossible to achieve the Herrick Foundation contributed $2,000 which not only fulfilled the goal but put Tecumseh way out in front of this year's Red Cross drive.

The exact amount turned over to Lenawee county Red Cross headquarters in Adrian was $3,878.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen, Tecumseh chairman, says it is impossible to give a list of the many contributors as some gave through the United Foundation Fund, but she wants to thank each and every one who helped make 1953 another Red Cross success. Tecumseh has never failed to come through the drive with flying colors.

The work of the American Red Cross is becoming more important every year. Added to the wonderful work this organization has always done in the past is the enormous blood program which the government has asked Red Cross to be responsible for.

At the present time no definite date has been set for Tecumseh's next blood bank but Mrs. Larsen hopes when the unit arrives response will be as fine as it has in this annual membership drive.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN MONTANA

A boyhood resident of Tecumseh, G. Lee Snedecor, died Sunday, May 3 at the Deaconess Hospital, Havre, Montana, after a few weeks illness. He was born in Ridgeway, August 19, 1876, the son of Charles H. and Mary Trumbull Snedecor and married Ima J. Sisson of Adrian, May 13, 1896. They lived in Adrian until 1902, when they moved to Montana and he homesteaded a ranch near Chinook. For the last several years he has devoted his time to beekeeping and has made his home in Chinook.

Mr. Snedecor was an active member of the Methodist church. On the death of his brother R. B. Snedecor, October 26, 1952, he became secretary of the Northern Benefit association of Chinook, a position he held until April of this year. He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Elmer E. of Adrian, and R. B. of Chinook.

Surviving are his widow and one son, Uberto, of Chinook, three sisters, Lavie, Mary and Ellen and one brother, Glenn, all of Tecumseh.

RUNK CALLS SECOND SOFTBALL MEETING

"What does Blissfield have, to get out eight softball teams, that Tecumseh hasn't?" summer recreation director Lester Runk asked Monday night after looking over a meager four team layout.

Maybe it was the wet weather this week, the director said in announcing a second and final softball organization meeting for Monday night, next week, room 23 of the high school at 8 p.m.

Dick's Service, Tipton, and the FFA have teams all lined-up, ready to go. Two other probables are the Independent Jokers and the VFW sponsored Explorer Scouts.

But by the size of Tecumseh and surrounding area, Runk said a dozen teams or more should form an active circuit.

(Myles Runk, THS instructor and director of the Industrial Arts student cooperative training program wrote the following in answer to the question, What Is Cooperative Training?)

Cooperative training in Michigan schools is an occupational training plan for in-school youth, sixteen years of age or over. It is designed to develop basic occupational competencies for subsequent full-time employment in business and industrial occupations. As a work-study plan, it combines classroom instruction in school with supervised part-time employment on jobs of a type requiring training.

A trainee enrolled in a cooperative program divides his time between school and part-time paid job, spending approximately half his time in each. His in-school schedule includes a balanced combination of subjects required for graduation and subjects directly related to his job experience. His job is devoted to performing tasks normally assigned to new workers in the occupation. The trainee's job activities are organized in advance, and his performance and progress on the job are supervised by his employer in cooperation with the school coordinator (sometimes called teacher coordinator).

Benefits to the trainee:

1. The chance to gain a business reputation.
2. The chance to earn a high school diploma while earing some money.
3. An opportunity to learn about the work-a-day world.
4. An opportunity to find out if he likes a certain job well enough to continue in it.
5. An opportunity to develop his individual aptitudes and interests.
6. Provides the student with a marketable skill.

Benefits to the employer:

1. An opportunity to discover suitable personnel.
2. An opportunity to develop and train personnel in the employer's methods.
3. An opportunity to obtain assistance in training beginning personnel.
4. A low cost training period.
5. An opportunity to participate in a civic enterprise.

Benefits to the school and community:

1. The Co-op Program helps keep the school informed of trends in industry and business.
2. Holds students in school longer.
3. Since an individual's income is in direct proportion to his school achievement the longer students remain in school, the community will have a higher average standard of living.

Tecumseh high school is now in its sixth year of sponsoring the cooperative work-study program in conjunction with the State Department of Vocational Education. Delmar Crisp is the coordinator for Cooperative Office Practice and Retailing and Myles Runk is coordinator of Cooperative Trade and Industry.

Pictured above are the students in Mr. Runk's Related Instructions class which meets an hour per day, five days a week for the school year. In this class the students study individually, solving their own individual problems, under the direct supervision of their instructor. We feel that this approach is very successful to a practical type of education.

New Baptist Youth House To Be Dedicated Sunday, 3 p. m.

Village Council Levies 15 Mill "Summer" Tax

Village taxes — commonly called "summer" taxes because they are payable in July — will be levied at the same 15 mill rate as last year, the council voted Monday night.

At this rate $90,588 will be raised as compared to $80,221.50 collected last year at the same rate. The ten thousand dollar increase is due to increased assessed valuation of both personal and real property.

Assessor Harry Stanifer reported to the council that Tecumseh's 1953 assessment totals a record high of $6,039,200. He was instructed to spread the millage over the tax roles. Statements will probably be sent out in June and be payable in July.

Also Monday night the council voted to replace the year old police car with a new special Ford factory built for police work. The bid of Butler Motors was accepted. Chief Kilbourn recommended this car and said it has many added features for police work. It will be like those used by Lenawee sheriff's office with a high powered Mercury motor. Kilbourn said it will be capable of going 125 miles an hour.

Councilman Rohweder said he didn't think Tecumseh police would have to go 125 miles an hour. But Kilbourn said when the new road is open that's about how fast some drivers will be going. He pointed out that the new car would go 90 in second gear which would give police a chance to get away fast before a speeder is out of sight. Under the present law, Kilbourn said local police can follow a law violater beyond the village limits, even into other states if necessary.

A contract was also signed Monday night to paint and repair the water tower, to install new traffic signals, purchase 10 acres of land from Mrs. Elizabeth Mills for a gravel pit and a trailer permit granted to H. A. Stack.

Robert Purkey was transferred from the fire department to the police department pending the assignment of a new driver on the fire force. This is a full time post, on duty 24 hours then off 24.

A request by Paul Maves to purchase parking meters May 16 on one block on main street to display trailer homes was denied.

Discussion to re-zone Burt street for the construction of a number of new homes was discussed and tabled until next meeting.

A petition for curb and gutter on the north side of west Brown street west of Union was referred to the engineer for future scheduling. Nelson thought it would be worked into the '54 budget for installation next summer. The petition was signed by James S. Spooner, Robert MacLean, Gerald K. Dunn, Clarence Conklin, Henry R. Shimmin, R. W. Laidlaw, Gerald E. Osworth, H. W. Dillon, Paul H. Lauer, H. Kreps, R. J. Murray and K. A. Marine.

BIKE LICENSES ON SALE FRIDAY

New green and white bicycle license plates — required by ordinance in Tecumseh — will go on sale Friday at the police station.

New plates are fifty cents, renewals twenty-five cents.

Sunday afternoon will mark the formal opening and dedication of a spacious new Youth House at Tecumseh's Baptist church. Services at 3 p.m. and a public reception following will feature the dedicatory program.

"Completion of the Youth House marks the third major church addition in nearly 100 years," Rev. B. O. Bashore pointed out, "and parallels our Christian expansion with Tecumseh's growth.

"The Baptist concern in erecting this beautiful one story yellow brick addition," he said, "is to expand facilities for the Christian education of the community's growing population."

Sunday afternoon's program includes a dedication address at 3 p.m. by Robert Johnson, Ann Arbor, president of the Michigan Baptist Convention. The Junior choir will sing.

Following the service a public reception will be held until 5 p.m. for church members, their guests and friends who will have a first hand view of the Youth House and numerous church improvements.

Among the latter are a new foyer, new kitchen and new second-story junior department for junior church and Sunday school. This is complete with indirect lighting and modern-fold partitions.

Entrance to the Youth House is made from the west side on Union street. The addition is 35 by 60 feet, one story with nine classrooms and church office on the lower ground level. The main floor is a large banquet hall, social and recreation room.

There are new tile floors throughout with two shuffleboard inlays in the recreation room. Visitors Sunday will see

WILL RESURFACE BROWN AND MAUMEE STREETS

Engineer Ed Nelson announced at Monday night's council meeting that the village has a tank car of oil on order and as soon as it arrives resurfacing will begin on Maumee and Brown streets from Shawnee to Herrick Park.

Also Monday night Nelson reported an active month during April despite bad weather. All streets with curb and gutter were swept and three loads of hot oil put on streets with holes too shallow for patching.

"We picked up trash around town a week ago and the people cooperated especially well this year by putting out a lot of winter rubbish," Nelson said.

The village engineer's force also poured foundation and layed blocks for a 40-foot addition to the garage. At the disposal plant they put in 60 feet of walk, 30 feet north of the service building and 300 feet between service building and gallery building. They moved all temporary buildings from the disposal plant. One of these was put at the village dump to give Mr. Walker more room.

While work was slowed down by rain, the crew completed 425 feet of sanitary sewer on Van-Buren street. Due to the fact that it was 13 feet deep and a water line within two feet from the edge of the ditch and a gas line nearby, this job went slowly.

"Now," he said, "we have everything ready to go ahead with a lot of curb and gutter. If it is fair some will get in this week."

EDITORS SAY "NO" — The American Press magazine polled a large number of country newspaper editors on their views concerning various problems and issues which are now in the public eye. One question dealt with federal health insurance. The editors' stand on this was one of nearly unanimous opposition: 92 per cent were against it and only five per cent for it, while one per cent were undecided and two per cent did not comment.

An Oregon editor pretty well summed up the views of the majority when he said, "Certainly socialized medicine should be forgotten as should other totalitarian proposals." So did a Nebraska editor who observed, "Keep government out of medicine." Many of the editors strongly endorsed the voluntary health insurance idea which has made such spectacular progress in this country in late years.

This doesn't mean these editors think that the medical care situation is perfect and that nothing remains to be done. The average editor, especially the small-town editor, is vitally interested in improving and extending medical care as swiftly as possible. But he knows that constant and gratifying progress is being made by free medicine and by voluntary individual and community action.

And he knows too that nothing could be more destructive than to put the government in the saddle and set the stage for socialized medicine.

SALUTE TO COMPETITION — A businessman has a plaque on a wall above his desk which reads as follows:

"My competitors do more for me than my friends do; my friends are too polite to point out my weaknesses, but my competitors go to great expense to advertise them.

"My competitors are efficient, diligent and attentive; they make me search for ways to improve my products and services.

"My competitors would take my business away from me, if they could; this keeps me alert to hold what I have.

"If I had no competitors I would be lazy, incompetent, inattentive; I need the discipline they enforce upon me.

"I salute my competitors; they have been good to me. God Bless them all!"

Business competition takes many forms. Sometimes it is in price. Other times it is in the quality of service. Other times still it is in some innovation which people find interesting and attractive. Whatever the form, competition—which exists in its true state only in a free economy—is the greatest force for progress that exists.

EVERY BOY WINS — One of the more important objectives of American democracy is to train our children to be useful citizens, alert to their privileges and responsibilities in a free world and prepared to work out their indivdual destinies as members of a free society.

An outstanding example of the way in which industry joins with educators to support this objective is found in the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild, which sponsors a program for the development of craftsmanship and creative ability among teen-age boys in an annual national model automobile competition.

Right now thousands of boys throughout the nation are busy putting the finishing touches on their model cars to enter in this year's competition. For their efforts, at least eight of these youngsters will receive university scholarships with a total value of $20,000. Another several hundred young craftsmen will share in cash and other awards totalling $45,000.

The significant aspect of the Fisher Body youth program is the idea of training boys for effective citizenship in a highly industrialized society.

It is true that the awards are a great incentive, but prominent educators who are members of the Guild Honorary Board of Judges believe that every boy who embarks on this project is a winner. He often discovers talents and skills that were dormant. He learns the satisfaction of working on a man-sized job. He develops an urge to learn more and to devote his spare-time to productive activity.

Letters received at Guild Headquarters in Detroit bear out these facts since they are from former Guildsmen who are now filling important jobs in business and industry. They agree that the code of craftsmanship learned during their model-making days applied to professional careers long after the model car they built has been all but forgotten.

Tales Of Tecumseh

PAST PRESENT POTENTIAL

We have royalty in our midst. A princess of the blood, no less. Her name is Jilna and she is a pure bred, registered, Arabian filly, owned by Sylvia, the fifteen year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Helzerman. Perhaps it would be almost as accurate to say that Jilna owns Sylvia, for although she is a high school freshman, Sylvia spends much of her out-of-school time in a twice a-day routine of cleaning, feeding, grooming and training.

Ever since she could lisp, Sylvia's favorite word has been horse, but it took a long time to convince her parents when she said that raising them was to be her career. She proved her devotion at the age of five when her father was stationed at Camp Pendelton, Oregon. With a group of other children she was to be photographed on horseback, but her mount proved to be an unreliable mustang and bolted, bucking wildly. When she was finally rescued after clinging to the pummel, she had three broken ribs but still stoutly asserted that she wanted a horse, "but not like that one."

Jilna, who is slender and clean limbed as only an Arab can be, is sorrel with blond mane and tail, white hind feet and a full white blaze from forelock to nose. She has the small ears and widely spaced eyes that are characteristic of her race and a pedigree as long as she is. She was purchased from the Pettigrew Arabian horse farm at Muncie, Indiana, last September, and arrived a very homesick and frightened little colt after her first trailer ride. But under the loving ministrations of her mistress and the hospitality of Miss Ann Carson's barn and paddock, she has grown and developed happily ever since. She consumes prodigious amounts of ground grain and hay, as befits a growing child, and when she was two years old, April 9, greedily ate every crumb of the birthday cake provided for the celebration.

It is not all play, however, for either Sylvia or Jilna. It takes patient training and schooling to develop an accomplished horse or rider. Saddle work has already begun and, under the supervision and advice of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Irelan, experts in that field, Sylvia is learning about gaits and showmanship and Jilna is learning from Sylvia. The immediate goal is the 4-H show at the Lenawee county fair. Then if all goes well they will go to the International horse show at the State Fair and to some All Arabian shows in Ohio and Indiana.

But there is a parental hurdle to be taken first which has nothing to do with horses. Sylvia has to make a B grade in algebra before she can hope for the larger shows. So while Jilna watches the turn of the street for the coming of her mistress and whinnies a joyous welcome, X may equal the success or failure of their ambitions for this year.

Locals and Personals

Mrs. Clark Rathbun, who has been a surgical patient at the University of Michigan hospital for the past three weeks and whose condition has at times been critical, is reported much improved. It is anticipated that she may be able to return to her home in Fowlerville by the last of the week.

Mrs. Cap Collins, who fell in her home some time ago breaking three ribs, was moved Thursday from Herrick Memorial hospital to the Parrett Nursing Home. Her condition continues to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Arnott of Utica spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hadsell.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Filter and children came Saturday afternoon for an over Sunday visit with Mrs. Filter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson.

Mrs. Robert Bonner attended a May Day benefit tea Friday, at Meadowbrook Hall, Rochester. It was at the home of Mrs. Alfred Wilson and the proceeds were for the benefit of Starr Commonwealth.

Elmer Snedecor and family from Detroit spent Sunday at the home of his father, Glenn Snedecor on W. Brown street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beebe visited Mrs. Beebe's mother, Mrs. Lillian Hoagland, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hamilton drove to Windsor Thursday to bring home Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hamilton, who were visiting cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sawyer. The senior Hamiltons had accompanied Mrs. Hamilton's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McKenzie, of Mellisa, Ontario, who were returing home after a month's visit and who were delayed in Windsor because of a traffic accident which disabled their car. Both families had spent the previous weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hamilton and son, Eddie at Mio, Michigan.

The Easter Parade is a costly parade to the average family man.

Third Grade
Mrs. Ward

Alice Shirley and her family are moving to California about the first of June.

Maxine Fouts has not been in school for a long time because of illness. She will not be back for the rest of this year.

We have finished our pioneer picture and hope to invite our parents to see it soon.

We are coloring pictures of birds and plan to use them for a bird book.

The boys and some of the girls are having fun playing baseball.

We made May baskets in art Thursday.

We have some new supplementary readers in our room.

We have a border of apple blossoms in front of the room.

We have been enjoying spring flowers.

Fourth Grade
Mrs. Osburn

Last Tuesday we went to the Button factory on a tour through the factory. The tour was interesting and we learned about one of the industries of our town. We have been studying about industries in social studies.

Mrs. Virgil Tucker, Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer, Mrs. William Shavalier, Mrs. Tom Head, Mrs. Donald Tietsema, Mrs. Gerald Dunn and Mrs. Harvey Wilson took us to the factory. They enjoyed the trip also.

Our fourth grade and Mrs. Baily's fourth grade are having a baseball contest this week. So far we are ahead.

In a spelldown we had this week, Susan Nichols won by spelling the whole room down.

Maria Sanchez is a new pupil in our room. She is from Texas.

Bradley Bruce was chosen the citizen of the month this time.

Fourth Grade
Miss Baker

We are now on our last six weeks of school. There were three birthdays in our room this month, Judy Mangrum, Jane Hodges and Bruce LeFevre.

Twenty-five of us made "A" or "A-" in spelling. We are going to try and keep them the remainder of the year.

In arithmetic we are learning to multiply by two place numbers. It is fun but you really have to know your multiplication tables.

We visited China in geography and have a nice Chinese and Japanese display. Among the articles are shoes, chopsticks, silkworm cocoon, and a Chinese newspaper. We are now visiting Norway.

We are making our own globes from paper mache. We are going to label all the countries and cities we have visited this year.

Our basic readers have been finished and we are now reviewing some of our favorite stories.

Fourth Grade
Mrs. Baily

A lot of us are interested in baseball. We have been having a lot of fun playing against Mrs. Osburn's children.

We all changed seats Wednesday. We had the privilege of choosing where we wanted to sit. This was fun. Of course some of us were disappointed when someone chose the same desk we chose.

During the winter months we had snowflakes for decorations on our cupboard doors. Now we have colored flowers and birds. They look pretty.

We had three birthdays in April, Dorothy Mackey, Thelma Richardson, and Paul Underwood.

Fifth Grade
Mrs. Whiting

We are busy preparing an exhibit for the display case for May 11. We have decided to have things about Brazil because we are studying South America now in our social studies.

Richard Stephenson was chosen our April citizen of the month.

We elected new officers at our last Citizenship Club meeting on April 17. Gary Hall is our new president, D'Anna Rochelean is vice president, Mary Roberts is secretary, and Sharon Lawhead is treasurer. We didn't have to make any new rules as we are all trying hard to be good citizens.

The boys had a ballgame with Mrs. Boltz's grade boys which we lost by six points. The game lasted all week at recess time. The girls are playing this week but the weather has prevented our playing on several days and the score is now 6 - 0 in favor of Mrs. Boltz's room.

Tom Norris had his tonsils out, but is back in school again now.

The June meeting of the class, on the evening of the 6th, will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton and will probably be held on the church lawn. Mrs. John VanderMeer will lead the games and devotions will be conducted by Raynor VanValkenburg.

HOSPITAL Notes

There are new faces "on the floor" this week. One group of students from the University School of Nursing at Ann Arbor has completed their course of training in the technic of the small hospital and the environment of the small town, and another has taken their place. Nancy Bly, Laura Sandal, Patricia Kula, Kathleen Little and Darylene Garthe have returned to their college work while Patricia Martz, Shirley Miller and Mrs. Beth Doud Spring are learning about Tecumseh.

Miss Martz lives in Birmingham, Michigan, Miss Miller in Iron Mountain, while Mrs. Spring belongs to the growing number of married students and at present lives with her husband in a trailer village in Ann Arbor. Mr. Spring is also a student at the university. The hospital personnel welcomes their help and hopes they will find their stay pleasant and profitable.

The hospital is preparing to be "on view" beginning Monday for the celebration of Hospital Week in commemoration of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, May 12, although this event is somewhat over shadowed by preparations for the opening of the new wing in the not too distant future.

beautiful stained glass windows and all new banquet furnishings. A new heating system serves the church and Youth House.

Rev. Bashore points to the building committee and trustees as the driving force behind the new structure. They are Mills Swick, chairman, W. L. Becker, George Green, Jr., Llewellyn Sisson, Roscoe Hewlitt, Hal Kelso, Clifford Curran, Glenn Kohler and Robert French.

"A great amount of volunteer labor, especially by the ladies, made the job possible," Rev. Bashore said in looking back to last October and a far-away ground breaking ceremony.

In the banquet hall a plaque is dedicated "Memorial Donations" to those who gave memorial contributions in the form of dining room furnishings.

The local Baptist church actually dates back 114 years to 1839 though the present building was constructed in the 1860's. The first of three additions made many years ago was the kitchen, then the old banquet hall and now the Youth House.

Rev. Bashore came to Tecumseh in 1943. He has been active in building the church membership to over 220 members and the religious curriculum. For the past seven years part of the Sunday service has been broadcast over WABJ.

He said the Youth House and church improvements which will be opened to the public Sunday afternoon meet a growing need for the Sunday school and permit increased community activity. The banquet hall will now seat about 300.

The addition is the result of what Rev. Bashore terms "fine cooperation" by the many who made direct contributions through building fund pledges.

Howard Truesdale was general contractor, heating and plumbing by Young & Ost and lighting by George Elliott.

Sunday afternoon's service and open house is for the general public. Many are expected here from away.

Mother's Day

SUNDAY, MAY 10, 1953

When devoted sons and daughters all over Tecumsehland honor their mothers Sunday, they will be observing a celebration that is an ancient tradition.

In Medieval England, Mothering Day was for a while a part of English life. A Sunday was set aside in the middle of Lent—and all young men and women apprenticed away from home were asked to go back and visit their parents. For them to go a-mothering was a tremendous event. So along with their natural enthusiasm, they took home with them surprises and gifts.

The famous American statute, "The Pioneer Woman," honors the valiant mothers who carried civilization westward through hostile Indian territory. President Abraham Lincoln expressed typical appreciation when he said, "All I am or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." At the age of 9, he had stood by her deathbed as she voiced her last request, "Be something, Abe."

But the first official recognition of mothers by a government came May 8, 1914, when Woodrow Wilson, then President of the United States, issued the proclamation declaring Mother's Day on the second Sunday in May.

This proclamation climaxed seven years of pioneering by Miss Anna Jarvis, a determined young woman from Philadelphia. For in 1907, on the first anniversary of her own mother's death, Miss Jarvis asked her church to hold special services in honor of mothers everywhere. By the next year, churches throughout the city had taken up the idea. And soon after, the Governor of Florida designed a legal Mother's Day in his state.

Now it is the duty of the President of the United States to request the Observance of Mother's Day each second Sunday in May. And in the words of the resolution, the nation honors its mothers as "the greatest source of the country's strength and inspiration . . . doing so much for the home, the moral uplift and religion, hence so much for good government and humanity."

In Tecumseh, family gatherings will highlight Mother's Day as children pause to honor the mother who cares for both the home and its young ones, for it is mother who influences the character of each life and builds the finest ideals into our civilization.

BANQUETS HONOR MOTHERS - DAUGHTERS

May has brought birds, blossoms, showers that should have come in April, and Mother's Day, and with Mother's Day come Mother-Daughter banquets.

Two weeks ago the Friends church held a Father-Son-Daughter celebration which has inspired them with plans for a Mother-Daughter affair soon. Friday evening the Presbyterian League enjoyed their annual banquet with 150 mothers and daughters in attendance. Their tables were gay with miniature Maypoles and flower nut cups. Mrs. John Quigley's comedy skit, "Woman's Day in 1900" was the feature of the entertainment ably supplemented by a flute duet by Judy Truesdale and Alice Titley, vocal solos by Mrs. A. W. Merz and Mrs. Arthur Swartz and a tap dance by Sharon and Diane Ries.

Last evening the Mothers and Daughters of the Methodist church gathered at tables beautifully decorated by centerpieces representing floral bird houses with individual favors in the same motif. Their speaker was Mrs. Lawrence Ward of Milan and the usual tributes were paid to the mothers present.

Tonight the Lutheran church will celebrate their annual observance of this relationship when the mothers and daughters of the congregation meet about flower decorated tables to enjoy food and fellowship and a program of music and toasts, with Mrs. Winn Madison as toastmistress.

Wednesday the feminine members of the Baptist church will initiate the new Youth House with the first large banquet to be held there, when they hold their annual mother-daughter gathering. Plans are not complete as yet but a good time is promised.

Hospital Week Begins May 10

These seven days, which include the birthday of Florence Nightingale, May 12, are dedicated to the spirit of goodwill and to a better understanding of the activities and needs of the nation's hospitals. Hospital Week is new this year, though the public is familiar with hospital day as observed in the past.

Traditionally, this observance has been a time to bring citizens of the community into the hospital and stimulate their interest in how it operates and what its services mean to them. Development of that community interest and understanding is now more important than ever before. As our hospitals become more complicated and more expensive to manage, their dependence on public support grows. That support can come only when the people of the community understand thoroughly their hospital's problems and needs and its importance to their personal and family protection.

At Herrick Memorial hospital only May 12 will be observed with open house as a much larger celebration is contemplated when the new addition is completed. The public will be welcomed Tuesday, May 12 from 2 to 4 p.m.

In The Merry

Mrs. Robert S. Moore's beautiful home garden is already at its glory, and as in other years, she generously wishes to share it with others. Mrs. Neil Pearson also has an unusually attractive garden of perennial beauty.

To those doubting Thomases, who are not convinced that Michigan in the spring is akin to paradise, listen to the homecoming message of a Baltimore Oriole, broadcasting his return from the top of a maple tree. "This," he tells the world, in a voice as flamboyant as his fathers, "is IT." A robin at sunset, a colt led out to spring pasture or a small boy on the last day of school, all can express fairly wild enthusiasm, but, for sheer unadulterated ecstasy, nothing can compare with the oriole's first paean of joy. He will sing again, early and often, but never again this year with the glorious abandon of his first greeting to this, his own, best of all possible worlds.

Locals and Personals

Quite inadvertantly, in writing of the birthday party of the Business and Professional Woman's club, the name of Mrs. Cecile Smith was omitted from the list of past presidents. Mrs. Smith was head of the club during the years 1945 and 1946 and during her administration, beside the usual contributions to local and other causes, a box was sent to a French hospital filled with badly needed baby supplies and a shipment of canned goods was also made in addition to a contribution of money.

Miss Lillian Cannon and Miss Edith Ingersoll went to Mt. Clemens Monday for the birthday celebration of Mrs. Mame Erickson, a friend of Miss Cannon.

Charles Stevenson, James Barton, Jack Metcalf and Harold Clark spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday fishing at Harbor Beach in the northern thumb district. "They were not biting very well" was the report but the four returned with forty perch.

Jerry Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barton, underwent an emergency appendectomy Sunday morning at Herrick Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Pauline Kopka, who has been a patient at the University hospital at Ann Arbor returned to her home here last Friday.

Mrs. Arthur Bamm, Mrs. Stanley Frack[illegible]en and Mrs. Ernie Stauff and two children, all of Jackson, were Thursday guests of Mrs. William Spreeman. Mrs. Bamm also called on Mrs. Celia LaBounty, who was a girlhood friend although they had not met for forty years.

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the fourteenth in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

In 1833 J. N. Chandler purchased the southeast corner lot of Chicago and Pearl Streets, and erected a two story wooden building for a wagon shop, which became finally known as the Tecumseh Agricultural Works. (Our Church corner has a very different appearance today). In 1834-35, citizens of Tecumseh circulated a subscription and purchased a press and font of type; Beriah Brown a young printer from western New York was employed to put out a paper, the Tecumseh Democrat, the first public journal in Lenawee County.

At the end of this Church year, Frazer and McGregor reported 343 members, the third largest membership in Michigan.

In Sept. 1834 Thomas Wiley, who had been here in 1832-33 as junior minister, was appointed to the Tecumseh Circuit. That year the Presbyterian minister, Rev. Ashbel Wells, was very forward in promoting the Calvinist dogmas of election and pre-destination. His aggressiveness caused Mr. Wiley to preach against his views, promoting the Methodist teachings of free will and free grace, which today are almost universally accepted among Protestants.

Elijah Pilcher tells us that "the matter was carried to such an extent that Mr. Wells gave him a challenge for a public discussion, which was accepted by Mr. Wiley. The day was set; the judges were appointed; the preliminaries were settled; and these theological gladiators entered the arena. The contest lasted for about two days, and excited a good deal of interest. Having occupied their allotted time in their alternate passes, the question was given to the judges to render their decision. The judges very prudently took time to deliberate, and they have never yet found it practicable to promulgate their decision. However, it was conceded by some of Mr. Wells' own friends, that Mr. Wiley had the weight of the argument on his side, but they remained Calvinists still, for they attributed the failure not to the weakness of the cause, but to the weakness of their advocate." This incident illustrates well the spirit of that age. Churches and people put much stress on theological beliefs, and the denominations were much more sharply divided by their beliefs, than they are today.

These years were notable for the movement which led to the establishment of Albion College. In 1833, Elijah Pilcher, Henry Colclazer, and Dr. B. H. Packard of Ann Arbor, had agreed together to endeavor to obtain a charter from the Legislative Council of Michigan Territory, for a Literary institution under the Methodist Church. In 1834 Spring Arbor was chosen for the place, and a charter secured. In 1835 the school was started. It was moved within a few years to Albion, becoming the Wesleyan Seminary, and ultimately Albion College.

The year 1835 saw the completion of the La Plaisance Bay turnpike, and more important the martial excitement of the Toledo War. When Michigan Territory was first established by Congress, Jan. 11, 1805, its southern boundary was a line drawn from the southern extremity of Lake Michigan, eastward. When Indiana was made a state in 1816, its northern boundary was fixed at a point 10 miles north of the southern extremity of Lake Michigan, so as to give Indiana frontage on Lake Michigan. In 1818 when Illinois was admitted as a state with northern boundary at 42-30 N. Latitude, Michigan territory was extended to include the Upper Peninsula, Wisconsin, and Minnesota east of the Mississippi river. In 1834 the territory was extended westward to the Missouri. But the people of Michigan were far more interested in their southern boundary with Ohio; they wanted the original line of 1805, so as to keep the mouth of the Maumee River, the natural harbor of Toledo. The people of Ohio, a state since 1803, wanted the Toledo area, and felt that since Indiana had procured territory at the expense of Michigan, Ohio could likewise.

The long dispute over the Toledo strip, began to come to a climax in 1834 when a Canal was being planned to unite the waters of Lake Erie and the Wabash river. Michigan claimed jurisdiction south to the Fulton line; Ohio north to the Harris line, 5 to 7 miles north. Ohio wanted the canal and Maumee river within her jurisdiction. The Michigan Territorial Council on Feb. 12, 1835 passed an act "punishing by heavy fines and imprisonment" any officials of a "foreign jurisdiction within the limits of the Territory of Michigan."

The Glory Of True Motherhood

Mother's Day is at hand, as even the little children know; the day our nation rises to pay tribute to true motherhood. Men of all sorts pay their unabashed tribute. There is that well known and unmatched testimony of Abraham Lincoln: "All that I am or hope to be, I owe to the influence of my angelic mother." Children join in the chorus. One boy told that it is God who makes people good, replied: "Yes, I know but mothers help a lot."

In the last chapter of Proverbs we find a meaningful verse for our Mother's Day thought. "A worthy woman who can find? For her price is far above rubies." The world needs mothers, but not the kind who are enslaved to their cards and clubs so that their children become neglected strangers, half-orphans. We need mothers—but not the possessive kind of mother who dominates and dictates and thwarts the desires of her boy or girl until they are not independent of soul and not fitted for life. We do not need the kind of mother or father who in selfish pride plan their child's life work or marriage, and fail to humbly regard their child as a trust from the Lord, whose native talents are to be protected and developed. We need worthy mothers, Christian mothers.

Motherhood is a mighty role and we can scarcely measure the contribution of the mothers of the race. Think of Abraham Lincoln's mother. That young frontier wife was no irresponsible pleasure seeker, no plaything; she lived a life of hard toil amid the privations of the frontier. When she laid dying, she murmured to her boy Abe: "I am going away. I know you will be a good boy. I want you to live as I have taught you." And again she said to him: "Be something, Abe." That inspiration lived on in his soul, prompting him to keep on and up. And Nancy Hanks Lincoln won earthly fame through her boy.

We remember how our Lord taught as the way of life, the way of humble, sacrificial service. "Whosoever giveth a cup of cold water unto one of these little ones.." "He who would be greatest among you, shall be servant of all.

Consider in the light of Jesus' teachings, the occupation of the homemaker. It is an unending and exacting task when done faithfully. But the mother is directly serving others, her loved ones. The husband and father's health, physical and spiritual, his efficiency, his peace of mind, depend very much on her. Here she has young growing bodies and souls for which she is responsible; what an opportunity and also responsibility. Masefield makes one mother to say: "I've washed eight little children's limbs; I've taught eight little souls their hymns." True homemaker takes hold on eternity itself; it is related to the spiritual culture of immortal souls.

In the order of life, motherhood stands next to divinity. There was Jochabed, the mother of Moses. Like Lincoln's mother, she only had the training of her boy for a few years, but she left an indelible imprint which the luxuries and pleasures of Pharaoh's court, could not erase from his mind. A mother receives from God a newly created soul. Mystery of mysteries. Let all mothers sing with Mary: "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour . . for He that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is His name." And let all of us acclaim with the Old Testament writer: "A worthy woman who can find? For her price is far above rubies."

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

An unusually interesting program has been planned for the May meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary, which will be held Tuesday evening at Fellowship Center, 8 p.m. Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, whose book reviews have been a source of much pleasure to her hearers in the past, will tell the story of "Wide Neighborhood," which deals with frontier nursing in the Kentucky mountains. The author, Mrs. Mary Breckinridge, has a background of European diplomatic life and of training in England and Scotland. Living in the south after her marriage, she has devoted her life to bringing medical aid to the children of backward areas and her adventures, as described by Mrs. Dickinson, will make good listening.

Legion Gives $500 To Hospital Room

Members of Tecumseh's Underwood Orr American Legion post No. 34 voted unanimously Thursday night to give $500 toward furnishing a room in the new addition to Herrick Memorial hospital.

The post further voted to participate in the community parade and program on Memorial Day. Louis S. Schneider briefly outlined plans. Commander Bob Lowe told of steps underway to have summer games at Wamplers Lake.

Charles Howe was named chairman of the nominating committee; assisting are Vern Manwaring, Roy Richard, Morgan Ford and Jack Curtiss.

On May 21 the Lenawee county 40 et 8 teams will hold initiation ceremonies here.

Thursday night's meeting followed a fish dinner. On the committee were Tim Neill, Clyde Drewyor, L. E. Brown Sr., Charley Howe, Lyle Gregg and Larry Cote.

CIVIL DEFENSE SPEAKER TONIGHT

What precautions other communities Tecumseh's size and smaller have made will be discussed at a public meeting tonight by Mrs. Dorothy Pearl, member of the federal civil defense administration. Sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary. Mrs. Pearl comes here as assistant regional director and a top authority on the nation's present civil defense plans. She will bring all this down to the local level of how communities, such as Tecumseh, should operate in time of disaster. Tonight's meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Legion Home and open to the general public. All civic organizations are welcome to have delegates in attendance.

MRS. JOHN G. THURLBY BURIED IN BROOKSIDE

Funeral services were held at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at the Collins Funeral Home for Mrs. Clara K. Thurlby, a former resident of Tecumseh and mother of Russell L. Thurlby.

Eighty-five year old, Mrs. Thurlby was born in Bridgewater township, Washtenaw county, March 5, 1868, the daughter of George and Catherine Becker. Her husband, John G. Thurlby died in March 1932. Since 1942 she had made her home with her son Truman Thurlby in River Rouge, until eighteen months ago when she became a patient at the Parret nursing home where her death occurred Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Thurlby is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Nina Pennington; three sons Russell L., Tecumseh and Truman and Charles both of whom live in River Rouge; five grandchildren and four great grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. B. M. Borton of Toledo; three brothers, Frank Becker of Chicago, Henry of Detroit and Albert of Portland, Ore.

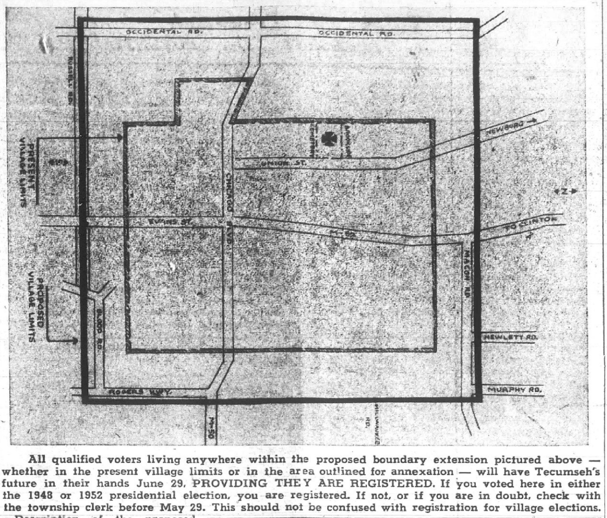
The Rev. Alvin Brazee conducted the services and burial was in Brookside cemetery.

CONCERT THIS EVENING AT CENTRAL AUDITORIUM

All four bands of Tecumseh public school's music department will be featured in a concert this evening in the Central school auditorium. The spotlight will also fall on the Girls' Chorus and several special numbers will be presented.

The program begins at 8 p. m. under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association and will be directed by Robert C. Peck. Included in the concert will be various types of music, patriotic, religious, modern classics, novelty and others.

"A great deal of interest is being shown by the boys and girls in preparing for this concert," Mr. Peck said. "All young people like to perform and this is a fine opportunity for the bandsmen and choristers to demonstrate their special talents to their parents and friends."



All qualified voters living anywhere within the proposed boundary extension pictured above — whether in the present village limits or in the area outlined for annexation — will have Tecumseh's future in their hands June 29, PROVIDING THEY ARE REGISTERED. If you voted here in either the 1948 or 1952 presidential election, you are registered. If not, or if you are in doubt, check with the township clerk before May 29. This should not be confused with registration for village elections.

Description of the proposed boundary extension for Tecumseh which accompanies the change to city form of home rule charter, starts in the southwest at Occidental highway and Russell road, the southern boundary would run east along Russell road and a half-mile beyond the end of Russell road to Rogers highway.

The east line would run from that point, north along Rogers highway and beyond the point where Rogers highway ends at M-50, to the intersection of Murphy highway and Macon road northeast of the village.

The line would then run west along Macon road and beyond the point where Macon road ends at M-52 back to Occidental highway northwest of the village.

The western border would run along Occidental highway. The actual boundary on the west, north and east would extend 300 feet beyond the lines mentioned. This is so they would include the properties on both sides of the roads.

On the south, the line will be directly on Russell road, because that is also the boarder of Raisin township. The extension will not reach into Raisin township, but will be entirely in Tecumseh township.

FINED $50 EACH

Two reckless drivers were arrested by Tecumseh police and given fines of $50 apiece. The men Norman Hensen, Tecumseh and John Hartman, Britton, also paid costs of $8.60 each and sentenced to two days in the county jail.

Also over the weekend police arrested John Conklin, Marvin Storey and Floyd L. Waynick for drunk and disorderly conduct.

Other summones were issued to Keith Fox, Onsted, speeding; Donald D. Downard, Tipton, failing to yield right of way; Robert D. Burgett, Adrian, improper plates and failing to yield right of way from curb; Winthrop Winfield, speeding; Claude Roomis, speeding; William P. Clark, Ann Arbor, speeding; Richard W. George, Adrian, speeding; Charles Yulding, Adrian, speeding; John Curtis, speeding.

Baptists Praised For Youth House

DEDICATION ATTENDED BY 250 ON SUNDAY

"This magnificent Youth House offers the young people of Tecumseh a wonderful chance to grow up with a balanced background of religion, education and recreation," Robert Johnson, Ann Arbor, told a dedication throng of 250 Sunday afternoon at the new Baptist church addition.

The afternoon ceremony followed a beautiful Mother's Day service in the morning when Rev. B. O. Bashore spoke on "Who Is Mother?" Mrs. James Van Forth sang "That Wonderful Mother of Mine" and the Junior choir sang, "Nobody Knows But Mother." Carnations were given to each mother of the church.

In the afternoon a large variety of flowers decorated the spacious Youth House. They were sent from the Methodist, Presbyterian, Friends and Catholic churches, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Neil DePuy, Guy Belding and others. Mrs. Garland Gove, Mrs. Charles Stevenson and Mrs. Floyd Bryan served on the flower committee in charge of decorations.

Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett presided at the guest book.

Rev. Ronald Brunger offered the opening prayer and spoke on behalf of the ministerial association.

Members of the building committee, trustees, deacons and their wives and church school teachers were on the reception committee.

Among the 250 who attended the Youth House dedication were many from away including visitors from Detroit, Charlotte, Onsted, Adrian and others.

OPPORTUNITY ROOM OK'D BY BOARD OF EDUCATION

To better serve the needs of certain pupils who are having difficulty maintaining their grade level, the Board of Education voted in session Tuesday night to initiate an "opportunity room" beginning next fall.

This room will be in the Central school with a special teacher to serve the fourth, fifth and sixth grades for pupils who have been held back by poor grades. When the pupil, through specialized study and training, can regain the educational level of his proper age class, he will be transferred to his or her proper group.

Varied Program Set For Summer Recreation Sked

Boys and girls of all ages can look forward to a summer of fun in the Tecumseh Recreation Program, Lester Runk, director of the program announced. All the facilities of the recreation department and the schools are being made available in the hope that all the children of Tecumseh will take an active part.

Opening date will be Monday, July 29. Swimming instruction by Duane Furbush will be offered from 9 a. m. until 1 p. m., Monday through Friday with classes for non swimmers to advanced groups. The swimming program has boosted a high membership in the past years and its success is anticipated again this year.

A new program, the Tot Lot, is being offered for children between four and seven years old. This group will be enrolled as a class, meeting each morning from 9:30 — 11:30 Monday through Friday. Under the supervision of Miss Joyce Warner, elementary teacher, the children will participate in painting, clay modeling, story hours and games.

Afternoons will be devoted to arts, crafts, and playground activities for children of all ages. Arts and crafts will include leathercraft, metal work, and soap carving, while playground activities will include softball, baseball, ping pong, croquet, horseshoes, checkers, volley ball, target games, archery and tennis. These activities will be under the direction of Miss Warner and Mr. Runk.

"Special Days" will be anticipated by youngsters. These programs will include a pet show, a doll day, bike races, costume day, and swap day. Prizes will be offered to winners.

Conclusion of the playground program will be marked by a giant field day. Contests for children of all ages will be held, with prizes for all winners.

For adults the Recreation Program offers night softball games with the winning teams receiving trophies as they have in the past.

Every effort is being made to make the Summer Recreation Program a success. With the many varied activities, under fine supervision it is hoped that all parents will encourage their children to take part in a summer of fun.

Mr. Runk explained that the starting date of July 29 was set after the annual vacation Bible school which ends July 26.

Register Now For June 29 Charter Vote

TECUMSEH'S FUTURE, EXTENDED BOUNDARIES IN HANDS OF VOTERS

Sometimes overlooked as a minor part in the structure of America's electoral system, the real importance of each voter registering was emphasized by the Citizen's Planning committee this week as township clerk H. H. Hanna posted registration notices for the forthcoming June 29 election.

For at this election Tecumseh's future will be at stake as electors squarely face such issues as separate home rule, more representation on the county board of supervisors, one place to pay taxes, one place to register and vote — all wrapped up in the single question, Should Tecumseh Become A City With Boundaries Extended To Include the Thickly Populated Fringe Area?

"Check your registration to vote in township elections," co-chairmen Rev. B. O. Bashore and Bob Moore advised all voters in the area proposed for a bigger Tecumseh with a home rule charter.

"If you have voted in the township elections since 1948 which include presidential elections," Hanna said, "you are registered here." Village registration is entirely separate.

But if you are new to the area, or have recently qualified to vote, register at the supervisor's office on or before May 29.

Co-chairmen Moore and Bashore are assisted by an eight member planning committee of C. O. Butler, Mel Patridge, H. H. Hanna, John Zeigler, Jim Beardsley, L. H. Titley, Robert French and Neil Hunter.

To-date this committee has filed petitions with the county board of supervisors asking for the election upon which a firm date of June 29 was set and a population census ordered to determine the number of voters in the affected area.

The committee welcomes questions concerning the two fold question of home rule charter for Tecumseh and extension of boundaries and will gladly answer these privately, publicly or collectively.

Further informative material will appear weekly in The Herald prior to the June 29 election.

Health and Safety Portrayed By 64

MRS. UPDIKE'S CLASS WILL GIVE PERFORMANCE

"Health and Safety" is the theme of Friday night's annual kindergarten program in Central auditorium.

Sixty-four pupils, directed by teacher Mrs. Dorothy Updike, will present their understanding of "Health and Safety" in songs, dances, pantomine and rhythm. The program is open to the public, curtain time 8 p.m.

Mrs. Updike explained that the "Health and Safety" movement, which now has an important place in Tecumseh's educational program, is based on two principles.

"Consciousness of how health and safety are promoted and a willingness, even enthusiasm, toward using these means, are the ideas we try to carry out," the teacher said. "The responsibility for promoting these two ideas cannot effectively be asigned to a single subject or to a single period in the school day. Every opportunity must be seized for developing right habits of thinking and doing."

Mrs. Updike explained that music should not be called upon primarily to present new ideas concerning "Health and Safety" but by making them more attractive it can do much to reinforce ideas presented in other subjects. Music has frequently made goodness a happy experience and it is incrasingly being used to make "Health and Safety" precepts enjoyable as well as beneficial.

All this adds up to Friday night's public program when 65 children of the West Branch kindergarten class will present a varied program of 20 selections.

WEAR A V.F.W. BUDDY POPPY THIS WEEKEND

Local chairmen Gaza Kish and Mrs. Harlan Boyes direct this Buddy Poppy sale here Friday and Saturday.

Annual Kindergarten Musical Program Friday Night

"Kindergarten" is a lengthy 12-letter word of German derivation meaning, "Garden Where the Children Grow," and is today an important part of our educational program where first the normal aptitudes for play and learning are cultivated in five-year-old boys and girls. This is more educational theory than every day practice, but is the moving force behind Friday night's public musical presented by Mrs. Dorothy Updike's West Branch pupils. Pictured above is the 1953 kindergarten class which will appear on the Central school auditorium stage

PARENT'S SIDE -- University of Michigan president, Dr. Harlan Hatcher stepped from his role of educator to that of a parent recently when he complained to the state P.T.A. of the following shortcomings of modern education.

- Pupils today are not being taught the English language. Not nearly as many college students would fail in their studies if they were taught how to read, speak, write and understand our language.
- We have done a disservice to our children by taking from their training the process of learning by memory.
- The most notable lack in our schools today is the emphasis on taking a particular task and carrying it through to completion.

What the learned Dr. Hatcher was saying in the above points is the need for an education switch back to a renewed emphasis on fundamentals that will prepare pupils for later life and, more important, instill in them an inner discipline which they must have if they are to achieve either success or happiness in life.

PROMPT ACTION NEEDED — News that Federal agencies have cut hundreds of millions of wasted dollars from their departmental budgets makes good reading. It shows that vast savings are possible. It is a step toward the point where we can sight a balanced budget and justify tax reductions.

A balanced budget, with tax cuts to stimulate the productive energies of the nation, is essential to America's balanced economy and continued power. Congressional inquiries have uncovered hundreds of instances of waste in both civilian and defense spending. The waste can be eliminated for the improvement of our domestic economy without weakening defenses. Now is the time to take the savings from our taxes thrown out the window by waste and use them to strengthen our economy. A dollar saved by the government is just like a dollar saved by business, it is like a dollar earned!

A CHAIN REACTION — A London bus driver recently slightly injured two little girls, when he knocked them down with his bus. The driver immediately called an ambulance to take them to a hospital.

The ambulance, answering the call, ran into a signpost. Another bus ran into the ambulance. Fire engines were called to separate the ambulance and second bus. Another ambulance was called to take the little girls to the hospital.

Two police cars were called to straighten out the traffic jam caused by the incident.

The moral of all this, we think, is obvious: A little caution sometimes prevents a lot of commotion. In the case above, it could have prevented injury to two little girls, an ambulance, a bus and the occupants in the crashed vehicles.

DID YOU KNOW? — The editor of a small town newspaper, when taken to task because of an error in his newspaper, came up with this answer: "Yes, we know there were some errors in last week's newspaper. We will further agree that there were some errors in the issue of the week before. But before bawling us out too unmercifully about it, we want to call your attention to these facts — In an ordinary newspaper column there are 10,000 letters, and there are seven possible wrong positions for each letter, making 70,000 chances to make errors and several million chances for transposition. There are 48 columns in this newspaper, so you can readily see the chances for mistakes. Did you know that in the sentence, 'To be or not to be,' by transposition alone, 2,759,022 errors can be made? Now aren't you sorry you got mad about that little mistake last week."

Tales Of Tecumseh

PAST PRESENT POTENTIAL

While all the world has been discussing the 1953 Pulitzer prize awards, Tecumseh has been remembering with quiet pride that one of her native sons was a winner of that highest honor.

The history prize in May, 1930 went to Dr. Claude Halstead VanTyne, who was born in Tecumseh, Oct. 16, 1869, for his book "The War of Independence." There was a tragic irony in that award, for Claude VanTyne had died on March 21 of that year, less than two months before the world recognized his supremacy in his field. That field was the War of American Independence, and he had written many volumes covering various phases of the subject, some of which had brought him into violent disagreement with the accepted opinions of other writers.

His view point, after years of study and research, was that the basic conflict was not between America and Great Britain, but between the diverse conceptions of liberalism and reaction. An editorial writer in the Detroit Free Press, said "VanTyne sought to recover for American scholarship a reputation for historical erudition and veracity. The success he achieved lays, not Great Britain, but his own country, under obligation to him."

A statement Dr. VanTyne once made before a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution attests to his fearlessness if it did not add to his popularity. He said that while the members could take justifiable pride in the bravery of their fighting ancestors, membership did not add to their social standing since the revolution was fought, not by the leading citizens, but by the "lower classes" of the period.

At the time of his death he had been for twenty-one years head of the department of history at the University of Michigan from which he had graduated in 1896. In preparation he had studied abroad at Heidelberg and Leipzig and had received his degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Pennsylvania. Twice he had held lecturing scholarships in Europe, speaking before the provincial universities in France and delivering the Sir George Watson lectures in England.

He never lost touch with his home town, however, for although his brother, Fred, is the only remaining member of his immediate family here, the VanTynes were part of Tecumseh's beginning. His grandfather, David, came here in 1830 and established a chair factory on the site of the first grist mill just east of the Brownville bridge, using the same water power that had turned the mill. Later he had a furniture store and his son, Lawrence, father of Claude was a cabinet maker all his life. Mrs. Lawrence VanTyne was a member of the Rosacrans family and Claude was a cousin of Leon Rosacrans and of Mrs. George Adamson.

Graduating from Tecumseh high school in 1889, he proved to have more than the normal college boy's determination to see the world and to learn about it first hand. His family was not wealthy enough to send him on the "grand tour," so he provided his own transportation via bicycle, financing his travels in part by writing. In fact Claude VanTyne crowded so much unusual living into his sixty years that telling about it will be continued in the next edition of "Is that so!"

MEETING FRIDAY FOR MEMORIAL DAY PLANS

After serving continually for 20 years as officer of the day for Tecumseh's annual Memorial Day ceremony, Louis S. Schneider took over the job again this year with the promise of "another fitting observance in honor of the men who gave their lives that democracy might live."

But he pointed to cooperative effort through all clubs and organizations to make the day a success. He looked to last year's well-timed two hour parade and graveside program in announcing that again the ceremony would start at 10 sharp and end at noon.

To arrange all this, officer of the day has called an important meeting for Friday night, 7:30 at the Legion home. All civic organizations are asked to have a representative on hand. With a good turnout, Schneider said Friday night's meeting would not last more than 15 minutes.

He also sent out an early request to horseback riders to plan on riding in the parade.

D.A.R. CHAPTER

The annual spring luncheon of Abi Evans chapter of the D.A.R. was held at the pleasant new home of Mrs. Kenneth Hall in Herrick Park, Friday. The guest table for the three course, one o'clock luncheon, was decorated in pink and white with flowers and candles, while a long table in the recreation room was gay with miniature May poles and violets. There was a profusion of spring flowers throughout the house.

Guests of the club were the state regent, Mrs. Ralph Newland of St. Joseph and Mrs. John Tolford and Miss Nell Condon from the Lucy Wolcott Barnum Chapter in Adrian. The regent Mrs. Joe Rice conducted a short business meeting and then introduced Mrs. Newland, who as the speaker of the day gave a detailed review of the Continental Congress of the D.A.R. Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Francis Stone, who were the delegates of the Abi Evans chapter to the Congress gave the highlights of their experiences.

Mrs. Hall was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Lyman Curtiss and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw. The June meeting will be a picnic at the lake cottage of Mrs. Lavern Russell.

FIDDLE STICKS CLUB

The Fiddle Sticks Club, a club for junior musicians sponsored by the Tecumseh Music Club, held their formal initiatory services at a candlelighted ceremony in the high school building Monday evening at 8 p. m. Betty and Nancy Day, Sharon Muhn, Marilyn Manley, Linda Johnson, Judy Kempf, Yvonne Morningstar and Joan Johnston were the members taking part in the services and a group of songs was given by the sixth grade glee club, directed by Mrs. George Schippers. The girls presented corsages to Mrs. Lester Runk and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz for their effort and interest in organizing and supervising the new club.

CHILD STUDY CLUB

The final meeting of the year of the Child Study Club was a dinner at the Episcopal Parish house Monday evening, the hostesses being Mrs. Philip Colgrove and Mrs. Donald Cobb. Twenty-five members were present and the program committee, Mrs. Howard Truesdale and Mrs. David Dick, arranged tables for cards after a short business meeting. Mrs. Victor Lawson received high honors, Mrs. Owen Partridge was second while Mrs. Robert Ries held the low score.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

Harry Curry was pleasantly surprised the evening of May 1 by a group of friends who dropped in to honor his birthday. Those present were Clarence and Chester Beach, Jack Morehouse, Archie Porter, John Quigley and Mr. Curry's son-in-law, Ivan Maynard. Euchre formed the entertainment of the evening after which refreshments were served.

SPRING DINNER DANCE

The Spring Dinner Dance of the Tecumseh Country Club will be held Saturday evening, May 23, with dinner served at 7 p.m. Nat Fry's Strollers will provide music for both dinner and dancing. Grade School News

Kindergarten
Mrs. Heimerdinger

We have been concentrating on prereading readiness. We are making and illustrating alphabet books in manuscript. Each child will have his book completed by next week.

With a little carpentering we have converted our kitchen into a store. There is much enthusiasm about our new project. The children are bringing empty boxes to make our store more realistic.

Mrs. Lawson brought two puppies to our room Thursday. We enjoyed them very much.

We are learning May songs and poems. We made May baskets for our mothers for Mother's Day.

This year there will be a tea instead of a program. The plans are being formulated by the teacher and pupils. Invitations will be sent in advance to the event.

Grade One
Miss Warner

We think spring is really here because we have had so many pretty flowers brought to school.

We have been learning about flowers in science and we are happy that we have the real flowers to look at.

We also colored pictures of flowers and we used them to make a pretty garden picture on the board.

We finished our first language book, "We Talk, Spell, and Write" and find we have learned to spell quite a few new words.

The Robins have been reading about the fun "Dick and Jane and Sally" have with pets and toys. The Bluebirds have been reading about the fun "Sally" has and the funny things which happen to her because she is such a little girl.

The Stars are learning that Dick and Jane and Sally can work as well as play.

We have missed a lot of our friends who are sick. We hope they will be back to school with us soon.

Grade Two
Mrs. Puffer

We are making an aquarium for our school room. Children have brought a large bowl, snails, seaweed, sand and other materials needed to make an attractive aquarium. Mrs. Runk gave us some guppies. We are learning many things about aquarium care from reading in reference books and giving reports.

One day we had an interesting experience. We watched a blacksmith shoe a horse. Most of us never had seen this done before. Later, we made a collection of horse shoes of various sizes and types and found out the particular use of each kind of shoe. Several days later the blacksmith visited our room and looked at our horseshoes.

Now that the warm spring weather is here we needed more jumping ropes so we asked Mr. Greene if we might go down town at recess to buy some ropes. Before we went we measured to find out how much rope we needed. We bought a long one for group use and two shorter ones.

Grade Three
Mrs. Colson

Another boy has joined our group. His name is Bill Oliver and he came to us from Birmingham, Alabama.

We are making a large poster showing all kinds of things with wheels that turn on axles. We are learning about wheels and levers in science class.

Gale Miller brought a garter snake for us to see. Many children from other rooms were interested and came in to see it, too.

We are making booklets of flowers and birds that we know. The pictures of these which we have colored, and the beautiful spring flowers brought by some of the children make our room very cheerful.

Twenty children had perfect spelling papers last week. Seven of us missed only one word. We are trying to have more perfect papers this week.

Grade Five
Miss Hopkins

The fifth grade is deep in the heart of South America. The film strips which the school provides have shown us Columbus, Magellan, Balboa, and Pizarro as they penetrated farther and farther into the New World. Mr. Greene's movie of the banana industry fitted in with our present social studies. We find it interesting to compare our Revolutionary War with the similar efforts of Latin American Countries to free themselves from Spanish control. Mary Seager was able to give us some idea of the size of the Amazon River as she saw it from the airplane.

The skating party on May 16 at Sand Lake is not a school event although most of the fifth graders are eager for that day to come. Mr. Greene is helping us plan for a trip to the museum in Toledo some time this spring. The authorities there have sent to the school a very cordial invitation to view the exhibits without cost.

The members of the band are working hard to make the Junior Band Concert a success next week. They are to play for the public on May 14.

Our school room has been brightened with a variety of spring flowers.

The substitutes have taken over for a few weeks, the work of the service squad and the patrol boys.

The sweet potato which June Hartley has been keeping in a bowl of water has finally begun to sprout. It promises to grow rapidly after delaying growth for over a month.

Mrs. Schippers is teaching us how to direct an orchestra.

Billy Conklin brought us an interesting specimen of volcanic rock of the chrystaline type.

We are trying to stay off the grass so that the school can have a good lawn this summer. In our language work, we have been discussing courtesy in telephone conversations.

This morning we began work in changing common fractions to decimals.

Grade Six
Mr. Kaiser

Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the members of the class have been visiting the seventh grade at the high school.

We are reading the book "North Winds Blow Free" by Elizabeth Howard. It is a story of the underground railroad. The first part of the story takes place near Tecumseh in 1860.

Now that we have finished our science textbooks, we are using the Porto Lab and manual to do additional experiments.

In social studies we are studying the East Indies. We were surprised to find out that the people of the Indies have so many different religions.

Lloyd Watson is visiting Washington, D. C. We know that he will have many interesting things to tell us when he returns.

If its news call The Herald.

The Tecumseh Herald may not be the biggest in the world but it is the one you have to read if you want to know what is happening in Tecumseh.

HOSPITAL Notes

If you ask the telephone operator for number 20 these days, a quiet, well modulated voice will say, "Herrick Memorial Hospital," and whether your call was a routine query or an emergency operation, you feel at once that the situation is well in hand. The voice may belong to any one of three people. Perhaps Mrs. Arthur Schwartz, who is also in charge of all the hospital bookkeeping, perhaps Miss Florence Tilton, who types and files all the reports that have been dictated on the wire recorder, or if it is after school hours or Saturday it may perhaps be Miss Ruth Tilton, who helps on a part time basis.

Mrs. Schwartz is the wife of one of Tecumseh's high school teachers and is an accomplished musician. Florence and Ruth Tilton are sisters and the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Tilton. They all "carry on" in a businesslike room at the left of the hospital waiting room, all of them make appointments, all tell you the patient is "doing as well as could be expected" or is "about the same" and any one of them may be the one to hand you the bad news in the form of your bill.

O.E.S. OBSERVES 65TH ANNIVERSARY

One hundred and twenty-five members of the O.E.S. attended the impressive ceremonies of the observance of the 65th anniversary of the Tecumseh chapter Thursday evening. Among the honored guests were the officers of the Lenawee-Monroe Association Mrs. Alice Lee, Addison, president; Mrs. John Fatchett, Blissfield, vice president; Mrs. Wilma Corbett, Palmyra, chaplain; Mrs. Kenton Hunt, Tecumseh, secretary; Mrs. Leola Ott, Monroe, treasurer; Mrs. Melvin Smith, Tecumseh, organist and Mrs. Warren Benham, Ridgeway, soloist.

Fifteen past worthy matrons and nine past worthy patrons were welcomed by the worthy matron Mrs. Ray Schiegel and honors were bestowed upon Mrs. Lynn Harris, a past matron for her eleven years service as secretary and Mrs. Glenn Driscoll for her five years work as organist. Recognition was also given Mrs. Amey Scutt, the oldest member present, who will soon be 87 years of age. The oldest living past matron is Miss Anna Cutting of California who is now 87 and who sent greetings to the chapter. The second oldest past worthy matron is Mrs. Florence Montgomery of Tecumseh.

Candle lighting services of commemoration were conducted for the years of the chapter, the first officers, the first star points and the first candidates. There is one survivor of those so named, Miss Louise Phelps, who was the first Martha. These services were planned by Mrs. Fred Dickinson and carried out by Mrs. Warren Benham as narrator, and Mrs. John Lott and Mrs. Chester Beach as candle lighters.

The first officers of the chapter were elected at an organization meeting held 65 years ago in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James. Tommy Dickinson, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson of W. Pottawatamie street, returned home Wednesday after more than a week at Herrick Memorial hospital. Tommy received a very severe cut last week Tuesday when his arm went through the glass of a storm door as he was playing at the James Barton home. He was rushed to the hospital by his mother and Mrs. Barton where surgery was necessary to stop bleeding and where he received a plasma transfusion. He was quite seriously ill for several days from shock and loss of blood and it will be some time before he can return to school.

Time Is Money!

The time you spend on your job is money in your pay envelope. Like time, this money has a way of "flying" fast . . . from one pay day to the next. You can't make time stand still. But you can make some of your money stand still . . . in a savings account. Not only stand still, but GROW steadily via the interest it earns for you. Timely advice: start a savings account at once.

The Diet For Christians!

Reducing plans take up a goodly portion of the advertising space in the magazine world of today. In fact, a diet consciousness is generally in effect throughout our society. Calories are counted, pills are taken, protein-high diets are prescribed, and many techniques are tested to achieve just normal health.

Although most dieting is of physical nature, Christians observe the need for balanced menus in all living. Ice cream and candy have been the in-between-meal trouble makers for the stomach and the soul. Lack of hunger is evidenced at regular meal-time religion because of our sweet-tooth fancy of 'everything but' activity.

The normal requirements for a balanced diet are known by most people as well as they know their own name. However, appetizing desserts are much more appealing than a vegetable which is not a particular favorite.

The emphasis upon the dessert in Christianity has been the shallow interpretation of just being a 'good Joe'! The main course of chewy meats and well prepared fruits and vegetables in the form of real responsibility suffers when compared to a whipped cream — chocolate Sundae promise.

When the Christian eats only canned faith, the freshness of inspiration will be apt to make loyalty and sincerity old-fashioned bulk! The appalling need in Christian living is focused upon a balanced diet of the necessary forms of spiritual meal-time prayer, faith and practice!

Seat ourselves at the counter of God to eat the Diet for Christians. The right foods will stimulate appetite and we will be strengthened of God to do greater work in His name! Let's eat with a spiritual purpose as well as a physical desire! Remembering, we are just about what we eat, physically, mentally and spiritually!

Aye,
George E. Walworth

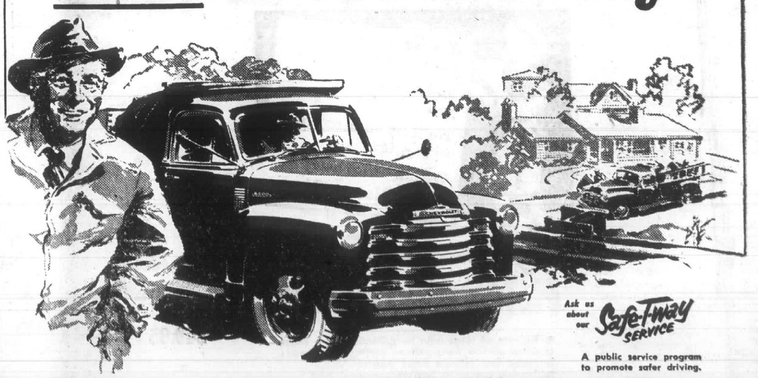
No doubt about it...
Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!



Ask us about our Safe-T-Way SERVICE
A public service program to promote safer driving.

This year—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want.

Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all others Chevrolet trucks really are.

They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Loadmaster engines in heavy-duty models . . . the remarkable gasoline economy . . . the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction.

And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

A public record of news and advertising printed in Tecumseh since 1850.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER

TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, MAY 21, 1953

FIVE CENTS A COPY

Future Of City (?) Soon Before Voters

Five weeks from Monday — on June 29 — voters in Tecumseh and in the immediate surrounding area under petition for annexation, will decide the future of a community which has been almost unchanged in government and boundary for over 100 years.

For they as voters will exercise the cherished American privilege of voting — determining by private ballot how they should be governed.

This election might be truly tabbed a "grass roots" election with the only interest a local one and the only voters eligible will be those here at home. Registration is based on a township level, although the township, outside the proposed area has nothing to do with the balloting. Electors who have not voted in the township or national elections here recently can register on or before May 29 with clerk H. H. Hanna in the supervisor's office.

Owning property has nothing to do with the election, all persons who fill the age and residence qualifications are eligible to register and participate.

What will you be voting for? Actually you will be voting for a charter commission to draft a form of government which best fills the needs of the city of Tecumseh which is roughly bounded by Russell road on the south, Occidental highway on the west, Rogers road and Murphy road on the east and a line running off Macon road on the north.

This charter commission will meet after the election and begin drafting a plan for city government which must again go through the election procedure.

So the June 29 election is but the first step in shaping the future of a village that is operating as it did over 100 years ago.

Death Takes Mrs. P. C. Satterthwaite

RITES TODAY FOR LIFE LONG TECUMSEH WOMAN

At St. Peter's Episcopal church this afternoon funeral services will be held for Josephine Marie Satterthwaite, who died quietly in her sleep early Tuesday morning. The daughter of Levi and Blanch Mead Hayden, she was christened in that church and there became the wife of Perry Satterthwaite. Josephine Hayden was born July 15, 1893, and had spent most of her life in Tecumseh where she graduated from high school with the class of 1910. In 1915 she graduated from the University of Michigan and for two years was principal of the Junior high school at Birmingham, leaving that position to marry Mr. Satterthwaite just before he left for military service overseas. Mrs. Satterthwaite was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal church, Chapter AJ of P.E.O. and of Collegiate Sorosis.

In addition to her husband she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Munson, Mill Valley, California; a son, Perry H. New Tecumseh Motor Court Opens In June

The above artist sketch shows Tecumseh's new Motor Court motel on Mill street, south of Brown. Four of eight units pictured will be opened early in June.

The first units of the Tecumseh Motor Court motel will be open for guests about June 1 according to A. C. Hamaker, owner of the project. This group includes an office and four guest rooms, each with private tiled tub and shower bath.

Located on the east side of Mill Street south of Brown the new motel is of white frame construction with concrete porches. A concrete drive into the property serves the motels and the adjacent parking area. Each room has automatic gas heat, and is furnished only for over-night accomodations. Other features pointed out are that each room is completely soundproofed and insulated and has cross ventilation. Aluminum storm and screen doors and windows are part of the equipment.

The four units being completed are half of the plan for eight. According to Mr. Hamaker, as soon as experience shows the need, the other four units will be added. A second building on the same property bringing the project to 16 units is planned for next year. Rentals are already being taken for same.

Trucks Take Over Boulevard

NO RESIDENTIAL PARKING DURING PAVING

Temporary "No Parking" signs have been posted along both sides of Chicago boulevard in the residential area to make room for a three week parade of concrete trucks.

Village engineer Ed Nelson explained the signs as a safety precaution. The measure will be enforced while Knapp Construction Co. is hauling concrete from the mixing plant on Rogers highway to the paving operation west of Tecumseh.

"There will be a concrete truck through town every five minutes," Nelson said, "so for the next three weeks parking along the boulevard will be prohibited."

Paving started this week at Billington's Corners with the giant paver inching slowly toward Democrat street at the rate of 2,000 feet a day.

Widening of the boulevard is expected to start right after Memorial Day.

REV. IBEN LEAVES BRITTON JUNE 7

Rev. Theodore Iben was honored Sunday evening with a farewell service at the Britton Immanuel Lutheran church. After serving there eight years as pastor, he announced plans to move to Portland, Ore.

At Sunday's farewell service and reception following, many spoke words of praise for the work of Rev. Iben. These included Rev. A. Jeschke, Tecumseh; Rev. Paul Foust, Milan; Rev. Herbert Fehner, Monroe; Rev. Frederick Miller, Adrian and others. Clarence Schroeder was master of ceremonies.

Rev. Iben began his ministry in Oklahoma forty-seven years ago. After serving in Illinois for many years he moved to Britton in 1945. He will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday, June 7.

No pastor has been called as yet to replace Rev. Iben, the trustees said. They are Clarence Covell, Harold Schroeder and Otto Miller.

Next Stop For Seniors — NYC

Chinatown, Central Park, the Eastside docks, Rockefeller Center, Battery Park, Times Square — those and many other points of interest will be the barker's cry next week as 63 Tecumseh high seniors take a "rubberneck" bus tour through gigantic New York City, melting pot of a thousand nationalities.

Itinerary for the trip starts Wednesday at 5:05 p. m. when the THS graduating class members meet in Detroit to board an overnight Pullman train for Manhattan. There early Thursday, they register at the Henry Hudson hotel for three full days of sightseeing fun.

Highlight of the journey will be a visit at the United Nations building and a yacht trip around the Statue of Liberty. There will be a musical ballet, a show at Radio City and numerous other visits to noted places before the seniors climb aboard the returning train Saturday afternoon. They will be in Detroit Sunday morning.

Products, Village Lauded For Red Cross Donation

In a letter to The Herald, Lenawee county ARC secretary, Mrs. E. T. Armstrong, Adrian, praised Tecumseh for its $3,878 collection during the recent Red Cross drive, and in particular she praised the Herrick Foundation of Tecumseh Products for the largest single contribution to the entire county fund.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen was chairman of the annual drive here. Tecumseh has never fallen short of its goal in a Red Cross drive.

Here is how collections were received from cities, villages and townships in Lenawee county.

MRS. WILLIAM BROOKS IS BURIED TODAY

Lucy Ellen Brooks, wife of William C. Brooks, and a resident of Tecumseh for the past twenty-four years died Monday evening at her home on E. Chicago Blvd. at the age of eighty-one. She had been in failing health for several years.

Mrs. Brooks was born in Monroe county, Sept. 24, 1871, the daughter of James and Mary Webster Newberry. She was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal church.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Brooks is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Thomas O'Hara and Mrs. Jack Williams both of Tecumseh, a son Ted Brooks also of Tecumseh and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at the Green Funeral Home and burial will be in the Mason cemetery at Mason, Michigan.

TWO FIRES INITIATE NEW TRUCK DRIVER

No sooner than Lawrence Price joined the Tecumseh fire department as new driver than he had a call to extinguish a fire at Tecumseh Products. That was Thursday night, his first on the force as he filled the vacancy left by Bob Purkey.

Then on Friday night he was back on duty when a call came from Clinton and the local department joined in a four hour fight to extinguish a half-million dollar blaze at Clinton Machine.

These were fires 25 and 26 this year.

McDowell Tells Of Opportunity Room

SPECIAL TRAINING ACCOMPANIES PLAN

Tecumseh schools are planning to better serve the needs of pupils who are having difficulty in maintaining their grade level. At the end of each year there are pupils who chronologically should be passed into the next grade but whom during the year have not been able to assimilate the proper degree of knowledge necessary to continue on to the next grade.

James McDowell, superintendent of schools, explained that the policy of the Tecumseh schools for many years has been to retain children not more than two years in any grade. It is known that certain psychological factors hinder the pupil's growth if retained in a grade too long. However, it is just as disadvantageous to the younger group with whom this older pupil is placed.

With classes now exceeding thirty-five pupils in most sections of the elementary school it is impossible for the teacher to give those who do not achieve quite as rapidly as others the extra attention necessary for their development. The Board of Education has, therefore, authorized an "opportunity room" to partially serve these needs next fall.

The initial opportunity room will be at the Central school with a special teacher to serve the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. All phases of the pupil's education will be given attention. The children will be given an opportunity to begin work in each subject at their present tested level and an attempt will be made to raise the pupil's grade level to his chronological grade level. When a pupil reaches this level the pupil will be transferred to the group with which he would chronologically attend school.

Special materials in remedial work will be used and every effort will be made to give the individual attention so necessary to pupils who are having difficulty in learning routine school subjects. Also, special attention will be given to psychological and psychiatric problems which may be hindering the pupil's school progress.

Twenty-seven pupils whose tests indicate them to be at least a half year below their chronological grade level will be considered for eligibility to the new opportunity room. Of these twenty-seven pupils only fifteen or sixteen will be selected for the room. Approximately sixteen are more than one year below chronological grade level and some have already been retained in their grades two years and need special help to overcome their difficulties.

There are three hundred seventy pupils in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades and, therefore, the twenty-seven or eight pupils who are a half year or more below grade level in our schools does not represent a very high percentage and it is hoped to be able to add a great deal to the pupil's life through the satisfaction of achievement which will come in participation in the special program provided by this room.

"The Board of Education and administration are very pleased to be able to add this opportunity room to our facilities for we have long felt a need to serve our pupils who need special assistance. This we could not provide except through reduced teaching loads and special materials impossible to provide in each grade," Mr. McDowell siad.

The Board has also voted to purchase a Logan whirlpool hydro-therapy machine for the new high school training room. This machine is used to treat many of the injuries occuring through athletic contests, practice, and gym classes. It is hoped to reduce the time necessary to recuperate from such injuries and eliminate much of the accompanying pain.

HELP WANTED AT CEMETERY—Clayton Young, Supt. adv. 5/21

Tecumseh Mourns Sudden Death Of Dr. H. H. Hammel

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon for Harry H. Hammel, M.D., who has been known to Tecumseh for over 30 years by the familiar "Doc" which typifies the profession of those who dedicate their human energies to relieve the sufferings of others.

"Doc" Hammel, 59, died suddenly Tuesday morning of a heart attack which ended a full life of travel, hobbies, family life and devoted service both to his community and his country.

DR. H. H. HAMMEL

He was an American, he was a Tecumsehian, he was a physician, he filled all categories with the zest of a human dynamo for his life poured through many channels — and he lived them all to the utmost, doctor, soldier, citizen, hobbyist, average man.

His passing leaves an army of friends in mourning for they remain in a testimony to his personal fullfilment of every man's dream, to leave the world at least a little better place than he found it.

Born in rural Hartford, Sept. 3, 1893 to Ola and Louise Matreau Hammel, he worked and studied his way through Watervliet high school, the University of Michigan and finally its famed Medical College where he was graduated a youthful surgeon in 1915. After a brief specialist course on the University hospital staff, Dr. Hammel established a practice in Tecumseh only to be called out with the Michigan National Guard to protect the Texas border in 1916. From there he entered World War I, first serving overseas with the British and then with the AEF. He returned from France and Belgium as a Major in the reserve ranks.

Through the years he built a large practice in Tecumseh and cultivated many personal friends though he always found time for hunting, fishing and such hobbies as photography, collecting and cutting precious jewels.

Dr. Hammel had fished and hunted all over the United States, Canada and Alaska before he traveled to the sportsman's paradise of New Zealand. His field and stream trophies were many and included a prize chamois from the charmed Pacific isle and a mamouth Arizona deer head measuring near to the world's record.

After answering an emergency call in 1937 when the Mississippi flooded, he was quick to volunteer his services at the outbreak of World War II. He first added his genius to the Army medical corps by teaching at the University of Michigan and then joining the Surgeon General's staff. From there Col. Hammel went to France and Germany to establish America's overseas hospital system. He was retired at the end of the war as a full colonel.

Home in his favorite Tecumseh, he continued a voluminous medical practice relieving men and women of sickness and misery of all ages and from all walks of life. He was described by a close friend as a "human dynamo of unbounded energy" for his life was full of many virtues and accomplishments.

It was estimated that during the past 35 years he has performed over 10,000 major operations. Tonsils, adenoids, minor operations, home, office and hospital calls add up to an abundant life of doing for others that they might enjoy the happiness of good health.

Dr. Hammel pioneered medical surgery in Lenawee county and served as chief of staff at Herrick Memorial hospital. He has been an ardent aviationist, stockholder and director of Myers Aircraft and owner of a personal plane. The Hammels built a cabin at Hubbard Lake a few years ago and often times flew north for a brief outing.

He is a past president of the Michigan Reserve Officers Corps and has served many times as head of the Lenawee county Medical Society. Dr. Hammel was a Mason, member of various other organizations including the American Medical Association and St. Peter's Episcopal church.

His public service to the community included five years on the Tecumseh school board.

Those are only the high spots in the life of the energetic man who was "Doc" to a host of friends who mourn his sudden passing. He had suffered a minor heart attack last winter and had entered the hospital at 1:30 a. m. on the morning of his death.

Surviving are his widow, a son Dr. Richard T. Hammel, Tecumseh, two daughters Mrs. Jerry Roberts, Brown Mills, N. J., and Miss Irene Hammel, Kalamazoo; and a sister Mrs. Lilas McLain, Adrian.

Another son Jack Hammel was

Council Ok's VFW Carnival July 4, Parking Lot Leased

Tecumseh's July 4th plans were a step nearer completion Monday night when the Village Council approved a proposal by the Veterans of Foreign Wars to celebrate with a three-day carnival to be set up on the down town business street.

Representatives from the VFW said they had contacted the same carnival which was here for a one-day stand three years ago and asked to have the rides and concessions set up on Chicago boulevard between Pearl and Ottawa streets.

The carnival will be here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the July fourth weekend. Coupled with a ball game, fireworks and parachute jump, the council felt the carnival would give Tecumseh a good celebration.

Also Monday night a lease was signed with the Commerce Club for the village to take over the recently purchased parking lot on Ottawa street at a cost of $150 a month for one year. The old Irving Shaw residence will be left standing and temporarily rented but the barn, which stands directly behind the fire hall, will be torn down and the entire area resurfaced for free parking.

A plat for "Goodacre's Gardens", a proposed subdivision on Burt street, was also approved. The council further agreed to purchase 10 acres of land from Mrs. Elizabeth Mills for a new gravel pit at the cost of $400 an acre.

The fire department was also authorized to wash the downtown streets.

SERVICES HELD FRIDAY FOR MICHELLE McKEE

Funeral services were held last Friday morning at St. Elizabeth Catholic church for Michelle, the eleven months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKee, who died at University hospital, Ann Arbor, where she had been a patient for only a few days.

Michelle was born June 1, 1952, and her mother was the former Madeleine Bitschenauer. Survivors beside her parents are her grandfather, Robert McKee, Sr. of Tecumseh and her grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Bitschenauer of Mulhouse France. The Rev. Fr. Michael Collins officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Dr. Laidlaw Enlists In Air Force

STARTS 2-YEAR SERVICE SOMETIME LATE IN JUNE

Robert W. "Bob" Laidlaw, DDS, has enlisted in the Air Force and will report to Maxwell Field, Ala., sometime between June 15 and July 1. He ends nearly four years of practicing dentistry in Tecumseh but encouragingly assures a large following of patients that he will return after a two-year "hitch" is completed.

In a letter to patients this week, Dr. Laidlaw wrote, "I have been called on to re-enter the Armed Forces . . . my office will be closed from June 15, 1953 to July 15, 1955 while I serve with the U. S. Air Force."

Bob is 28, born here while his father was superintendent of schools. He graduated from THS in 1943 and entered the Navy V-12 program. He was stationed at Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., where he graduated.

In the Navy dental program, he attended the University of Michigan and was graduated Doctor of Dental Surgery in 1949 when he was released and opened an office here.

Because of a disability he was released from the Navy reserve, but when recent requirements for doctors and dentists were relaxed he volunteered for the Air Force.

Dr. Laidlaw expects to be at Maxwell Field for five weeks training before assignment.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw. He is married and has two boys, 19 months and seven months. Mrs. Laidlaw is the former Dela Kutis of Glenndale, W. Va., and was studying public health at the University of Michigan before their marriage. She is a registered nurse.

CHIEF WARNS AGAIN OF DOG ORDINANCE

A second warning to dog owners was issued this week by Chief George Kilbourn, who said the Tecumseh police department in conjunction with the county dog warden will strictly enforce an ordinance prohibiting dogs from running at will in the village.

Kilbourn said dogs must be confined on property of the owner or accompanied by a keeper on other premises. Any violation of this public law will result in the loose dog being picked up by the warden.

AN OBVIOUS QUESTION — Trying to drum up some interest over Tecumseh becoming a city, The Herald went out to dig up some questions this week from Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen. And the first question asked was a simple, blunt query which took its rightful place at the beginning of the question list. What are the advantages of a city?

Upon the answer to this question will the June 29 election be settled — for Tecumseh, like any other community, will steer a course toward most efficient government. Taxpayers naturally prefer the type of local government by which they get the most for their money and Tecumseh deserves everything in modern, up-to-date operation that a community of this size and valuation is due.

So watch for the answer to this and other questions in The Herald during the weeks prior to the election. Not that we sight any doubt among the voters, but a well informed citizenry assures a better future Tecumseh. Any questions are the best way to become informed. The Herald is not going to answer all these questions, either, in typical newspaper fashion, for the men who are giving, and have been giving for sometime, of their energies toward advancing our local government up with times, will let their hair down with informal, everyday language answers.

If this coming election is carried on in typical Tecumseh fashion there will be an every-vote-turnout with not one dissenting ballot by a well informed electorate. That's just how important the issue is for our future and how Tecumseh does things if the community gets into action.

A traveling sales agent who should know, for he calls on business firms in every town in southern Michigan, recently said, "Tecumseh is one of the two red-hot, progressive communities in this part of the state." The other was a Detroit suburb, Livonia or one of those new surburban developments.

RECORD TAX HAUL — Bureau of Internal Revenue reports that it collected $58,500,000,000 in all forms of taxation during 1952. That is about twelve and a-half billion dollars more than in 1951.

The largest single source of revenue was produced by federal individual income and employment tax. They rose about $35,995,895,681. Next in line came taxes from corporations, which increased thirty-four per cent over 1951, and totaled last year $22,139,733,189. Aside from single income taxes, the largest single tax source was cigarettes which produced more income for the government than in any previous year.

The biggest tax paying states remained unchanged and are New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Michigan and California.

Outlook for the future? No reduction immediately, perhaps a decrease if and when a knot is tied in waste and unnecessary expense in years to come.

YOUTH PAYS HEAVILY IN KOREA — Statistics show that soldiers killed in Korea are much younger than the average age soldier killed in World War II. In fact deaths under 20 are twice as great from a percentage standpoint.

One reason for this is the current practice of exempting older men from service because of their participation in WW II which is only fair. Thus the younger group, too young to serve before the present "UN police action," is filling a large portion of the draft quota.

Only three-fifths of all deaths among military personnel are from enemy action. A full third of all deaths are caused by accidents. Only a small percentage result from disease. It is regrettable to note that for every nine soldiers killed, as a result of enemy action, five were killed by accidents.

FREEDOM ROAD — As a handful of Allied war prisoners move down Freedom Road to the liberty they have dreamed of for so long, the world's heart warms. Helping hands and outstretched arms greet them—and beyond that the lighted faces and brimming hearts of those who have waited so long and anxiously at home.

Christianity is built on the recognition that each individual is infinitely precious to God. Democracy stands on the recognition of the value of each human life. The restoration of John or George or Henry to wives, parents and friends of these returning men makes for boundless joy. To others, each returned prisoner of war stands as a symbol of the freedom-loving individuals still imprisoned behind the Iron Curtain —waiting for the day of liberation to dawn.

Americans are given much hope in this trickle of returning prisoners. Perhaps the way will open soon for the rest of their comrades to follow down the Freedom Road. By this example, let us never forget that the sacrifices made by these men — and countless others — were made in order that many other millions might not fall into chains.

Why not straighten our thinking on these so called truce talks — a disgrace to the men who have already paid the supreme price of the Korean War with their lives — and get down to the business of ending the conflict. Get the political influence away from Ike and he'll get this mess cleaned up the only way any war ever ended — and pronto.

Those who are worried about peace hurting business, might take a tip from Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks who presented facts to the nation this week that domestic demand is so great that curtailment of defense spending will not mean depression to the nation.

Tales Of Tecumseh

PAST PRESENT POTENTIAL

(This concludes a story of the life of Dr. Claude VanTyne, Pulitzer prize winner and former Tecumseh resident, which began in last week's Herald).

The files of the Tecumseh Herald for the summer of 1894 contain a series of letters written by Claude VanTyne, then a college student, while on a bicycle trip to Denver. He was seeing America first hand, and gave graphic descriptions of what he saw, enlivened by amusing incidents of encounters with dogs, cows and pessimistic people who tried to discourage him from his hazardous undertaking.

He must have found it a satisfactory mode of travel, however, for he soon embarked on a still more ambitious trip in the company of another Tecumseh lad, Harry McClure, a student at Wabash College, who later "made good" in the publishing field. Their self-propelled tour covered most of continental Europe, including the more picturesque routes of France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy and Spain and their accounts, written for American newspapers, helped to defray their expenses. On the first leg of that trip, they were acompanied as far as New York, by Leon Rosacrans, himself a demon bike rider of the nineties.

These journeys were the preface to Van Tyne's student years at the German Universities and it was while he was still there that he married Isobel Joslyn, daughter of a former pastor of the Tecumseh Methodist church, and a graduate of the University of Michigan. Their honeymoon was even more unusual than his former travels, being a canoe trip down the Danube river from the Black Forest to the Black Sea.

The Van Tynes were the parents of four children and in educating them they departed once more from the accepted pattern. All four received their scholastic training from their parents, who tutored them from babyhood until they were ready for admission to the university. One son, Joslyn, is still at Michigan as professor of Ornithology, a second, Claude Jr. teaches at Harvard, and a third is a Welfare worker in Chicago while the only daughter is Mrs. Evelyn Lawton of New Jersey.

When the United States entered World War I and much of the American public was bewildered and reluctant, the federal government requested Dr. Van Tyne to undertake a speaking tour of the country to explain the causes and aims of that conflict. Because of his unusual understanding of Europe and of the world conditions he was able to acquit himself most creditably in this difficult assignment. But the most significant accomplishments of his brilliant, analytical mind were in his chosen field, American revolutionary history, and there he left many valuable contributions including the book, "The War of Independence" which brought him the honor of the Pulitzer prize.

From the viewpoint of Tecumseh, no account of the career of Dr. Van Tyne would be complete without the unusual supplementary circumstance that the man chosen to take the place he left vacant at the University is also "third generation" Tecumseh. Dr. Vernor Crane, who was called from ten years of teaching at Brown University, with degrees from Michigan, Harvard and Pennsylvania was first of all a graduate of Tecumseh high school with the class of 1907. Since becoming head of the Department of American History, Dr. Crane has spent some time in England, in lecturing and research, and has filled his position with distinction

BANQUET FIRST IN NEW YOUTH HOUSE

The new Youth House of the Baptist church was initiated last Wednesday evening when 225 mothers and daughters, ably assisted by fathers and sons, held their annual banquet. This was the first large event held in the new dining room and the decorations in yellow and orchid, featuring tulips mingled with butterflies gave it a spring-like atmosphere. The effective decorations were the work of Mrs. Carl Kempf and Mrs. Llewellyn Sisson, while Mrs. Robert Gillespie and Mrs. Harold Easton were in charge of the dining room and Mrs. Mills Swick, Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and Mrs. Dow Bilby of the kitchen.

The program, planned by Mrs. Orville Bishop, Mrs. Don Nettleman and Mrs. E. H. Van Vleet and announced by Mrs. Bishop was largely musical, consisting of vocal selections by the Arnold sisters, a quartette made up of Donald Fairchild, George Green, Harold Black and C. O. Bailey, a trio by the Green sisters, Carol Ann, Joan and Gloria and a piano solo by Ruth Ann Bryan. Toasts to the Mothers and the Daughters were given by Llewellyn Sisson and her daughter Linda.

Music during the banquet was provided by an orchestra made up of George Green, Harold Black and Lawrence Holdridge. Mrs. Harley McConnell was accompanist for the evening.

Honor was paid to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Minnie Sharp, to the youngest, Mrs. Richard Fielder and to the oldest mother with the youngest child, Mrs. Clifford Curran. Corsages were presented to Mrs. Joe Rice, whose husband had helped with the Youth House building plans, and to Mrs. B. O. Bashore who was affectionately designated as "Mother of the church."

A most unusual feature of this gathering was the presence of five sets of four generations of mothers, daughters, granddaughters and great-granddaughters. They were: Mrs. William Larmour of Clinton, whose descendants in order were Mrs. Howard Brooks, Tipton and Mrs. Robert Smith and daughters Nancy and Mary, Tecumseh; Mrs. John Perrin, Athens, Mich. with daughter, Mrs. Robert Gillespie, granddaughter Mrs. Harold Easton and great-granddaughter Linda Kay Easton; Mrs. Nettie Gove, Mrs. Garland Gove, Mrs. Edwin Gove and Garna Gove; Mrs. Harriet Knight, Mrs. Floyd Bryan, Mrs. Frederick Bryan and Ruth Ann Bryan; and Mrs. R. S. Moore, Mrs. R. H. Moore, Mrs. Richard Fielder and little Miss Carol Moore. The corsages which were presented to the honored mothers were the gift of the Junior Fellowship.

poured by Mrs. Mertie Waring. Miss Waldron was presented with a gift by the club.

—o—

Rev. and Mrs. B. O. Bashore accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, left Sunday afternoon for a trip of about ten days to Denver, Colorado. They will attend the National Baptist conference while there and will also enjoy a vacation. The Rev. Edward Escolme will fill Mr. Bashore's Tecumseh pulpit Sunday and the Rev. George Walworth will take over his assignment at Rome Center.

As long as some people have enough to eat and a roof over their heads, they are satisfied with conditions as they are.

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bowen and daughter Dulcie and Paul Bowen have returned from a two week's vacation at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. While there they called on Paul Bowen's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Finch, who were spending the winter in Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Waldron visited Mrs. Waldron's brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brown in Hudson Sunday. They also called on Mrs. Fred Taylor and Miss Minnie Cowley and attended church in the town of Waldron.

LEGION INITIATION, DINNER TONIGHT

Lenawee county's 40 et 8 iniation team will be at Underwood-Orr American Legion post tonight to conduct special initiation ceremonies.

Commander Bob Lowe also announced a free shrimp dinner for all members, new and old, beginning at 7 p.m.

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the fifteenth in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

Ohio appointed three commissioners to run and remark the Harris line, beginning on April 1. Governor Mason of Michigan ordered Gen. Joseph W. Brown of Tecumseh, who commanded a division of the territorial militia, to be prepared to meet the impending crisis. Gov. Lucas came north and a force of 600 Ohio men went into camp. Governor Mason, with General Brown, arrived at Toledo with a force of 800, or possibly 1200 men. War seemed imminent, but before Ohio was ready, two commissioners arrived from Washington to stop all warlike demonstrations. Lucas dismissed the Ohio troops; Mason partially did likewise but stationed a military force at Adrian under Brown to keep watch.

A little later the Ohio men proceeded to run the Harris line. The surveying party had reached the site of Lyons on April 25. On Sunday morning the Michigan force started out. The infantry rode in wagons about 10 miles out from Tecumseh, and then marched about 10 miles arriving a little after noon. The mounted men had arrived earlier. General Brown ordered the surveyors to surrender. The party in one cabin broke for the woods and escaped; the occupants of the other cabin, including the engineer corps, were arrested and taken in triumph to the Lenawee county jail at Tecumseh. Col. Fletcher, the chief of the engineers, was held in nominal imprisonment, and the others were permitted to return to their homes. The Tecumseh jailers were not very hard on Colonel Fletcher. He "was allowed to be his own jailer. When he desired exercise he would carefully lock the door, and putting the key in his pocket would stroll through the village or drive out with the village belles." Doubtless they thought that was a romantic and daring thing to do.

During this time Major Stickney of Toledo and other citizens of the disputed strip who claimed allegiance to Ohio, were arrested, and frequently harshly treated. The people of Monroe county were busy in acting as a sheriff's possee to make arrests. Ohio partisans atempted to retaliate. Feeling was being roused to fever heat.

'There might have been further trouble, had not President Jackson removed the fiery Mason from his governorship. Congress took up the problem. John Quincy Adams championed the cause of Michigan declaring that never in his life had he known a controversy "in which all the right was so clearly on one side and all the power so overwhelmingly on the other." But Congress made a compromise; in June 1836 Ohio won the Toledo strip, and Michigan was given the Upper Peninsula. It seemed a poor bargain at the time, but a few years later the wealth of the Upper Peninsula began to be made known with the rush of the mid-forties to the Copper Country. Both Michigan and Ohio won.

The people of Tecumseh and Adrian, and the settlements and farms scattered about in the woods of Lenawee and Hillsdale counties, were much effected and excited by these events. One wonders if Church attendance didn't suffer sometimes. Yet at the end of the year in Sept. 1835, Rev. Wiley reported 448 members on this Circuit. Tecumseh Circuit was tied with the Farmington Circuit that year, for the largest membership in Michigan Methodism!

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

The following 15 points explaining some of the dangers of fluoridation recently appeared in our chiropractor's magazine, The Standard, which I wish to offer to the good people of Tecumseh for what they are worth.

The article is entitled, "Fluoridation, What Do You Know About It? Find Out — The Doctor's Motto."

1. Do you know that sodium fluoride is RAT POISON?

2. Do you know that F. B. I. director, J. Edgar Hoover, warned against possible sobotage by "Poisoning of Water Supplies?"

3. Do you know that one mistake in valve adjustment could wipe out an entire city? (We worry about a little A-bomb).

4. Do you know that sodium fluoride affects the brain?

5. Do you know that sodium fluoride hardens teeth—ALSO heart muscles, arteries and causes brittleness of bones?

6. Do you know that sodium fluoride is a cumulative poison in the body and there is no known antidote or cure?

7. Do you realize that 95 percent of the water used in America is not consumed in food or drink—with that 95 percent of all fluoridation funds go straight down the sewer?

8. Do you know that the Papago Indian school children (Arizona) whose drinking water contains natural fluorides in the ratio of 1.0 part per million (the formula recommended by fluoridators) have no lower rate of dental decay than children ingesting much less fluoride and that the teeth of nearly 100 percent of these Indian children were marred beyond repair?

9. Do you know that some of the highest life expectancies are reported from regions of the globe with the least amount of fluorine in soil or water?

10. Do you know that the Department of Agriculture recommends that no fluorides be fed to brood sows? Why, then, subject our children?

11. Do you know that the people of Seattle, Washington (and many other communities), when FULLY informed regarding all the facts of fluoridation, voted overwhelmingly to reject fluoridation?

12. Do you know that a dentist, Dr. Paul Manning, of Springfield, Massachusetts, polled 1,508 dentists (500 in his own home state) to find that not ONE was giving fluorine medication to his OWN family?

13. Do you know that fluoridation violates basic religious freedom and infringes upon the rights of the individual as guaranteed by the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution?

14. Do you know that sodium fluoride is a Waste product of the aluminum industry?

15. Who would stand to make millions of dollars by selling fluoridation equipment (and the poison, sodium fluoride) which would be used in poisoning our children?

Your family will be enthusiastic about this combination of cake, ice cream, and lightly browned meringue. It's an easy dessert to put together for a family treat, and pretty enough to win compliments from guests.

Packaged shortcake dainties from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department are the starting point. These sponge cups, made from a cookbook recipe, are just right in shape and size for individual servings, and make it possible to put Alaskas together quickly for oven browning.

Strawberry Shortcake Alaska

1 package shortcake dainties
4 scoops vanilla ice cream
1 pint sweetened strawberries
5 egg whites (room temperature)
½ cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar

Ahead of time: Open shortcake package and chill cups. Prepare strawberries. Beat egg whites until frothy, add sugar one tablespoon at a time, beating well between additions.

To assemble: Arrange shortcake cups on cookie sheets. Place ice cream in shortcake cups, add strawberries and cover with a thick, even coating of meringue. Place in preheated oven (450 degrees F.) until browned lightly (about 3 minutes).

Letter Suggests Panel Discussions

Editor, The Herald:

Some weeks ago, announcement was made of an election to be held on June 29, 1953, to determine whether the people living in two sections of Tecumseh Township wish to incorporate as a city. The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce has appointed Reverend Bashore chairman of a Committee to inform the public about the proposed incorporation.

There are little more than six weeks before the election and to date little has been done to bring out the advantages and disadvantages of the action. I submit that a series of panel discussions with question and answer periods is in order. The panels should include authorities on taxation, utilities, roads and highways, government costs, legal status and obligations of cities, etc.

The people have a right to unbiased information on both sides of the question on which they are to vote, to enable them to make a just decision.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES Library

Several inquiries have come to Miss Harding in the last few weeks regarding the origin of the Tecumseh Library and, at her suggestion, this and some later issues of "Book Shelves" will be devoted to answering those questions.

There is an understandable tendency to confuse a library with the structure in which it is housed but while a building is important the books are what make up the library. Mr. Andrew Carnegie granted Tecumseh the money for our present building in 1905 but what might be called the library movement began here nearly seventy years earlier.

In December 1836, only twelve years after the town began, a group that would now be called the "intelligensia" of the new settlement met in the Session House of the Presbyterian Society and organized a branch of the Lyceum Series, a curtural movement that originated in Boston and which sponsored traveling lecturers and encouraged local organizations to hold debates and discussions and to establish collections of books for the mutual use of their members. Probably some of the organizers had belonged to similiar groups in the east for most of the prime movers of the project had attended one of the many New England Academies and a few were graduates of eastern colleges.

The officers and most active members included Consider A. Stacy, one of the leading lawyers; Dr. C. M. Patterson, pioneer physician; Benjamin Workman, head of the private school that then took the place of a high school; Peter Morey, lawyer and editor of the town's first newspaper, the "Tecumseh Democrat"; J. A. Brown and Davis Smith, also associated with the Democrat, and Serril LeBaron, who had conducted the town's first institution of higher learning, "The Academic School." These men, and others like them, had brought a few precious books with them to Michigan and these formed the first library in Tecumseh.

Why Do The Coatings On Pills Differ . . . . ?

Some tablets have no coating at all — taste is not un pleasant, and quick action is desirable.

Some have coatings to affect taste alone — such as chocolate coated tablets. Others have several coatings for different purposes—to delay action —to dissolve at certain temperatures or in certain digestive fluids. All are selective factors for your Doctor to decide.

For the sports-car-minded—wire wheel covers, optional at extra cost.

Want to make a quick getaway?

THE nearest we can come to word-picturing for you how it feels to drive a 1953 Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflow* is this:

When you toe the gas treadle, you can get away like silked lightning in a silent hurry.

More specifically, you can sweep your speedometer needle from zero to a legal 30 mph in the time you normally take two breaths.

Equally important, you get this dazzling getaway with whisper quiet—and with one smooth, progressive build-up of velvety power.

The literal truth is—no other car in all the world can get away with the combined quickness, quiet and utter smoothness of a 1953 Buick with TT Dynaflow.

It takes more than the advanced new engineering of this fully automatic transmission to produce such thrilling performance, of course.

It takes power, too.

And that's here in full measure—the highest horsepowers and compression ratios, Series for Series, in Buick's fifty great years—with the world's most advanced V8 engine powering the SUPER and ROADMASTER.

There's a lot more you get in any 1953 Buick in generous and hard-to-match measure—room, comfort, ride steadiness, visibility—and, above all, value.

But these are things you must discover for yourself—as you must the greatest Buick performance in history.

Why not drop in on us real soon? We'll be happy to put you at the wheel of a new Buick and let our points prove themselves.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

HOSPITAL Notes

The nursery incubators have been occupied again. Two premature little citizens weighing three pounds apiece, found in their warmth and security the opportunity to grow to normal babyhood. A few days ago they went home with their proud parents.

Miss Spaulding was in Chicago the fourth, fifth and sixth of May attending the Tri-State Hospital Assembly. She was accompanied by Mrs. Charles Mensing, who is vice president of the hospital auxiliary. No doubt they brought back many progressive ideas for the improvement of Herrick Memorial.

Among the recent acquisitions that have added to the efficiency of the hospital is a new operating table in surgery. It can be raised or lowered, turned or tilted at the need or desire of the surgeon, thus making his work much easier.

METHODISTS TO HAVE MEMORIAL PILGRIMAGE

A memorial pilgrimage to the graves of prominent early Methodists in Tecumseh will be held on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the history committee of the Methodist church. All interested persons are asked to meet at the church promptly at 2:30 p.m., if the weather is favorable. Transportation will be furnished to Brookside cemetery.

At each grave, a statement of the life of the one honored and of his contribution to the church, will be read, prayer will be offered, and the grave will be decorated with flowers.

Among those who will be honored are Rev. Joseph Bangs, first local preacher in this area; Alonzo Murray, a carpenter and leading layman of the '50's and '60's, prominent in the building of the present church edifice; Rev. E. R. Hascall, in whose ministry the present church was built; Rev. Abel W. Harding, father of Arthur Harding, who gave his life for the gospel; Dr. Lemon Barnes, physician and Methodist minister; Rev. William Q. Burnette; and Brazila Hurry, Sunday school superintendent for many years.

Plans for this memorial pilgrimage have been made by the history committee of the church, Wilfred Waldron, Miss LaVie Snedecor, and Mrs. Floyd Elliott; and by the pastor. It has been planned as a conclusion to the 125th anniversary celebration of the church, which was held in January.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

John Woolman, the Quaker, was one of the saintliest men who ever trod the earth. He was born in New Jersey in 1720 and died four years before the outbreak of the Revolutionary War.

His Journal is a classic of devotional literature and has been a source of inspiration to thousands of readers for two centuries. He was successively clerk, tailor, teacher, farmer. Gentle was his spirit, and humble his nature. He was fond of solitude, and constantly felt the presence of God: The Quaker doctrine of the Inner Light was the foundation of his experience.

Because he saw "that of God in every man," he had respect and reverence for human personality. He therefore recoiled from every form of human degradation and exploitation. He was a friend of Indians, and sought to check the white man's depradations upon them. He was one of the first to realize how seriously many workers were being exploited, and one of the earliest to plead for economic justice.

But it was to the freedom of slaves that John Woolman gave his fullest allegiance. His method was gentle persuasion of Quaker masters to free their slaves, rather than to denounce slaveholders as brutal and cruel. He became an itinerant lay preacher, making long journeys by foot and on horseback through the wilderness as far south as Virginia and Carolina, visiting in the homes of Friends who held black men in bondage.

The effectiveness of his persuasion brought about one of the most amazing reforms in history. Within the Society of Friends, by his efforts and those who worked with him, chattel slavery was out. By 1784 the last of the Quarterly Meetings had taken action. no slaveholder could remain as a member of the Meeting. Thus ended slavery among the Quakers, three-quarters of a century before the Emancipation Proclamation.

The grand howl of thanks was also given to Cubmaster Gilbert Nighswander, pack committee chairman J. W. Naugle, and committeemen Erwin Flowers, Rolland Reister, Virgil Tucker, Charles Stephenson and John H. Curth.

After the award ceremonies the boys enjoyed baseball games. The younger boys played under the supervision of Rev. B. O. Bashore, while the older boys were supervised by Rev. George Walworth. Pack No. 73 won both baseball games.

Both packs will participate in the Memorial Day parade, and all Cubs are requested to wear their uniforms that day. The pack meeting was the last one until next fall.

WINDSTORM INSURANCE

THE ONLY PROTECTION AGAINST WIND DAMAGE

AGAINST most of the common hazards of life we can at least exert some elementary precautions. But wind is a frightening foe. There is so little you can do to protect your property.

There are, in this country, an average of 140 destructive WINDSTORMS annually. No section of the country is immune. So you cannot be sure that YOUR buildings are on "the safe side." Even structures of wind-resistant construction, such as brick, concrete or steel, may suffer heavy damage when they are so unfortunate as to lie in the path of a violent tornado.

BUT—and this is important to remember—you need not meet a tornado, or even a cyclone, to sustain sizeable damage. There are lots of little winds that can throw you for a big loss.

SO, the only really safe course—the course that will give you a feeling of serene satisfaction—is to have ADEQUATE WINDSTORM PROTECTION. THE COST? So little it is sure to prove a pleasant surprise. Especially is that true when you pause to reflect on the possible cost of not having WIND PROTECTION.

BE SAFE, and insure with us; the oldest and largest company of its kind in Michigan, and the second largest of its kind in the World.

Grade School News

Kindergarten
Miss Hammack

We at Brownville feel we are getting real smart for we know most of our letters and numbers and are almost finished with our workbooks.

Our room looks so pretty now because of all the pretty flowers that everyone is bringing. We love flowers so much that we made small plants for our mothers for Mother's Day. We wanted to make something for them to show them how much we love them.

We are all enjoying May because we have learned to make May baskets and many of us have taken them around to hang on our friends.

We have been celebrating birthdays at school and some of our most recent ones are Glenda and Linda Shavalier, John Belcher and Sonny Zarnoch.

We are looking forward to summer and mostly to going swimming. We have learned a new song called "Swimming" that we think is very funny.

We are sorry that so many of our morning class are out with chicken-pox and that we can't have our program, but we just hope they will come back to school soon.

We hope you all have a nice summer and you'll be hearing from us again next fall when we are in the First Grade.

Kindergarten
Mrs. Updike

We have all had a good time getting ready for our Spring program and we hope that our friends who come to see it will enjoy it, too. Every child in our Kindergarten has been a big help.

We are so proud of our workbooks and we are looking forward to the day that we take them home to show our mothers and fathers that we are really ready to be first grade children.

We like to read our charts and most of us can make our numbers and our last names as well as our first. Many of us like to write the names of our brothers and sisters too.

Second Grade
Miss LaPointe

One day during our bird study period a most unusual thing happened. We were looking at a picture of a cardinal when we heard a bird whistle. We looked out of the window and saw a male cardinal in a tree near our building. It stayed there long enough for us all to get a good view of him.

While we are reading "The Japanese Twins" Deborah Holden has loaned us a large panel picture that came from Japan.

Our beans which we planted some time ago are beginning to grow.

The following made perfect scores on a reading comprehension test: Deborah Holden, Michael Rice, Larry McClain, Norma Grigg, Roy Caldwell, Charles Wilson, Richard Brunger, and Diana Duffin. Those who made just one mistake were Norman Beal, Tommy Dickinson, Zaiga Freimanis, Phillip Radant, David Rangler, Karen Robinett, Barbara Rozelle, Jane VanValkenburg.

In our basic reader we have a story of a steam shovel. We all had the opportunity to watch one in action near our school ground recently.

We were all sorry that our classmate Tommy Dickinson met with such a serious accident that it was necessary for him to be in the hospital for a week.

Grade Six
Mrs. Runk

We have a new friend in our room. His name is Frank Swisher and he is from Gregory.

Tomorrow we are going to Greenfield village. It is a big event in our sixth grade life. We have $93.00 for going. We have earned our money by having a paper drive, a bake sale and a comic sale. We have invited our room mothers: Mrs. Donald Nixon and Mrs. Dalton Walper to go with us.

On April 27, we chose new officers as follows: President, Lewis Nagy; vice president, Marjorie Haviland; secretary, Mary Alice Freshcorn; treasurer, Karen Golet who is being assisted by Donna Nixon.

We had a memory selection for language. The name of the poem is "Sea Fever" written by John Macefield. In social studies we are studying India. Lots of us are making reports on famous people and buildings in India.

The boys and girls in our room went to the high school to visit some of the classes. We go in groups of ten. We are looking forward to going in Junior High next year.

Tuesday, May 12 we cleaned out our acquarium and let our toads, snakes, frogs and turtles go. We miss them very much.

Some of the children have brought spring flowers and our room is beautifully decorated by them. There are tulips, bleeding hearts, narcissus and many others. Ivan Halberstadt brought some white narcissus which he put in some blue coloring. They are turning blue around the edges of the petals.

Bill Fielder, Sharron Muhn, John Conklin, Karen Golat, and Gerald Kruse played their musical instruments at the P.T.A. meeting last Thursday night, May 14.

Library—First Grade
Louise Faling

Here we are again but for the last time this year. We are terribly sorry to leave you but we all want to be second graders! Wouldn't you?

Most of us are in our "Fun With Dick and Jane" books. We hope we can finish them before school is out. The stories are very funny but the words are "stumping" us in quite a few of them. We have drills and choose teams and that makes it easier for us to learn them.

We are learning to count by "two's" in arithmetic. It is fun and we found that it is faster that way. We enjoy using our little measuring sticks. We measured our desks, our books and even each other and found out how many sticks long they were.

We are very happy with our new writing books. We are learning how to write letters using the words we have learned to spell. Soon we hope to be able to write a nice long letter.

Our room is decorated with pretty spring pictures that we made. We cut all the things out of construction paper and made a picture of things we see and do in the spring. We didn't use our pencils or our crayons; just our scissors. We really did quite well with the houses and trees.

One day we had two birthdays. Arnold and Joyce both brought treats for us. We ate ice cream, cookies, cupcakes and candy. Our little "tummies" were really full. Shirley Creger and Nancy Kennel had birthdays this month, too. They all were seven years old.

I guess that's all our news. We were glad you could read about the things we did in First Grade. We hope you will read our news next year when we will be second graders. Goodbye everybody; see you this fall.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

PTA Gets Stung by a "Bee"

The local PTA is feeling sheepish today. Seems they complained the youngsters weren't learning enough. Said they couldn't even spell. So the kids challenged them to a spelling bee.

"I was captain of the PTA'ers," "Doc" Brown told me. "Both teams made the first round just fine. But on the second round Speedy Taylor went down on 'efficiency.' Then his boy Chip, who happened to be next on the school team, rattled it right off. From then on it was murder!"

So now "Doc" says that the whole PTA is thinking of signing up for night school!

From where I sit, it always pays to look and think before you leap to conclusions. Take those folks who would deny me a temperate glass of beer without a moment's thought. They wouldn't want me to interfere with their personal preferences for, say, buttermilk. It's a good idea to think twice before you "spell out" rules for your neighbor.

Magnifying Christ

One day I saw a model of a drop of pond water that had been magnified two hundred and fifty times. Then it was that I was made to realize that there is more in a drop of pond water than meets the eye.

We all know that the use of a miscroscope reveals new wonders in flowers, seeds and all forms of minute life.

It is interesting to examine postage stamps with the aid of a powerful magnifying glass. With the aid of such a glass we seek to decide whether the particular stamp we are examining is worth three cents, or three thousand dollars. It usually proves to be the former!

It is possible to take a photograph no larger than a postage stamp, and enlarge it so as to fill a large billboard.

The late Dr. Merton S. Rice took a picture of a beautiful outdoor scene. Later he had a slide made of the picture. But he told us that when the picture was projected on the screen he wanted the slide broken because it showed all the imperfections of his work as a photographer. If you magnify imperfections the result is hideous. If you magnify perfection the result is deeper insight into beauty.

In Philippians 1:20 Paul expressed one of the purposes of his life in the words, "Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death." Moffatt renders this passage of scripture as follows, "That now as ever I may do honor to Christ in my own person by fearless courage. Whether that means life or death, no matter!" Weymouth puts it in these words: "That by my perfect freedom of speech Christ will be glorified in me, now as always, either by my life or by my death."

Paul was determined that regardless of the cost Christ should be honored and magnified. You and I know that when men possess this spirit then Christ is magnified.

During the persecution which raged in Smyrna, in the year 167, the distinguished character of Polycarp attracted the attention of the enemies of Christianity. The general outcry was "Let Polycarp be sought for." When he was taken before the proconsul he was asked to reproach Christ and thereby saved his life, but with a holy indignation he replied, "Eighty and six years have I served Christ, who has never done me any injury; how then can I blaspheme my King and Savior."

How about your life and mine? Do they magnify Christ? Or, as people in Tecumseh look at Christ through your life and mine, does He seem exceedingly small?

GARDEN CLUB

The first of three flower arrangement workshops that have been planned for the Garden Club was held at the May meeting, Friday, at the home of Mrs. John Thompson. Arrangements were designed by Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Mrs. Fred Dickinson, Mrs. Charles Kempf, Mrs. L. W. Larsen, Mrs. Donald Heesen, Mrs. R. J. McCoy, Mrs. Charles O'Neill, Mrs. George Bunch, Miss Ann Carson and Mrs. Lyman Curtiss. Each used her own flowers and container, and the bouquet was then discussed by the other club members under the leadership of Miss Clara Waldron, who had previously made a few introductory suggestions.

During a brief business session announcement was made by the president, Mrs. E. C. Boss, of the Tulip Tea of the Adrian Garden Club to be held May 20 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Campbell, Maumee Court. Those wishing transportation or having space in their cars are to call Mrs. Donald Heesen.

Mrs. Heesen also has charge of transportation for the club members who are planning to attend the Spring Parade of homes and gardens of the Jackson Farm and Garden Club. This event, which features home decorations and arrangements for special occasions, will be June 16 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. and from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Tickets for the parade are $1.50.

Plans were also discussed for attendance at the annual convention of the National Farm and Garden Association at Kellogg Center on the campus of Michigan State College, East Lansing, June 10 and 11. Reservations for the convention must be made before June 6 and Mrs. C. D. Branigin is in charge of both transportation and reservations.

Refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated with tulips and lilacs and tea was poured by Mrs. Mertie Waring.

Locals and Personals

Mrs. Louise Blum, Miss Magdalyn Blum and Oliver Blum of Ypsilanti were dinner guests of Miss Mary McWilliams Saturday. The occasion was Mr. Blum's birthday.

Six boys of O. W. Laidlaw's Sunday school class of St. Peter's church had a wonderful day Sunday as guests of their teacher on a trip to Detroit. They attended morning services at St. Paul's Cathedral, visited the Art Center and the Historical Museum and as a fitting climax had dinner in Canada.

Mrs. Floyd Heesen of Albion, New York, who is visiting Mrs. Frank Sutton and other Tecumseh friends was guest of honor yesterday at a tea given by Mrs. George Adamson and Mrs. Donald Wright at Mrs. Wright's home on W. Pottawatamie. The guests, who were all old Tecumseh friends of Mrs. Heesen, arrived from 2 to 4.

Mrs. Carl Burch, owner of the Tot Shop, announces that the shop will be closed for several weeks because of illness.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER 34 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, MAY 28, 1953 | FIVE CENTS A COPY

Spring Sports Are Key To Year Around Athletic Program At THS

Though spring sports fail to command either the publicity or attendance of fall and winter games, Tecumseh high school athletic director Victor Lawson points to baseball and track as important functions in a year around athletic program.

For in these two sports such fundamental individual talents as running, jumping, throwing and batting are welded into team play on the competitive field of athletics.

Indian teams in the two sports this spring have commanded a respectable position among competitors though coaches Duane K. Furbush (track) and Lester Runk (baseball) both point to the true meaning behind the program — education in working and playing together — as of prime importance.

Runk is training an almost green team as the season nears its end with an eye on a veteran nine next year. Furbush, meanwhile, is trying to reschedule a number of earlier meets, which were washed out by bad weather, to keep his speedy squad busy.

The two Indian teams, pictured below, have but one week of competition remaining.

Busy Schedule For Seniors After Trip

GRADUATION WEEK IS JUNE 7 - 11

Sunday morning a tired troop of touring Tecumseh high seniors will return from three big days of sight-seeing fun in New York —ahead of them lies but two weeks of academic life and of course the thrilling final graduation week.

Next week includes tests, exams and the last of actual classes as baccalaureate services will be held on Sunday, June 7 at the Presbyterian church. Rev. George Walworth will deliver the sermon.

Then on Wednesday, June 10, the 63 grads gather in Central school auditorium for their annual class night program which includes such traditional highlights as the class prophecy, poem, will, presentation of key and class history. "Ipso Scientia Potestas Est" —"Knowledge Itself Is Power" is the class motto.

On Thursday, June 4 the scene shifts to the Strand theatre and the night every student looks forward to for many years, commencement.

This year's exercises will follow the pattern of those held in Tecumseh down through the years with presentation of scholarships and awards, salutatory and valedictory addresses, speeches by outstanding students and finally presentation of diplomas.

Regular academic activities which conclude the year's regular schedule next week include a baseball game Monday at Morenci, a track meet at Adrian Wednesday, the Junior-Senior reception Friday, which is also the first day of final exams.

Closing day of Saturday school of Grace Lutheran church held last Saturday afternoon, was attended by over thirty visitors besides parents and relatives.

FIREMEN SWAB DOWN BUSINESS STREETS

Firemen turned out at 4 a.m. Sunday morning to swab down streets on the main business section. An annual undertaking, the four blocks were washed each way from the stop light during the eight hour job.

Two alarms this week filled out the department's activity, both were oil burners out of control but little damage resulted in either.

The first was Friday, 12:15 p.m. at the Robert Kramer residence, 708 N. Maumee. The second Wednesday morning, 6:50 a.m. at 104 N. Division.

POSTOFFICE LOBBY OPEN SATURDAY

Postmaster Jack Metcalf announces that the lobby of the post office will be open from 2 to 4 p.m. Memorial Day, Saturday, for the convenience of box holders, but there will be no window service. There will be a mail pick-up in the business district at 3 p.m. Saturday.

———o———

BOULEVARD NEXT

With construction of various types going on in all directions from Tecumseh, highway building crews are expected to invade the village soon after Memorial Day to begin narrowing Chicago boulevard.

East Bridge May Remain For Park

NEW M-50 SPAN DONE IN AUGUST

Too narrow for highway traffic, the old concrete truss bridge on M-50 at east village limits may escape the wrecker's sledge and remain as Tecumseh property to someday become part of a community park.

The Ruckman-Hansen bridge firm had originally contracted to remove the old span and its concrete sidewalls when the new Raisin River bridge is completed this summer, but village officials stepped in to save the old bridge for future use.

Plans could be worked out for both parties and Tecumseh could have a side road off the highway leading across the bridge and into a much-needed public park.

At present, construction work on the 65-foot span, which will resemble the Evans creek bridge in style, has reached the stage of completing the abutments at each end and pouring footings for middle piers. Actual work on the road bed is a month or more. Completion will be after Aug. 15.

The road way will be 38 feet wide with six foot sidewalks and iron railings on both sides.

Statue Symbolizes Changing World

When taps ring out across the hushed throng, gathered in Brookside cemetery, the granite figure in a rigid Union Army uniform will look across the greensward from his high pedestal and perhaps ponder on the vicissitudes encountered before he reached the quiet haven where he now stands.

Memorial statues follow wars as inevitably as night does day and after 1864 every hamlet produced its specimen of rather dubious sculpter. Tecumseh was no exception. A subscription list was circulated and grew to impressive proportions. Committees met, plans were made and the contract was all but completed when disaster struck. A bank failure wiped out the funds that had been collected. Doggedly, but with diminished enthusiasm, another collection was started, and by the aid of plays, exhibitions and kindred money raising activities a more modest sum was gathered and a less ambitious statue finally purchased.

There was no question of where it should stand. "Military Square," where the villagers had gathered to be mustered in for the Black Hawk and the Toledo Wars and where volunteers had drilled before leaving to fight for the Union, was the natural spot. A mound of turf, guarded by grim cannon, and encircled by a wrought iron fence, was raised in the middle of the square. There the granite pedestal was erected and the figure which symbolized the town's heroic dead was lifted into place. Trim graveled walks led to it; the grass and growing trees made it a pleasant, shady spot; school children swung on the iron pickets and looked up into the inflexibly benign face. The G.A.R. Monument seemed one of the changeless facts of the town.

But time and change come to statues as well as men and "Military Square" became a play ground for another generation. So now the figure that occupied so central a position in the 90's, stands in silent, shady Brookside gazing with fixed benevolence across grassy slopes and rippling water at a new and changing world.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE

Friday, 5 p.m., is the deadline to register for the June 29 election.

Parade, Program Solemnize Local Memorial Day

GUARD UNITS HERE FOR MARCH; BRUNGER SPEAKS AT CEMETERY

Business activity will halt here Friday night when stores close, as Tecumseh plans to honor its war heroes on Saturday, Memorial Day, and then join the state and nation in a holiday weekend.

A parade at 10 p. m. Saturday through the business district will proceed to Brookside cemetery where Rev. Ronald Brunger will pay special tribute to the dead of all was in a Memorial Day address.

Plans for the parade have been completed by Louis Schneider, marshall of the day, who said some 25 units will march. Among these will be National Guard units from neighboring towns. The high school band and representative groups from servicemen's organizations will also participate as well as village officials, scout units, fire trucks, horseback riders, school children and civilians.

First call will sound at 9:15 a. m. on Ottawa street with the formation taking shape at 9:30. The parade will move out promptly at 10:00 going west from Ottawa through the business district on Chicago boulevard to Union street and then north to the cemetery.

There, the graves of departed veterans will be marked with flowers, volleys will be sounded at the veterans' monuments and taps will be sounded. The entire ceremony will be over promptly at noon, Mr. Schneider said.

Flags will be flown in both the business and residential areas throughout the day. They should be at half mast until noon and then raised to full staff the remainder of the day.

Many of the community's civic and patriotic organizations have issued a special plea to their members for an all-out turnout Saturday. Commander Bob Lowe has asked all Legionnaires to meet at 9 a. m. wearing white shirt, dark trousers and dark tie. He emphasized the importance of commemorating the nation's dead servicemen this year.

The Brownie Scouts are to meet at 10 a. m. at the corner of Oneida and Union where they will join the parade for the remainder of the march.

All Boy and Girl Scouts are asked to participate, as in former years, in full uniform.

Annual Alumni Banquet June 12

MANY EXPECTED FOR DINNER, PROGRAM

Just how far back the oldest class will go June 12 when a large gathering will join in the annual THS alumni banquet, is still a big question, but program chairman Gibbs Barber expects to be entertaining a number of grads from "away back when."

For all alumni of the local school (and their families) will be welcome to the banquet — which this year includes a social gathering at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 7:00, followed by annual business meeting, entertainment program and finally a dance.

The banquet will be held in the American Legion home. June 12 is the Friday following graduation.

Vern Manwaring, THS alumni president, siad this year's banquet will be one of the biggest reunions in recent years and a "real old-fashioned get-together" for all the classes down through the years.

Charles Manley Jr. is ticket chairman.

EARLY EXAMPLE SET WITH ARREST, FINE FOR FIREWORKS SALE

Police promised Tecumseh a strict enforcement of the state law prohibiting the use of fireworks when Donald D. Worgul, Lansing, was fined $20, $8.60 costs, given a five day suspended sentence and put on 30 days probation for selling "pryotechnics" to boys here.

Two boys were burned from the firecrackers and after investigation, police found Worgul, a state highway worker, who admitted violation of the law.

Also this week, police arrested James Kennard, Adrian, who pleaded guilty to charges of drunken driving and was fined $50, costs of $8.60 and sentenced to five days in jail.

Another reckless driver, Alton Howell, Tecumseh, was also fined $50, costs of $8.60 and given a five days sentence.

A number of other arrests were made of persons charged with drunk and disorderly conduct.

Charter Group Is Further Step Toward City Change

Another step toward modernizing Tecumseh's local government from village to city form was completed this week when a slate of charter commission candidates was announced.

The charter commission is nothing more than a temporary organization to prepare a system of home rule government after the election. Their decision will be offered to voters within 90 days after the election for approval. Upon acceptance of a charter the commission dissolves.

During the intervening period, local government continues on the village level, just as it has for over 100 years. Upon acceptance, the new form of government replaces the old.

A charter commission has its parallel in the Constitutional Convention — a meeting of delegates which once drew up the United States Constitution.

Candidates for the nine charter commission posts are:

- H. H. Hanna
- LeRoy Titley
- Clarence Beach
- Glenn Driscoll
- Vern Manwaring
- George McCombs
- Joe Rohweder
- J. C. Beardslay
- E. M. Campbell
- Ed Heilman
- Howard Truesdale
- William Bruce
- Frank Smith
- Hal Kelso
- R. H. Moore
- Charles Mensing
- Loren Forrester
- Perry Satterthwaite
- Rev. Edward Escolme

Filing petitions of these candidates ends a long procedure of legal steps for the Citizen's Planning committee, a voluntary group of citizens who saw that "Tecumseh was in need of modernizing". They first noted the names of some 50 other Michigan villages which have recently made the important change.

Then after a series of informal meetings, petitions were circulated and filed with the county board of supervisors asking if Tecumseh could become a home rule city with enlarged boundaries to accommodate the thickly populated fringe area lying outside the present village limits.

The June 29 election date was granted and a census ordered to determine the true population of the area involved.

Those details, along with a number of other minor ones, all add up to this week's announcement of 19 names for a charter commission which will go before the voters. Nine of the 19 will be elected.

Why a charter commission? Questions such as this may come up as Tecumseh starts asking more questions about the change to home rule city form.

In answer to this question, the public spirited Citizen's Planning committee, which has Tecumseh's future foremost in mind, stands ready to meet and explain the fine points to any family, any group or organization or to any individual.

First of all, the charter commission of nine is necessary to hash over the different types of local government and decide just which system best fits Tecumseh and then offer it to the people for either approval or disapproval. It is the most democratic home rule way known.

The change from village to city is far from new. So many communities have gone through the transition that its many merits have been weighed and tested; so Tecumseh now can take advantage of their experience.

One city pointed out these, among other items, as top priority reasons for the change.

- No duplicate of village and township government.
- Only one place to register and one place to vote.
- Only one assessment.
- Both summer and winter taxes paid to the city treasurer.
- More representation on the board of county supervisors.
- Greater service, greater economy, better coordination of all departments in the city government.

The change was described as the "combining in one city government the functions of the township and village governments and providing for a modern city government organization to handle the job.

"The result is (1) the elimination of the confusion, inconvenience and expense of living in two overlapping duplicating governments, and (2) the improvement of all municipal services by providing them through a simple, modern and efficient city organization."

Dean Of Bandmasters Plans 7th Annual Fall Festival

CLARE CAMBURN

In typical showman fashion, soft spoken Clare Camburn rolled up his sleeves this week to tackle four months of hard work — planning and organizing Tecumseh's seventh annual fall band festival.

With a red cricle around the calendar date of Tuesday, Sept. 29, the local dean of Lenawee county bandmasters glanced up from his home desk in Macon to announce, "It'll be an even bigger and better spectacle than the festival which attracted 5,000 here last fall."

He has already lined-up thirteen county bands to participate and now ponders over letting in an outsider to break the jinx. It has always been a county affair, the originator of the unique program pointed out, but this year we may invite a newcomer to make it 14.

Bands already drilling for the year's greatest outdoor show-of-shows are from Tecumseh, Clinton, Britton, Adrian, Catholic Central, Deerfield, Blissfield, Hudson, Cement City, Morenci, Addison, Onsted and Sand Creek. He mentioned Brooklyn as a fine outsider which may be invited.

Spectators will be interested in knowing that another true Camburn original theme will again be carried out by each band, probably American Folklore, though final announcement has not been made.

The subject last year was Holidays, preceded by Names of Countries, American History and others. An alternate for next year might be Names of States. He explained that the festival was originated with educational, as well as musical, intention following an over-all idea of "This Is America".

Asked why the Tecumseh festival is unique, the spectacled professional musician said, "We probably have the only big band concert held without judges or competition.

"From little Sand Creek to big Adrian, every band goes on the field with the singular purpose of depicting its part of the theme to the best of its ability."

The crowds, which gather here from many distant points, reciprocate with equal applause for all. Each year wide acclaim has been given the program for its fine music, marching and presentation.

But those who know the fine points of such an undertaking look to the little man with his many years of know-how and personal genius of having everything in readiness before the curtain goes up.

This year's pin-point timing calls for a snappy 90 minute program, Camburn style of no-more-or-no-less. First there will be a patriotic opening with all bands participating while the colors go forward. Then each band has five minutes, to the second, to do its share of the program. While one goes off the parade field, another steps in place.

Finally the climatic "mass band" concludes the evening with breath-taking musical fan-fare. People who have attended all seven festivals continue to praise the phenomenon and the planning of Clare Camburn, dean of band masters.

He is a native of this area and has dedicated his life to music. A professional musician for many years, he took over the Tecumseh high band director's baton in 1931 and taught music until retiring two years ago. Leading far from a retired life, he is a salesman for the Grinnel Music Co., and spends nearly half the year toying with this festival.

Assisting the master musician this year with details are Raymond Westgate, Hudson; Al Bohms, Adrian; Kendal Merlau, Onsted; Arthur Best, Blissfield, and Tecumseh's Robert Peck.

Camburn may receive some national publicity on the unique festival sometime early in the fall, for word of the affair has been spread far and wide. He mentioned that another community thought of having such a festival but before the plans had gotten too far along they called it off because of the mountain of detailed work involved.

MEMORIAL DAY IN TECUMSEH — The boys who died in the Revolutionary War, winning the country's freedom from England, and those who have died in the Asian hills of Korea, and all those who have given their lives in armed conflict for this country during intervening years, will all be remembered Saturday as Tecumseh joins with the rest of the nation in annual observance of Memorial Day.

Many thoughts dart through our minds on Memorial Day, but one seems to predominate over all others, except those which are personal in nature. That is the thought that the nation's best men are consumed by war. It is the patriotic, courageous flower of the nation which is removed by wars. Those who do not serve, or are too busy accumulating financial rewards, or who would shirk their duty for any reason, are frequently spared the supreme price some of us must pay for our freedom.

The finest Americans are those who have given their lives for their country. Remember that when you watch the colors pass down Chicago boulevard Saturday morning, or when you stand by the momentous G.A.R. marker at the cemetery—or wherever you may be. Tecumseh should not forget their sacrifice, nor should the people fail to remember the unpaid debt of families who gave their sons and fathers in the preservation of liberty.

Those who lost their lives defending this country are our greatest heroes, and without their sacrifice, no American would be free on this holiday weekend. This is all something worth remembering and to be thankful for.

THE DROWNING SEASON — And if you go holiday weekending at a lake for an early season swim, take a few precautions from the Red Cross.

1. Do not plunge into uncomfortably cold water. Go in slowly to avoid shock. It's better to wait until the Fourth than never to swim again.

2. Swim where others are handy. Supervised pools or beaches are better, but a crowd beats swimming alone.

3. Don't go out too deep and stay ashore entirely in bad weather. Don't go in right after eating. If you go out in a boat be sure that life preservers are handy.

Of course, swimming and life saving lessons always come in handy for young and old. A drop of precaution in any situation is always worth a pond full of cure.

FAVORITE PRAYER — Always a favorite with us, Michigan's poet laureate Eddie Guest did a masterful stroke with his able pen when he wrote this PRAYER.

Lord, grant me this: the strength to bear
Whatever is my weight of care;
To face with courage what must be
Thy purpose and Thy plan for me.

Lord, teach me never to forget
That good and ill must here be met;
That both the bitter and the sweet
Are blended to make life complete.

Lord, these I seek for every test:
The willingness to do my best,
And when I lose what I would gain
The faith still steadfast to remain.

Lord, grant me wisdom here to see
That disappointment oft must be,
From Thee let me not turn aside
Because my prayer has been denied.

"COMPETITION IS TERRIFIC" — The Anaheim, California, Bulletin recently editorialized on the shopping situation in it's region. Anaheim merchants, it observed, have kept abreast of the public demand with better stores, improved and expanded lines of merchandise, and increased parking facilities. However, the Bulletin said, "Competition is terrific. On all sides, and within very short dstances, there is every conceivable type and size merchantile center. This area is constantly bombarded with literature and advertising to attract the customer away . . . . "

The same is true, in varying degree, in thousands upon thousands of American communities. And this is the reason why retailing, in America has reached a peak of efficiency and service unknown before. That hasn't happened because merchants are any more public spirited than the rest of us. It has happened because, where competition is free and open, survival depends upon keeping up with the swim.

Furthermore, anyone can rise to the top—there are no checks on growth and progress. The small store of today can become the great store of tomorrow. And today's great store, if it fails to meet competition, can go swiftly downhill. The prizes go to those who honestly earn them!

YOU'VE BEEN WORKING FOR GOVERNMENT — Whom did you work for during the first four months of this year? You'll say that you worked for yourself, or for some business or other. But, in a very real sense, you worked for government! The nation's total 1953 tax bill will be as much as the wages, rents, interest and dividends received by all of us during the January 1 to April 22 period.

Read that again — and then decide whether economical government and eventual tax reduction are in your personal interest.

Is That So !

By Miss Clara Waldron

By means of a new, especially designed tractor radio, Arthur Godfrey may accompany the modern farmer up and down the plowed furrows. Morning chores are enlivened by the comments of Marshal Wells; and Pie Plant Pete is credited with increasing milk production from more contented cows.

Now radio has gone a step farther and, in time of trouble, will page the "vet" for you. That is, it will if you live in the Tecumseh area. For Dr. "Bill" Britton has a two way radio in his professional car. Now if a blue blooded, bovine baby refuses her formula or her elders push the fence over and get into the wet alfalfa with disasterous results, the worried owner does not have to wait until the doctor returns from another call to learn of the trouble and start to the rescue. When the S. O. S. reaches the office, Mrs. Britton speaks into a radio transmitter and in a matter of minutes the doctor knows where he is needed and can be on his way.

His equipment is identical with that used by our police department, the county sheriff's force and the road commission but he is the only private individual in this area to be so equipped and obtaining permission was no small undertaking. It entailed red tape and long delays for there had to be a Federal license to own a set of this type and then investigation and examination of both Dr. and Mrs. Britton before they were granted a license to operate it. But in the little more than two weeks it has been in use, this new departure in "horse doctoring" has proved its efficiency.

Dr. Britton has seen many changes in veterinary medicine in the eighteen years since he graduated from Michigan State College and can remember many more from his father's thirty-six years of practice in Britton. Preventative inoculations and antibiotics have an important place for animals as well as people and the veterinarian has an important place in modern economy. A member of the public relations committee of the State Veterinary Medical Association and of the Television Planning commission for Michigan State College, Dr. Britton is helping to educate the public to this fact.

But important as the new methods are, they need the doctor to administer them and this new communication system is intended to bring him quickly to the spot. It did just that last week when a call came to the office when Bill was eleven miles away in the country. When he was reached on his car radio, he learned that the farm from which the call was made was less than a fourth of a mile down the road and almost before the farmer had left his telephone, the doctor's car was in his yard.

We wonder could this innovation have other possibilities? When his clientele have become familiar with its operation, how about using its facilities to broadcast that last minute change in the plans of the Ladies Aid?

Grade School News

Grade Two
Mrs. Van Winkle

The circus is in town! That is, it's here in our second grade room. We have a long parade going way around our room, led by a gay red and blue uniformed marching band. We have cages filled with tigers, lions and monkeys. We have giraffs, elephants, bears and a lot of funny clowns. We've had fun making all these things in the parade. We didn't use a single pattern. We drew everything all by ourselves.

Barry Hall's mother invited us to their home to see her aquarium of beautiful tropical fish. We think it was very kind of her to let us see them and to answer all our questions about them.

There are such a few days of school left. Of course we will be happy to put our books away for a few weeks and play out all day in the sunshine. But, we know too, that we have been together for two school years. Some of us are not going to be together next year. We will be going up to the new Patterson and in different rooms here at Central. We've enjoyed being together these two years and really feel badly about being separated. We are sure though, that we will like being "third-graders" and we will have a happy time making new friends in our new groups.

Grade Three

We have had many birthdays in our room this month. May 11 was Sharlene Seitz's birthday. She was nine years old. May 12 was Rudite Freimanis' birthday. She was ten years old and on that day she brought cup cakes and candy for each of us. Our twins Barbara and Bobby Wilbar, were nine years old the 21st of May. They brought cookies and ice cream for each one in the room to help them celebrate their birthday. May 22 was Joe Anderson's birthday. He is now nine, also.

For lunch on the 10th of June we are planning to have a weiner roast in the park on the athletic field.

Many of us enjoyed seeing Nancy Shenefield in her dance recital, Spring Time in Manhattan.

We are still studying about birds. We now have twelve bird pictures and stories in our bird books. So far we have studied the gull, red-headed woodpecker, cardinal, robin, scarlet tanager, bluejay, red winged blackbird, rose breasted grosbeck, blackbruian warbler, Baltimore oriole, English sparrow, and bluebird.

The unit we are now working on is how people lived in early America. We have been very interested in articles and clothing used in those days and how they are different from those of today.

Grade Six
Mrs. Boltz

We have just completed our study of Chile and its people. It is an interesting country and all of us enjoyed learning more about it.

Our reading book "Days and Deeds" has been completed and we have started our new stories called "Trails to Treasure."

Our boys have been having a baseball game with Mrs. Osborn's boys. So far we are high scorers. At the same time our girls are playing ball with Mrs. Whiting's girls with a leading score to date.

In art class we are working in couples on an art project with the United States as the topic.

We all enjoyed reading and singing the opera of Hansel and Gretel in our music class.

Grade Six
Mrs. Uckele

In social studies we are studying Japan. The oriental countries have been very interesting. The next part we have is about the lands of the Pacific. We have finished our scrapbooks of Europe. It was a very interesting thing to do.

In science we are studying the unit "Where do new plants and animals come from?" We have tried several experiments in this unit. In the next unit we will learn about the history of living things.

Last Friday the sixth grade went to Greenfield Village. It was a very interesting trip.

HOSPITAL Notes

When death takes a parent it shakes the foundations of life for even the most mature and self-sufficient orphan. And this week the hospital is an orphan. A grown up, well developed orphan to be sure, but under the veneer of its efficiency, there is a child-like sense of loss.

Many people gave much to make Tecumseh hospital possible but it was the indomitable spark of Dr. Hammel's energy that brought it to life. And throughout its growth and development, it has been stamped with his personality. The day the hospital was officially opened, Dr. Hammel performed the first two operations in the operating room he had helped to design. While early plans were being discussed he said, "We are going to serve good food or there is not going to be a hospital." And good food has been an aim of the hospital ever since.

Like a good parent he did not condone its shortcomings. There were times when censure was so severe as to be cruel. But the sense of security his presence inspired was compensation. Because he guided its growth, the hospital can now walk alone. But this week it is an orphan.

B and PW Install New Officers

COMMITTEES NAMED AT LAST MEETING

Yellow, white and green were the colors of the small bouquets that lined the long tables in Fellowship Center Monday night, when the Business and Professional Women's club met for the last formal meeting of their club year, with 68 members and guests present.

The president, Miss Mabel Lockwood and the other retiring officers presented their reports and were in turn presented with a gift of appreciation by Miss Geraldine French, who then installed the new officers. Mrs. George Hay is new president; Mrs. Duaine Service, first vice president; Mrs. Ray Sluyter, second vice president; Mrs. Cecil Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. Homer Colson, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Gordon Garlick, treasurer. Each was presented with a corsage of red carnations.

The question of placing a trash can on the town's four corners was discussed and tabled until fall, a letter of appreciation was sent to the ladies of the Presbyterian church for the dinners served by them this year and the assurance was received from them of the same cooperation next season.

The new president then appointed the following committees for the coming club year: Program, Mrs. James Hartsell, Mrs. Duaine Service, Miss Lucile Hawley and Miss Ruth Harding; membership, the Misses Mabel Lockwood, Myrtle Mattis and Carol Pearson; finance, Mrs. George French, Mrs. Veva Anderson and Miss Marjorie Wickwire; publicity, Mrs. Jack Staulter and Mrs. Barton Meyer; child welfare, Miss Alice Hopkins, Mrs. Annabel Finnegan and Miss Ruby Preston; courtesy, Mrs. Naomi Sallows, Mrs. Grenval Spangler, Miss Mary Pennington; auditing, Mrs. Dale Tingley, Miss Marie Koernig and Mrs. Harry Stanifer. Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw will continue as club parliamentarian.

The program, in charge of Mrs. Grenval Spangler, Mrs. George Hay and Mrs. Ogland Lay, was opened by two flute solos by Judy Truesdale, "Merry Widow" and "Seeing Nellie Home" accompanied at the piano by her mother, Mrs. Howard Truesdale followed by a tap dance routine by Carol Lynn Runk, Jane Dillon and Inez Boltz; a vocal duet "Pretend" by Carol and Donna Spangler accompanied by Mrs. Ray Sluyter and a piano duet by Mrs. W. G. Waldron and daughter Mrs. John Hamilton. These musical numbers were followed by the showing of a film, "Soft Water" after which two local merchants, Leo Lohrman and Richard Jennings presented for discussion the question, "Why don't Tecumseh people trade at home?" They were representing the Retail Merchants committee and seeking an answer to a perplexing problem. A few suggestions were made and the conclusions reached, while not final, were thought provoking.

Plans were announced for the summer picnic which will be held at the home of Mrs. George French. Members are to bring table service and a dish to pass.

Do taxes make your telephone bill higher? They surely do! You pay a 15% excise tax on your monthly local telephone service.

You pay a 15 to 25% excise tax on your long distance charges. The cost of many other taxes is added into your telephone rate.

Methodist Pastor Traces Tecumseh's Early Settlement

By Rev. R. A. Brunger

(This is the sixteenth in a series of historical sketches which outline the settlement of Tecumseh, founding and growth of the local Methodist church).

In Sept. 1835, James F. Davidson was returned to the Tecumseh circuit, with W. Jackson as junior preacher. Davidson had been senior preacher in 1832-33. Thomas Wiley, after a year of hard work here, following his earlier year with Davidson, was sent to the Ann Arbor circuit. Wiley died ere the year was out, at the age of 30; his life burned out for the sake of the Gospel.

This year a circuit was established centered at Coldwater; the Tecumseh Circuit now must have covered Lenawee and Hillsdale counties, and the near corners of Jackson and Washtenaw. I presume that by now there was preaching every Sunday in Tecumseh. This was the last year that Michigan Methodism belonged to the Ohio Conference.

In the mid-thirties, there came a tremendous migration of people into Lenawee County and lands to the west. In 1833, the west half of Lenawee County was practically one untouched, interminable forest. By 1836, the county lands were taken up. Norman Geddes who came as a boy in 1835 to Springville, tells us that it took 12 days to come from western New York through Canada, in a lumber wagon covered with canvas. "From Lewiston to Detroit was one grand procession of canvas-covered wagons." On the Chicago turnpike "from 1835 to 1840, there was one continuous procession of movers' wagons. Six four-horse coaches each day, ran over the road, loaded with passengers, and all was life and activity." Blois' Gazeteer in 1838 said of the Chicago road: "The travel on this road is immense, equal to, if not more, than on any other in the United States of the same length."

In the summer of 1836, John Ball of Troy, N. Y. came west to speculate in Michigan lands. He went by railroad to Utica, then by the Erie Canal to Buffalo, and then by steamboat to Toledo and Detroit. It took him only one week! He came to Tecumseh and found that there was little chance of obtaining land in Lenawee. He resolved to go to Hillsdale. He writes: "On Sunday morning the stage was so full and they went on and left us. But we got onto a load of oats and went as far as Springville, twelve miles and stopped. Fourth Day: First stage full but an extra carried us to Jonesville over hill and by lake, much poor land." He did not find good land available, and resolved to return to Monroe. The stage was full but "an empty wagon came along so he jumped in and came to within four miles of Tecumseh."

About this time a boy by the name of Smith Briggs came to Tecumseh "and engaged with General J. W. Brown to drive stage. His first driving was between Tecumseh and Adrian, the stage being a two-horse conveyance, which he drove, carrying the mail for about six months. He was then given a four-horse coach, which he drove for a short time from Tecumseh to Springville. He afterward drove for nearly two years from Springville to Jesse Osborn's in Woodstock, a distance of about ten miles . . . After the completion of the LaPlaisance Bay turnpike (in 1835) stages left each day, both Detroit and Monroe, and came together at Tecumseh, where the passengers stayed over night at Jesse Button's hotel. The stages left Tecumseh every morning about three o'clock for Chicago. Mr. Briggs was in favor with General Brown, and during the Toledo war he accompanied the General through the entire campaign, being furnished with a good horse, and otherwise well provided for. In the early spring of 1839 Mr. Briggs abandoned stage driving." These stories give us a partial picture of life here in the 1830's.

SEASON IS HERE WHEN SPEED UPS HARVEST

With the arrival of the summer months, speed, the No. 1 public enemy on the highways, is increasing its harvest and wise motorists anxious to save their lives will keep this in mind by driving with the utmost safety, according to Sergeant Claude Bartell, commanding officer of the Clinton post of the Michigan State Police.

"Figures just revealed show that last year 48 per cent of the traffic violations reported in fatal accidents were for driving too fast, the highest percentage in the history of the state," Sgt. Bartell said. "Driving too fast doesn't mean getting everything out of the car that you can, but going too fast for conditions such as traffic, weather and visability."

Police agencies throughout the state are now cooperating in a campaign to urge drivers to control speed, Sgt. Bartell reported.

"Safety appeals are not just idle talk," Sgt. Bartell stated. "The record shows just how foolish it is to drive faster than you should. During 1952, for example, there were 160,829 accidents as compared to 176,587 in 1951, a reduction of 15,758. But even with fewer accidents, more people were killed or injured last year than during the year previously, or 50,837 casualties in 1952 and 50,058 in 1951. The answer was that cars were being driven too fast and hit with greater impact with more serious results.

There are still some "intellectuals" around who suspect that Hitler was a genius, and who are trying to figure it out with theories.

MEMORIAL CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED AT HOSPITAL

Many gifts of varying amounts of money have been received at Herrick Memorial hospital from people who wish to express their grief at the passing of Dr. H. H. Hammel and their sympathy for his family. Others have inquired of hospital officials how they might donate something to that institution that would be a lasting tribute to his memory.

Members of the board state that contributions may be made, to the existing Hospital Memorial Fund, that was established several years ago by the family of Mrs. Mary Schneerer, funds from which are used for the needs of the hospital. When donations are received at the hospital for this fund, cards are sent in acknowledgement to the donor and an announcement to the family of the deceased..

Current contributions made may be earmarked, if desired, as a special memorial, honoring the memory of Dr. Hammel and the opening of the new hospital wing offers many possibilities.

MUSIC CLUB

A musical innovation marked the May meeting of the Music Club Tuesday evening when the members, frivolous and staid alike, joined in winding the May pole on the lawn of the Murray Day home.

There was a large attendance for the potluck supper after which Mrs. Ralph Westgate conducted a short business meeting and then Mrs. Perry Hayden took charge of the program. Betty Day played a piano selection, "Melody in F" and accompanied her sister Nancy in a cornet solo, "Variations of Blue Bells of Scotland." A reading "I am Music" was given by Mrs. W. G. Waldron followed by "Rustle of Spring," as a piano solo, by Mrs. P. B. Hardy.

Mrs. Day completed the serious part of the program by singing an old English air, "When Love is Kind" after which it was brought to a hilarious conclusion by an orchestra of the entire club, using toy instruments or combs. Mrs. Arthur Schwartz accompanied this "music" on the piano. This was the last meeting of the season although tentative plans were made for a summer picnic.

GARDENS

This is the season of garden planting. Our instinctive hunger for the soil and delight in growing things under our care, supplemented by reasons of economic exigency or custom, drive us to our gardens. In true contentment we work up the good earth, and plant our seeds. We "sleep and rise night and day" and the seeds which we have planted "spring up and grow" we know not how. Here under our eyes occurs the miracle of life, springing up from the seed. We are as mystified as the child.

Some people, looking at a garden, can think only of the work which is required to keep it up. The weeds be kept down and that is a never ending task, for the weeds grow quickly. There are insects to be fought. Yes, there is work to keeping a garden, but is it not glorious work? For here truly we work with God. One gardener poet has made this confession:

"I never knew thee, Lord, until
My garden brought us face to face,
Revealed Thy gracious miracle
Of sun and seed in little space."

I am thinking further, of another kind of garden. The Apostle Paul writes: "You are God's field." (I Cor. 3:9b). Your heart or mine, is like a garden. In it grow the desirable plants of beauty and serviceableness, the plants of joy, love, faith, courage, to mention a few. In it grow also the weeds; they are of many varieties and they grow with great rapidity. As Jesus expressed it in his parbable of the sower, the Seed of the Word is often choked and killed by the thorns.

Among the most common weeds in the average garden of the heart, are the weeds of Busyness and Indifference. The individual is ensnared by the cares of this world, and he thinks he is too busy to have time for God. Often he realizes that he ought to give himself to the Lord, but he feels that God will wait. Why, oh why, will men give themselves to the minor issues, and let the main things go by? Are we too busy for God? Let us never forget that life is short at best, and we know not the day or the hour when our pilgrimage on this earth will be finished. We are sowing acts and habits and reaping character; let us not harden our hearts against God by indifference.

There are many other weeds which grow large and rank in many a garden of the heart—Love of Things, Love of Pleasure, Worry and Fear, Anger, Hate, Envy, Ill-Temper, Pride, Vain-confidence, Self-Will, Drunkenness, Discontent, etc. We could say much about these. If we were hermit creatures, self-sufficient unto ourselves, it would not matter so much what we do with our heart's garden. But the fact is, we are interdependent and live in close proximity to one another. The example of our neighbor affects us. Dr. William L. Stidger has written so fittingly:

"Your seeds blow into my garden, friend,
And nestle among my flowers;
In the soft, sweet soil of my garden-plot,
They wait for the sun and the showers.

Whatever you grow in your garden, friend,
Of beauty, or ugly weed,
The Fall will come and the wind will blow
And over will come your seed."

We may have a heart's garden of beauty and serviceableness; a garden which shall last forever, not knowing winter seasons. In it will flourish, not the weeds of sin, but the plants of the spirit: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control."

Methodists Hold Unique Pilgrimage In Memorial Rites

By Rev. R. E. Brunger

A unique memorial pilgrimage was observed by members of the Methodist church in Brookside Cemetery Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the church history committee. Seven of the early leaders of the church were chosen to represent the many faithful workers of the past. Miss LaVie Snedecor prepared eight beautiful bouquets of flowers, one for each of the seven graves, and one which was placed on the grave of Abi Evans, first homemaker in Tecumseh.

The procession stopped first at the grave of Rev. Abel W. Harding, father of Arthur Harding. It was a memorable day for Mr. Harding, as it was his 84th birthday. Rev. Ronald Brunger, pastor, pointed out that on July 5, 1862, Abel W. Harding, at the age of 24 was elected a steward of the church. The year before he had been a member of the missionary committee. He served three years in the Civil War and Army, received a recommendation from this church for a license to preach and in 1867 joined the Detroit Annual Conference. After nine years of service, his health gave way, and he retired to Tecumseh where he died at the early age of 39, July 1, 1877. He gave his life for his country and the gospel. Prayer was offered.

Next to be honored by the group, was Alonzo Murray. Alonzo Murray was a carpenter and contractor, a prominent and fervent worker in the church in the 1850's and 1860's. He was the leader of the trustees who with vision and foresight, purchased the present commodious church site so centrally located; built a new parsonage in 1860 and the present church edifice in 1863-4, and sold the old church and parsonage. Murray himself was one of the two controctors who built the church. The grave was decorated and prayer was offered.

The third grave visited was that of Rev. Joseph Bangs. The pastor pointed out that the group were here standing in a real shrine, for here were buried Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Bangs, their son Isaac Bangs a charter member in whose home the first Quarterly Conference was held, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mary Bangs (wife of Alanson), a charter member who lived to the age of 90. Rev. Joseph Bangs was a blacksmith and a farmer, and an active local preacher, who preached much in Tecumseh, Macon, Clinton, and the surrounding territory, between 1828 and the date of his death, Jan. 7, 1848. As his tombstone asserts: "For 45 years he was a minister in the Gospel in the M. E. Church." Prayer was offered, and the grave decorated with flowers.

Next the group met in a place where were the graves of three to be honored—Rev. and Dr. Lemon Barnes, Rev. W. Q. Burnett, and Barzilla Hurry. Lemon Barnes was a surgeon in the Civil War; he entered the ministry of the Methodist church and preached until 1885, when ill-health moved him to retire from the ministry. He settled in Tecumseh and practiced medicine until his death on Nov. 26, 1901. He was sweet-spirited, an active worker in this church in all of its phases, and though he was a minister, he did not criticize nor seek to control the administration of the pastors. Thirteen times he was elected church treasurer. When he died, the physicians of the town met and passed a resolution of their esteem; a special meeting of the official board was called to draft resolutions which were spread on the official board record book and published in the two local papers.

Rev. W. Q. Burnett was born on a farm in Yorkshire, England in 1824. He was the minister of this church during the triennium, 1874 to 1877, at that time the limit of a Methodist minister's pastorate. These were years of growth, and Rev. Burnett was greatly beloved. He retired because of ill-health in 1883, settled in Tecumseh, and took an active role in church affairs, doing the rank and file humble tasks, such as collecting money. He died on Sunday, Feb. 6, 1898 in his home (the present Presbyterian manse); the board met that day to pass resolutions of sorrow and sympathy.

Barzilla Hurry was for many years around the turn of the century, a prominent worker in the church. Though he lived on a farm several miles southwest of the village he was always on hand for prayer meetings and special events. He was Sunday school superintendent for many years.

Rain intervened to keep the group from honoring the grave of Rev. Erastus R. Hascall, minister from 1862 to 1864, during the building of the present church.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

A public record of news and advertising printed in Tecumseh since 1850.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND YEAR — NUMBER 35 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, JUNE 4, 1953 | FIVE CENTS A COPY

Questions Arise In Outlying Area As Election Nears

CIRCULAR ASKS FOR MORE AS PLANNERS STAGE MEETINGS

Not classifying themselves by any means as "opposition" to any issues of the forthcoming June 29 election, a group of Tecumseh Acres residents circulated a mimeographed paper this week asking for more definite answers to basic questions of annexation and city government.

Entitled, "Tecumseh Annexation and City Charter" the following statement is signed by R. M. Williamson, 3081 Murray Drive.

"On May 30 a group of approximately twenty people met in the home of Mr. Sinkey on Murray Drive to discuss the Annexation Proposal which will be put to a vote on June 29th, 1953. Present at this meeting were R. H. Moore and Rev. B. O. Bashore, presently members of the board.

"At this meeting various views were expressed and many questions were answered, some evaded. Many of the residing people in the surrounding area are against this proposal. This is also true of the residents in the village limits.

"Do you as a home owner know exactly what you will gain or lose? Following are some of the questions asked:

1. How much will our taxes increase?

Ans. Approximately $45.00 for average home.

2. When can we expect water and sewer?

Ans. Water 1 year possibly — sewer not for many years.

3. Will school bus service be discontinued?

Ans. School says: City will. City says: School must pay. Will we pay?

4. Can we expect better streets, curbs, gutters, sidewalks, and street lights?

Ans. More money will be alocated for streets. But will it be used properly? Look at your village streets.

5. Police and fire protection.

More adequate police and fire protection will be furnished.

6. Will fire insurance rates be cheaper?

Ans. Approximately $5.00 per year, after water is in. Not until. Note: This figure changed from $12.00 through investigation of insurance rates.

7. If we are annexed will be have representation on the charter commission?

Ans. One man was nominated from this area among eighteen others within the Village, of which nine are to be elected to the Charter Commission. We have placed in nomination four more candidates. Let's get together and see that we have the proper representation IF the proposal passes. Under the present administration, no promises can be made. We must have representation.

"Another meeting is being scheduled, so have your questions ready.

"The views expressed are intended to be non-partial and to bring to light questions in mind at the present time. The writer would appreciate any questions or answers related to this subject for publication purposes."

Meanwhile the Citizen's Planning group heartily welcomes such questions and in an effort to answer them, representatives of the civic-minded body will gladly meet for informal discussions at any home or meeting hall.

In the near future a brochure will be printed and distributed to every home in the affected area explaining the main benefits of annexation and city form.

Rev. B. O. Bashore will direct a panel discussion Sunday afternoon, 5:00, on changing to city form of government over WABJ.

PRESBYTERIAN LEAGUE

Fifty members of the Presbyterian League and Golden Rule met at the home of Mrs. M. R. Blanden Tuesday evening for a potluck dinner, the League members entertaining the Golden Rule.

Assisting Mrs. Blanden were League officers Mrs. Wade Hendershot, Mrs. John Quigley, Mrs. LeRoy Titley and Mrs. Harold Treby. Mrs. Robert Ries was in charge of the program and showed the movie, "One God." No business meeting was conducted. This was the final meeting of the year.

FINED $50

Marvin Hackworth, Tecumseh, pleaded guilty to charges of drunken driving before Justice R. L. French this week and was fined $50 plus costs of $7.50 and sentenced to seven days in jail. He was arrested by village police Friday.

STORES BACK TO SATURDAY NORMAL

After a holiday weekend switch to Friday night, merchants will again be back on Tecumseh's normal Saturday night opening this week with Appreciation Days held as usual, 8 p.m. Saturday.

Awards last week went to Emil Teske, Burton Goodwin, Mrs. D. Hawkins, Mrs. Joe Poley, Floyd Cross, Joyce VanValkenburg and Norma McKinney. All are from Tecumseh but Cross, who is from Britton.

July Fourth also falls on Saturday, so like the Memorial Day weekend, stores will remain open on Friday night, closed Saturday.

Baccalaureate Opens Graduation Week Sunday

Shades of another academic year are fast falling at Tecumseh high school where the 1953 senior class embarks on its final graduation week Sunday with baccalaureate Sunday at First Presbyterian church.

After that, only jovial Senior Night and finally solemn Commencement await the outgoing grads. By Friday of next week the final curtain will have fallen on the entire school system as classes recess for another summer's vacation.

Sunday night, at 8 p.m., the Rev. George Walworth will preach the baccalaureate sermon following the Call to Worship, Invocation and prayer by the Reverends Ronald Brunger, Blair Bashore and Edward Escolme. Traditional music will be played by Mrs. Fred C. Dickinson, St. Andrew's choir will sing "The Lord is my Shepherd" and the impressive ceremonies will end with a benediction given by the Rev. Brunger.

Then Wednesday, Senior night, at the Central Auditorium will feature the lighter and more colorful ceremonies of the presentation and acceptance of the Key, the History, Prophecy and the other purely class affairs that are as important a part of Senior week as the wearing of the symbolic caps and gowns.

Finally graduation and the presentation of diplomas by Supt. F. James McDowell at the Strand theatre Thursday evening to the sixty-eight who have successfully completed four years of work at Tecumseh high. Commencement exercises also include the presentation of a number of special awards and scholarships, plus salutatory and validictory addresses.

ROTARY CLUB

The Rev. Blair Bashore was speaker at the meeting of Rotary, Tuesday evening at the Country Club. President Hal Kelso conducted the informal meeting during which Robert Binns, junior Rotarian for May, expressed his thanks and appreciation for the experience and introduced Wayne Patton who will be his successor this month. Dr. Bernard Patmos of Adrian was a guest and Bert Ousterhout was accompanied by his brother-in-law, Galen Ford from Albuquerque, N. Mexico.

The Rev. Bashore's topic was the coming election and he explained that it would only decide the boundaries of the future Tecumseh and would choose the commissioners, who were to draw up the proposed city charter. He emphasized that the charter would then have to be voted upon by the citizens of the area before it can effect the status of the town. He enumerated the advantages of a city form of government, especially for the outlying districts, stressing police protection and availability of water, etc. and emphasized that farmers who were in the process of sub-dividing would especially benefit.

A climatic moment of Tecumseh's solemn Memorial Day observance is shown above when the American Legion Firing squad saluted the war dead of all American battles. The Underwood-Orr American Legion post furnished the above rifle squad and color guard which fired a volley in Brookside cemetery after an hour long parade.

Wearing the vivid kakhi of overseas duty, members of the Hall-Slater Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary are shown as they marched down Chicago boulevard in what was described as Tecumseh's greatest Memorial Day parade.

PICTURE CREDIT DUE TO KENNETH CONNAIR

Giving credit where credit is due, The Herald thanks amateur photographer Kenneth Connair for two excellent front page pictures of last weekend's colorful parade. This is the second year in a row that Connair "covered" the parade with lens and shutter. His firing-squad picture has been praised for its excellent timing.

Also giving picture credit where it is due, last week's pictures of the high school track and baseball team were furnished through the courtesy of Reginald Dixon whose Dixon Studios have cooperated at numerous times to provide The Herald with professional pictures.

Water Table Drops Far Below Level

Many rural ponds and water holes are reported at a near record low in the Tecumseh area after 10 months of unusually dry weather. Many wells are as far as 14 feet below the normal water level.

This well known fact was further verified Monday when village engineer reported to the council that steps must be taken at once to find a spot for a new well.

"We are pumping 2¼ million gallons daily and the elevation of water at No. 3 well is continuously going down. No. 2 well is about out and is getting to be dangerous to run this well with fear of burning out bearings at bottom of well. Acidizing this well may be the answer," Nelson said.

"We have installed seven new water services this month and have installed 6" water main from Adrian street to Parkway, we will tie this line in to the 6" main on Chicago blvd. as soon as Knapp Construction closes off M-50," Nelson reported.

"We have hauled considerable amount of gravel on our streets and are preparing them for oiling. We hope to do this in the next week.

"Curb and gutter is complete from Adrian to Park street on West Pottawatamie street and we have started curb and gutter on Adrian street. It was necessary to install 365 feet of 8" storm sewer west on Pottawatamie from Adrian Street.

"We put in 100 feet of 12" Storm Sewer on North Pearl and 96 feet of 8" storm sewer on Mill Street at new bridge.

"On May 15th we received and unloaded the 10" steel pipe for river crossing sanitary sewer. We have everything ready now to start putting this pipe across river," the engineer concluded.

BAPTIST YOUTH

Carol Green was elected new president of the Baptist Youth Fellowship at a meeting in the Youth House Sunday. Other officers are Nancy Beland, Camilla Grigg, Evelyn Beland, Sally Hunt, and Bryan Packard. Next Sunday the members will meet at the Parrett Nursing Home, 2:30 p.m.

"Heritage" Told By Rev. Brunger

After briefly reviewing the great heritage that is America's, Rev. Ronald Brunger emphasized the great price this nation has paid for its liberty in five ways and insisted that "every American should today dedicate himself to carrying on this liberty in honor of the brave servicemen who gave their lives."

The inspiring Memorial Day address by Tecumseh's Methodist church pastor concluded a most solemn parade and program Saturday morning.

It was judged an outstanding hour-long parade in every respect with more units participating than ever before here. Parade marshall Louis S. Schneider was applauded for a magnificent job in organizing the long line of march which started at Ottawa and Chicago and proceeded to the cemetery.

Aside from the high school band, Boy and Girl Scouts, American Legion and VFW units and their auxiliaries, 40 et 8, and other local civic groups, there were national guard troops and their vehicles to complete the parade.

On the speaker's platform at the cemetery were also village officials, Rev. B. O. Bashore and Rev. Fr. Michael Collins.

NEW ST. ANDREW BROTHERHOOD

Five charter members were installed Sunday at St. Peter's Episcopal church when a new Brotherhood of St. Andrew organization for young men was formed.

The purpose of the brotherhood for teen-age boys is to carry out work of the church. They meet every Sunday morning at 10 a. m.

WESTMINISTER LEAGUE

Members of the Westminster League of the Presbyterian church gathered in Adams Park Tuesday evening for their final meeting of the year. There were fifty present for the potluck dinner and social hour that followed. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson was general chairman of the evening.

REV. EDWARD C. DICKIN IS EPISCOPAL RECTOR

The Rev. Edward C. Dickin has accepted the call as rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church. For the past two years, the Rev. Dickin has been assistant minister at All Saints Episcopal church, Detroit.

The Rev. Dickin will deliver his first sermon at St. Peter's church, August 1, the family taking residence here sometime before that date. The Rev. and Mrs. Dickin have two daughters, one married and living in Montana, and another who will be a student in the junior high school here.

Before coming to the Michigan diocese, he was a resident of Montana and previous to that studied in Canada, of which he is a native.

Motorcycle Added To Police Force

A three-wheeled motorcycle, formerly used by the Adrian police force, was purchased Monday night by the village council for $400. The white motorcycle has been in trial use here for two weeks and recommended for purchase by Chief George Kilbourn.

The chief said the local force now consists of five full time men; besides himself there are Oliver Heberlein, Don Rodehaver, Gene Skinner and Bob Purkey. There is a member of the force on duty 24 hours a day, the chief is on call at all times, whether on or off duty, with an extension phone in his home. Two men are on duty days, two also on Friday and Saturday nights. Police can be called by phoning 150 or asking the operator for the station.

Also Monday night the council discussed its part in operating and maintaining the new community swimming pool.

A petition for re-zoning Goodacre Subdivision was approved and a hearing date set.

R. S. Moore spoke briefly to the council about setting up another class C area in Tecumseh where inexpensive houses could be built.

A petition for curb and gutter on the south side of W. Logan between Maiden Lane and Union streets, and on Maiden Lane between Chicago blvd. and Logan, was presented by E. M. Campbell, Charles Staples, J. M. Mulvaney. R. S. Woodcox, Presbyterian church, Waldo Mohr, J. R. Thompson, Warren J. Wardell and Alice M. Crew.

It was referred to the village engineer for future consideration.

CRACK DOWN ON DOUBLE PARKERS

Double parking at any time in the downtown business section will be strictly prohibited in the future police chief George Kilbourn warned drivers this week as state highway officials pointed to the menace of crowding Chicago blvd. with occasional four lanes of parked cars.

Tecumseh's main street is part of the state highway system and now more heavily traveled than ever. The chief was told to crack down on double parkers immediately while the stream of construction trucks are pouring through town. He said summonses will be issued to all violators.

Tecumseh Launches Plans For Joyce C. Andrews Memorial Swimming Pool

Outdoor Pool Site At East Branch School Property

CONSTRUCTION STARTS AT ONCE, FINANCES RAISED BY COMMUNITY, PRODUCTS

Community spirit spurred Tecumseh's united effort to commemorate smiling nine-year-old Joyce Carol Andrews with a memorial which thousands of other more fortunate children will use in years to come—an outdoor swimming pool.

For Joyce did as Tecumseh children have for many past swiming seasons, she went to the "old gravel pit" on Adrian street for recreation.

Saturday afternoon the gravel pit claimed its first victim in almost as many years as Tecumseh residents can remember. There was no life guard on duty, the holiday swimmers had not yet turned out in large numbers when the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Andrews drowned in water twice her depth.

"It all happened so quickly," a companion told police afterwards. Suddenly she was missing from the water. Some older boys started to dive and found her body. It was 1:20 p.m. when Douglas Tate started applying artificial respiration. Then the fire department arrived with an inhalator and tried to stimulate breathing. A half hour later she was pronounced dead by a physician.

Today Tecumseh has embarked on a Joyce Andrews memorial swimming pool project which has already been assured of over half the necessary money by the Tecumseh Products family. Businessmen have been asked to raise the remainder. Roughly $50,000 will be needed with the Products and Tresco assuring the project of at least $30,000. Each worker will be given a chance to contribute through a payroll deduction plan next week.

The pool site has been given by Board of Education in the old East Branch school property, valued over $20,000.

Construction of the pool is expected to start at once and be completed sometime early in August.

On the building committee are Jim McDowell, Howard Truesdale, Ray Herrick, Frank Smith, Ed Heilman and Bob Moore. Finance committee members are E. M. Campbell. George McCombs, Hal Kelso, Earl Baldwin, Jim Beardsley, Herb Morden, Forest Bumpus, Bob Gillespie, Frank Dailey and Mrs. George Hay.

Funeral services for Joyce Andrews were held at 2:30 Tuesday at the Collins Funeral Home with Rev. George Walworth in charge. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

She is survived by her parents, a brother Dean, fourteen years old; her grandparents, Mrs. Charles Andrews, of Fremont and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Furgason, Jackson and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Pallbearers were Jens Touborg, Jim Elliott, Dick Preston and Al Lutz. Honorary bearers were Frank Smith, C. M. Brown, Larry Larsen, Frank Purcell, Ed Boss, Don Cobb, Bob Hanna, Art Geisenhaver, P. G. Colgrove, Ted Pihl, Joe Horvath, Fred Randall, Bill Macbeth, Lee Frayer, Jim Danforth and Art Williams.

Joyce was born in Tecumseh Oct. 15, 1943. She was a member of Sunday School of the Presbyterian church and attended the fourth grade at Central school. She was an active member of Holly troop 16, Brownie Scouts and would have received her wings and service stars at a court of honor Tuesday night, as she gained the intermediate rank.

The swimming pool will be named in her honor. It will be a modern structure in every way, flood-lighted for use day and night. A bathhouse and dressing room will be on the property and will be enclosed. A small fee for maintenance will be charged.

Further plans for the pool are in the making and will be announced as committees function in the near future.

Persons who wish to contribute voluntarily should send all checks to the Joyce Andrews Memorial Fund.

D. A. R. PICNIC

The annual summer picnic of the Abi Evans chapter of D.A.R. will be held at the summer home of Mrs. LaVern Russell at Wamplers lake, June 12. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Ernest Linger, Mrs. Virgil Deming and Mrs. Frank Turner. There will be a potluck dinner.

JOYCE ANDREWS

COMMUNITY NEEDS RESUSCITATOR

Tecumseh needs a new modern resuscitator at once to replace the old inhalator.

A resuscitator is recommended by the American Red Cross for every community today, for it is a combination inhalator and pulmotor.

The inhalator is primarily used to stimulate breathing and is often used around smoke and fires.

The resuscitator can be used in those cases and in many others such as water accidents as it has the pulmotor attachment to force water out of human lungs.

This equipment should be purchased and members of the fire and police departments schooled in its operation.

TO 1953'S GRADUATES — At this time of the year, the annual crop of graduates enters upon a new life and the many perils of the outside world. Those who must earn a living emerge into the business world at a time when production is high, jobs are relatively plentiful and wages are good.

Many of them cannot remember the time when jobs were not plentiful and when money was not comparatively plentiful. The graduate of 1953 will probably enjoy promising economic opportunities for several years hence. While a mild readjustment might occur later this year or in 1954, the general consensus of opinion is that good business is here to stay through 1956.

In this respect, the graduate of 1953 is highly fortunate. He is fortunate in entering the business world at a time when a period of comparative stabilization seems to be setting in. The era ahead of him may well be the most glorious and productive yet experienced by the United States. With the nation expanding its population at the rate of a million and a half each year, thus enlarging the market for goods considerably, and with the standard of living rising—which also increases the market for goods—opportunities for young people in 1953 seem unlimited.

Though many male graduates face several years in the armed services, the chances are that most of them will not be sent into combat and the general conclusion is that chances of a third world war are less than they have been in recent years. In addition to these bright signs on the horizon, the 1953 graduate is living in an age when medical science is making rapid strides in its fight against incurable diseases and in which labor-saving conveniences are more numerous than ever before.

There is no reason, then, why the 1953 graduate should not be optimistic about his future and set upon the task of earning a living with sober confidence. To succeed, a will to work is still required, and a Christian attitude toward one's fellow man is a most valuable asset. The 1953 graduate who is confident, willing to work, and unselfish in outlook, can be assured of a bright future.

"NONE OF THE MEN WERE . . ." — Grammar is a wonderful tool—like a buzz saw—when it's kept under control, an excellent servant—like Old Dobbin—when not overworked. In other words, it has its place in the general scheme of things.

A phrase in a law which read "Who to be Cited" was discovered by a scholarly New York legislator. He introduced a bill to change the "who" to "whom." The bill went through the prescribed readings, was referred to committee, brought to the floor, passed by the lower house, then by the senate, and Governor Dewey signed it.

But not without protest, for he added: "The grammatical error occurs only in a section heading, and aside from the question of precise usage there is no problem as to clarity or construction of the statute. Although I am impressed by the laudable erudition, the bill in other respects is wholly unnecessary . . ."

A million schoolboys will know just how he felt.

SOMETHING IN COMMON — It seems that other towns can't seem to agree on whether stores should be open Friday or Saturday night. When Dr. R. G. B. Marsh returned from a trip through New York State, he brought with him a newspaper from Watkins Glen, N. Y., reporting that another meeting of the Retail Division of the Chamber of Commerce of that town had been called to vote on the Friday-Saturday night opening issue. Michigan or New York, the problem is the same.

TODAY'S QUOTATION — Remember not only to say the right thing in the right place, but, far more difficult still, to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.

Memory Of The Flowers Lives Ever After . . .

Perhaps it's because they remind of happy days of the life that has just passed. It may bring to memory days in the garden, or a happy event of which flowers are so often a part.

For many reasons, flowers serve their highest ultimate purpose in bringing beauty to the memory of the funeral.

Is That So !

By Miss Clara Waldron

Bridges over the Raisin are much in the local mind just now, what with the new one that we hope will be strong enough and wide enough to carry anything except traffic from Mars, and the old one that is to be preserved to lead intriguingly nowhere.

Bridges over the Raisin have been important to Tecumseh ever since the founding fathers decided to locate their town on the "far" bank; and, because present generations can remember bridges only in the same spot we take it for granted the river has always been crossed at that point. But early surveys say otherwise. When the investigating commissioners, sent by the Territorial government, granted Tecumseh's request to be made the county seat in 1824, one of their stipulations was that the town build a bridge "east of the village." But, quite unintentionally, the village was then Brownville.

High water had prevented crossing by the first wagons and they had been forced to follow north and west to the locality of little Pioneer park. There most of the town remained for several years and from there the first road led down across the "gulph," over the river by that first bridge, up the high bank and eastward, along the south side of the present golf links.

It was not until 1839 that the village minutes record a "new road from near the Globe mill to join the 'Brownville to Monroe' road." This road must, perforce, have had a bridge which was the first built at that location. In 1847 Simeon Davidson, farmer, carpenter and bridge builder was given the contract to build a new bridge for something like $700. This was of course made of wood but it seems to have lasted until 1872 when the village ordered one of wrought iron. The superstructure cost $2000 and the stone abutments, which stand solidly today, cost $1000. It served very adequately for 60 years but the village evidently took care of its own for an ordinance prohibited anyone from "crossing any bridge faster than a walk." This could scarcely apply to the motor age and in 1932 the "turnpike" was made "Michigan Highway No. 50" and the state built what was then hailed as the longest single span concrete bridge in Michigan. Had it also been the widest it might not be discarded today.

PLANS MADE FOR BIBLE SCHOOL

Plans are under way for the annual Vacation Bible School which this year promises to cover much of the summer. The Friends, Baptist and Methodist groups will hold their union school from June 15 to June 26, classes to be held in the Methodist and Baptist churches.

The first two weeks in August the Friends will hold a supplementary school in their Sunday school building, while the Assembly of God, under the pastorship of the Rev. L. H. McPherson will conduct classes from June 22 to July 3. The dates of the Bible school to be held at the Presbyterian church are not yet announced but will probably be sometime in August. Teachers and hourly schedules will be listed later.

LOCALS

On Sunday, June 7, the Sunday School of St. Peter's Episcopal church will close for the year with an all church picnic at the Recreation Center. In case of rain it will be held at the Parish House.

On Trinity Sunday, May 31, the Rev. Henry J. Simpson dedicated a cross at St. Peter's Episcopal church for the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. This cross was made and donated by Glenn Driscoll. It is made of solid black walnut.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bullion of Leven, Scotland, are visitors in the home of the latter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gransden of Occidental Rd.

TWO MINOR ACCIDENTS MARK ANNUAL PARADE

Two accidents which happened almost simultaneously, and neither of which had very serious consequences, occured while the annual Memorial Day parade was assembling on N. Ottawa street Saturday morning.

A bicycle rider collided with a pony ridden by the daughter of Russell Starkey and almost at the same moment a blast on the 40 et 8 whistle caused Sylvia Helzerman's Arab colt to bolt. Because of a slipping saddle girth she was forced to jump and in falling sustained a badly sprained back and many painful bruises, but no broken bones. Little Miss Starkey was also badly bruised and the pony suffered a dislocated hip.

The two accidents have caused many confused reports, but the results were not as grave as they might have been. Sylvia is recuperating at home after spending two days in the hospital.

Grade School News

Grade Three
Mrs. Ward

We have been studying about birds for science. We are making a book of birds. So far we have studied about sixteen different birds.

Most of us have finished our second third reader and have read at least one extra reader.

We have started a new book called "Far Away Ports."

We will finish our spellers next week.

Vernon Hisel has moved to the country. Ellery Furgason has gone to Muskegon. Dolores Solarski has had her tonsils out and Alice Shirley is out of school for a tonsilectomy.

There are nine Cub Scouts in our room. There are ten Brownies in the room. Most of these boys and girls were in the talent show held Thursday, May 28.

Grade Four
Mrs. Baily

We will all be glad when school is out so we can have more time to play and go on trips.

We are nearly through all our books. We have completed two.

Two of our boys, David Grigg and Dennis Irelan visited places of interest in Battle Creek Wednesday with some other Cub Scouts.

Isabel McCombs broke her arm two weeks ago. She only missed one day of school and is doing real well although she has to use her left hand.

We had two birthdays in May. Jerigene Greenwald and Wilma Shelhart.

Since we have finished our geography books, we have been studying the states.

Last Monday we chose two ball teams in our room and have been playing all this week. John Winzler's side is ahead.

Grade Four
Miss Baker

All of our class wrote questions for review in our subjects. We used these for quiz programs which Miss Baker recorded on a tape recorder. There were a number of prizes we could work for. Each prize required a certain number of questions to be answered. A number of us were the quiz masters. We enjoyed listening to ourselves when the tape was played back.

The globes we have been making are almost finished. It has taken us a long time but we had fun.

We are very sorry to hear that one of our classmates, Sandra Creger, has rheumatic fever. She will not be with us any more this year. We hope to see you with us next fall Sandy.

Every day another set of our books is collected which means school is almost over. We are looking forward to vacation and fifth grade next year.

Grade Five
Mrs. Whiting

Each Friday if we have been good citizens all week, we show movies in our room. These usually are films on social studies, history or fiction. Mr. Greene also showed three movies in the auditorium this month.

D'Anna Rochelean is our Citizen for the month of May. Gary Hall has been chosen for June.

More than half of the boys and girls in our room took part in the Scout's Talent Show Thursday, May 28. We had a capacity crowd.

This will be our last publication for the school year. We're all looking forward to our summer vacation. See you next Fall.

HOSPITAL Notes

Surgical patients at Herrick Memorial have a wide choice of doctors but, standing ready to add to his skill and efficiency, is always the same operating room staff of nurses. For the past ten years, Miss Mertie Kempf has been "head of surgical" and a tower of strength to those who suffer or to those who are afraid. She is a graduate of St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor and has had special work at institutes for operating room supervisors at University Hospital and at Wayne.

Assisting her are Mrs. Maxine Wilson, who trained at the Lelia Post hospital in Battle Creek, and Miss Marion Pennington, a graduate of Henry Ford hospital. Both of the latter have had special training at Wayne University; Mrs. Wilson has been at Herrick Memorial for several years while Miss Pennington came two years ago. Marion is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pennington of Ridgeway and all three nurses are "Tecumseh girls" which seems to make them just a little more interested in the people for whom they care.

The surgical nurses, in turn, are assisted by Mrs. Lucille Leonard, a full time Nurses Aide, who does much of the arduous, routine and necessary work of cleaning and sterilizing instruments, preparing supplies and making sure there is sterile surgical linen as well as gloves, gowns, etc., ready when they are needed.

The four are an operating team ready to competently serve the public.

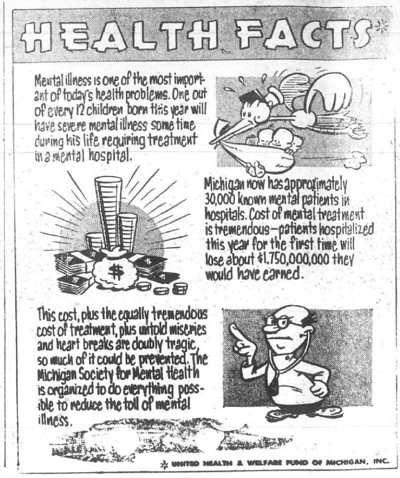
HEALTH FACTS



Mental illness is one of the most important of today's health problems. One out of every 12 children born this year will have severe mental illness some time during his life requiring treatment in a mental hospital.

Michigan now has approximately 30,000 known mental patients in hospitals. Cost of mental treatment is tremendous—patients hospitalized this year for the first time will lose about $1,750,000,000 they would have earned.

This cost, plus the equally tremendous cost of treatment, plus untold miseries and heart breaks are doubly tragic, so much of it could be prevented. The Michigan Society for Mental Health is organized to do everything possible to reduce the toll of mental illness.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Revenue collected by newspapers for advertising was almost $200,000,000 higher in 1952 than in 1951, according to a recent report by Stewart M. Chambers, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

It is significant to note that with television rapidly and thoroughly entering the advertising field, the volume and revenue of newspaper advertising continues to increase year by year. Mr. Chambers is optimistic about the future for newspapers, believing that continued rapid expansion of the U. S. economy will mean new promise for the advertising business.

Many newspaper men believe that the passing of the peak in the rearmament boom will provide newspapers a period of wide opportunity. Producers will be converting to civilian production and will have to develop markets and sell to the individual, rather than to the Government. This may make for increased newspaper advertising in the year ahead, since peak spending for defense is expected to be reached before this time next year.

SCOUT TROOPS HOLD COURT OF AWARDS

A processional, played by Mrs. Roma Waters at the organ, opened the impressive ceremonies of the Court of Awards for 140 members of the Girl and Brownie Scout troops Tuesday evening. The sanctuary of the Baptist church was filled with parents and friends when the color guard of eight scouts presented the colors. The audience repeated the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, the scouts spoke their "Promise" and the Girl Scout Law and the Brownies in unison gave their "Promise" also.

After the singing of the Girl Scout song, "Oh Beautiful Banner," the president of the Girl Scout asociation, Mrs. W. D. Rutherford welcomed the audience. Two Brownie troops, Holly No. 16 led by Mrs. Crawford and Morning Glory No. 17, with Mrs. Gerald Griffin as leader, "flew up" and received their wings. The other Brownies, Robin troop No. 2 and Wild Rose No. 1. led by Mrs. Junior Fouts and Mrs. Herbert Cleveland do not get wings at this time.

The Girl Scout troop leaders then presented awards to the various members of their groups; Mrs. Howard Truesdale to Poppy troop No. 9; Mrs. Victor Lawson to Blue Bird troop No. 5; Mrs. Julius Vincz, to Sunflower troop No. 7; Miss Pat Hammack to Fushia troop No. 11 and Miss Joyce Warner to White Violet troop No. 3.

When awards had been given to the individual scouts, four of their leaders also received recognition. Mrs. L. H. Titley, Mrs. T. Rentschler, Mrs. Clarence Beach and Mrs. W. D. Rutherford were given five year pins as a reward for that many years of service.

The usually gay and happy atmosphere of the Court was saddened this year by the tragic loss of one of its members. A short memorial service was conducted for Joyce Carol Andrews as part of which a basket of flowers from her Brownie troop, Holly No. 16, was placed upon the church altar. The following morning her sister Brownies and all the Scout leaders joined in a simple ceremony to place the flowers on her grave.

Mrs. Victor Peterson and Mrs. George Green were the arrangement committee for this Court of Awards ceremony and after the assembly had joined in singing the international "Goodnight" song, all adjourned to the Youth House where refreshments were served by Mrs. Orville Bishop and her committee.

CULBERTSON PUPILS RECEIVE PROMOTIONS

Miss Myrtle Hooper, county helping teacher, was the speaker at the promotion program of the Culbertson school Thursday evening, when forty-four rural students were advanced one grade. Three were graduated from the eighth grade, Louise Shaw, Lois Wilt and Eugene Damon, with Eugene as salutatorian, Lois, valedictorian and Louise giving the president's address.

The school room was filled with parents and friends as the director, Glenn Hendershot awarded the certificates and the teacher, Miss Myrna Bugbee gave the special awards. The invocation and benediction were spoken by the Reverends H. V. Whited of Clinton and E. H. DuBois of Britton.

A very interesting trip for the nine members of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades was arranged last week when they visited the Adrian Commercial Savings Bank as guests of the management. They were escorted into all departments and were given a detailed description of the workings of a modern banking institution. The entire group were luncheon guests of President Russell McAfee at the Lenawee Hotel.

Last Sunday the annual school picnic was held at the Island in Adrian, so this has been a busy period for the students.

Miss Bugbee will teach next school year in the kindergarten department of the Tecumseh schools and her place in Culbertson district will be taken by Mrs. Evelyn LeFauve, who has been teaching at Raisin Center.

NEW HOUSES AND BUILDING COSTS

Contrary to the opinion of many, the cost of building your own house today is higher than it was a year ago. Not only are building costs rising, but labor costs continue to move upward.

It is estimated that a house which cost $12,050 in 1952 would cost $12,300 to build today. Those who have been expecting building costs to drop may be in for further disappointment, since some building associations report that their members believe prices of new homes will rise in the next six months.

Another factor to consider is the higher interest rates which most prospective home owners must face in procuring a home. Whereas four or four and a half per cent money has been available in more recent years, the chances are that the home owner today will have to pay four and three-quarters or five per cent for his mortgage. Most building groups expect building costs and the price of new homes to decline somewhat, eventually, but just when this process will occur is still a question mark, as it has been for several years.

PENICILLIN OVER - USED

Sir Alexander Fleming, British scientist who discovered Penicillin, said recently the drug was over-used in every part of the world. He denied, however, that repeated use of penicillin makes microbes resistant to it. Rather, he said, some people become sensitive to it and although the penicillin still works on the germs, the effect of the penicillin on the patient is as bad, or worse, than the effect of the ailment.

Sir Alexander believes penicillin does not help the patient with a common cold. Therefore, he thinks shots of penicillin, given to counter the common cold, are abuses of the drug's use. Interestingly, the scientist agrees that there is a growing resistance, by some bacteria, to the drug Streptomycetin, although he said the same problem was not encountered in the use of penicillin.

RECORD-BREAKING GAS MILEAGE
for the driving YOU do!

This year's Chevrolet brings you the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history. And it's the kind of everyday economy that saves you money wherever and however you drive!

Inch along through heavy traffic. Roll up the miles in steady highway cruising. Long trips or short errands, byroads or boulevards, you get far more miles per gallon in this great new Chevrolet.

New high-compression power is the reason. Both the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine in Powerglide* models—and the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrift-King" engine in gearshift models—deliver more power on less gasoline. Acceleration and hill-climbing ability are greater, fuel consumption is lower!

This is the kind of economy that counts the most—important gasoline savings for the driving you do, together with lower over-all costs of upkeep. And along with it, you enjoy all the other advantages that only the new Chevrolet offers you. Come in and see for yourself!

Combination of 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine and Powerglide automatic transmission available on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models only.*

1953 Annual Is On Sale

The 1953 edition of the Tecumseh Annual went on sale last Monday, the first of June. The stiff-board cover is medium dark green with white lettering and an Indian head relief. All Annual art-work, including the cover, was designed and executed by Ernest Kollar, a senior and an artist.

In the past one page was given to each class below the rank of senior. This year, because of the increased number of underclassmen, each class has been allowed two pages for pictures and names of class officers.

Again this year, because we had won the basketball championship, we have a page of individual pictures of our basketball team.

Because of the very fine support of the advertisers and sponsors, the Annual was again sold for less than cost.

This year's Annual is also the largest in T. H. S. history, consisting of one-hundred pages. The Editor-in-Chief and Associate Editor were Marian Titley and Merlyn Wagner respectively. Other editors and assitants were Bill Beardsley, Wayne Patton, Gail Claxton, Shirley Van Hook, Ernest Kollar, Jack Betzoldt, Jack Greenwald. Margaret Touborg, Joan Pfaus, Norma Bilby, Tom Naser, Jerry Barron, Diane Dillon, Gretta Porter, Nancy Kinietz, Irma Brollier, Melvin Boltz, Nancy Treby, Mary Lou Alderdyce, Juanita Downard, June Stuart and Mary Lou Dibble.

Letters To The Editor

June 1, 1953

Editor, The Herald:

I hope you will permit me to express my views on the coming decision in regards to the new community government.

I believe it would be wise to adopt a new form and especially a new charter. The slate of candidates for charter commission is most excellent. I hope that Judge G. A. Rathbun will be available for advice.

I would also like to put in a word of appreciation for the partnership and efficient work that Mr. Titley and Oley Hanna have put in for the township. So far as representation on the County Board is concerned, I fail to see how we could benefit by having several men from Tecumseh.

We cannot have a lot more government without paying for it. The present and former village officers have spent a lot more time than they were paid for and have done a wonderful job I believe.

We need a lot more that will cost plenty in the future whichever form of government we have. I would like to list a few that I can see: 1. At least one more school in the southwest area. 2. At least one, and probably more, main water and sewer lines to take care of the subdivisions and plants. I fear we cannot too long have several hundred private wells and septic tanks in a close community with safety. Especially with universal use of garbage disposal units and automatic washers. 3. From a mention in the Herald that the old M-50 bridge might be used to give access to a future park, I gather that someone is thinking of the space east of the river there to the Country Club road. This would make a wonderful beauty spot, well scattered with dogwood, redbud and other shrubs.

Other possibilities are the old ice house location on the Red Pond and the young lake at the Fisher gravel pit.

We might also plan a planting of evergreens in a location suitable for sort of a Christmas Tree Lane. I am quite sure that such a plan would draw substantial trade at holiday season.

Our community can and probably will have our necessities taken care of whether we remain a village or become a city, but it will be a bigger and bigger job and we will have to pay more to have it well taken care of. More honor to our citizens who have done so very much with so little.

Sincerely,
W. G. Waldron

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

If we are to be diligent in our search for the will of God for our lives, we must be possessed by strong conviction that God has a will, a purpose, a procedure for us to follow. This requires belief that the Eternal is capable of thought, emotional expression, and purposeful action.

For me this means that God is personal-plus. Personal in the sense that he is alive, not an inanimate object or mechanical energy or abstract idea. Personal because he can think and feel and decide. Personal because he possesses in highest degree the noblest qualities of human beings: love, compassion, mercy, sacrificial commitment to the most exalted purpose.

A plus must be added to our thought of the Creator as personal. God is much more than our highest conception of him. The Unknown can never be understood fully by comparisons with the known. The wisdom and the power and the love of God transcend the limits of human perception.

God is free from the frailties and limitations of human personality. The Scriptures well say that even the "foolishness" of God is wiser than the wisdom of men. The "feebleness" of God is mightier than man's strength. The "wrath" of God is more forgiving than the love of men.

At the heart of the universe is sheer wisdom, ultimate power, pure love. The universe is not chaos but the scene where fathomless love seeks the realization of the divinest purpose. In the Bible we read that the Eternal is a working God, a seeking Shepherd, a grieving and groaning Father. We are told nothing, absolutely nothing can separate us from the love of God. There is a divine will for every life. Finding it and doing it is the chief business of man.

In response to the recent anti-fluoridation letter appearing last week, you will be doing a public service by publishing the following letter:

Dear Fellow Citizens of Tecumseh:

The anti-fluoridation propaganda appearing in this paper last week, like most propaganda, contained just enough truth to be readable, enough half-truths to be plausible, and enough pure fiction to be effective in inferring that fluoridation of water is not only useless but dangerous. I am writing this communication to reassure you that the local fluoridation program will not only be effective, but 100% safe.

Briefly, then, here are some answers to the questions mentioned last week.

True, sodium fluoride is poisonous in high concentration but it is interesting to note that it would be necessary for an individual to drink, in one day, approximately 30 gallons or 1000 glasses full of fluoridated water to receive a toxic dose. Obviously, this is an impossibility. Along this same line, it is impossible to poison a city's population by the addition of sodium fluoride since it would be necessary to add the entire year's supply of the chemical at one time. This is absolutely imposible as the feeders hold only a two or three days supply of the chemical. J. Edgar Hoover's warning of the possibility of poisoning the water supply concerned only certain bacterial and virus infections and certain extremely dangerous poisons. Absolutely no mention of sodium fluoride was made in Mr. Hoover's article.

The statement that sodium fluoride hardens the heart muscle and arteries as well as causing brittle bones is an out and out lie. Approximately 8 million people have lived in areas where the water naturally contains a relatively high concentration of sodium fluoride yet hundreds of careful research workers have found absolutely no higher incidence of heart disease, bone fractures, cancer, or kidney disease in these fluoride areas than in areas having water containing no sodium fluoride. In fact, some recent studies have actually shown slightly lower incidence of certain cancers and bone fractures in the naturally occuring fluoride areas.

I am not familiar with the Papayo Indians, but I am very certain that careful investigation would show that other pertinent factors are involved, such as inherited characteristics and poor nutrition, including excessive use of sugars and starches in the diet. I am, however, very familiar with the several carefully conducted studies that consistently show that an approximate decrease of 60% in the rate of dental decay can be obtained by the addition of sodium fluoride to the water supply.

That fact that 1500 dentists were not giving fluoride to their families is very easily explained. For example, not one of the four local dentists have used sodium fluoride on their families for the simple reason that none of us have children of an age where local application of sodium fluoride would be effective. This points out another advantage to the water borne fluoride, and this is that all children receive the beneficial effects from birth up to 12 years of age. Also that these beneficial effects last the entire lifetime of the child. You may safely bet that when my children reach three years of age, they will receive topical application of sodium fluoride in adidtion to that obtained via the water supply.

As far as sodium fluoride being a "waste product" of the aluminum industry, "by-product" would be a more correct term; I for one am very thankful, since this fact alone insures an adequate inexpensive source. Therefore it is practical to add it to the water supply even though only a small percentage of the water is actually consumed by humans.

The claim has been made that fluoridation of the water supply violates the First and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution. These amendments state that Congress shall make no laws interfering with the practice of religion nor should any State abridge any privileges of citizenship, or deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. There is most certainly no law stating that a person must drink water containing sodium fluoride. How could it possibly be illegal for Tecumseh's water to contain sodium fluoride when just six miles away, Britton's new well produces water containing as much sodium fluoride naturally as it is necessary to add to our water supply.

Similarly, the term "mass medication" has been incorrectly applied. Fluoridation is no more mass medication than is the practice of enriching with vitamins such foods as milk, oleo, and bread. I would like to point out that Tecumseh's water for years has naturally contained about 25% of the sodium fluoride which we know to be effective. We are similarly "enriching" the water by adding the other 75%.

If a person's convictions are such that he wishes to drink only water containing no sodium fluoride, that is his privilege as a citizen. On the other hand, it is NOT his privilege to prevent me or my children from enjoying the benefits of fluoridation if such fluoridation is conducted in an approved manner and by the consent of the MAJORITY of the people.

About one year ago, when the Village Council accepted the anonymous gift of the fluoridation equipment, the program was publicly discussed and ample opportunity for objection was given at open meetings of your elected representatives. I will further state that one C. N. Brodersen, was especially invited to present his views at one of these meetings, but he failed to appear.

If you as individuals have any faith in the medical profession, the dental profession, your local, state, and Federal Health Agencies, then forget the biased accusations as presented in last week's letter. All of the above mentioned groups have repeatedly endorsed fluoridation as being both effective and safe. Do not believe the propaganda of a group that still insists that the practice of giving vaccinations and innoculations for the prevention of disease is both dangerous and ineffective. Saying that fluoridation of water is poisoning the water supply is the same old tune with different words.

Sincerely,
Robert W. Laidlaw, D.D.S.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES Library

After a long and unexplained delay on the part of the company from whom it was ordered, Tecumseh Library at last has a copy of the latest book by Tecumseh's author, Allan Seager. "Amos Berry," the March selection of the Book-Find Club, continues to be a controversial subject on the part of its readers. Though not a strictly "entertaining" book, most readers find it difficult to lay it down until it is finished. Many do not agree with much of the author's reasoning but most thoughtful readers find they have held some of the same ideas and felt the same unconscious resentment against the futile strait jacket of modern living.

The book has had some very favorable reviews. One especially penetrating analysis by J. H. Jackson, who writes for the San Francisco Post Gazette reads in part, "There is the warmly revealed father-son relationship, shown with great sympathy. This and much more combine to make "Amos Berry" the solid muscular, warm blooded novel it is. But at its heart is the question, What has gone wrong with our society? Just where have we run off the true rails? and Why?" . . . Mr. Jackson concludes "The serious reader will find here much to make him think, along with the kind of solid good writing that has brought Mr. Seager to his position as one of our top-ranking novelists. "Amos Berry" is probably the best American novel we'll see this spring, if not this year."

Another center of even sharper controversy, Hemingway's Pulitzer prize winning "Old Man of the Sea" has been on the library shelves for some time. So if you have not read this seemingly simple, elemental epic of a man's patient struggle with the forces of nature and his acceptance of apparent defeat you have the opportunity to decide for yourself whether you think Hemingway deserved the award.

LOCALS

May thirtieth is a date set apart each year by many former residents or descendants of former residents of the Tecumseh community for a reunion at Brookside. For a few the reunion is entirely of the spirit but most of those who come know they will meet relatives or old friends and renew pleasant ties with the past.

Among those who exchanged greetings at Saturday's Memorial Day observance were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Langton of Toledo, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Langton lived on W. Chicago Blvd. in the house now owned by Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Helzerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fisher came from Lansing for the services and to visit over Sunday with Mrs. Fisher's mother, Mrs. Hoyt Whelan. Mr. Fisher's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher of Milwaukee rd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hanley of Fort Wayne, Indiana, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amiel Teske. Mr. Hanley, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hanley of Adrian St. is a retired conductor of the Nickle Plate railroad.

Mrs. B. A. Blanchard of Battle Creek who was a former member of the Ross family, was a guest of her cousin Raynor Ross and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wiederhoft of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Martha Rockwood who only recently moved to Ann Arbor were greeting friends and recalling memories of the Rockwood, Mull and Handy families.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bly were here from Ann Arbor. Mr. Bly formerly lived on Cummins street and still earlier the family home was just west of the village.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thurlby were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Linden and Mrs. Lulu Babcock of Jackson. Mrs. Babcock recalled that seventy-two years ago her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson were married in the house now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Naser, then the home of a Presbyterian pastor.

Mrs. Carl Bielenberg, the former Bonnie Brown, and daughter Miss Irene Bielenberg of Detroit, attended the ceremonies, as did Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hurt (nee Harriett Teachout) of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hay also of Jackson, former Tecumseh residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Berford Barber and two daughters of Saginaw visited Mrs. Clyde Barber over the weekend and Mrs. Barber returned home with them Sunday for a visit.

Mrs. Susan Lake came from Hudson and was a Sunday guest of Mrs. Richard Moiles.

Dinner guests of Miss Edith Ingersoll were Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan of Lapeer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes and two children of Kingston and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whittier of Port Huron. All are descendants of the Whittier and Hyde families.

Gordon Smith and his sister Minnie Smith, who attended high school here at one time, came from their home in Battle Creek; Mrs. Catherine Henderson Wilcox with Mr. Wilcox and children were here from Detroit and Mrs. Lee Beach, the former Fern Hanford and family drove from Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jeanette and sons, Don, Tom and Jack spent the afternoon with Mrs. Jeanette's aunt, Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse. Mrs. Jeanette was formerly Miss Virginia Wilson.

Probably the largest gathering was that of the Skinner family whose reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verdi Skinner is an annual occurance. Present were, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skinner of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Burt Price of Jackson and their two granddaughters, Miss Valarie Vrooman and Mrs. Richard Stafford, who with her husband, a member of the navy, had just arrived from Boston; Harold Skinner and his granddaughter and Mrs. Helen Carr from Toledo; and Sgt. Cub Scouts of Den 9, Pack 4, were in Battle Creek Wednesday and visited both the Post and Kellogg Companies. Cubs James Bashore, David Grigg, Dennis Harrison, Dennis Irelan, John LeBaron, Charles Mueller and Daniel Morey were accompanied by Mrs. Anna Grigg, Mrs. Charles Irelan, Mrs. John Harrison and Mrs. Harold Morey. From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A Little Headwork Saves a Lot of Footwork

"I don't ever aim to give up fishing," Pappy Hayes said one day— "but the older I get the less I like hiking over to Pike's Creek. Guess I'll have to bring the fish nearer to me."

So Pappy got his nephew to bulldoze down about three acres of bottom land. Then he dammed up the little stream there.

He wrote the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, in Washington, and got some "blue gills" and bass to stock it—free. Pappy's idea wound up giving him (and us) just about the best fishing pond in the county . . . right in his own back yard.

From where I sit, Pappy may be older than some of us but his mind is active—and open. He's ready to listen to anybody with an idea. That's why he and I can talk on any subject—sometimes about his preference for buttermilk and mine for beer. And though we disagree, we respect each other's opinion. That's neighborliness without a "catch" to it.

Joe Marsh

"FEAR NOT"

The commonest and subtlest of all human diseases is fear. Fear is the most disintegrating enemy of human personality. Out of abnormal fear comes the poisonous thoughts which create unhappiness.

This unhappiness is not cured by a pill nor by a liquid. The prescription is quite simple. Here it is: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear: but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Hundreds of years ago an Angel on a Judean hilltop sang the answer to the world's fears. As the Shepherds watched their flocks during the anxious hours of the night they heard the "good tidings," "Fear not."

Being under the tensions of today our nerves become tired and fears lodge more easily. Let's relax this summer in the words so often on the lips of our Lord, "Fear not." You and I build millions of bridges in our fears—bridges we never have to cross.

The Unknown is a source of food for fear. One hears folks make some very strange statements about what will happen to us when we are a City. Hundreds of other Communities have done it and nothing terrible has happened to them. Indeed in every case their Communities have been bettered and strengthened.

Some folks fear old age. Poverty and sickness or expecting them create within many a deep and abiding fear. It was the Apostle John who once said — "Fear hath torments."

Someone once said — "the price of mental health is facing reality." What can you and I do about this disease known as fear? "Perfect love casteth out fear." FAITH AND LOVE are the best cure. I will do all I can do about any problem. Beyond that I shall trust in God and know my faith will hold me up. The Good Lord has promised — "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." "Love never faileth."

To trust others as we would that they should trust us. To live above the common gossip, a great percentage of which is not true. To manifest a sincere attitude of righteousness. To have a working relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ, is to find a calm, a rest, yes, a "strength as the strength of ten because the heart is pure." "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy." Our trust in God's understanding love and care makes everything come out all right. "Fear not."

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

from The Bible

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.— (Proverbs 1, 7.)

We set great store by the education of our children; we spend generously for schools and colleges. There the young may get instruction and perhaps achieve wisdom. But what real knowledge, what real happiness will our children have if, in their individual lives, they have never learned—at home, in church, in school—of God and of righteous living?

RECORD FISH

So you think your vacation fish was a good one? Maybe even a record? Well, here's your chance to check it against the record fish as listed by the Michigan Conservation Department.

The largest Northern Pike was caught in Keweenaw County, and weighed in at 32 lbs. It was 44" long. In the walleyed pike, or pickerel class, the record fish was 33" long and weighed 17 lbs. 4 oz.

The biggest Michigan Muskellunge was a 62½ lb., 59" fish. The top bluegill was a 12 incher which weighed 2 lbs., 10 ozs. Other panfish records include yellow perch, 3 lbs., 12 ozs.; rock bass, 3 lbs., 5 ozs.; and aclico bass, 4 lbs., 2 ozs.

The largest smallmouth bass was 27" long and hit 9¼ lbs. in weight. For largemouth, the record is a twelve pounder, caught in Kent county.

Michigan's largest lake trout came from Lake Michigan. Caught back in 1864, it weighed 88 lbs. The rainbow trout record stands at 21 lbs., 7 ozs.

The champion Brook Trout out of Whitefish bay, near the Soo. It weighed 6 lbs., 1 oz. For Brown Trout, the record is 15 lbs., 6 ozs. It was caught in Berrian County.

If any of you caught Catfish, you would have to go some to beat the 47 lb. effort of an Ionia man. But the whopper of them all is a sturgeon, hit by the prope[illegible] a steamer, then captured. This monster weighed 310 lbs. when dragged aboard.

Bashore Answers Questions By Outlying Voters

"When The Herald came last week it stated seven questions arising in the outlying area," Rev. B. O. Bashore, co-chairman of the Citizen's Planning committee, reviewed, "which were relative to the affect a city would have upon that area.

"First, let it be understood by all that annexation does not enter the picture at all," he stated, "The proposed incorporation is making available to every registered voter within the proposed boundaries the opportunity to vote: (1) as to whether we should be a city and (2) to elect nine charter commissioners, whose job it will be to prepare and present a charter to these same voters, within 90 days after the election June 29th.

"The type of government to obtain in the city—the services to the citizens and all other governmental provisions will be included in the charter.

"We are NOT voting on the charter June 29th. But rather on boundaries of proposed city.

"Your committee has never and will never evade any question pertaining to this incorporation propostion.

"If we do not know the answer to any question we will get the answer.

"Now may we take the seven questions from last week's Herald and honestly try to answer them:

1. How much will taxes be raised in outlying area?
    a. The answer—approximately $42.00.
    b. For those within the present village limits—NONE.
2. When can we expect water mains in subdivision area?
    a. The answer — within one year. Our committee has been assured this is possible and every effort will be made to bring it to pass.
3. Will school bus service be discontinued?
    a. Answer—It is not discontinued in other cities of comparable size — why should it be here? Money is now allocated for transportation and there is no reason to suggest it would be discontinued. This incorporation does not change the school district nor the school tax.
4. Can we expect better streets?
    a. Answer—Three times as much money is available for streets in a city—than is available to the township for the same roads. The state law also states that the money must be used on the streets for which it is allocated. Yes, you can expect better streets.
    Curbs, gutters, sidewalks are handled on a partnership basis between the city and the property owner. This is standard practice everywhere.
5. Police and fire protection:
    a. Answer — Without any question more adequate and complete police and fire protection will be furnished.
6. Will fire insurance rates be cheaper?
    a. Answer—Yes, $3.00 per thousand on a three year policy. Let's take an example: If you are now insured for $9,000.00 and living in a subdivision area, you are paying $90.00 for a three year policy. When water pressure is made available your policy for three years would cost, $63.00, or a saving of $27.00. Breaking it down to one year, your saving would be $9.00.
7. Representation on charter commission?
    a. Five of the 22 candidates for charter commissioners are from Tecumseh Acres. The real task will rest with those persons chosen on their important commission. We might add another question to the above list.
8. How will incorporation affect the farming area included?
    a. Answer—Our survey of 20 towns becoming cities within the past 10 years proves that the assessment is so regulated that so long as the land is used for farming purposes the own-

The very latest, modern swimming pool facilities were penned into the above architect's drawing this week as sponsors of the Joyce Andrews Memorial Fund met to arrange details of the community project. Shown here in the rough sketch is the main pool, right foreground, bathhouse and shower room, center, wading pool, left back-ground. Following this sketch, construction crews get underway at once with an eye on an early August completion date.

All-Out Community Support Assures August Completion

Early gifts to the Joyce Andrews Memorial swimming pool fund assured Tecumseh of an early completion of the entire project, probably on schedule in August though additional plans call for a more elaborate layout than first announced.

Already $47,000 has been contributed. The cost of the project has been accurately estimated at $67,000.

Tecumseh is busy raising the difference which is forseen in the immediate future for the Memorial pool has been widely praised as one of the community's foremost recreational needs.

The pool was officially declared a "certainty" by originators of the plan this week as they saw a dream of a few days ago become a reality.

Early contributors to the fund are:

- Tecumseh Products
- Tresco
- American Legion
- Legion Auxiliary
- Ottawa Machine
- United Savings Bank
- Bruce Foundry
- Exchange Club

Many others will be listed next week. Make checks payable to the Village of Tecumseh, Joyce Andrews Memorial Pool Fund. Checks can be left at United Savings Bank, Chamber of Commerce office or at the Village office.

LOCATION CHANGED

Announcement was also made this week that the pool will be located at the Recreation Center (Athletic Field) and not at the old East Branch school property which was donated by the Board of Education.

Announcement was also made this week of numerous specific details which have been worked out with architects and engineers.

SIZE

The main pool will be regulation AAU size, 82.6 feet long and 40 feet wide. It will be built to all specifications of the state of Michigan and Amateur Athletic Union. Water will be three and a half feet at the shallow end and gradually tapered toward the deep end where water will be nine feet in depth.

WADING POOL

Further announcement was made this week that a children's wading pool will be located at the site. The wading pool will be 16 by 24 feet, eight inches deep around the edges, tapered toward the center depth of 20 inches. Both pools will be supervised during authorized hours.

SANITATION

There will be a complete change of water every six hours. Pumps costing $10,000 will be in use to assure a constant flow of fresh water. Also a vacuum cleaning operation will be used every morning after the water has settled, to clean the entire pool. Water will always be clean and pure enough to drink. The pool, like others, will be subject to continual state inspections at regular intervals. All swimmers must register to get into the pool, take a warm water shower bath and be inspected for body infection.

CONSTRUCTION

Some of the astounding construction facts and figures issued by nationally known pool experts on architecture and engineering, state that the walls of the pool will be 12 inches thick, re-enforced concrete. It can be used for ice skating in the wintertime. The pool will hold 188,000 gallons of water and once filled will only require as much water daily as evaporates, since the same water is used over and over again after it runs through a filtration cycle.

OTHER FACILITIES

The state demands that a locker room and six showers be built and used as part of the pool.

There will be flood lights over the entire pool area, plus numerous underwater lights for complete safety.

There will be an additional sand pile for children.

Architect's drawings further call for a concrete walk ten feet wide around the pool and fifteen feet at the ends. On one side of the bathhouse will be the regulation pool, with the smaller wading pool at the other side.

Specially built ladders and spring boards will be built to AAU specifications for safety. Entrance or exit from pool can be made at various points.

LIFE SAVING

Complete life saving equipment will be included in the initial cost of the pool, including a resuscitator, which will be used by the entire community as well as at the pool.

Guards will be at the pool at all times during pool hours. Every possible safety precaution will be taken. Life guards will be under supervision of the school board as well as the Red Cross.

Krieghoff Construction Co., Adrian, has contracted for the job. They expect to get underway with operations at once. Completion is expected early in August.

The village of Tecumseh will maintain the pool.

This particular size pool is usually built in cities of 10,000 so here it will easily accomodate the children of Tecumseh plus those in the surrounding areas.

Legion Post Votes $1,000 To Pool

AUXILIARY ALSO ADDS $500 TO POOL FUND

Tecumseh's Underwood - Orr American Legion post stood firmly behind the Joyce Andrews Memorial swimming pool by unanimously voting $1,000 to the fund. Just a month ago the post contributed $500 toward furnishing a room in the new hospital maternity section.

This action parallels a vote by the American Legion Auxiliary which, also last week, voted $500 toward the community swimming pool. The combined total is so far the largest from any club or organization.

Commander Robert Lowe, who was re-elected to serve a second term last week, was 100% behind the pool with every member interested in its earliest possible completion. He praised the originators of the pool idea for its great need in Tecumseh. The post discussed the many advantages of an indoor pool over an outdoor one.

Aside from Commander Lowe, the following other officers were either elected or appointed for the following year. They will be installed next fall as post meetings have adjourned for the summer.

First vice-commander, Lyle Grigg; second vice-commander, Harold Easton; adjutant, Larry Coty; chaplain, Herbert Cleveland; sergeant-at-arms, Harold Anderson; historian. Neil Hunter; finance officer, R. M. Gillespie; blood bank chairman, Don Bammer, who is also manager of the club.

REV. COLLINS LEAVES ST. ELIZABETH'S ON JUNE 26 FOR SUBURB

The Rev. Fr. Michael G. Collins has been transferred from St. Elizabeth's Catholic church to Harper Woods, a suburb of Detroit. His duties will be taken over June 26 by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins, now assistant pastor of St. Lawrence Catholic church, Utica, Mich.

Harper Woods is a new small town located near Grosse Pointe Woods, and is said to be "one of the fastest growing areas in metropolitan Detroit." Father Collins' new assignment includes the building of both church and school for the 900 Catholic families living in this community. The parish owns seven acres of land, but until building plans are completed, Mass must be said in another building and children must attend schools in other parishes.

Father Thomas Collins, in his first pastorate, steps into a new church, built at a cost of $100,000, and completed in the fall of 1951. It replaced the old church of the same name on East Chicago blvd., built in 1913 and outgrown by the congregation. The site on which the new church is built is large enough to accommodate the building of a school and rectory.

Father Michael Collins has been active in civic affairs in his six years residence in Tecumseh, coming here June 27, 1947, from St. Alexis Mission, Willow Run. He is a member of the Exchange club.

Members of the parish will hold a potluck dinner at the American Legion home Sunday, 1 p.m. This will be followed by open house from 2 to 4 p.m. for all friends and acquaintances of Father Collins.

F. James McDowell, superintendent of schools, will present diplomas during the annual ceremony at Strand theater.

Tonight's complete program, which starts at 8 p. m., includes the following commencement exercises.

No Tie Between Schools, City

Tecumseh School District will remain unchanged regardless of whether the village becomes a city, Supt. James McDowell explained.

Tecumseh, District No. 7 boundaries are beyond the present village or proposed city limits and therefore school taxes will remain the same throughout the area.

The problem of transportation of pupils from the area not now within the village limits, should Tecumseh become a city, has been kicked around with varying degrees of accuracy.

At the annual meeting last year the district voted to pay transportation costs by bus or private car for all pupils living in the district and more than one mile from the school which they attend.

The district will necessarily continue to do this.

Specifically, Tecumseh Acres children will be transported as this year and service should be somewhat improved since the Board has purchased an additional bus.

The cost of transportation for these pupils who live more than one mile from school is reimbursed to the local Board of Education by the state department of Public Instruction. This cost will continue to be reimbursed even though Tecumseh becomes a city. No part of the village tax money will be used for such transportation, and no additional tax money must be raised by the local school district for that purpose, Mr. McDowell explained.

"The incorporation of Tecumseh village into a city form of government does not effect the public schools in any way financially," the superintendent concluded.

CHARTER COMMISSION CANDIDATES NOW 23

Four additional names have been added to the original 19 who filed for charter commission posts to make the grand total facing voters in the June 29th election now 23.

The new candidates are:

- Stanley Rentschler
- Robert Peck
- Robert Williamson
- F. E. Hensen

Voters will select nine of the total 23 to act as a charter board if incorporation is approved at the polls. The commission is a temporary organization which is dissolved when a satisfactory type of city government is formed.

During the interim, village government continues.

DR. ARTHUR H. BROWN'S OFFICE will be closed June 11, 12 and 13 while moving to new location at 105 W. Pottawatamie St. Open at usual hours June 15.

Motel Is Opened For Business

LOCAL MADE FURNITURE ATTRACTS ATTENTION

This week has seen the Tecumseh Motel on Mill St. south of Brown open for business, though there are still some paving and landscaping operations to be done. It is the first of this modern type of hotel accommodations to be provided in the Tecumseh area.

Attracting much interest, the furniture of the motel is unique. It was made of plywood and formica by Russell Cooper and Wilbert Andrews as a hobby project through the past winter. Several hotel and motel operators have come here from other places to see and attempt to order this furniture, for it is unusually attractive.

Room reservations can be made in advance. The motel office is open until 10 o'clock evenings. There will be no formal opening, but Tecumseh people are invited to see it at any convenient time, A. C. Hamaker, owner, said.

POLICE APPRECIATE COOPERATIVE SPIRIT

Police officers had nothing but words of praise and thanks to Tecumseh motorists for their fine spirit of cooperation in discontinuing further double parking downtown.

"With the fifth man on the force," Chief George Kilbourn explained, "we can check the parking meters closer and keep traffic moving in and out of the shopping area."

An end to double parking on Chicago blvd., which is a state trunkline, was demanded by the state highway commission and locally enforced by the police department.

SWIMMING PROGRAM BEGINS JUNE 22

A complete announcement of the swimming program which is part of the summer recreational project will appear in next week's Herald, with time schedules for enrollment. The program will begin Monday, June 22, and will continue to July 31 inclusive.

Many Expected At "Alumni" Friday

Memories of yesteryear will be recalled when alumni of Tecumseh high school meet for their annual reunion at the American Legion Home Friday evening. Plans call for a reception at 6:30 p. m. followed by dinner at 7 p. m. The Rev. Charles Marsh, pastor of a Baptist church in Detroit and graduate of Tecumseh high, will give the invocation.

Following the banquet, a brief business meeting will be held to elect officers for the coming year. The Rev. Alvin C. Brazee will conduct a memorial tribute to deceased alumni. A pantomine act by Mrs. James Barton and Mrs. Charles Stephenson and pictures of Tecumseh 100 years ago shown by James C. Beardsley are also included on the program. Dancing to the music of Vern Olson's orchestra will conclude the evening.

The class of 1928 is planning a reunion to be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R.G.B. Marsh from 4 p. m. to 6:30 Friday. Twenty-one members and husbands or wives of this class of 34, celebrating their 25th anniversary, have responded to invitations and will be present for the reunion as well as the banquet.

Tickets for the dinner-dance may be purchased at the Wright Drug store, Eggleston's Jewelry, or The Herald office. Vern Manwaring is president of the Alumni association; Charles Manley is in charge of tickets, and Gibbs Barber is program chairman.

VARIETY OF SIRENS SHATTER MORNING AIR

Sirens of four varieties shattered the early morning air Wednesday after two cars crashed on M-52 a mile and a-half north of Tecumseh.

Answering the call were Tecumseh police, fire department, sheriff's office and Collins ambulance. The state police would also have been on the scene but they have been called to the scene of the Flint disaster.

The accident occured at 7:15 a.m. at the corner of Clinton and Kaiser roads when a car driven by Thomas Applegate, Ann Arbor, crashed into the turning vehicle of Sherman Holman, Alabama.

Both men were taken to the hospital but neither reported in serious condition. The Applegate car, a '52 Olds, caught fire.

BUTLER MOTOR JOINS IN FORD ANNIVERSARY

"Make sure you save Monday night for the greatest show ever seen on the TV screen," C. O. "Chuck" Butler, of Butler Motor Sales said this week in reminding local people of Ford's 50th Anniversary two-hour television show.

Ford dealers all over the nation are participating in the anniversary celebration. Tuesday is the actual birth-date.

Mr. Butler said that nine of the nation's top magazines have carried stories of the "American Road" Ford anniversary theme in recent issues. Many pre-show dedications to Ford are planned over the weekend by such TV programs as Mr. Peepers, Fred Waring, Ed Sullivan and Voice of Firestone.

Pool Chatter

Today is the day!

If your Herald arrives after 9 o'clock this morning you probably will miss the parade.

But that's the way this swimming pool project is progressing, so fast we can't keep up with the momentum. Overnight plans become next-day realities.

At 8:45 a.m. today an impromptu parade of interested citizens and the high school bands meet at Butler Motors for a parade through Tecumseh's business district to the recreation field, for official groundbreaking ceremonies. After a prayer by Rev. Bashore, chairman of the day Jim McDowell will get things underway with a few introductory remarks. Faye Whelan, Jens Touborg and Ernie Campbell will give brief remarks before Hugh Andrews turns the first spade of sod for the Memorial Pool.

There'll be a closing prayer by Father Collins and the band will conclude with "God Bless America."

The pool will definitely be located at the recreation center, north of the football field. It will accommodate 220 persons swimming at one time.

There will be no change in the football field, track, etc. The pool fits nicely into the layout. In fact it completes it.

Plans call for bleachers to be installed at one side of the pool. Parents and onlookers will be admitted free.

American Red Cross statistics show that outdoor pools attract many, many times the number of swimmers as indoor pools.

Outdoor swimming in the summer time fits nicely into the year-around athletic program. Football, basketball, track, baseball and swimming — the American cycle of sports.

Contributions, large and small, continue to pour into the Chamber of Commerce office, unofficial fund headquarters. Your letter to the Joyce Andrews Memorial Fund, Tecumseh, Mich., will be channeled to the Chamber of Commerce without delay.

Canisters for small contributors will soon be up in stores and other public places.

A bicycle raffle is planned in the near future.

Blueprints of the pool are on display at United Savings Bank windows.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

Lenawee county's oldest newspaper, established 1850.
Published By Estate Of Earl L. Wickwire.
Commercial Job Printing * Engraving * Member M.P.A.

Published every Thursday morning. Offices at 127 West Chicago Boulevard, Tecumseh, Michigan. Telephone 476. Entered at the Post Office at Tecumseh, Michigan, as second class matter. Subscription rates, payable in advance: $2.50 a year in Lenawee county: $3.50 a year outside of Lenawee county. Advertising rates upon request.

MATTER OF NEWS, NOT SIDES — After The Herald published a front page article last week reporting that a voluntary group of Tecumseh Acres citizens asked for more definite answers to their questions, one friend of the paper sharply protested with "Which side are you on anyway?"

Printing that story was not a matter of sides, it was a simple matter of newspaper duty.

For the record, The Herald overwhelmingly favors incorporation of Tecumseh with the proposed boundaries. The Herald thus favors a yes vote in the June 29 election. The Herald has a number of reasons for this stand. They might be summed up in the fact that incorporation is a step in the right direction.

But off the record, The Herald is a newspaper, a weekly newspaper, a smalltown weekly newspaper, a smalltown weekly newspaper with a backbone, with the courage to get next to the people and "cover" the little things that make each and every Tecumsehian a private citizen. Small town weeklies don't go in for stories on the street fights of Bagdad or the shifting winds of the Azores. We, like others in the same boat, try to keep our news and our views right at home and print the kind of reading matter that keeps Tecumseh buzzing. Occasionally this is contrary to the hopes of one side or another which can only see the slanted shafts of light that beam through their personal windows of interest. Sometimes this treads heavily on the toes of advertisers on whose revenue newspapers depend.

But somehow, the newspaper's creed to "print all the news that's fit to print" has survived many a promise to "take our advertising somewhere else, if . . . . ."

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED! — Over the years, American retailing has made enormous advances in its services to the consumer — there is simply no comparison between the typical retail store of today and that of the past. And its employment policies have shown comparable progress.

An amusing and significant example is found in a set of rules posted in an Illinois store back in 1880. These included the following: "Store must be open from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. the year 'round. Store must be swept; counters, shelves and showcases dusted; lamps trimmed, filled and chimneys cleaned; doors and windows opened; a pail of water and a bucket of coal brought in before breakfast. The employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish cigars, being shaved at the barber's, going to dances and other places of amusement, will assuredly pay not less than $5 a year to the church and must attend Sunday School regularly. Men employees are given one evening a week for courting. After 14 hours in the store the leisure hours should be spent for the most part in reading."

That was the situation 73 years ago. In retailing, as in other enterprise, the lot of American workers has improved to an almost unbelievable extent.

Is That So !

By Miss Clara Waldron

Do the words commencement exercises bring you visions of palm leaf fans and a sensation of prickly heat? With air conditioning and programs geared to brevity, the relatives of the modern, sweet young graduate undergo a minimum of suffering.

But not so those generations when graduating was a serious matter and not to be passed over lightly and in comfort. Then on a sweltering June evening, dressed in the manner deemed necessary for Victorian dignity and decorum, they listened to desperately earnest young orators declaiming on such topics as, "The Influences of Virgil," "Noble Discontent" or "The Evolution of Astronomy," the length of the program being limited only by the number of graduates and usually supplemented by "remarks" from members of the school board or other dignitaries.

For the first ten years of its existence, Tecumseh high school, due in part to the effects of the Civil War, had no formal graduation. When a pupil had absorbed as much knowledge as he wished or could afford, he "quit school and went to work" or in a few cases took entrance examinations for college. In 1866, there was a class of eight, two of them girls, or young ladies as they were then. Numbers then varied from three to eleven until 1889, when fourteen graduated. The climax was reached however, in 1890, when there were 26 in the class and everyone of them delivered an oration, poem or essay.

Until 1878, graduation was held in Merchants Hall, then the town auditorium, on the third floor of the Union Hall, now the Sage building. Then the opening of the opera house provided a setting for more elaborate ceremonies, and slightly more comfortable seating arrangements. The stage was decorated by the junior class as beautifully as their energy and ingenuity made possible, gowns were as elaborate as parental purses and good sense dictated, and the audience jammed the farthest corner of the gallery. Junior girls as ushers, fluttered up and down the aisles with baskets and bouquets of flowers to be handed over the footlights to those who had just completed their ordeal of words, or to place beribboned parcels on the row of tables set up in the orchestra pit to receive gifts from admiring friends and relatives. This exhibition of bad taste was abandoned about the turn of the century probably because of the heart burnings occasioned by empty tables.

The audience was furnished some respite by musical numbers and by an annually attempted prank on the part of the juniors who usually sought payment for their labors by lowering their class colors or a derisive placard from the scenery loft at some especially impressive moment. But a class who sat in a quaking half-circle under such a motto as "Honors Wait at Labor's Gate" and delivered orations on subjects like "Corruption in the Professions" or "Culture, the Result of Labor" took their graduation seriously.

Olive Duckworth Weds D. F. Smith

Before an altar banked with palms and pink galdioli, Miss Olive I. Duckworth and Donald F. Smith exchanged marriage vows Saturday in the Methodist church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ronald A. Brunger at 3 p. m. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Duckworth of 216 S. Oneida St. and Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Smith of Deerfield.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length gown of Chantilly lace, nylon net and tulle over bridal satin, fashioned with a mandarin collar, long sleeves of tulle with a cuff of lace. Panels of scalloped lace marked the front of the gown from neckline to bottom of the full skirt. Her fingertip veil of imported silk fell from a bonnet of shirred illusion and pearls, and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, streamers and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dorothy Crawford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore an orchid ballerina length gown of taffeta covered with net, with matching stole and full skirt. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harry Stanifer and Miss Louise Duckworth. sisters of the bride, gowned in pink and yellow respectively, fashioned somewhat like the matron of honor's. All three attendants wore headpieces of summer flowers. Little Karen Lee Miller acted as flower girl, and wore an aqua floor length gown of tulle over taffeta with yellow daisy headband, and carried a basket of pink rose petals and yellow and white daisies. Randy Keith Work, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Frederick Smith of Deerfield, brother of the groom, attended as best man and ushers were Arthur Crawford and Jerry Wyble of Lansing.

Mrs. Herbert Dillon accompanied Miss Diane Woodward as she sang "O Promise Me", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Dillon also played the traditional wedding march and nuptial music.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Duckworth chose a navy blue crepe dress with white and blue accessories and a corsage of red roses and white carnations. Mrs. Smith wore black and white nylon with white accessories and a corsage of red roses and white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 175 friends and relatives was held in the church parlors. A three-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink rose buds and topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the bride's table.

After their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New York City the couple will reside on North Union street. Mrs. Smith wore for traveling a navy blue dress with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Washington Township high school, Pennsylvania and is employed at Porter's Sand and Gravel Co. as secretary. Mr. Smith graduated from Deerfield high school and is employed by the Revco Corporation, Deerfield.

Clara Rebottaro Wed Saturday

An impressive double-ring ceremony united in marriage Clara Elizabeth Rebottaro and Thomas Richard Rice at St. Elizabeth's Catholic church Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rebottaro of Centennial Road, and Mr. Rice is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Rice of Jackson, Ohio.

Hampers and vases of white snapdragons and carnations decorated the altar. Mrs. Richard Jennings, organist, accompanied F. C. Dickinson as soloist. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Michael G. Collins.

Wearing a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, with off-shoulder bodice, illusion yoke and long sleeves, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. The nylon lace skirt over ruffles of nylon tulle was embroidered in irridescent sequins and extended into a long train. A double fingertip veil and cap had matching jeweled lace and she carried a basket bouquet of eucharist lilies, stephanotis and verigated ivy.

Miss Rena Rebottaro, sister of the bride was maid of honor and wore a floor length dress of yellow taffeta and tulle, featuring a strapless bodice and matching jacket of taffeta and a skirt of tiers of nylon net. She carried a bouquet of orchid carnations with yellow velvet leaves and tufts of maline. The four bridesmaids, Mrs. Jean Rhoades of Clinton, Mrs. Lamaar Cheever of Tecumseh and the Misses Patricia Mens of Petersburg and Wilma Reau of Britton wore orchid gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. They carried yellow carnations with orchid velvet leaves. Diane Lamley, as flower girl, was in yellow ruffled nylon net, floor length, and carried a basket of ruffled maline filled with yellow daisies and orchid carnations.

Attending his brother as best man was James Rice of Jackson. Ohio, and ushers were Harold Easton, Frederick Dickinson, Louis Rebottaro and Lamarr Cheever. Jimmy Rice, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Dinner was served after the ceremony in the Legion Memorial Home to 250 guests. A reception for 500 guests was held in the evening at the same place.

After a two weeks' trip through the southern states, Mr. and Mrs. Rice will make their home for the present in Adrian.

Mrs. Rice is a graduate of Macon high school and is employed in the employment office of the Tecumseh Products Co. The groom graduated from Ironton, Ohio high school, attended the University of Michigan and Toledo University and is an engineer at the Tecumseh Products Co.

er will not pay a total of more taxes than he now pays.

We feel sure those who will be responsible for assessing here, are and will be as reasonable as they are in any other community. After many years of honest study it is our considered opinion that this area could be more efficiently and democratically governed by an up-to-date charter.

"The committee is eager to meet with any group wishing to discuss this matter.

"A vote YES for incorporation will assure everyone a happier future in Tecumseh.

"Next week we will discuss the advantages of incorporation to those living within the present village limits, also the overall advantages to us all," Rev. Bashore concluded.

Hospital Notes

Three senior student nurses from the University of Michigan, Mrs. Beth Spring, Miss Shirley Miller and Miss Patricia Martz, who have been helping and learning for the past four weeks left for their own hospital last week. The school of nursing of Wayne University sent the group of ten, also senior students who appeared in the corridors on Monday.

Like all the previous groups, these girls are of great assistance in the difficult task of caring for the hospital's many patients but they are here also to learn by experience how a small institution is conducted. To help them in their classwork, they are acompanied by an instructor from Wayne, Miss Lillie Mae McPhetridge, who will spend part of her time here during their four weeks of "rural hospital" training.

The student nurses are Mrs. Myrna Crittenden and the Misses Joyce McLister, June King, Mary Jane Nichols, Lois Healy, Barbara Jacobi, Norma Calkins, Lois Nutten, Joan Green and Yvonne Wittenberg.

There will be another student assistant to the hospital staff for the next six weeks. Richard Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Watkins of Tecumseh has just completed his junior year of premedic training at the University of Michigan and Monday became an externe at Herrick Memorial. In case some reader may be as ignorant as the reporter, it might be explained that an externe is completed his college course in a budding M.D. who has not yet contrast to an intern who has done so.

100 ATTEND BENEFIT TEA

The Country Club was the scene of a very pleasant event Saturday afternoon when the Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital held its annual benefit tea. In spite of bad weather more than one hundred members and guests were served tea by Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and Miss Gertrude Spaulding from the beautifully appointed tea table covered by a shell pink cloth and decorated with an arrangement of pink roses and sweet peas and by pink tapers in silver candelabra. Many beautiful baskets of flowers which were placed about the room were later taken to the hospital or to Auxiliary members who were ill.

The program began with two vocal numbers by Carol and Roger Finnegan, which were followed by two skits in pantomine, "Glow Worm" and "Yes We Have No Bananas" presented in their usual hilarious fashion by Mrs. James Barton and Mrs. Charles Stevenson. "The Desert Song" and "The Man I Love" were beautifully sung by Miss Marjorie Greenfield of Clinton accompanied by Richard Wegner, and the entertainment ended with an amusing skit "Papa Never Done Nuthin' Much" presented by Mrs. Warren VanOrden, Mrs. Harold Hoisington and Mrs. Elmer Smith, members of Adrian Women's club.

Chairman of this very successful affair was Mrs. R. J. McCoy, assisted by Mrs. Hal Kelso. The table decorationes were in charge of Mrs. R. H. Moore and Mrs. Mae Dillon while Mrs. Paul Eddy and Mrs. William Hanna were the refreshment committee. The entire proceeds of the tea will be contributed to the H. H. Hammel Memorial fund to be used for needed equipment for the new hospital wing.

Grade School News

Kindergarten
Mrs. Heimerdinger

We took a field trip to the Meadowridge Dairy and watched the processing of milk. We were given ice cream cones as treats, both tour and treat were enjoyed by all.

We finished and took our work books home.

We have done original tempera paintings and some are displayed in the room. Next week we will finger paint.

We are excited about our tea and short program that we are giving our mothers tomorrow. The pictures which Mr. Dixon took of us will be sold at this time. The teacher has had a very nice year and she hopes that all of her students have enjoyed their beginning year of school.

Grade One
Miss Warner

We have been learning about money. We can recognize a penny, a nickel, and a dime. We used real money to practice buying things.

In science we are learning about plants and how they are useful to us. We have already talked about flowers and trees and now we are learning about the plants from which we get our food.

Grade Three
Mrs. Colson

We are all happy that it is almost time for vacation and that we are now ready for the fourth grade.

We have enjoyed working together this year and think we have learned many new things.

We hope everyone has a very happy summer. You will be hearing from us again in September.

Grade Five
Miss Hopkins

Sally Vincze brought to school French and German pictures, coins, arm-bands, and official metals of rank which her father had brought back from Europe.

Jim Neitling was absent Tuesday afternoon when he attended his mother's graduation exercises.

Carole Wotring brought back a very interesting report of her trip to the Upper Peninsula.

This morning a committee of girls are taking an inventory of supplementary books in our room.

The fifth grade boys have been doing various types of calisthenics in gym. They come back to the room in a state of enthusiasm over their gym work. The blackboard game of hangman is giving us some much needed drill in spelling. This week we are finishing our textbooks in social studies. Now we plan to put in extra time on our health units.

Our lessons in Time Zones came just when we were interested in the British Coronation and the difference in time between London and Tecumseh. We had our last band class yesterday, June 3. Shirley gave us a report on Lima, Peru, the City of Kings. She had brought pictures from the library. Eugene's report was on Uruguay.

Don McDuffie, Mary Lou Allshouse, Sharon Gallant and Mase Southerland have been guests in our room recently.

Lee Britton has been learning to run the projector so that he can help us on that next year.

Georgia told us all about her visit to Thomas Edison's birthplace.

Several of us brought to our room pictures of scenes from the Coronation.

We are enjoying together stories of the adventures of "Penrod and Sam."

All the fifth grade girls were delightfully entertained at a luncheon last Tuesday, June 2, at Mrs. Cameron's on North Democratic street. Many of the girls went wading, carrying a sandwich in one hand and cool ade in the other. They made several trips for more. We all wished that we could forget about school for the rest of the day.

All those who have school books at home plan to return them by June 5 so that the records for our room will be complete.

Grade Six
Mr. Kaiser

Robert LeBarron has moved to his uncle's farm to spend the summer. Kathleen Shirley expects to move to California. Sharon Kramer will be moving to Detroit.

Larry Yoakum will spend the summer in London, Ohio. James Mangrum will be on a farm near Osseo. Many of the other children will be traveling through the United States and Canada.

FFA Chapter Ends Busy Year Of Practical 'Ag'

(Tecumseh high Agricultural class instructor Paul Burns reviews some of the varied activities of his FFA group this year in the following article)

The FFA has just completed another successful year of "Learning by doing."

This year the agricultural classes of the Tecumseh high school raised and dressed 450 broilers. LeRoy Betzoldt raised the first batch of 150 White Rock cockerels and had a mortality of 5 per cent. The second batch, also White Rocks, were raised by John Wilt who had a loss of 2 per cent. Charles Hendershot had a mortality of 6 per cent with the third batch, which were New Hampshire Reds. Edwin Lewis will .ve our next batch of chicks which will be started within two weeks, and carried through the summer months.

When it came time to dress the first batch of broilers the boys used Herman Dick & Son's dressing plant. The second batch was dressed in the school shop, and the third batch was too; but this time with the help of a picking machine made by the farm shop class. The next batch will probably be dressed in the new laboratory of the agriculture room which is now in the process of being built as a part of the addition to the high school.

Our FFA members attended the district contests held at Britton at which eight schools competed. Merlyn Wagner received first place for his speech on cooperatives, then went on to receive a "Gold" award at the regional and state contests. Our parliamentary procedure team received a third place "Bronze" award.

Our pig chain which was started by the Tecumseh Rotary Club two years ago changed hands from Melvin Schafer to Edward DeLisle. The sow farrowed eight pigs three weeks ago. One was born dead. The sow still has the remaining seven pigs. One of these pigs will be given to Bruce Wright so that he may get a start in the registered Duroc hog business. A second pig, a barrow, will be raised by Bill Every for the chapter. The proceeds to be used to buy a sow pig of a different breed for the boys.

With the help of the agriculture advisory council and the board of education the boys are now receiving more practical experience in raising crops. The boys were busy this spring putting in 15 acres of crops which include: 10 acres of oats seeded to clover and alfalfa, 3 acres of corn and 2 acres of soybeans. These plots are on experiment by the boys and are located north of the high school and on Adrian street. The boys have a schedule for summer work on these crops to keep them cultivated and to get them harvested. Complete records are kept by each student so that he will be well informed of the activities carried on and the yields obtained.

In addition to the group projects each student has a project of his own at home. This is to help the boy become established in farming. A summary of this year's projects include: 3 acres soybeans, 79 acres field corn, 14 acres oats, 18 acres wheat, 1 acre tomatoes, 2 acres of gardens, 748 poultry, 55 hogs, 5 sheep, 2 steers, 4 dairy animals, 1 field alfalfa, and 1 horse breeding project. There are thirty-seven students enrolled in the agriculture classes at the present time.

During the summer months the boys meet for regular meetings at the high school and they also belong to the city softball league.

The officers of the club will have a three day training period during the month of August at some FFA Leadership training camp.

The officers for the coming year are: President, Philip Young; Vice-President, John Cadmus; Secretary, Charles Hendershot; Treasurer, John Wilt; Reporter, Arnold Withrow; and Sentinel, Harry Withrow. Paul Burns is the agriculture teacher and FFA advisor.
